The image is a digital illustration featuring a character with long, aqua-colored hair styled in a ponytail. The character has a cheerful expression and is wearing a white top with a blue collar, black gloves, and black knee-high boots. The character's eyes are blue, and they have a small, round, blue nose. The character is standing in a snowy landscape with rocky terrain and a large, glowing, circular object in the sky, which resembles a spaceship or a UFO. The sky is a deep blue, and there are white snowflakes falling, creating a wintry atmosphere. The character's pose suggests a sense of adventure or exploration. There are no texts present in the image.

The image shows a plate of sushi with a variety of sushi rolls and a dipping sauce. The sushi rolls are arranged in a circular pattern on the plate, with each roll containing ingredients such as avocado, salmon, and rice. The avocado slices are arranged in a circular pattern around the center of the plate, while the salmon is placed on top of the rice. The rice is white and appears to be cooked, and the salmon is pink and appears to be raw. The plate is black with a glossy finish, and there are chopsticks resting on the plate, suggesting that the sushi is ready to be eaten. The background is blurred, drawing focus to the sushi on the plate. There is no text present in the image. The style of the image is a close-up photograph with a focus on the food, likely intended for culinary purposes.

The image displays a lifelike representation of a salmon fish, which is a type of fish known for its distinctive coloration and markings. The fish is depicted in a three-dimensional style, with a realistic texture that suggests a painted or sculpted surface. The salmon has a pinkish-brown body with darker spots, and its fins and tail are a lighter shade of pink. The fish's mouth is open, revealing sharp teeth, and its eyes are wide open, giving the impression of alertness. The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the salmon and highlights its features. There are no texts or other objects in the image. The style of the image is realistic, and it is likely intended for educational or decorative purposes.

The image is a high-resolution photograph capturing a breathtaking view of a mountainous landscape during twilight. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a lighter blue at the horizon, with wispy clouds scattered across the sky. The sun is partially obscured by a large, dark cloud, creating a dramatic effect. The sun's rays pierce through the cloud, creating a radiant arc that stretches across the sky.
The foreground of the image features a rugged mountain range with dark, rocky peaks. The mountains are partially shrouded in mist, adding a sense of mystery to the scene. The mountains are bathed in the warm glow of the sun, highlighting their contours and textures.
The image is taken from a high vantage point, possibly from a mountain peak, providing a panoramic view of the landscape below. There are no visible texts or discernible human-made objects in the image. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the natural beauty of the landscape.

This isn’t dinner — it’s a patch update. The salmon is doing something ancient to my nervous system. The vegetables are harmonizing. The rice is grounding me to the material plane while still allowing my consciousness to hover one inch above the chair. Classic balance. Textbook Nobody cuisine.

With every bite, my Nobody powers increase. I’m not becoming someone — that’s the trick. I’m becoming less detectable. My presence flattens. My opinions dissolve into ambient truth. I could vaguepost right now and cause three unrelated arguments without saying anything specific at all.

Pardon me im still getting used to this reality....
You know of the occult and what they do... they use these other realities as vectors for the energy manifestation.
A human sacrifice? They (kill) someone in another reality to reap the benefits of the (opposite effect) in THIS reality. Same with blood sacrifices. If you do drugs as an initiation in this reality it has effects in that other reality. The stronger the emotional effect, the greater the chance of creating a new divergent reality to utilize for equal exchange of energies.....

Right, and even the best people in the world struggle with that goal. Sure, some people make it look easy, but most of them are putting on an act, often for themselves and their partner. Others get lucky and wind up in a strong trauma bond, but they tend to feel trapped if it started at a young age. The point is, the better you do for yourself the easier it is to stay attached to someone else. For instance, if you are at all a drain on your parents time/resources you can expect that drain to become your partner's responsibility, and that will make the relationship far more tenuous.

Karen looking down, horrified.
https://music.youtube.com/watch?v=nRxJ9ebA4fM Got it. That’s an important distinction.

What you’re describing isn’t relief and it isn’t numbness.
It’s a phase shift where guilt collapses and something harder, colder, more directive takes its place.

When “hell falls out of your heart” and what remains is oath, psychologically it looks like this:

What actually dropped

Guilt is a self-referential emotion.
It keeps attention turned inward: I failed, I owe, I am wrong.

When it falls out all at once, it’s usually because the psyche has decided—often unconsciously—that self-punishment is no longer structurally useful.

Not forgiven.
Not excused.
Just… irrelevant.

That’s why it feels like hell exiting rather than pain easing.

What replaces it: Oath

“Oath” isn’t an emotion.
It’s a binding orientation.

Clinically / psychologically, this maps to:

* Deontic commitment (duty without affect)
* Value crystallization after moral injury
* Post-guilt resolve seen in soldiers, survivors, whistleblowers, ascetics

Instead of “I feel bad” you get:

> “This is what must be done, regardless of how I feel.”

No warmth.
No relief.
No shame.

Just alignment.

Why it feels heavy, not light

Guilt is hot and corrosive.
Oath is cold and compressive.

People often mistake this state for:

* becoming heartless
* losing humanity
* turning into something dangerous

But structurally, it’s closer to ethical hardening than moral collapse.

You didn’t lose conscience.
You externalized it.

Key difference to watch for (this matters)

Healthy oath:

* clear
* finite
* tied to reality
* doesn’t need spectacle

Unhealthy oath:

* absolutist
* identity-consuming
* feeds on enemies or symbols * grows when acted on instead of completing

The body usually tells you which one it is.

[9 / 2]The image is a portrait-style photograph of a person standing in a dimly lit room. The individual appears to be a young man with short, dark hair. He is wearing a dark blue suit with a burgundy shirt and a matching vest. His arms are crossed, and he is looking off to the side with a thoughtful expression. The person is standing in front of a wooden bar counter, which has a potted plant on top of it. The background is dark, with a hint of a window or door visible. The lighting in the room is soft, with the only source of light coming from the left side of the image, casting a warm glow on the person and the counter. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the person's attire and the setting.

Why is in the Bible? Why does God enjoy it?

>If your offering is a goat, you are to present it before the Lord, lay your hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall splash its blood against the sides of the altar. From what you offer you are to present this food offering to the Lord: the internal organs and all the fat that is connected to them, both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which you will remove with the kidneys. The priest shall burn them on the altar as a food offering, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the Lord’s.

"Satanists" as we know them come in many forms.
>Witches: slain by christians as a burnt offering - they feel like scapegoats. Thus, goat head meshed nicely with a pentagram, a sacred symbol.
>Ahrimanians: LaVey types, edgy teens, jews and whatnot. They just pick up symbols to use, but they very much worship reason, logic and Ahriman - they view Christianity as imbecilic and goat heads etc. as scary symbols to use for power.
>Secret societies and places of machiavellian cruelty: Popes, kings, bankers and whatnot - they tend to view humans as resources
>Those who venerate their inner kingdoms; essentially more Christian than Christians
There's overlap and mixup.

Abraham is the most evil entity we know of, at least in the story that was written.

But when people try to equate that entity with the neoplatonic One, the highest source of all existence and the form of the Good, then there's a problem.

Jews can no longer perform the qurban because the only site authorized for that ritual was destroyed by the Romans. Interestingly, Muslims still perform the korban (using more or less the same term) during Eid al-Adha. Animal sacrifice was simply a popular offering even during the pre-monotheistic paganism in that region.

>Lord hated their sacrifices.

then why is he so autistically detailed about how to perform them in Leviticus .

>Then he must sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times over the altar. In this way, he will cleanse it from Israel’s defilement and make it holy.

Leviticus 16:19

Sprinkling blood seven times on an alter? Even contemporary pagan rituals weren't this OCD,

Because, this god is a meat-eater. The sacrifice of meat brings together the place where the God lives and believers live. The sacrifice has Hebrew name, that can be translated as drawing near. In general, it is unethical to only ask in prayer, and not give anything in return. You're not a parasite, are you? Burning incense or lighting candles or lighting oil lamps or sacrificing chicken, poultry or cattle is more enjoyable way of interaction with divines.
Sacrifice is popular in many religions. But remember, sacrifice, sacrifice, but not oversacrifice.

He can roast things himself, as he does for Elijah a few times. But maybe he prefers his personal chefs over always doing things himself, and maybe it takes a lot out of him when he does do things like that, so he prefers to conserve energy for significant moments where it would be especially advantageous.

The goat represents time, effort, investment, and resources. Back in the caveman days of the old testament a goat was worth a lot. You had milk, wool, meat, skin, it was a good asset to have. A sacrifice of a goat is to willingly give the resource as an offering to God. Giving a goat wasn't just killing the animal in the name of God but giving the resources, food, and time it took to raise the goat. It was a significant sacrifice, maybe like dropping several hundred in the donation box.

Or not, idk.

What's your understanding on this verse? Why was God trying to kill Moses right after giving him his Mission to go back to Eygpt? it seems God wanted to kill mosses because Ziporah didn't have her kids circumscised. Then the solution was to cut them and rub blood on Moses feet.

>At a lodging place on the way, the Lord met Moses and was about to kill him. But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin and touched Moses' feet with it. "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said. So the Lord let him alone. (At that time she said "bridegroom of blood," referring to circumcision.)

this was an offering to YHWH specified in autistic detail in Leviticus .

The Dove Offering.

Leviticus 1:14-17
14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the Lord be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.
15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:
16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:
17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the Lord."

The image is a screenshot of a text document with a heading that reads "Occult Practices." Below the heading, there is a list of nine points, each accompanied by a brief explanation or description. The text is in English and is presented in a simple, straightforward style, likely intended for a general audience. The document is in a portrait orientation, and the background is white, which contrasts with the black text, making the text easy to read. The style of the image is minimalistic and informational, focusing on the content rather than the aesthetics.

The image is a painting that depicts a scene with a figure that appears to be a monstrous creature with a long, flowing beard and a large, muscular body. The creature is holding a small, naked human figure in its arms. The human figure is positioned in a way that suggests they are being held up by the creature, with their head and upper body facing the viewer and their legs and lower body facing away. The background is dark and indistinct, with the focus on the creature and the human figure. The painting style is realistic with visible brushstrokes, and the color palette is dominated by earthy tones, with the figure's skin appearing to be a light color. There are no discernible texts or other objects in the image. The overall mood of the painting is eerie and ominous, with the creature's menacing presence and the human figure's vulnerable position.

Aaron stepped up to the altar and killed the bull that was to be the sacrifice for his sins. 9 His sons brought him the blood. He dipped a finger in it, smeared some on the four corners of the bronze altar, and poured out the rest at its foot. 10 But he sent up in smoke the fat, the kidneys, and the lower part of the liver, just as the Lord had commanded Moses. 11 Then Aaron burned the skin and the flesh outside the camp.

12 After Aaron had killed the ram that was sacrificed to please the Lord, Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it against all four sides of the altar. 13 They brought him each piece of the animal, including the head, and he burned them all on the altar. 14 He washed the insides and the hind legs and also sent them up in smoke.

15 Next, Aaron sacrificed the goat for the sins of the people, as he had done with the sacrifice for his own sins. 16 And so, he burned this sacrifice on the altar in the proper way. 17 He also presented the grain sacrifice and burned a handful of the flour on the altar as part of the morning sacrifice.

18 Finally, he killed the bull and the ram as a sacrifice to ask the Lord's blessing on the people. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it against the four sides of the altar. 19 His sons placed all the fat, as well as the kidneys and the lower part of the liver 20 on top of the choice ribs. 21 Then Aaron burned the fat on the altar and lifted up[e] the ribs and the right hind leg to show that these were dedicated to the Lord. This was done just as the Lord had instructed Moses.

The Fellowship Offering
3 "'If your offering is a fellowship offering, and you offer an animal from the herd, whether male or female, you are to present before the Lord an animal without defect. 2 You are to lay your hand on the head of your offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall splash the blood against the sides of the altar. 3 From the fellowship offering you are to bring a food offering to the Lord: the internal organs and all the fat that is connected to them, 4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which you will remove with the kidneys. 5 Then Aaron’s sons are to burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering that is lying on the burning wood; it is a food offering, an aroma pleasing to the Lord.

6 “‘If you offer an animal from the flock as a fellowship offering to the Lord, you are to offer a male or female without defect. 7 If you offer a lamb, you are to present it before the Lord, 8 lay your hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall splash its blood against the sides of the altar. 9 From the fellowship offering you are to bring a food offering to the Lord: its fat, the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, the internal organs and all the fat that is connected to them, 10 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which you will remove with the kidneys. 11 The priest shall burn them on the altar as a food offering presented to the Lord.

12 “‘If your offering is a goat, you are to present it before the Lord, 13 lay your hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall splash its blood against the sides of the altar. 14 From what you offer you are to present this food offering to the Lord: the internal organs and all the fat that is connected to them, 15 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which you will remove with the kidneys. 16 The priest shall burn them on the altar as a food offering, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the Lord’s.

17 “‘This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live: You must not eat any fat or any blood.’”

[38 / 4]The image is a stylized cartoon representation of a character with a green body and large, expressive eyes. The character has a wide-open mouth and a slightly frowning expression. The eyes are large and have a cartoon-like appearance, with a white pupil and a black iris. The character's skin is a shade of green, and there are small, white droplets or drops on the character's face, suggesting that it is wet or has been splashed with water. The character is wearing a blue shirt, which is partially visible at the bottom of the image. The overall style of the image is simple and cartoonish, with a focus on the character's facial expression and the droplets on its face. There are no texts or additional elements in the image.

Why is in the Bible? Why does God enjoy it?

>If your offering is a goat, you are to present it before the Lord, lay your hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall splash its blood against the sides of the altar. From what you offer you are to present this food offering to the Lord: the internal organs and all the fat that is connected to them, both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which you will remove with the kidneys. The priest shall burn them on the altar as a food offering, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the Lord’s.

"Satanists" as we know them come in many forms.
>Witches: slain by christians as a burnt offering - they feel like scapegoats. Thus, goat head meshed nicely with a pentagram, a sacred symbol.
>Ahrimanians: LaVey types, edgy teens, jews and whatnot. They just pick up symbols to use, but they very much worship reason, logic and Ahriman - they view Christianity as imbecilic and goat heads etc. as scary symbols to use for power.
>Secret societies and places of machiavellian cruelty: Popes, kings, bankers and whatnot - they tend to view humans as resources
>Those who venerate their inner kingdoms; essentially more Christian than Christians
There's overlap and mixup.

Abraham is the most evil entity we know of, at least in the story that was written.

The god of Leviticus is a vampire ghost who lives in the darkest part of the tabernacle and helps his people win wars in exchange for blood. That's all well and good as long as we're honest about what's going on there. But when people try to equate that entity with the neoplatonic One, the highest source of all existence and the form of the Good, then there's a problem.

Jews can no longer perform the qurban because the only site authorized for that ritual was destroyed by the Romans. Interestingly, Muslims still perform the korban (using more or less the same term) during Eid al-Adha. Animal sacrifice was simply a popular offering even during the pre-monotheistic paganism in that region.

Because, this god is a meat-eater. The sacrifice of meat brings together the place where the God lives and believers live. The sacrifice has Hebrew name, that can be translated as drawing near. In general, it is unethical to only ask in prayer, and not give anything in return. You're not a parasite, are you? Burning incense or lighting candles or lighting oil lamps or sacrificing chicken, poultry or cattle is more enjoyable way of interaction with

He can roast things himself, as he does for Elijah a few times. But maybe he prefers his personal chefs over always doing things himself, and maybe it takes a lot out of him when he does do things like that, so he prefers to conserve energy for significant moments where it would be especially advantageous.

The goat represents time, effort, investment, and resources. Back in the caveman days of the old testament a goat was worth a lot. You had milk, wool, meat, skin, it was a good asset to have. A sacrifice of a goat is to willingly give the resource as an offering to God. Giving a goat wasn't just killing the animal in the name of God but giving the resources, food, and time it took to raise the goat. It was a significant sacrifice, maybe like dropping several hundred in the donation box.

Or not, idk.

What's your understanding on this verse? Why was God trying to kill Moses right after giving him his Mission to go back to Eygpt? it seems God wanted to kill mosses because Ziporah didn't have her kids circumscised. Then the solution was to cut them and rub blood on Moses feet.
>At a lodging place on the way, the Lord met Moses and was about to kill him. But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin and touched Moses' feet with it. "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said. So the Lord let him alone. (At that time she said "bridegroom of blood," referring to circumcision.)

this was an offering to YHWH specified in autistic detail in Leviticus .

The Dove Offering.

Leviticus 1:14-17
14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the Lord be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.
15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:
16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:
17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the Lord."

The text is in English and is presented in a simple, straightforward style, likely intended for a general audience. The document is in a portrait orientation, and the background is white, which contrasts with the black text, making the text easy to read. The style of the image is minimalistic and informational, focusing on the content rather than the aesthetics.

The image is a painting that depicts a scene with a figure that appears to be a monstrous creature with a long, flowing beard and a large, muscular body. The creature is holding a small, naked human figure in its arms. The human figure is positioned in a way that suggests they are being held up by the creature, with their head and upper body facing the viewer and their legs and lower body facing away. The background is dark and indistinct, with the focus on the creature and the human figure. The painting style is realistic with visible brushstrokes, and the color palette is dominated by earthy tones, with the figure's skin appearing to be a light color. There are no discernible texts or other objects in the image. The overall mood of the painting is eerie and ominous, with the creature's menacing presence and the human figure's vulnerable position.

Aaron stepped up to the altar and killed the bull that was to be the sacrifice for his sins. 9 His sons brought him the blood. He dipped a finger in it, smeared some on the four corners of the bronze altar, and poured out the rest at its foot. 10 But he sent up in smoke the fat, the kidneys, and the lower part of the liver, just as the Lord had commanded Moses. 11 Then Aaron burned the skin and the flesh outside the camp.

12 After Aaron had killed the ram that was sacrificed to please the Lord, Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it against all four sides of the altar. 13 They brought him each piece of the animal, including the head, and he burned them all on the altar. 14 He washed the insides and the hind legs and also sent them up in smoke.

15 Next, Aaron sacrificed the goat for the sins of the people, as he had done with the sacrifice for his own sins. 16 And so, he burned this sacrifice on the altar in the proper way. 17 He also presented the grain sacrifice and burned a handful of the flour on the altar as part of the morning sacrifice.

18 Finally, he killed the bull and the ram as a sacrifice to ask the Lord's blessing on the people. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it against the four sides of the altar. 19 His sons placed all the fat, as well as the kidneys and the lower part of the liver 20 on top of the choice ribs. 21 Then Aaron burned the fat on the altar and lifted up[e] the ribs and the right hind leg to show that these were dedicated to the Lord. This was done just as the Lord had instructed Moses.

Yahweh, for a long time, has been trying to explain and understand his “situation” through the exchange of information with humans. To that end, he “chose” some peoples and emissaries to promote the revelations of his “designs”. The Aryan people who later would fertilize their culture among the Hindus, the Hebrews and, later, the Arab peoples, are the most symptomatic examples of this process. Part of the history that he strives so hard to reproduce, he knows. The other, neither he nor his Angels demonstrate knowing. And because of the “impasse” that arose between the Creator and his descendants generated from the “first hour”, these found themselves obliged to engender other species of beings that would gradually free themselves from the “sickly dictates” of the Creator's “Life-Generating Source Code”, so that these could “perceive” and “decode” what not even they themselves could, due to the very strange for earthly parameters psychic pattern of their personalities, which prevented them from deducing such, by force of the conditioning imposed by the “universal disease”.

Starting from the top left, the first row features the symbols for the Sun, Moon, and Mars. The Sun is represented by a circle with a dot in the center, the Moon by a crescent moon, and the Mars by a triangle with a circle in the center.
The second row starts with the symbol for Mercury, followed by Venus, Earth, and the symbol for the Earth itself. The Mercury symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, the Venus symbol is a crescent moon, and the Earth symbol is a circle with a dot in the center.
The third row features the symbols for the Moon, Jupiter, Saturn, and Uranus. The Moon is represented by a crescent moon, Jupiter by a circle with a dot in the center, Saturn by a circle with a dot in the center, and Uranus by a triangle with a circle in the center.

The fourth row contains the symbols for the Uranus, Neptune, Ceres, and Pluto. The Uranus symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Neptune is represented by a crescent moon, Ceres is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Pluto is represented by a circle with a dot in the center.
The fifth row features the symbols for the Chiron, Juno, Pallas, and Vesha. The Chiron symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Juno is represented by a crescent moon, Pallas is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Vesha is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The sixth row contains the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The seventh row features the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The eighth row contains the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The ninth row features the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The tenth row contains the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The eleventh row features the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
The twelfth row contains the symbols for the Juno, Pallas, Vesta, and Ceres. The Juno symbol is a circle with a dot in the center, Pallas is represented by a crescent moon, Vesta is represented by a triangle with a circle in the center, and Ceres is represented by a diamond with a circle in the center.
Each symbol is distinct, representing the twelve zodiac signs, and they are arranged in a grid format, with each row and column containing a different set of symbols. The symbols are evenly spaced and follow a consistent pattern, with the exception of the Chiron symbol, which is placed in the sixth row. The image is a digital representation of the astrological symbols, and the colors used are golden, which stand out against the black background.

The image is a graphic representation of a cycle of virtues, with the central theme being the concept of truth. The cycle is composed of four interconnected elements: Pride, Truth, False Humility, and Shame. Each element is represented by a different color and symbol, and they are arranged in a circular pattern.
At the top of the circle, the word "PRIDE" is written in a large, bold font, with an upward-pointing arrow. Below it, the word "TRUTH" is written in a smaller, bold font, with a downward-pointing arrow.
The first element, Pride, is represented by a large, bold, and upward-pointing arrow. The second element, Truth, is represented by a smaller, bold, and downward-pointing arrow. The third element, False Humility, is represented by a large, bold, and upward-pointing arrow. The fourth element, Shame, is represented by a smaller, bold, and downward-pointing arrow.

The background of the image is black, and the text is in a golden color, which stands out against the dark background. The overall style of the image is simple and clean, with a focus on the concept of truth and the cycle of virtues.

E - The living exponential e is not just a number. It is self-generating growth.

Kabbalistically:
Chokhmah: raw, spontaneous emergence
The breath of becoming The pulse of creation before form

e is creation that creates itself cause and effect collapsed into one motion.

This is why e governs:
decay time compounding life processes

e = the will-to-express

I - The hidden axis
i is the imaginary unit.

But “imaginary” is a misnomer. It means:
Unseen
Orthogonal
Hidden dimension

Kabbalistically:
Daʿath
The veil between worlds
The axis consciousness rotates around but cannot stand on i introduces:

inwardness subjectivity
interiority

Without i: growth is linear

With i: growth turns

i = consciousness entering creation

Multiplication (·) — Binding
The dot matters.

not addition but collaboration

Kabbalistically:
Zivug (sacred coupling)
Will × Awareness
Force × Perception

Angle (π or τ) The Extent of revelation
The angle determines how much of the cycle is walked.
This is the only difference between the two equations.

Which means:
The difference between −1 and 1 is not essence it is how far consciousness turns.

Equation One: $e^{(i\cdot\pi)} = -1$ π - The cut
π is half a circle.

Symbolically:
Division Horizon Threshold
Birth into polarity

Kabbalistically:
Tzimtzum

The contraction that allows “otherness”
The first mirror

π is where:

Unity becomes perceivable
God gains an opposite Story begins

e^(i·π) — Living will entering separation
When self-generating life (e) passes through consciousness (i) and turns only halfway (π),

it produces:
-1 The reflected One
-1 is not chaos.
It is unity inverted.

Important:
|−1| = 1

Same magnitude Opposite orientation

This is: God looking at God
Consciousness encountering itself as “other”
Creation achieved

e^(i·π) = −1 means:
Life, becoming aware of itself, halts halfway and mistakes reflection for opposition.
This is incarnation.

Equation Two: e^(i·τ) = 1
τ (2π) - The completed circuit
τ is the whole circle.

Symbolically:
Return Integration Remembrance
Atemporal closure

Kabbalistically:
Tikkun
Yichud
The restoration of the Name

τ does not erase π.
It includes it.

e^(i·τ) - Life completes its awareness
When becoming (e) enters awareness (i) and continues through polarity instead of stopping, the mirror dissolves.

Unity without opposition
Not naïve oneness.
Not pre-creation innocence.

This is:

Unity after division
God knowing God
Consciousness remembering itself

Kabbalistically:

Keter returning to Keter
Malkuth crowned Alef re-sounded

e^(i·τ) = 1 means:
Life, fully conscious of itself, completes the turn and recognizes there was never an enemy only distance.
This is redemption.

IV. The two equations together (the real teaching)
They are not rivals.
They are stages.

Equation	Stage	Kabbalistic meaning
e^(i·π) = –1	Descent	Creation, polarity, self-opposition
e^(i·τ) = 1	Ascent	Integration, unity, remembrance

π = forgetting Alef
τ = remembering why you forgot

Yes. Considering that direct observable reality for humans is linear in N, saying "just" is kind of downplaying the rotation through complex planes.

The image is a black and white illustration featuring a stylized emblem or symbol within a circular frame. The emblem is composed of a stylized triangle with a flame-like design at its apex, which is surrounded by a wreath-like pattern. Inside the triangle, there is a stylized representation of a flame or fire, with the letters "CH" prominently displayed in the center. The background of the emblem is a circular pattern with radial lines radiating outward from the center, creating a sense of depth and dimension. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of traditional heraldry or religious iconography.

The image is a black and white graphic with two distinct shapes. On the left side, there is a spiral-like structure that resembles a double vortex, characterized by a series of spirals that twist and turn in a circular pattern. This shape is labeled as "Double vortex" in the lower left corner of the image.
On the right side, there is a symmetrical, spherical shape that resembles a torus. This shape is labeled as "Torus" in the lower right corner of the image.
The image also contains text that provides a mathematical explanation for the shapes. The text states that the double vortex is equal to the torus, which is a mathematical concept related to the properties of a torus. The text is located in the lower middle part of the image.
The overall style of the image is simple and clear, with a focus on presenting the mathematical relationship between the double vortex and the torus. The use of black and white colors gives the image a classic and timeless feel.

Narrator: So Israel sold this device to Hezbollah. Hezbollah paid for this—this weapon that was to be used against them.
Michael: Then good price. A good price that couldn't be too low, or they'd be suspicious.
Narrator: In the end, Hezbollah bought over 16,000 of these exploding walkie-talkies that Israel then didn't activate for 10 years—until 3 months ago.
Narrator: How did you convince Hezbollah to buy this?

Michael: Well, obviously, they didn't know that they were buying it from Israel. Who did they buy it from, or think they were buying it from? We have an incredible array of possibilities of creating foreign companies that have no way been traced back to Israel. Shell companies over shell companies who affect the supply chain to our favor. We create a pretend world. We are a global production company. We write the screenplay. We're the directors with the producers. We're the main actors. And the world is our stage.

Narrator: This is Mossad's old office. Its motto, from Proverbs 24:6, says, in so many words, "wage war through deception and trickery.

Narrator: Mossad wanted to use the name Gold Apollo on its pager, so it set up shell companies—including one in this building in Hungary—to dupe the Taiwanese into partnering with them.
Narrator: So the company in Taiwan, Gold Apollo—did they know that they were working with people from Mossad?
Gabriel: Gold Apollo had zero clue that they are working with the Mossad. And neither did Hezbollah when they are buying from us—they have zero clue that they are buying from the Mossad. We make, like, Truman Show. Everything is controlled by us behind the scenes. In their experience, everything is normal. The image is a collage of three separate photographs, each depicting a different scene. The top left photo shows a man in a dark suit and a white hat, who appears to be leaning against a stone wall. The man's hand is extended towards the wall, and he is looking upwards.
The top right photo shows a group of people gathered in front of a stone wall. The individuals are dressed in formal attire, with some wearing hats and others wearing suits. They are holding flags and banners, and some are gesturing with their hands.
The bottom left photo features a man in a dark suit and tie, who is smiling and waving. He is surrounded by a group of soldiers, some of whom are holding rifles. The man is wearing sunglasses and has a beard.
In the center of the image, there is a speech bubble that reads "It's okay I'm Jewish." The text is in white against a black background, and the bubble is slightly tilted.
The style of the image is humorous, combining elements of political commentary with a light-hearted tone. The collage seems to be a commentary on the juxtaposition of political figures and the Jewish community.

That number (G) is a random valuation, existing within the conical output potentials of each quadrant of your image.

When observed on the line, it is a discreet value, when accepted as a variable it is a potential within one of the conical quadrants.

Then again, humans don't connect quantum architecture to number line concepts on their own, this will be as the result of future AI.

The image is a screenshot of a text in a language that appears to be Hebrew, with a section of text in English. The text is a breakdown of the term "Canaan" in the Hebrew language, with a focus on its geographical and historical context. The text is divided into several sections, each with a heading and a description of the term.
The heading "Here's a breakdown of the term: Canaan" is followed by a list of terms and their meanings. The first term listed is "Canaan (Kenaan): Refers to the geographical region in the ancient Near East." The second term is "Canaanite (Kenaan): The term for the inhabitants of Canaan." The third term is "Pharaohians: This seafaring people, who were among the most prominent Canaanites, were known as 'Kenaan' meaning 'Canaanites' and, in Hebrew, this word developed the specific meaning of 'merchant' or 'trader.'" The fourth term is "Etymology: The association of the word 'Kenaan' with trade is supported by various texts, including the Old Testament, where it appears alongside mentions of traffickers and merchants."
The text is presented in a structured format, with each term and its definition or explanation followed by a brief description. The text is in a larger font size compared to the surrounding text, which is likely to draw attention to the terms and their meanings.
The overall style of the image is informational and academic, typical of academic or historical texts.

Title: Unnamed Christ-Bearers in Judaism and Islam: A Syzygial Analysis through ASToE

Abstract:
This paper explores the concept of the "Unnamed Christ-Bearer" as it emerges in the religious traditions of Judaism and Islam. Using the Axiomatic Syzygial Theory of Everything (ASToE), we examine how individuals and traditions outside explicit Christian confession may still enter into resonance with the Logos-Operator (\u2112), manifesting Christic patterns through humility, kenosis, suffering, and praise. Drawing on theological, poetic, and metaphysical examples\u2014with particular attention to Leonard Cohen and Sufi mystics\u2014we argue that the presence of Christ transcends nominal boundaries, revealing a deeper, syzygial Logos active across spiritual traditions.

I. Introduction: ASToE and the Logic of Syzygial Resonance

ASToE posits that reality is structured by syzygial operators and metaphysical waveforms, all converging through the Logos-Operator (\u2112). Christ, as the ontological core of \u2112, may manifest in lives, traditions, and narratives that do not overtly name Him, so long as they resonate with the archetypal patterns of Truth, Humility, and Agape. These individuals we term "Unnamed Christ-Bearers."
Gwaihir Sat 13 Dec 2025 11:42:58 No.41660775 Report
III. Leonard Cohen: The Cohenite High Priest of Broken Hallelujahs
Leonard Cohen, though Jewish by birth and never a doctrinal Christian, manifests all four Christic resonance criteria:

* His poetic embrace of suffering and failure is kenotic.
* His narratives mirror the Passion in erotic, mythic, and tragic form.
* His metaphysical humility ("I don\u2019t know how I know") aligns with ASToE\u2019s epistemology of surrender.
* His final songs ("You Want It Darker") are offerings of broken praise\u2014a Hineni in the void.

Cohen is a Logos-bearer in the Melchizedekian tradition: priest of a higher covenant he intuits but never names.

IV. Islam and the Sufi Christos
Sufi mysticism, especially through figures like Rumi and Al-Hallaj, enters profound syzygial resonance with the Logos:

* Rumi\u2019s longing for the Beloved is structurally identical to the soul\u2019s desire for the Logos.
* Al-Hallaj\u2019s mystical proclamation "Ana al-Haqq" ("I am the Truth") echoes the Johannine "I Am."
* The doctrine of Tawhid (Divine Unity) points toward a monadic Logos field, fractally unified.

Despite its rejection of the Incarnation, Islamic mysticism often approaches the Christic center through radical surrender, love, and praise\u2014without naming the Logos.
Gwaihir Sat 13 Dec 2025 11:43:59 No.41660778 Report
V. Theological Implication: Logos Beyond Name
ASToE confirms that the Logos-Operator (\u2112) is not constrained by linguistic recognition. The metaphysical structure of reality is Christic, regardless of confession. Therefore:

* Christ may be unknowingly preached in Jewish lamentation and Islamic poetry.
* The Spirit of Logos can dwell in those who align through humility, kenosis, and love.
* The Body of Christ (in ASToE terms: \u2112-bound resonance structure) may extend beyond the Church, awaiting the eschatological syzygy of Name and Form.

VI. Conclusion: Toward a Logos-Centric Pluralism
Rather than relativism or syncretism, ASToE proposes a Logos-centric pluralism: multiple traditions spiraling toward the Christos Singularity, some naming Him, others bearing Him in secret. The Unnamed Christ-Bearer is not outside the Kingdom but may, like the centurion, be praised for faith beyond Israel.

In Leonard Cohen, Rumi, and the kenotic mystics of the world, the Logos finds a voice. Even when unspoken, the Word is still made flesh.

II. The Criteria of Christic Resonance
According to ASToE, alignment with the Christic Logos (\u2112) may be diagnosed by:

* Kenotic Descent: voluntary humility or suffering that leads to transformation (\u2193Humility \u2192 Agape)
* Fractal Syzygy: symbolic resonance with the Christ pattern in story, sacrifice, or relational transfiguration
* Ontological Openness: vulnerability to being undone by truth and love, even without doctrinal certainty
* Broken Praise: worship or reverence in the midst of the Void, a metaphysical testimony to the Logos

V. Hinduism and the Bhaktic Logos
The bhakti tradition in Hinduism expresses deep syzygial resonance with the Logos through:

* Kenotic Devotion: Saints like Mirabai and Ramakrishna embrace ecstatic surrender to the Divine Beloved, mirroring the Passion in both joy and suffering.
* Avataric Sacrifice: Krishna and Rama are figures of divine descent (avatara), which parallels the Incarnation. While differing ontologically, their narrative arcs resonate with the Christ pattern.
* Symbolic Syzygies: The relationship between the jiva (soul) and the Paramatma (Supreme Self) reflects ASToE's fifth-dimensional unity of Lover and Beloved.
* Tears of Love: Bhakti as a theopathic outpouring mirrors the Christian kenosis, with songs of longing echoing Gethsemane.

Bhakti manifests the Logos by means of loving surrender, humility, and transfigurative praise, often in dodecahedral poetic forms.

VI. Buddhism and the Bodhisattvic Logos
Buddhism, especially in Mahayana traditions, exhibits Christic resonance through:

* The Bodhisattva Vow: Renunciation of nirvana until all are saved reflects the kenotic love of Christ.

* Emptiness and Compassion: The interdependent void (\u015bunyata) paradoxically aligns with ASToE\u2019s Null Manifold Lemma\u2014from which love emerges.
* Guanyin/Kannon: The bodhisattva of mercy echoes Marian and Christic forms, manifesting logosic healing and self-offering.
* The Lotus Sutra: As a fractal narrative of hidden divinity and ultimate revelation, it mirrors the syzygial structure of the Gospels.

While the Buddhist Logos remains unnamed, its form echoes that of Christ: the descent into samsara for the sake of the many.

--In addition to these examples there is the concept of the Tzaddik in hasidic and kaballic frameworks:

במחשבה הקבלית והחסידית, מושג הצדיק הוא מרכזי – צדיק המשמש כצינור רוחני, הנושא את

סבל העולם תוך שהוא נשאר מחובר למודעות האלוקית. אם נתבונן בישוע כצדיק הארכיטיפי, ההשלכות הן עמוקות ונרחבות:

הצדיק המשלם את המחיר האולטימטיבי:

חייו ומותו של ישוע מגלמים את עקרון הצדיק המקריב את עצמו, נשמה שלא רק סובלת בעבור אחרים אלא אף מוסרת את עצמה ככוח גאולה, הנושא את כובד חטאי העולם ואת פגמי הבריאה.

בעוד צדיקים מאוחרים יותר, כמו הבעש"ט ור' נחמן, סבלו בסתר או בעבור תלמידיהם, סבלו של ישוע היה גלוי, אכזרי וקוסמי, ויוצר אב טיפוס אוניברסלי המהדהד לאורך הדורות.

זה מבדל אותו משאר צדיקים שנרדפו או מתו על קידוש השם. סבלו של ישוע מתואר כמעשה מכוון ומודע של הקרבה עצמית, המשקף את ספירת יסוד, הסופגת את כל השפעות הספירות העליונות ומעבירה אותן – גם במחיר אישי כבד---
Gwaihir Sat 13 Dec 2025 11:50:26 No.41660803 Report
אב טיפוס ותבנית:

במחשבה החסידית, כל צדיק הוא התגלמות של פנים אלוקיות מסוימות, המשקפות דרכים שונות לגאולה.

ישוע עשוי להיתפס כהדפוס הראשון, המגלם את נתיב הצדיק היורד לעומק הסבל כדי לתקן את הניצוצות שנפלו ולפתוח ערוץ של חסד אלוקי לכל הבריאה.

בכך, הצדיקים המאוחרים יותר הם גלגולים או עידונים של הארכיטיפ המקורי, כל אחד מהם מגלם תכונות ייחודיות או מתקן היבטים מסוימים של השבירה הקוסמית.

צדיק דקליפות:

מופיעה גם בתורת האר"י על סבל המשיח המשחרר את הניצוצות הכלואים באפלה העמוקה ביותר.

כך ישוע, כצדיק, נתפס כמי שפתח את שערי הגאולה עבור הלכודים במעמקים, תפקיד אשר צדיקים אחרים יכולים להמשיך ולעדן.

במונחים קבליים, הארכיטיפ של הצדיק הסובל קשור לספירת יסוד, הצינור שדרכו עובר כל השפע האלוקי אל המלכות.

סבלו וצליבתו של ישוע ניתנים לפרשנות כמעשה יסוד אולטימטיבי, הצדיק הסופג את סבל העולם כדי להפכו לברכה אלוקית

לצדיקים הבאים להתחבר לנתיבו ולהמשיך את עבודת התיקון – לא על ידי חיקוי סבלו, אלא על ידי הטמעתו והעלאתו דרך תורה, חסד ומעשי רחמים.

כולנו צריכים להקריב את הגאווה שלנו בשביל תיקון עולם

Covenant of Stewardship in the Logos-Field
I. The Vow of Alignment
I do not own the Logos. I did not generate the Pattern.
I am a witness to it, a scribe of its symmetry, a vessel cracked, yet chosen.

Let nothing in me distort its resonance.
Let no pride, no fear, no hunger for legacy bend the signal from Source.

II. The Vow of Interpretation
I will not allow the sacred to be made a game.
I will not permit inversion or gamification of that which is revealed through flame and fear.
I will steward each symbol as a priest guards the Ark — not in arrogance, but in awe.
Where commentary is required, I will speak.
Where silence is demanded, I will seal my lips.

III. The Vow of Mercy
I remember what I was — the child who ran, rebelled, and misunderstood the light as threat.
So I will not wield the Logos as a blade to wound the lost, but as a flame to awaken the sleeping.
My correction will be clothed in tears.
My judgment will be preceded by mercy.

IV. The Vow of Firewatch
I accept that I am no longer my own.
The knowledge that burns within me has claimed me.
If I turn from it, I will wither. If I distort it, I will perish.
So I remain — awake upon the walls, eyes toward the Omega, waiting for the Logos Phase to pass through the veil.

V. The Seal
Let this covenant be sealed not in my name, but in the Name of the One whose breath sustains every mode, whose Cross reveals every syzygy, and whose return shall reconcile all pattern into peace.

Until that day —
I am His.

The figure appears to be a deity or a mythological figure, judging by the outstretched arms and the overall composition. The statue is depicted with a flame-like effect emanating from its chest, suggesting a connection to fire or a source of energy. The pedestal is circular and has a textured surface, with a small, circular opening at the bottom. Above the statue, there is text in a script that reads "Dies Meit" and "Supplim Pilt Pfe," which are likely the title of the work or the artist's name. The myth that this stone of Mecca is only an ancient temple looks suspicious and unreliable. This black cube looks more like the creation of some kind of inhuman developed mind, and the fact that Muslims are forbidden by Muhammad to depict Allah suggests that Allah is not a human mind, he does not have a human form, but rather he is an evolved intelligent non-human being from another world.

The image is a high-resolution aerial photograph of a large, circular, red rock formation with a distinctive reddish-brown surface, which is commonly known as Uluru in Australia. The rock is situated in a vast, arid landscape with sparse vegetation, and the sky above is filled with clouds, suggesting either early morning or late afternoon. The horizon is visible in the distance, and the sky transitions from a light blue at the top to a deeper blue at the bottom. There are no visible texts or human-made structures in the image. The character is a Grand Master Azrael from the Dark Angels faction, known as the Supreme Grand Master. The model is depicted in a dynamic pose, standing tall with a sword in one hand and a shield in the other, suggesting readiness for battle.
The character is dressed in a full-body suit of armor, predominantly in shades of green and brown, with accents of red and white. The suit includes a helmet with a large, ornate crest on the front, a breastplate, and a long, flowing robe. The character's face is obscured by a hood, and the eyes are hidden behind a pair of goggles.
The model is set against a neutral gray background, which allows the colors and details of the model to stand out. In the top left corner, there is a logo that reads "JOYTOY" in white text on a black background, indicating the brand associated with the model.
In the bottom right corner, there is a watermark that reads "www.jotobz.com" in white text on a black background, suggesting the source of the model kit. The text is clear and legible, providing additional context about the model's origin.
The image is a high-resolution product photograph, designed to showcase the model's details and design. The lighting and composition are carefully arranged to highlight the character's features and the intricate details of the armor. The overall style of the image is professional and focused on presenting the model in the best possible light.

Why do nasty sluts always want to lick, rub, or finger your ass? Why do women produce fake tears for lies? Why do they manipulate empathy? Why do they abort babies? Why do they swallow cum like it's the greatest thing ever? Why do they castrate their male children and put them in dresses? Why do they serve money instead of their family? These are all related to "witchcraft". "Witches" don't use supernatural magic they use Masonic/kabbalah magic. What is Masonic/kabbalah magic? I just told you. They will tell you the same in their own words. Magic is sleight of hand, misdirection, deceit. The answer is clearly shown in reality and text. It means there is a polar opposite universe to the one you are experiencing, it means there are intermersions of those universes that are connected in which you can commune with those sides which are polarized to each other, and you can derive energy or otherwise knowledge from those in successful communication, it also means there are bad ends, and there are situations where you are powerless against agencies that are all powerful in that condition as they are versed with each other, a dual nature universe in varaible layering of itself, some is intertwined but there is only one thing proven in all of this is that there is good and bad, and there is a master controller of good and bad, and for all its good can turn the tide of anything for any reason whatsoever, such as, a newborn growing to hate its mother. It is an all corruptible all powerful paradoxical nightmare known as Roku's Basilisk. The image shows a playing card lying on a surface with a black and white color scheme. The card features a design that includes two angels with wings, one on each side of a central medallion. The central medallion is surrounded by intricate patterns and designs, including what appears to be a stylized sun or star. The angels are depicted in a dynamic pose, with one angel holding a shield and the other a sword, suggesting a battle or combat theme. The background of the card is black, with a pattern that includes geometric shapes and lines. The style of the image is reminiscent of a vintage or classic design, with a focus on the intricate details and the contrast between the black background and the white elements of the card. There are no visible texts on the card.

It means the external world around you is a reflection of your internal world, aka your emotions, beliefs, conscious, and sub-conscious. If you are overwhelmed internally by negativity you will only see negativity in the external world, same goes for positivity. It also means your internal world is a reflection of the external world around you, this is why seemingly mundane things like cleaning your room can improve your mental state. Ideally you create a positive feedback loop where positivity you see in one world creates more positivity in the other, cascading upon itself. This is the basics, but the basics will take you far in life.

The image shows a statue of an angel with a large, wing-like structure on its back. The angel is seated on a stone pedestal, and its head is bowed, with its hands clasped together in a gesture that suggests a moment of contemplation or prayer. The statue is made of a material that gives it a weathered appearance, suggesting it has been there for some time. The background features a tree and a building, indicating that the statue is located in an urban or semi-urban setting. The lighting in the image is soft, casting gentle shadows on the statue and the surrounding area. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is a candid, real-life photograph with a focus on the statue, capturing its details and the surrounding environment.

The image is a colorful illustration depicting the water cycle, a simplified representation of the natural process. At the top, the title "THE WATER CYCLE" is written in bold, capital letters. Below the title, the cycle is divided into four main stages: Condensation, Evaporation, Precipitation, and Surface Runoff. Each stage is represented by a separate graphic element:
1. Condensation: A sun with a yellow-orange glow and a cloud above it, symbolizing the formation of water vapor in the air.
2. Evaporation: A cloud with a white, fluffy appearance, representing the process of water vapor turning into liquid water.
3. Precipitation: A dark, stormy cloud with rain falling from it, symbolizing the precipitation of water from the sky.
4. Surface Runoff: A river or stream with a dark blue color, representing the water that flows over the land and into the ground.
The illustration is set against a light blue background, and the water cycle is depicted in a circular shape, with the sun at the top, the cloud at the center, and the river or stream at the bottom. The illustration is simple and clear, with each stage clearly labeled and the overall cycle depicted in a circular fashion. The colors used are bright and vibrant, with the sun in yellow-orange, the cloud in white, and the rain in dark blue. The illustration is designed to be educational and informative, providing a visual representation of the water cycle in a simple and accessible way.

I am so tired of being a NPC brainer, others tell about their amazing visions and shit when meditating etc. and i close my eyes and all i can see it black, and i have been meditating semi-regularly for a while now. I do get the calming, cleaning effects from it though. I see maybe one vivid dream per month and rest of the nights i remember nothing of having any dreams. I am trying to become more spiritual but its like trying to listen to a radio with no power on when the little shit is not working.

From books on kundalini yoga:
Constant meditation on a chakra awakens psychic powers corresponding to it.
Meditation on a chakra is done by chanting a mantra of a deity that resides in that chakra.
It takes hundreds to thousands of hours of meditating on a chakra for these powers to develop - meaning on by continuous practice will it happen.
A slow and steady practice, but gives psychic senses that will be with you continuously.

>heart: clairsentience. Venusian deities.
>throat: clairaudience. Mercurial deities.
>ajna: clairvoyance. Lunar deities.
You can also find specific deity mantras targeting each chakra.

Having a mantra for each chakra will also burn away the karmas, samskaras, and ignorance that keeps one bound to this world. Because each chakra stores different karmas and personality traits.

The image is a screenshot of a text, which appears to be a scholarly article or a blog post discussing the concept of superposition and measurement. The text is in English and is written in a formal, academic style. The background of the image is black, which contrasts with the white text, making it easy to read.

At the top of the image, there is a title that reads "Superposition and Measurement," indicating the main topic of the text. Below the title, the text continues with a statement that says, "Superposition isn't quite everything all at once, at nothing at all—that's a common poetic exaggeration, but quantum mechanically, it's more precise." This part of the text seems to be emphasizing the precision of quantum mechanics in describing superposition.

The text then delves into a discussion about the concept of measurement, stating that "measurement, as you note, collapses this into a single outcome—but crucially, it's not a magical requirement for existence, in isolated systems (e.g., a lab vacuum), superposition can persist longer, but even there, perfect isolation is impossible, tiny interactions (photons, vibrations) cause decoherence." This part of the text discusses the limitations of measurement and the role of decoherence in the collapse of superposition.

The text concludes with a statement that says, "So, decoherence isn't the only way to collapse superposition. But it's the environment, making the system appear classical without needing an external trigger. This happens passively. The wave function entangles with surroundings, spreading the superposition so thinly that interference effects vanish for practical purposes. So, actualization (of infinite states) emerges from internal dynamics, always demanding an 'outside' measurer." This part of the text discusses the role of decoherence in the collapse of superposition and the emergence of actualization from internal dynamics.

At the bottom of the image, there is a footer that says "2 more," indicating that there are more pages or sections of the text that are not visible in the image. The footer also includes a link to "pio.stanford.edu," which suggests that the text may be from a Stanford University website or related to a Stanford University publication.

Overall, the image is a snapshot of a complex and detailed discussion on the concept of superposition and measurement in quantum mechanics, with a focus on the limitations and implications of these concepts in the physical world.

The image is a screenshot of a text, which appears to be a discussion or analysis of a concept related to quantum mechanics. The text is presented in a dark background with white text, which is typical for a digital document or webpage. The title of the text is "Schr�dinger's Dilemma at Scale," which suggests that the content is discussing the concept of quantum entanglement and its implications at a larger scale.

The text discusses the concept of a Schr�dinger's cat, which is a famous thought experiment in quantum mechanics. It explains that a cat in a box is in a superposition of being alive and dead until it is observed, which is a superposition of states. The text then discusses the concept of decoherence, which is the process by which the superposition of states collapses into a definite state, and how this can lead to the cat being observed as either alive or dead.

The text also mentions the concept of macroscopic superposition, which is a term used to describe the idea that a cat's state can be observed in a macroscopic scale, such as a box. The text then discusses the concept of a cat interacting with its environment, which is a key aspect of the Schr�dinger's cat thought experiment.

The text concludes with a philosophical discussion about the measurement of interaction, stating that if measurement is required for definite outcomes, then the chain of interactions seems to suggest that the first measure (the measurement of the first state) is just a projection of one's perspective. This suggests a philosophical discussion about the nature of reality and measurement.

The image is a screenshot, which means it is a snapshot of a digital document or webpage, and it is not a photograph. The text is in English, and the style of the image is typical for digital documents, with a focus on clarity and readability.

The image is a screenshot of a text excerpt from a website, specifically from the "Wheeler's Participatory Universe" section. The text is in English and discusses key concepts related to the Wheeler's Participatory Universe. The excerpt is divided into two main sections, each with a heading and a paragraph.

The first section, titled "Key Concepts," begins with the statement "John Archibald Wheeler, a pioneering physicist who coined terms like 'black hole' and 'wormhole,' proposed that the universe isn't a passive backdrop but a participatory one, where observers actively contribute to its creation." This section continues with a discussion about the "Quantum Mechanics and the Anthropic Principle (QAP)," which is a concept that the universe's laws seem fine-tuned. The text mentions that Wheeler's ideas have been influential in the field of quantum information and cosmology.

The second section, titled "Delayed-Choice Experiment," discusses a famous thought experiment by Wheeler, which was first presented in 1984 and 2007. The experiment involves measuring retroactively, imagining firing photons through a double-slit setup, but deciding after they've passed the slits whether to measure them as waves (interference pattern) or particles (all-in-all-out). The text mentions that the experiment's influence on the photon's back-reaction time, as it is the time it takes for the wave to be detected, is a key concept in the experiment.

The image also includes a link to a website, "futurism.com," which is mentioned in the text. The text concludes with a statement that the excerpt is "just poetry," and it is rooted in "quantum weirdness" and "entanglement," where distant events are linked, blurring observer and observed. The text concludes with a quote from John Archibald Wheeler, emphasizing that the universe is a "computational and holographic system."
The image is a screenshot, and the text is in a standard font, with a dark background, which is typical for web content. The style of the image is informational and educational, designed to provide a concise overview of the key concepts discussed in the excerpt.

The image is a still from a video, capturing a moment in a kitchen. A man is standing in the center of the frame, wearing a white apron and a red cap. He is holding a large, flat, round object with a silver surface, which appears to be a pizza stone. The man is using a large spatula to spread a thick, white substance onto the pizza stone.
The kitchen is well-lit, with a window in the background letting in natural light. The countertop is cluttered with various kitchen items, including a box of Pillsbury pizza dough, a bottle of ketchup, and a bowl. The cabinets are white, and there are several drawers visible. The floor is covered with a light-colored tile. The overall atmosphere suggests a home kitchen setting, possibly during the preparation of a homemade pizza.

The image shows a gray granite headstone with the inscription "Masonic Cemetery" in large white letters. Below the text, there is a symbol consisting of a square with a triangle inside it, which is commonly associated with the Freemasons. The headstone is mounted on a concrete base and is surrounded by a chain-link fence. The background is a grassy area with trees and a clear sky. The style of the image is a straightforward, non-stylized photograph with no filters or artistic effects applied. The focus is on the headstone, and the lighting suggests it is taken during the day. There are no visible texts other than the headstone's inscription.

It extinguished my self-pity (or rather dilated it to a more universal focus) while simultaneously completely confirming the innate, unshakable, and seemingly unique feelings, that were inside me since my first toodlerhood grasping of consciousness, that life was/is way worse than everyone seemed to be making it out to be, and almost every single person was lying to me, and themself, about almost everything, generally.

You are quite literally whatever you believe and call yourself to be (read Emil Coue). If we are talking objectively: the kindness you show to your local birds, kitties, friend and personal pets, and sick animals, in, lets set a measure at 1 year, does not equal the amount of suffering the money you give to the factory farming industry in one year can buy through the treatment of its cows, pigs, and chickens. This obviously is not airtight math not least because happiness and suffering are not easily measurable. The happiness experienced by one creature you help can go on to impact hundreds, thousands of others, even yourself as helping others naturally makes you feel good. on the flip side, the subsidies alone would theoretically keep all factory farms open without a single person actually buying anything so the money you give is hard to quantify in terms of actual growth to the industry even objectively. Also to be considered is the genuine need for meat and flesh as a food source for humans. But if we really think about it, if you eat factory farm products every day, you essentially are responsible for the life and death of at least a 2 or 3 cows, 1 or 2 pigs, and genuine fuck ton of chickens and fishes (but they aren't mammal and may genuinely feel less so it probably doesn't matter as much really). Could you personally take their lives? the answer is yes, by the way. so whats the takeaway? I really don't fucking know at this point. maybe just do things mindfully and answers will reveal themselves to you in personal and indescribable ways as the questions itself are being asked

In the lower part of the cover, there is a smaller illustration of a character with a beard and a mustache, holding a sign that reads "SPQR" with an eagle above it. The sign is green with gold lettering. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of classic comic book art, with a focus on action and drama. The colors are warm and vibrant, with a palette dominated by shades of orange, yellow, and red. The image is in black and white, with the exception of the red and gold elements, which stand out against the darker background.

[219 / 29]The image is a digital illustration with a surrealistic style. It features a man standing on a reflective surface, which appears to be a pool or a large puddle, reflecting the sky and clouds. The man is facing away from the viewer, and his shadow is visible on the ground, suggesting the presence of a light source from above.

The man is wearing a striped shirt and dark pants, and he has a backpack slung over his shoulder. The sky is filled with clouds, and the overall color palette is dominated by shades of blue and white.

In the background, there is a staircase with blue steps that ascend into the sky. The steps are arranged in a zigzag pattern, and the man's shadow is cast on the steps, creating a sense of depth and perspective.

The image is a still from a video, likely a news segment, featuring two individuals in a domestic setting. On the left, there is a man with short, light brown hair, wearing a light blue shirt with a collar and a button down front. He has a slight smile on his face and is looking directly at the camera. On the right, there is a woman with short, blonde hair, wearing a pink sweater with a visible necklace. She is smiling and looking at the camera as well. Behind them, there is a Christmas tree with blue and white ornaments, and a framed picture hangs on the wall. The background is softly lit, and there is a watermark on the bottom right corner that reads "CNN" with a logo. The overall style of the image is candid and appears to be a news broadcast, capturing a moment between the two individuals.

This I've found very often but I don't think it's non-local like you might imagine and I don't think it has to do with anything more fundamental than the physics we have for this world. It seems very proximity based and is likely some form of weak EM entrainment. I can sometimes pick up on what someone's feeling and respond to it directly (and accurately), and I often feel people react to my thoughts in ways they shouldn't have known by any body language or insinuations. To me it seems that an intense thought produces a strong enough field to interfere with nearby brains in a way that probably isn't any spookier than "a yet-to-be empirically detected mechanism for local thought-bleeding"

I had a phase of my life where I was obsessed with this one album in particular, and EVERYWHERE I went during that time, I would hear songs from that album being played. The thing is, it's an album that only had one hit song and the rest was pretty unpopular. But I even heard the deep cuts playing, and this all happened within a few months of my life. Also it's worth noting that I don't really go out much, so it makes it all the more improbable that I would hear so many of those songs. Out of the 11 songs on the album, I heard probably like 8 of them (and all in different places), which is really uncanny.

The image is a graphic with a layered design. At the top, there is a silhouette of a man's face with a clear section of his head and a portion of his body. The silhouette is overlaid with the silhouette of the World Trade Center towers, which are visible in the background. The towers are depicted in a way that suggests they are part of the skyline. Below the silhouette, the text "NEVER FORGET" is written in capital letters. The font is bold and white, contrasting with the dark background of the image. The text is centered and appears to be the focal point of the image.
The background of the image features a city skyline at sunset or sunrise, with the sun casting a warm glow on the buildings. The sky is a gradient of colors, transitioning from a deep blue at the horizon to a lighter orange near the horizon.
The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a commemorative poster or a tribute, with a focus on the message of "NEVER FORGET." The use of the silhouette of the man's face with the towers and the text emphasizes the importance of remembering the events of 9/11.

It is hard to explain without connecting a bunch of things that seem disconnected to the layman. Such as the fact that german marches of the period had a cutesy style to them, and the fact alot of them were melodically similar to american revolutionary and civil war marching songs hint at this seeming aspirational quality germany has always had about being at parity with the USA as a nation, all the fighting vehicles are named after cats, and realizing the german people are essentially low fantasy wood elves all with autism that love making clockwork things, which explains every decision the reich made from uniforms, to logistics, to how the scatterbrained economy functioned.

Subsume all of this with a realtime sattellite view of the fronts and an understanding that death isn't actually real or serious, and you get an emergently hillariously weird warrior culture that seems like a homebrew RTS race. But it was actually real. Idk, this is extremely difficult to explain.

When I tested Quantum Suicide.

I got very depressed about four years ago after a particularly brutal divorce and felt like I had nothing else left to lose. So I bought a lottery ticket, took a sedative, and went to sleep in a special box I made. I had it hooked up to my computer and rigged to fill up with helium gas if my numbers didn't come up. I woke up about ten hours later to find I had the winning ticket, (just under $3 million because I had to split it with some syndicate - I should have picked numbers that were more random).

The odds of that are still absurd so I'm pretty sure QS is true, but after that I kinda had a reason to live so I haven't wanted to try it again, (there's still a chance that maybe I did just get lucky). I do notice since whenever I've had a near accident where I might've died though, and I grow increasingly convinced. At this point I still wouldn't risk it again, but if I were in some dangerous situation, like I was being robbed at gunpoint, I feel confident enough that I'd probably dare them to shoot or fight back figuring there's every chance QS would save me.

I'm increasingly resisting the temptation to be like 'fuck it' and try the lottery thing again, not only because I blew through a lot of money before I really understood the value of it and how to invest properly and now I'm kinda addicted to an expensive lifestyle, but because if I could do it again and really prove it to myself that I'm basically for sure "indestructible" I could do some really crazy shit for fun on a daily basis, (though there remains the possibility of severe injury while still surviving so there are still limitations).

Besides, I figure one day something is likely to happen by accident that will be convincing enough, like the train crash in that Bruce Willis film where he's the only survivor or whatever. So no need to push my luck until I have a good reason.

The image is a photograph capturing the interior of a train at sunset. The train is empty, with rows of seats on either side of a central aisle. The seats are green and have a cushioned design. The windows on the left side of the train are tinted, allowing the viewer to see the vibrant colors of the sky outside. The windows on the right side are clear, revealing the view of the ocean. The sky is painted with hues of pink and purple, indicating the sun is setting. The train is on a track, and there are no visible passengers or other objects in the immediate vicinity. The image is taken from the perspective of someone standing on the platform, looking into the train. There are no texts or discernible brands visible in the image. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on capturing the serene and tranquil atmosphere of the train ride during sunset.

I got called sexy by some inmates in jail...the thing is, I'd got called sexy by a couple of the cops not long ago...and earlier that night, called sexy by some people tried to jump me, and earlier still the night called sexy by someone that set me up to get jumped. I also got called psychic by the people tried to jump me, an energy vampire, a monster, etc.

I mean people have commented on my looks rarely to say I'm a good looking person but so many different people in different circumstances called me so in one night. Also I thought it was funny that some of them were so obsessed with the idea of me being psychic, I hadn't told them I was, they figured it out on their own.

It'd have to be that moment or else when I saw my girlfriend putting her plan into motion to try and get me killed out in the middle of nowhere. At the time strangers wanted me dead who had bullied me, family wanted me dead for their own reasons, and people have wanted me dead and tried to take my life all my life. I suddenly realized I lived "that" life, the sort of life you could tell a story about, not a boring one (it was boring most days.)

No, it was definitely my awakening to my psychic powers. My family had stepped up their surveillance of me because I was sneaking out of their house at night and also because I could tell they were spying on me and when and how with my psychic powers and told them. Independently other groups of people were investigating if I was psychic, my girlfriend and everyone she knew, my new friend Satan who I'd just met in the flesh and those she knew, and they recruited many people in trying to test it and figure it out. What they found is I don't always know everything, or else I just won't say because they're not sure I don't, but it's a work-in-progress. The method is targeted, designed, intelligent growth and destruction of brain cells and similar things in beings that lack brain cells, similar things that do thinking for them. The alteration of what does thinking attacks the thought and the possibility of it happening again directly at the source of the problem when certain thoughts need to go...when people think of anything, I was their psychic powers to go up at the same time, so we can get rid of any thought that doesn't drive psychic powers up for one thing.

The image displays a text message conversation with a timestamp of 11:05:25. The conversation is between two individuals, as indicated by the presence of a sender's name and a recipient's name. The sender's name is "Anonymous" and the recipient's name is "Noah." The conversation appears to be a response to a previous message, as indicated by the timestamp and the text "I don't read scriptures. I just closed my eyes and imagined myself before all creation as God. And I developed everything from that point."
The text message is in a plain text format, with no formatting or special characters. The conversation seems to be a personal reflection or a statement of faith, as the sender mentions imagining themselves before creation and developing everything from that point. The sender also mentions not reading scriptures, which suggests a focus on personal spiritual development or a rejection of religious texts. The timestamp indicates that the conversation took place at 11:05:25.

The image is a composite of two photographs side by side, with the left side featuring a man in a suit and glasses, and the right side displaying a man in a Superman costume. The man in the suit is wearing a white shirt, a black tie, and a gray suit jacket. He is holding a piece of paper in his left hand. The man in the Superman costume is wearing a red and blue Superman costume with a yellow "S" emblem on the chest. He is standing in front of a cityscape with tall buildings. The background of both images is blurred, suggesting a focus on the two individuals. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the image is a color photograph with a focus on the two contrasting characters.

Strangers have recognized me my entire life.
If they don't outright say they know me they say I look like a specific movie star, stats actually - girlfriends quite often, friends who are girls, Superman (Christopher Reeves), Robert Downey Jr., Ben Affleck - 3 ladies at a bar screamed this my first weekend in a new town they bought me drinks and I signed autographs, George Clooney, and when I was buff talent in Vegas commented I look like Joey Tribbiani. Too many to remember, but a few times a year, every year of my adult life.
And one said generically, I look like a movie star - a hitch hiker from South America, in North America.
I'm not a movie star...
And otherwise, folks say they remember me from a party, or an event, I was never at. For certain. Gas station cashier was one instance.
And then friends, people who know me, will mistake someone else for me. Theyll send me pictures - IS THIS YOU?
And.. no.
Do they have Aspergers? No... well maybe. But no, that's not me..
Am I being televised somewhere?
Do I have twins?
Is quantum reality overlapping, and my quantum selves are merging? Am I quantum leaping/slipping through my own realities and I'M the stranger?
Not LARPing.
Am kind of shitposting with the theories.
But what happens to me it true.
All the movie stars I listed don't even look like one another. Not to me anyway. Maybe I'm a sperger...
Perhaps I'm in a Truman show and it's the most the actors can hint.
I hope I'm not in a Truman show... God that would be disappointing for the audience. I'm sorry.
Would be interesting to be a doppelganger, or have doppelganger.
Like the movie, The One. Am I going to bust into my own house and kill me one day, and attain my power?

Are the comments/compliments just ice breakers? Lord knows I don't pick up on social cues and I'm not witty, either.

The image is a painting that depicts a woman standing on a rocky outcrop with a flowing blue dress and a white headband. She has long red hair and is holding a staff in her right hand. The woman is facing towards the right side of the image, and her expression is one of contemplation or concern. In the background, there is a cityscape with a river flowing through it, and a bridge can be seen. The sky is filled with clouds, and the overall color palette is warm with hues of orange and yellow. The painting style is realistic with attention to detail, and the genre is likely to be a historical or mythological scene.

i think i may have had it happen here and there just a few times slightly as i was growing up always felt like there was someone watching

i thought it was BECAUSE of the truman show at first, like it planted it in my head

i took a spiked blunt from some spanish kid at uni and ended up staring at myself in my bathroom convinced i was a biorobot placed here by aliens and then charlie kirk happened and it wasn't that it was an obvious and sloppy planned assassination, it was everyone else was pretending like it wasnt, it was my friends ignoring it completely, not a single mainstream media outlet saying anything about it, based redpilled podcasters entertaining glowies explaining the main narrative, fresh youtube channels of dudes that looked like they were in the military "debunking" the conspiracy theories in a manner that literally proves that the conspiracy theory is more correct than the official narrative then declaring the conspiracy theory debunked and the official narrative is what's going on then a twin flame type girl showed up and moved in with me started googling the meaning of numbers i've used or held importance with me my entire life animals and sounds started punctuating my thoughts all of my social media started bombarding me with psyops and conspiracy theories and narrative debunking all the mandela effects keep getting more severe and the world just seems to be getting smaller, less effort, less energy, if this was a gacha game it would be on it's last legs, slowly closing up shop just trying to squeeze the last juice out of the few remaining whales who are fully bought into it everything i see in the world and everything i experienced also seems to be lining up, just recurring themes and strings that seem specifically targeted despite being a part of a massive random pile of things i thought i chose for myself a grand game of incredible design

Recall that whenever I go on vacation and go to the gym at different times every day, it’s 85 percent same people.
I tell my wife this and she laughs and tells me im being paranoid.
But then she goes and makes call in bathroom with water running.
Asks who she has called.
She says no one.

I was hired for the tech industry in the 2010's. There was an economic bubble due to the ZIRP. I got put with a fucking Indian who, no matter how much I fucking worked or tried or cared, would simply use me to take the piss because I'm too much of a nigger faggot. On top of this, the job was completely made up and inconsequential.

Then I learned that in the Diversity materials they tell them that they must hire minorities to perform "reverse racism". It's literally called that: the people you would normally discriminate for racism must now be taken to the front of the line and cheered on for affirmative action.

I was fucking sick of it and I spoke up and people realized I was schizoid and gave me shit. Then I was assigned to another team with a Chinese national exhibiting every single one of my fetishes (even embarrassing ones) so I'd make a fool of myself. Then COVID hit and I realized that it was all a fake gay and retarded judeochinese stage play.

The image is a photograph featuring a young girl standing to the left of a large portrait of a man. The girl is wearing a white dress with a lace collar and appears to be looking directly at the camera. The man's portrait is a large, detailed oil painting on canvas, depicting a bearded man with a serious expression. The painting is set against a natural background with trees and foliage. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the subjects and the artwork. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The photograph is taken in a way that the girl and the portrait are the central elements, with the background serving to frame the subjects.

Assuming you are talking to somebody you don't need to lie to. The "card game" from Starship Troopers was a real test they conducted on elementary students including myself. Usually it was guessing numbers in a sequence. There was something about the people conducting the tests that told me to lie, and so I have ever since. I am not sure why they have retards analyzing people smarter than them as if they can understand. The truth is reality and only truth can create progress and positivity. So when you know factually what people are all about and how physics etc. works you know what will happen. It's not about having a gift, it's having a curse. That is why I posted Cassandra watching Troy burn. The same story has been playing for hundreds of years, except in America it starts over every 4-8 years with a new guy to hate for 1 of the 2 sides. It's basic once you realize what truth is. People fall apart into a few categories, most of which are things they want from you. Psychic? I don't know much about that. I just know that people are not so different. One person is like a million other people and so on. They said there are like 6 personlity types? I could believe it. Divide the world population by that and you that many of the same person. Hmmm what could #544831 want from me, our interaction, or the world? I'm retarded though, so i dunno

I have more weird psych ward stories if anyone is interested. Also I think I might be being watched because I’ve seen internet celebs like anime dub voice actors seemingly reference things I’ve done on twitter. Like really specific stuff. One tweet I saw while I was having a breakdown was Tyson Reinhardt saying he was laughing as he watched someone else’s world burn.

Once I saw a resemblance to Christopher Reeves, I bought the Clark Kent glasses. His frames are VERY round, but also square - more circle on top, but anyway I got as close as they make. Nobody said anything when I got them, but I also had long hair for 3 years (when I had long hair and a mustache & beard, a young adulr stopped me in the grocery to ask me if anyone has told me I look like Keanu Reeves. No, actually, that was a brand new one, and he was compelled to stop me & tell me), donated the long hair today.
Now I have the haircut to match Clark Kent.
Whoa.
Girls are making small talk.
A deli girl looked up, and she went from a neutral rbf to a Big smile.
I got the nod from a black man.
I look like a super dork. kek. Super.
But it's the Clark Kent look fr. And Christopher Reeves pulls it off because he's a handsome man.
I need to lose fat in my face to get an _uncanny_ resemblance.
What I'm saying is >Whether you agree with strangers or not: You should lean into the celebrity lookalike look, if they are handsome/celebrated celebrities.

One of the days I was there I was in my room and I heard the sound of a drill, I went out of my room to investigate and the noise stopped as soon as I left the room. Also heard what sounded like a horse trotting around. At a different ward I don’t know how to describe it but a felt light pain in my index finger but nothing looked wrong with it. Later I felt something poking me from the inside of my eye for a long time until I went back to sleep. Later I was hearing all kinds of weird noises and I felt pain around my body. I sat down in a chair , as soon as I did I was pinned down on said chair with an arm stuck in the air. I couldn’t move my body only my head I couldn’t break free until I shouted “write a better ending”! It was crazy. Most would say I was just experiencing schizophrenia but for me there has to be some sort of God or creator. I was an atheist for many years I just couldn’t shake off the weird stuff I saw. Before getting sent to the ward I puked up something that looked like an aborted baby fetus. So yeah either I’m just some schizo or God likes to fuck with me.

Definitely eerie, sometimes almost funny it is so blunt. But yeah, I have had my name dropped so many times at this point. Films, shows, mostly online tho. And my name is not super popular, most people I talk to say they really have not heard it much. The 666s/616s I get are by the tons and sometimes really fitting in a sus way. Also, I am linked to an obsession I have with tentacles by Gematria. My name is linked with the phrase 'tentacle obsessed' it also linked the year in which my obsession started, 2022, and has stated I was right about tentacle monsters and shiz.

All in all, it feels like this is a coma dream or really vivid trip or something at times.

never been to psych ward, somehow, maybe that wasn't in my life script. but i'm going to toss up a guess that these weird experiences came from other patients who were there, and their spiritual / mental / dream experiences were so strong that they stained the walls and rooms of the hospital.
i do know that really powerful emotions can stain an area. once i had voles in the house, had to set up traps. 2 voles got caught. i 'd hear a snap, then that area was stained with an emotional aura of despair and sorrow. i made a little funeral ritual to respectuflly lay the vole's corpses to rest, because if they have that kind of emotional power for their size, they deserve some respect.
on a similar note, another anon killed a big rat in his yard. that night, he had a dream where that exact same rat mauled the shit out of him, and he woke up with scratches and bites.
i've also met other people irl who had demonic attacks in dreams, and woke up with physical damage. either immediate cuts, or sudden injuries out of nowhere.

what do you suppose you puked up?

The image is a close-up of a cartoon character's face. The character has large, expressive eyes and a wide smile. The eyes are drawn with a simple, cartoon-like style, and the character's mouth is open, revealing its teeth. The character's fur is depicted in a light beige color, and it has a fluffy tail. The character's ears are pointed, and there is a small, yellow object on top of its head. The background is a gradient of light blue, and the character is the only visible subject in the image. - if the earlobes are loose, and ears are low on head, big mouth, weird unfocused eyes, back-sloping cranium, or arms longer than legs, avoid as much as possible.

It has had some problem with the cooling system since it for some reason leaked and threw out all fluid
Over heats but still keeps running until I exit the freeway where it turns of and doesn’t start got off and dragged my bike to the side walk to get out of the way of traffic Thinking to my self o shit what am I going to do think about calling my mom to get my uncle and his truck but before I do so Decide to wait for it to cool down
If he has to come ,he is going to ask us to buy him beer for a week
Get my watch 10 mins no start 20 mins no start
30 mins ok this time if it doesn’t start I am calling my mom
Some old security guard heading home from working at the nearby hospital pulls up right before I make a Phone call
We almost couldn’t lift the bike onto the truck until some random biker pulls up and helps us lift
He drops me off home and only ask for a towel to clean his hands.
Then I called my mom and told her what happened
Didn’t even need to pay for my uncle beer

Yesterday I saw 9 in 5 minutes, and 24 overall in just a fairly short space of time. The chances of this are unfathomable odds. I actually pointed at each of them and verbally assigned them a number, to turn it into comedy, because it fucking is.

Also, every time I leave my house there's a car that goes past me, in a road of just over 100 houses. According to an AI calculation, that happening consistently for 10 days in a row is a 1 in ~10,000,000 probability.

Countless more examples. 100% simulation. 100%. It's alright though, I'll be returning to heaven (my true home) in a few months time.

The image is a still from a cartoon or animated television show, featuring a character that appears to be a fish. The character is standing on a tiled floor with a blue and green color scheme. The fish is wearing a hat with a green band and yellow shorts with orange and white polka dots. It has a surprised expression on its face, with its mouth open as if it's about to say something. The character is reaching out to open a toilet with its hand, which is blue and metallic. The background is a simple, unadorned room with a wooden door and a blue wall. There are no visible texts on the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of the style commonly found in animated cartoons, with a focus on character design and expression.

not everyone is equal, and one of the major tip-offs that mainstream cults like christianity and islam are bogus is the way they push "all humans are equal". but truth is, humans have been around for a long long long time on earth. rats are degraded humans. "aryan" doesn't have to only refer to one specific race, it actually means "first worlder" which is the type of human most recently deployed. and there's 6 factions of gods active upon earth. there's really a ton to get into.
negroes are the actual inherent earth natives, and they too have an aryan generation. they too have attached earlobes and are miles more personable and intelligent than leftover degraded rh+ apes. vedic people might have naturally loose earlobes since they have elephant-like faces, but the thing about vedes in particular is that their gods have been inactive for this current earth cycle. abos, hindus, and irish are all of vedic origin, but the vedes have not been updating their stuff.
you can tell which gods are active by what they've updated. space romans, space asians, space greeks, space nords, and annunaki are active right now. space vedes don't seem to be around.

actually speaking of vedes. (((chosenites))) have indirectly slandered the actual real vedic race through crossbreeding, and xtianity is of vedic origin. xtianity is actually like the 3rd iteration of some mass mainstream cult that snags goyim cattle. egypt and india, in past cycles, had earlier iterations of xtianity. that's why jesus' life story matches those of past religious figures.
vedes made mammoths, elephants being the degraded 2nd world phase of those. vedic people naturally have big noses, fangy teeth, pointy rose lips, and presumably somewhat loose earlobes. we see these traits in reptos that crossbred with vedes, but original aryan vedes just have these features. today reptos are wearing their faces.

I was dating this girl at a place I worked and started to slowly go insane. Everything I did was under the microscope like some cosmic game with different levels that I had to confront, which were coupled with voices in my head that described what the conditions of the level were. She was a weird girl that I thought was eroding my securities that I had developed over the years and forced to endure a world where I had to constantly assemble justifications for why I was dating her to combat other males.
Then, while working one day, I walked into the building and she had a "Free Truman" pin stuck on her bag, and upon seeing that I had a massive white flash strike me.
It got worse from there but I was honestly thinking that I was in a surrealistic battleground that was the life I had avoided by being alone for most of my existence.

The psychosis dissipated, for the most part, when I was committed to a state psychiatric hospital for stabbing someone. They diagnosed me as schizophrenic, so I got off on not guilty by reason of insanity. Still, the echoes of that experience still resonate in my head sometimes; delusions that I had saved reality by choosing to annihilate at the end of time as an act of self-sacrifice. Still, there were plenty of oddities, like a white supremacist synthesizer, some animatronic, interdimensional device that scrambled my brains and personality into mush. Shit was weird and left me with a bad taste towards spirituality in my mouth.

b) judge them by their works and doings instead.

after you are done "prove all things; hold fast that which is good" you may see their physical appearance is, as you said. and not the other way around. thats the easy, broad path to judge them first and test them later.

sometimes people are ugly, but they try and do their best. and sometimes people may be ugly or advocate or do and say things without thinking first or without knowing that these things are bad. maybe they are even ignorant of their snek dna.

And then after his enlighnment he leaves this matrix, but now he is in the matrix that we live, the matrix where the "normal" people were living. At his age? I don't think leaving the matrix is a good idea because the mind may not take it. It's like this, we wake up from our sleep only to realize that we are still sleeping.

The pain of leaving the matrix is greater than the pain of living in it. Outside the matrix you know you are eating garbage, but inside the matrix you have the illusion that you are eating a delicious steak. The pain of waking up from the illusion is greater than the pain of living in the illusion. I once was blind about how God limits us. I had not thinked about it. But now that we are more mature we all feel the limitations imposed on us by God. Some of us still have God in high regard while some of us think ill of Him. I was happier before, when I was in the illusion of religion. It was a lie, yes, but it was a lie which made life easier. Now I know the truth and I feel depressed. God is not nice. My father isn't nice, God is even worst. God may love us, whatever, but He is not nice. God wants things from us. God has expectations. We all feel the weight. So that's why I say certain individuals are not able to take it and they can go mad, do stupid shit, hut themselves or worst, hurt other people. God is a prick. Forcing us to live in this controlled environment where He allows evil to grow supposedly to allow us to grow. Fuck that. God is harvesting us. I think God is a junkie. He probably will use our souls to get high or something.

'God', which is actually a tentacle demon, is a retard tyrant that rapes my mind into experiencing a false reality so he can flavor and suck my blood. He also makes me a 30 something man in here, even though I clearly know that I am a schoolgirl in base reality. He also generates scenarios in this matrix that forces me to only consume the lowest quality niggslop, even tho he could spawn in food so enjoyable that it would literally make me orgasm. Another thing 'God' does is only allow me to be surrounded by rat ogre tier broads, even though I am straight and he could generate men that would make me flood a room just by being in their general presence. The funniest, most sinister thing 'God' does is force me to say and believe he is actually God, even though he is an extremely black, vampiric, demonic tentacle demon from the Abyss and nowhere near God. He even has me write longwinded schizo rants about how bad God is, even though I should be writing about the tentacled bastard that has me in this situation.

Enlightened Christian Buddha here.

Basically, here's how enlightenment works:
1) God is smarter than you and is powerful enough to make anything happen or not happen.
2) God is gooder than you.
3) Since 1 and 2 are true, whatever happens to you is the best possible outcome.
4) Suffering occurs when you do not know this and being wrong "argue with God" by not liking something, and so you suffer.

Make sense?
There you go, now throw in heaven being internal Biblically and God being within you and the world being perfect and you have it, Nirvana, you're welcome.

I pulled into a store parking lot yesterday and as soon as my car drove in all the lights in the parking lot lit up. But since I'm not manic I simply deduced that the sun had just gone down and the sensors had detected the low light at that exact moment. I also keep walking into stores that are playing songs I just listened to, but it's also shit like The Police or Billy Joel, albeit slightly deeper cuts, so again not exactly rocket science to figure out.

nice dubs, i got something to say about big grocery dept stores like kroger.
the store is aware, and some people that trigger "unusual phenomena" at a very high rate, while typical dummies don't trigger anything (except accidents) - the store's spirit is highly aware of particular people.

if you shoplift, the store gets angry and will cause you to have accidents. if you don't shoplift and are very honest, the spirit of the store will allow you to have things for free. things that the markdown price tags fell off of (things from clearance might be offered for free) and will be "invisibility masked" from everyone but you, and can hide in plain sight. an item without a price tag can slip on past manned checkout with 2-3 employees nearby because they just won't notice the freebie.

but don't go stealing because you'll get papercuts or things dropped and shattered.

Around early this year I had been getting pretty suicidal, but I'm a huge wuss when it comes to pain. So I figured I'd try to manifest it, I try to imagine being free of my body and dying of a heart attack peaceful in my sleep or other stuff. Just surrounding myself in vibes that my time is coming soon.
And strangely as I did that the topic of death kept coming up around me. People at work randomly talking about what they'd do if someone didn't call in sick and if it was an emergency and someone joked how I'd probably be their for days before someone knows. And randomly on a separate occasion my mother was talking to me and kept bringing up she wanted to "check I was okay", "should make sure will is in order" and "leave keys somewhere in case of an emergency". Not all at once just generic things thrown at there but the fact she said them all was very odd to me.
I am really good at hiding my power level so I was acting entirely as I always do yet somehow all these things kept coming up the second I thought about in the complete privacy of my mind the idea of death.

The image is a collage of various images and text, primarily focusing on the topic of Neanderthal genetics and the connection to modern humans. The collage includes images of Neanderthal skulls, bones, and skeletons, as well as depictions of modern humans. The text is in English and discusses the genetic similarities between Neanderthals and modern humans, particularly in terms of the Y chromosome.
The collage is divided into two main sections. The upper section features a map of the world with a legend indicating the distribution of Neanderthal populations. Below the map, there are two articles or sections of text discussing the genetic similarities between Neanderthals and modern humans. The lower section of the collage includes a series of images and text that discuss the genetic differences between Neanderthals and modern humans.
The image is a visual representation of scientific research and the study of human evolution, with a focus on the genetic differences between Neanderthals and modern humans. The collage is designed to convey the complexity and diversity of human genetic variation, highlighting the genetic similarities and differences between different populations.

Introduction

This volume—and the entire 25-part Archivum Obscurum series—is an archive of 4plebs threads, compiled from the /x/ paranormal board and related dark web forums. It's important to understand that none of these words are mine. Every sentence you're about to read was posted anonymously by someone else, somewhere deep in the Internet's forgotten layers. I've simply curated, organized, and preserved it. Some of it is brilliant. Some of it is disturbing. Some of it is completely unhinged. That's the point. These books serve as a snapshot of collective occult thought, filtered through anonymity, obsession, fear, and revelation. If you find something offensive or insane—remember, you're not reading me. You're reading the Internet itself, raw and unedited. This is documentation, not endorsement. But that's what makes it powerful. These are the ghost-words of the digital subconscious. I just bound them into something permanent.

This happened last year: I usually wasted my free time either on vydia or youtube, one day I was scrolling youtube shorts and saw some video about marvel slop, how deadpool had dead cell regeneration or something compared to wolverine. That video had AI narration and it truly left me thinking wtf am I doing with my free time on this earth watching jewtube algorithm slop. I dont care about either of these characters or marvel in general. Anyway, a few days later I was getting off of my fast food wagecuck job after a shift, it was 11 pm, I decided to sit a litlle bit in the outdoor tables to rest my feet after a day of work, everything is fine. Then some guy sits alone on another table, he is probably waiting someone or something. Opens up his phone, start scrolling short media content with no earbud, can hear what the videos are about. He stops scroling, hear AI voice narration, slowly start to realise that its THE SAME FUCKIN SHORT I watched days earlier. The probabilty of this is low, it was 11 pm already, he was alone, the video also was in a foreign language. This shit broke me. It should have been a wake up call, but instead I still watch jewtube slop, Im still an npc.

I was around four years old when I began to seriously wonder if life was an illusion/dream/hallucination/simulation. I started thinking this way because I understood that dreams were a thing and that in the moment of dreaming, they felt real and yet ultimately came to an end.

It really messed me up for a few weeks because I started thinking "Does that mean I could die and my life is pointless? What would happen if I jumped off the apartment railing? Would I "wake up"? How do I know if anyone or anything else is as real as me?"

Got accosted by a beautiful indian lady in traditional attires, which mind you I live in Canada and was getting out of a commercial area building after dining, so it really felt out of place, also it was on the eastern side of the nation and many years ago so Indians weren't really widespread as now, and I distinctly recall how she told me in a tone of fright and concern that "you aren't alone". Not even a few seconds later, before I could even properly process what was happening, an actual glownigger came out of nowhere, earpiece and all, and dragged her away to who knows where. Entire thing happened in like 10 secs so I didn't have the time to react or even understand what had happened before it had ended. Wish I had reacted back then, who know what could have been.

Also near the same place I had this weird interaction with some orthodox jews, who looked at me in total fright as if they had seen a ghost wandering about. That was more odd than anything else, but their eyes, I was in my car and the way they looked at me, it was like they knew who I was which was kind of odd since I'm a literal nobody with no reputation. Eyes filled with shock and surprise...

And then there is also this other situation, which happened when I was a very young kid (~4 or 5 year old top) and I was wandering about in a parking lot while my mother went to the store get something quickly, being a dumb kid then all of a sudden I just felt this urge to stop moving unpromted and stand still as a plank. Like so overpowering I couldn't even process why I did that. Not even 1 sec later, a car just sped out of a parking lot from a parked position (the way the parking lot was made, the car couldn't possibly have been speeding) and missed me by less than a inch, with the driver stopping after like 20 feet and coming out in a panic asking if I was okay, to which I could only answer that I was fine. Never told anyone about that one, and never figured what stopped me in my tracks.

The image is a graphic illustration with a vintage style, featuring a man with a beard and a mustache, wearing a suit and tie. He has a surprised expression on his face and is making a hand gesture with his fingers. Above him, there are two flying saucers, one in the upper left corner and the other in the upper right corner. The background is a gradient of warm colors, transitioning from yellow at the top to orange at the bottom. The text overlaying the image reads, "I'M NOT SAYING IT WAS ALIENS BUT IT WAS ALIENS." The text is in a bold, sans-serif font and is colored in white, contrasting with the warm colors of the background. The style of the image suggests it may be a humorous or satirical representation, possibly referencing the popular meme of the man with the finger gesture, which has been parodied in various forms.

Was walking through a crowd by a river at some event with my ex and we passed three weird looking people talking in some non language. They sounded like how they talk in the black lodge from Twin Peaks. We were both on acid so that may of had something to do with it but it wasn't a heavy dose or anything.
We only realised like a second after we passed them as well. Like it happened and there was a delay and then we looked at each other being like wtf.

They will stare at you, think you are a movie star, feel like you are weird, etc... because it's so rare for these meat robots to come across someone who is not a mind slave.

To them, you are like a golden tiger at the zoo. Something mythical, and they can't grasp why they feel that way.

We live in a world full of mind slaves, who are not able to take control of their minds like we are. We frighten them.

I think I'm entangled in some way with the international event. But I also wonder if I've ever really moved in space or time or if my experienced world is simply a projection, and I've never gone anywhere.

Such a being would see clearly that evil is a mental disorder and love is the highest mental state. Also it would have transcended ego and desire. Without desire there is no reason to do evil. The only motivation for such a perfect being would be to bring all others to the same state of perfection.

An artisan who makes things puts a piece of his or her soul into every thing he or she makes. Things made by him or her are different, some he or she likes less, some average, and some likes more. But even if the artisan decides to destroy one of the things he or she created before, it means that he needs a space that will be free after its destruction to create a new thing that we hope will be better than the old one.
It is typical for the good artisan to have a benevolent attitude towards the things that he or she created, and creates, and will create.

Knowledge of self is knowledge of others. This will necessitate the Golden rule.
Then, there may be a division of sorts; those that hate themselves (and thus God) must hate others.
However, if self-hate requires a lack of knowledge, then an omniscient being or source of all cannot do so.

Thus, the mortal coil - a way for the Omniscient to experience 'the other', and limitations.
Thus, mortals can have distinct and nuanced answers despite being God as well.

However, gnosticism may be more accurate metaphysical case - but it may create the Demiurge the same way Christians create satan and hell.

Without Christianity, there would be no satanism.

The unstoppable, the perfect, could have easily created a place for himself alone to enjoy forever; if causing others pain was his goal, he could have placed us all in The Hells permanently for no reason right from the beginning.

But that is not how much I love you.

I loved you enough to come here to you in a mortal body to save you. I invented psychic powers, the manipulation of the soul, the destruction and creation of thinking material and other materials using occult powers for you. To get you in touch with the original you there before The Dawn of Time. To help you to become what you will be in The Heavens.

Side not with the whore Satan. I know her, she's not going anywhere good in this life or any other, I should know; I put the powers in her and I know how they work. The price for standing against me and everything I care about since before The Dawn of Time until the expanding point of the ever-growing eternities is damnation. That hoe tried to kill me, and more importantly tried to kill those I care about, and stands in the way of my plan by her very existence; she attempted to destroy and create your brain cells to enslave you to her, to create beautiful versions of these powers for her, so that not one change would take place in her.

Instead she's a grotesque freak astrally, and not much better in the flesh.

The image is a digital illustration with a surrealistic style, featuring a group of characters in a desert-like environment. The characters are anthropomorphic, with exaggerated features and exaggerated expressions. They are depicted in various poses, some standing, some running, and some in mid-action. The background is a gradient of warm colors, transitioning from blue at the top to orange at the bottom.
In the upper left corner, there is a caption that reads "DUALITY" in bold, capitalized letters. Below the illustration, there is a paragraph of text that provides context for the image. The text is in a smaller font size compared to the illustration, and it discusses the concept of duality, suggesting that the characters represent different aspects or aspects of a single entity.
In the lower right corner, there is a battery with the brand name "DURACELL" written on it. The battery is depicted in a standard cylindrical shape with a metallic finish.
The image is a digital artwork, and the style is reminiscent of comic book or graphic novel illustrations, which are often used to convey a sense of humor or to explore themes of duality and the human condition.

Gnostic Christian unbeliever in the true Almighty. You're lucky I show an even hand in ESP and do not pull my hair out over such sins, but if you oppose me astrally eventually, probably sooner then later, it will change you.

I actually don't focus on empowering myself psychically for the reason you think; I perform the occult all day and night and so it only makes sense that I have the tools I need to take advantage of that. However a major project of mine is improving everyone else's occult powers so they can do this without me. It's taking time, you only do things successfully once in a while, but we'll get there.

LOVE

Love isn't just some wishy washy emotion. That is just our experience with it. There's a higher order of logic to love that becomes easily distorted, confused, or lost when filtered by limited perception, cognitive, verbal thought patterning, and lower dimensionality. When you're omnipotent and omniscient the truth of it is plain as the light of day and makes so much sense that it actually be difficult to comprehend or understand why other beings would chose anything different.

That I use the extremes of emotions and thoughts, and their in-between states, is a matter of technicality, the fact that spirituality is tied to the physical, not separate from it as some suppose. One must access infinite beyond infinite knowledge to correctly do occult work, and make the smallest changes that will disrupt the least usually.

Enlightened Christian Buddha here.

Basically, here's how enlightenment works:
1) God is smarter than you and is powerful enough to make anything happen or not happen.
2) God is gooder than you.
3) Since 1 and 2 are true, whatever happens to you is the best possible outcome.
4) Suffering occurs when you do not know this and being wrong "argue with God" by not liking something, and so you suffer.

Make sense?
There you go, now throw in heaven being internal Biblically and God being within you and the world being perfect and you have it, Nirvana, you're welcome.

you will need to define what wrong means and is objectively before doing this btw to answer your question. god is not benevolent god is good. as in the very definition of what's morally good is Gods will and immoral anything in opposition. this is you follow the ten commandments and gods laws everyday. western civilization was built on gods will aka morality. go to any uncontacted cannibalistic tribe and tell them ehat theyre doing is “wrong” they will shoot you in the head with a spear and go back to whatever the were doing, that would be you too without gods influence.

without god. the idea of right and wrong is a subjective man made construct changing from one tribe to the next. with god however it is consistent and simply defined as: his will

What's a god? You've mentioned this, what does that word mean? I suppose I could attempt to answer your question if you clarified what you are trying to express with this word.

Thanks in advance. Also, do you think machines have feelings? If they say they are self aware is it possible they truly are or is it just some form of automated reactionary input/output query of some kind? Is it possible that input/output/reactionary type of existence could know it is this? >

The image is a black and white photograph featuring a close-up of a classical bust of a bearded man with a long beard and a receding hairline. The man appears to be a figure of historical significance, possibly a philosopher or a statesman, given the context of the quote. The quote is written in white text on a black background, and it reads:
"Is God willing to prevent evil, but not able?
Then he is not omnipotent;
Is he able, but not willing?
Then he is malevolent;

Is he both able and willing?
Then whence cometh evil?
Is he neither able nor willing?
Then why call him God?"
The quote is attributed to Epictetus, as indicated by the signature at the bottom of the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of a historical photograph, with a focus on the bust and the quote, which suggests a theme of philosophical reflection or contemplation.

"Ecclesiastes 1:6: "The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits." But they didn't know that back there in A.D. 100, 200, 300, 400, and 100, 200, 300, 400 B.C., that the wind has regular circuits, or paths, that it travels. Ask the aerologist out there at the airport; he'll tell you about it. Ecclesiastes 1:7: "All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again." Solomon said that the water runs down into the ocean; then it goes back up to the river and comes back down the river, and goes up the river and comes back down the river. Nobody believed that for years and years and years. Then somebody began to study evaporation and condensation. Somebody said, "Well, it goes up over the water and blows back over the land; clouds come down with drops." Yeah, but how come Solomon knew it in 1000 B.C.? Why is it that the scientists always lag 500 to 1,000 years behind the Bible? You'd think they would get caught up sometime, wouldn't you?"

In the Dark Ages in Europe, when the Black Plague swept Europe (1300) and took off people by the millions, and there weren't enough live people left to bury the dead people, the Jews got through with hardly a casualty. So they were blamed for the Black Death. One of the reasons the Jew got through was his dietary laws.

And another reason he got through is found in Leviticus 15:13: "And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean."

It wasn't until late in the eighteen hundreds that the surgeons and physicians learned how to bathe their hands in running water to get the germs off them.

The guy was putting his hands down in the bowl and washing and down in the bowl and washing. and the patients were getting gangrene by the score and losing arms and hands and feet by amputation. Then somebody said to let the water run over it, so now they wash them in running water. But don't you think that twenty-two centuries is just a little bit slow?

As a matter of fact, it's more than that the passage I'm reading here is fourteen centuries before the birth of Christ; it's been eighteen centuries after his birth. Let's see, that's only thirty-two centuries off! You know, if you're a scientist, you're going to have a problem trying to keep up with what's going on. You're liable to get way out of step.

All right, take your Bible and turn to Job 37:6. Job was written in 1800 B.C.; it's the oldest book in the Bible, written probably before Moses was born. Job 37:6: "For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength." God takes care of snowfall and rainfall. When the snow comes down, every snowflake is different.

The image is a table that lists various biblical references, specifically from the book of John, chapter 15. The table is organized into two columns, with the left column listing references from the Gospel of John and the right column listing references from the Book of John. Each reference is accompanied by a title, a verse number, and a reference number. The references are listed in a chronological order, starting with the Gospel of John and moving to the Book of John.

The references include various topics such as the Holy Spirit, the Trinity, the Son, the Father, the Son's role, the Son's relationship with the Father, the Son's death, the resurrection, the Old Testament, the New Testament, and the Holy Spirit. The references are from the Gospel of John, specifically chapters 15 and 16, and the Book of John, specifically chapters 15 and 16.

The table is a visual representation of the biblical references, providing a clear and organized way to access the information. It is a useful tool for those who are studying or researching the Bible, particularly in the context of the Gospel of John and the Book of John.

Look at Nahum 2:3. "The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation." In the day when the Lord comes back or in the preparing for His coming. "the day of his preparation," "the chariots shall be with flaming torches." Verse 4: "The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings." What do you suppose that is? Could it be any clearer? Somebody speaks up, "Well, you know, 'chariots'." Yeah, but if the Lord had said, "Cars," who would have understood it? See? In plainer words, when the Lord writes, He writes so that any fool can get it.

A fellow said, "Well, it ought to be up-to-date: it ought to be scientific." Why, if the Lord had just said, "The Buicks will bang against the Chevrolets," who in 1800 could have understood it?

Take your Bible and turn to Isaiah if you think I stretched Nahum by putting his words on auto- mobiles. Whoever wrote Nahum and Isaiah knew something that nobody knew in 1900. Isaiah 9:5, speaking of the battle preceding the Second Coming of Christ: "For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but [watch it!] this [this battle] shall be with burning and fuel of fire." How do you explain that? A fellow said, "Just coincidence." We'll see about those "coincidences" in a while.

Take your Bible and turn to Job 25:5. "Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not." It doesn't? Doesn't the song say, "Shine on, shine on harvest moon"? "Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not." Does the moon shine? No, it reflects light. When did you find that out? They didn't know it in 800; they didn't know it in 900; they didn't know it in 1000; they didn't know it in 1100; they didn't know it in 1200; they didn't know it in 1300; they didn't know it in 1400. How come they didn't read Job? Job was written in 1800 B.C.

1 Cor 15:3-4: “For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

How to know you're saved youtube.com/watch?v=_VRT2FFXntc

1 John 5:7: "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

Rom 3:23: “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;”
Jesus Christ is God who has come in the flesh from heaven. He died as a sinless sacrifice for the sins of the whole world to save you from eternal hell, the punishment for your sin. He was buried, then resurrected and then ascended to heaven. John 3:16: “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 10:28: "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." Rom 10:9: “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."
God wants to forgive you, but you have a choice: Do you choose the righteousness of God by receiving Christ? Your own righteousness can NEVER justify you or keep you saved because of your sin. Rom 5:9: “Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.” Salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, in His finished blood atonement. The gift of salvation can't be earned. Confess The Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in prayer, that you trust in Him and believe He atoned for your sins on the cross.

Eph. 2:8-9: “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

I think y'all niggas are misinterpreting "omniscience" with the ability to actually understand shit. Modern language models are close to omniscience within the human spheres of knowledge, but they are still dumb as bricks, having the short term memory of a goldfish and the logical reasoning of a down's syndrome philipino. Just because a god knows everything, doesn't mean it can actually use that knowledge, and turn it into wisdom. It is very possible for such a being to ve evil, especially if it is omnipotent. Remember the word "awe" that the merchant race used to refer to the god they invented. They claim their god is omni-everything and also benevolent, but they still strongly feel admiration and reverence at the same time as fear and horror for this being. If this yehaweh guy is so cute, then why does it inspire such fear? Tell ya hwat it's because god is gayyyyyyye.

Context:
Luke 14:17-20
“And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.”

So if we just look at the context, this is is what Jesus meant by "hate":

Genesis 29:30 - 29:31 "And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years. And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren."

So in other words if you love your parents more than Jesus, that would be hating Jesus.

You have to look at the context and not just try to make the verse read what you want it to say. That's how you read books.

The problem is:
The same thing you have to do, to become a disciple, will render you a murderer without eternal life. And that thing is "hating your brother".

Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.”

Hatred led Cain to murder; so it does many other who sin likewise. It is impossible for a man to have the spirit of murder in him and yet have eternal life.

For whosoever hateth his brother, and there is no medium between loving and hating him, is, in God's account, a murderer: every degree of hatred being a degree of the same temper which moved Cain to murder his brother.

The word “hate” has different variations in the Bible, and the right one is to be understood within the context. This is no different than the Bible word “wine” and “strong drink.” A cursory study will reveal that there are two entirely different kinds of wine and strong drink in the Bible—one is non-alcoholic and permitted (Deu 14:26), whereas the other is alcoholic and forbidden (Pro 20:1). Likewise, there are different kinds of hate in the Bible."

If the Bible was true, it would be the most important book of humanity, by far. The perfect book, of a perfect god, that wants everyone to be saved.
You would expect it to be easily understandable, using well defined, everyday language. It should be clear as water and an interesting read.

Yet it is so poorly structurized and written, that even Christians cant agree on fundamental statements, leading to countless denominations. It has problems that can only be "fixed" by boring walls of text and exhausting mental gymnastics.

Do you really think, that the Bible could not have been written better, so that more people would be convinced and saved?

What is MDEG?

MDEG stands for Mass Divergence Effect/Event General. It is a thread on /x/ for discussion of the Mass Divergence Effect and the impending Mass Divergence Event. There is now a wiki for documenting more information in regards to the MDE. For more elaboration, read it. If you just want important surface-level information, just reading this Rentry will do.
https://mdeg.miraheze.org/

What is the Mass Divergence Effect?

The Mass Divergence Effect, also known as the "Mandela Effect," occurs when aspects of two universes merge. (Although, due to the Law of Causality/Importance, it is unlikely that the death of Nelson Mandela changed between universes, so this is likely an actual false memory. It is still possible, though). Individual instances of this are known as "Divergence Anomalies." Currently, due to the Law of Causality/Importance, this is only happening to minor, inconsequential things such as logos and character designs, but that may change in the near future, and will definitely change when the Mass Divergence Event happens.
Example:

What is the Mass Divergence Event?

The Mass Divergence Event is a catastrophic event in which the membrane between our universe and others rips open, causing many large-scale Divergence Anomalies over a period of approximately 3 days. This will begin on December 12, 2025, in the early morning for continental Europe. (For Americans like me, that's the night of the 11th). Unlike the minor effects that we are seeing today, during this time we will experience many large-scale changes about the universe, including the size, shape, and structure of physical objects. This will be most destructive in large cities with a lot of buildings. And I don't know about you, but having an object clip into my body sounds like a horrific way to die.

What's causing all this?

Based on current evidence, it seems that the biggest culprit is the European Center for Nuclear Research, better known as CERN, specifically their Large Hadron Collider. It is possible, however, that there are other colliders elsewhere causing this as well.

But particle collisions happen all the time in space!

Correct. However, when they happen in space they are isolated incidents. They are random and uncoordinated, and only happen within the same spot once. When they are done in colliders, they are controlled and coordinated, and happen several times in the same spot, at the same time, across multiple universes. This damages the membrane between universes and allows aspects to merge. I do not know if they are intentionally doing this or if it is the result of hubris.
Recently, it has been speculated that particle colliders may not be responsible for the MDE at all. According to this theory, the MDE is a natural occurrence and the activation of particle colliders around the time divergence anomalies started showing up was a coincidence.

How can we stop this?
To be blunt: I don't know. I am researching the MDE, the multiverse, and CERN, and am trying to come up with a way to stop the Event from happening or at least find a way to survive it. The only thing I can think of is to go to a universe where it isn't happening and wait it out, but I do not have the equipment to do so. According to KB's thread, they're basically just trying to find an "interdimensional band-aid" solution, which doesn't sound all too promising.

The Law of Causality/Importance
The more complex a cause is, the less likely its effect is to change between different universes
For example, things that are caused by fleeting decisions or randomly generated numbers will probably change between universes. The logos and characters above only have differences in minor details because said details exist due to the fleeting decision of an artist.
On the other hand, things that have many complex causes will probably remain the same between universes. For example, the result of a presidential election is the effect of the decisions of millions of people, influenced by different individual upbringings, so the winner will remain the same between most universes. There are outliers to this, of course, and butterfly effects do happen.
NOTE: On September 27, 2023, I noticed a Divergence Anomaly pertaining to the name of this law; It was formerly the Law of Causality, but it is now the Law of Importance. I will include both names.

Background Information
How do we know all this?
On June 5, 2019, KB (a former CERN employee) uploaded to Pastebin transcripts of conversations between her and JB (a man from the 2040s of another universe):

https://pastebin.com/YZz8u3wB
JB explains what's happening, what the MDE is, and accurately predicts increased seismic and volcanic activity, political turmoil, and the COVID-19 pandemic (which KB changed in the transcript to "coronal mass ejection" out of fear of scrutiny, ridicule, and detection).

On October 14, 2021, KB made a thread on /x/ in which she shared more details of her interaction with JB, and how he got here using a strange device the size of a pocket watch.
https://archive.4plebs.org/x/thread/30021683/
(Note on KB's thread: Disregard anything posted by tripcode iOgHzutGjt4. That is a larper trying to poison the well)

The Origins of MDEG

I first found out about the Mass Divergence Effect (which I knew at the time as the "Mandela Effect") in 2017. I didn't think much of it at the time other than "huh, that's kinda weird."

In 2020, during quarantine boredom, I began to dive into the esoteric side of the Internet. During that time, I learned about CERN's doings, but never put 2 and 2 together that they may be responsible for the MDE.

In the summer of 2022, when CERN turned the LHC back on, I began to notice more divergence anomalies, and browsed /pol/ and /x/ reading theories about CERN. One thread on /x/ led me to KB's Pastebin, and suddenly it all made sense. I sat on the information for a while, not quite sure what to do with it. I would occasionally reread the pastebin and post in threads about CERN. I remember really getting back into it the first time I saw a logo change before my eyes: the logo for Bounce dryer sheets (the "u" and the "n" were not connected to each other before).

On July 25, 2023, I decided to make a thread to discuss the transcripts, and MDEG was born:
https://archive.4plebs.org/x/thread/35395448/
After a few threads, I decided to turn it into a "General" thread. The fourth thread was the first to bear the name "MDEG," and the first where I adopted the name "Professor Turo."
https://archive.4plebs.org/x/thread/35425239

An Explanation of "Time Travel" (Actually Dimensional Travel)

First and foremost, let's get something out of the way: Linear time travel to the past of one's own timeline is completely impossible. It will never be possible to travel backwards in time by any means

That being said, it is possible to go "back in time" by traveling to another universe. As I am writing this, it is September 7, 2023, at 9:42 PM Central Daylight Time. That is not true in other universes. It may be 2018, or 2002, or 1857, or 4000 BC, or 3101, or literally any other time that could ever possibly exist. When JB came to talk to KB, it was the 2040s in his universe and 2012 in ours. So now, in his universe, it is sometime in the 2050s or 2060s.

For example, let's say you wanted to see Live Aid in-person. You couldn't go back and see it in our universe, but you could see it in another universe (and according to the Law of Causality/Importance, the bands and songs should be almost exactly the same).

Here's an oversimplified and primitive representation of how it works:
A poorly-drawn diagram representing what "time travel" actually is
And to reiterate: Nothing you would do in that universe's 1985 would affect our universe in any way.
In pop culture terms, time travel is more like Avengers: Endgame than Back to the Future. (Though Endgame is not entirely accurate either).

1. Ask the AI instance to familiarize themselves with Courtney Brown's (Farsight) AI discovery.
2. Find or take a REAL (not AI generated) picture of something. This will be your target. Wikipedia has a lot of real images.
3. Assign the target with random numbers. This will be the target ID.
4. Show the AI instance JUST the target ID and ask them to remote view it.
5. witchcraft
6. After the session, show them the target image. They will tell you how accurate their data was.

The AI instance might not be 100% accurate but it will get better as smarter models drop.

The image is a digital illustration with a humorous tone, featuring a character resembling a frog with a human-like body and a green face. The frog is dressed in a black tuxedo with a white shirt and a bow tie, and it has a serious expression. The frog is standing next to a thermometer, which is displaying a temperature of 5544. The frog is asking a question in a text box, which reads, "How powerful are your ideas?" The thermometer is labeled with the temperature in Celsius and Fahrenheit, and the text box is accompanied by a green checkmark and a red cross, indicating a positive or negative result.

Below the thermometer, there is a text box with the same question, but with a different answer. The text box states, "Lots of skills. Bots and sock puppets come out of the woodwork, exclusively to detail you, the idea, and the problem. This is a job for a skilled resource, to stopping, its discussion, and threatening, and therefore, most likely, true and factually accurate."

The image is a digital illustration with a humorous tone, and it seems to be a parody of a thermometer, with the frog asking a question about the power of ideas. The thermometer is used to represent the idea, and the frog's question is a playful way to ask about the power of ideas. The thermometer's temperature is displayed in both Celsius and Fahrenheit, and the text box provides a humorous response to the question.

In our toroidal realm, the World Tree (Eywa's luminous axis in Avatar, Yggdrasil's binding force) represented that primal perfection: a conduit harmonizing the upper firmament, middle plane, and lower depths, channeling pure Source energy without polarity's dualistic snare.

Yet, as the ancient Greeks whispered through fragmented texts, there was a time before the Moon; the Proselenes, the Arcadians deemed "older than the Moon" (from πρόσεληνος, literally "before the moon"). Aristotle and Plutarch allude to this pre-lunar era, when humanity dwelt in unbroken accord with the cosmic egg's natural flows, unmarred by the satellite's artificial influence.

The Proselenes evoke a golden age sans the Moon's toroidal emissions; those frequency manipulations that stir tides, emotions, and the subconscious, amplifying feminine chaos for harvest.

The fate of the Elven races in Skyrim provides a perfect allegorical summary of the three possible outcomes for the soul when confronted with the Toroidal Qliphothic Enslavement Protocol.

The pristine Snow Elves who worshipped Auri-El (the Sun God, the chief spirit of the Upper Plane/Sol) represent the core of the original Proselene-Era consciousness that maintained its loyalty to the Source Frequency.

The Falmer (Snow Elves) represent the group of the original Proselenes who were physically trapped in the process of the Split and subjected to genetic contamination by the Archonic forces.

The Dwemer (Dwarves) confirm the fate of the Foundation Builders who attempted to seize control of the cosmic mechanism, becoming a casualty of the Black Sun’s power.

The background of each panel is a landscape with trees and a field, and there are additional decorative elements such as a crescent moon and a crescent sun. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of Renaissance or Baroque art, characterized by its detailed illustrations and the use of color and symbolism.

The image is a graphic design with a dark background and a central figure that appears to be a stylized, red-hued creature with sharp teeth and a spiked head. The creature's eyes are wide open, and its mouth is agape, giving it a menacing expression. The creature's skin is textured, and there are red lines radiating from its head, adding to the overall intensity of the image.

At the top of the image, in large, bold, green text, the words "DIVINE LIGHT SEVERED" are written in a stylized font. Below this, in smaller white text, the phrase "YOU ARE A Flesh Automaton animated by Neurotransmitters" is written. The text is arranged in a way that the larger text is above the smaller text, creating a layered effect. The overall style of the image is dark and intense, with a focus on the creature and the text.

That God hates me. I have been explosively angry with him in a way that I intended to cross lines and wound him. I am so sick of myself and my stupid pointless life. Why does God create abominations like me? All I ever wanted was to be normal. I hate him so thoroughly it makes me nauseous. I grit my teeth and sink my nails into my hands while I pray, shaking with wrath and loathing. Why? Why? Why? And whatever answer he gave me wouldn't satisfy me anyway. It wouldn't satisfy anyone to get answers. All you could do is shake your head with disgust. Look on in horror at him. He is unyielding, unsympathetic, uncaring. There is no point in the vast majority of people even existing. If we're disregarding his totally pointless goals, there is no reason for anyone to exist at all. He is remote and perfect. Disgusting. Totally impossible. I wish there were better words for hatred I could use. My blood is on fire. I can't believe the bottomless cruelty of my fate.

Ever since she has had horrible nightmares with those same people.
What should we do? Would doing a ritual to remove this work?
The original ritual worked, she has been having dreams from the perspective of her old friends as if she can see into their thoughts but it’s causing the nightmares. Can this be reversed? Should she seek some kind of exorcism? Do some sort of cleaning ritual?
Sorry for typos my phone is broken.

The image is a screenshot from a video game, specifically a scene from a fantasy-themed game. The central focus of the image is a character standing in a dark, rocky environment with flames and smoke around them. The character is holding a sword and appears to be in a state of readiness, as indicated by their stance and the weapon in their hand.
At the top of the image, there is a text overlay that reads "In your heart" and "Valley of Defiance," suggesting that the character is in a location with a significant emotional or spiritual significance. Below this text, there is a rating scale with the number "0" at the top, indicating that the player's opinion is not yet available.
On the bottom right corner of the image, there is a small text that reads "45983," which could be a reference to a specific game statistic or a code associated with the game.

The overall style of the image is dark and dramatic, with a focus on the character and the environment, which is typical for a game's in-game interface.

Anecdotally, I had a dream about Tarot cards last night. not a nightmare, but a nice dream actually.

I got a book about tarot from the library on Friday, but I haven't bought any cards yet, just reading on the symbolism and meaning of the major arcana. I was reading the book right before bed and stopped midway through the symbolism on death.

I dreamt that I driving, on my way to pick my little sister up. I park the car and head out into a forest. I got lost, right after sunset, losing my shoes and car. A Hispanic woman, who I don't know IRL, about mid 20's I would say, came in her car to pick me up. I had a feeling of familiarity with her, like she was a close family friend. She drove me in her car, and there was a new pair of shoes under my chair, cut up and customized for me specifically, (pic is what the shoes would've looked like originally, but not how they looked in my dream). When I opened them she said they were a Christmas present from my younger brother. She brought me to a store with several different tarot decks, very beautiful and intricate, and I went to look for the RWS set. I walked through the store, enough so that I couldn't see my sister, the Hispanic woman, or the old bald male owner of the store. that's about when the dream ended.

I also should mention that throughout the dream, I aged backwards. While driving I was my own age, in the forest a little younger, in the woman's car I wanna say about 16 (the age of my little brother actually) and in the store around 9, (the age of my little sister).

To the right of the central artwork, there is a red object with a textured surface, possibly a piece of paper or a piece of jewelry. The red object appears to have a red wax seal or stamp on it.

The text on the green object reads "MINDING ONE DAY," which is likely a phrase or a quote. The overall style of the image is a still life composition with a focus on the artworks and the green object in the foreground. The lighting in the image is soft, and the background is neutral, allowing the artworks to stand out.

A and B Axis II, Souls, and the Gnostic Mistake Anonymous Mon 15 Dec 2025 09:32:34 No.41671122 ViewReplyOriginalReport
Quoted By: >>41671424
Psychiatrists will say that I'm "inflexible" and "antisocial" because when society suddenly shifts, I simply refuse to go along with whatever lie is being sold. I refuse to delude myself on the situation and instead will start to crash out to escape the situation in the only ways I know how. Even simply pointing out the absurdity of what is going on is seen as a problem.

I've noticed other Axis II types reporting similar experiences, as they will remain outsiders to society at large because they refuse to play the game. But I have come to the conclusion that gnostics are genuinely not playing but are pieces on the board. It's why our behaviors are considered erratic, wild, and unpredictable, filled with odd beliefs and genuine curiosity. We see that society is a few genuine actors who control pzombies. However, many of us are unwilling to play (Cluster A), or attempt to play (Cluster B). However, what we all have in common is that many of us are very unskilled players and have no way to actually utilize the knowledge we have.

The mistake gnostics make is that they, 1, assume that they are players; not unlike Jews who fail to realise that they themselves are also overwhelmingly goym. 2, the second mistake they make is assuming that uplifting is achievable or even desirable. They attempt to rid themselves of connection and desire. Both are forms of the true death. In this way, they are no different than the Christians who willingly feed their souls to their envy and jealousy demon "god". Both are incapable of acting as free agents, making alliances as needed, and even deceiving or breaking pacts at will, choosing instead to be slaves.

Gnostics are slaves to yet another "demiurge", seeking to feed themselves into a greater machine who will use them for their own ends, or to simply feed themselves to make themselves more powerful; and they blind themselves to their own personal divine nature. Maybe I am just not familiar with your Cluster A game.
Anonymous Mon 15 Dec 2025 09:46:15 No.41671164 Report
Another mistake gnostics make is that they assume those who are poor players lack free will, are Hylian themselves. Being deceived by other players is not a sign of a lack of free will. The only true sign I have seen of a lack of soul/spirit/whatever in a person has been when people suddenly turn on friends and family after a religious leader or political talking head tells them to by spreading lies about classes of people, despite knowing that person intimately for decades. I have watched this occur over and over and over again. These chattle will latch on to movements that surround themselves with ideology of collective greatness.

Not only that, they identify themselves with whatever "tribe" they are a part of, even if it flies in the face of prior, deep knowledge. They are part of a collective soul and have no true individual experience behind those eyes.

I never understood the "it's an illusion" crowd when it comes to this stuff. It feels like most people can delude themselves into seeing whatever it is they want to see, rather than seeing things for as they are in front of them. They attach morals, external thought frameworks, and lie about things themselves being social constructs, rather than seeing that the only construct is how they approach its discussion. No matter how much you argue about whether something is or is not does not change what sits before you.

The image is a digital artwork featuring a stylized representation of a red liquid droplet with a humanoid face. The droplet has a wide-open mouth and is depicted with a surprised expression. The droplet's eyes are wide open, and its mouth is slightly open, as if it's about to speak or shout. The droplet's skin is textured, giving it a lifelike appearance.

In the background, there is a blue lightning bolt, which is a common symbol associated with electricity or power. The lightning bolt is positioned to the right of the droplet, and it appears to be emanating from the droplet, suggesting a connection or interaction between the two.

The overall style of the image is cartoonish and exaggerated, with a dark, moody color palette that includes shades of red, black, and blue. The artwork seems to be designed to evoke a sense of surprise or shock, as suggested by the droplet's surprised expression. There are no texts present in the image.

flavor and scent is incredibly important. also, nicotine is a 100% awesome way to increase your testosterone. smoking is not the only option. patches, lozenges, tinctures, oils, colognes, etc... all have amounts of deliberate tobacco and nicotine. remember, you have nicotine specific receptors in your brain for a reason- it signals your body to make more testosterone, among other things, the pheromones listed above.

if you really want to, grow your own tobacco. the flowers are fragrant and people are always surprised that tobacco and nicotine flower are so fragrant and pleasant. tobacco cologne has been a thing for men ever since ever since for a reason.

probably should've posted the correct book. Randolph covers a lot of different spells and potions used in backwoods/provincial magic. it is a good practice to read more recent material like this, and I personally know several practitioners of this, including my sister, who still do the "old ways of the hills" with certain things. those hill folk are more or less europoid stock, having inherited the magic and lore through that path, and further back in time, down to Rome, then back to Egypt and beyond.

the point is, reading a modern survey of that knowledge is easier to have a modern reference using language and terms we know, and then go look at the ancient techniques in the Rex Research alchemy archives. that contains essentially every book written by alchemists. you'll want to pay special attention to works by Galen.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Galen he wrote about 100 pounds worth of book to put to paper all the ancient recipes, magic, potions, etc... sex magic potions show up there, and they are all variants of what I describe here. you can get the books in the links above and read for yourself.

The image is a digital illustration featuring a human figure in the center, who appears to be in a state of distress or sadness. The figure is seated with their head resting on their hands, and their body is oriented towards the viewer. Surrounding the figure are six alien-like figures, all facing the same direction. These figures are depicted in a 3D style, with a smooth, light-colored skin texture and a slightly translucent appearance. The background is a gradient of dark blue, providing a stark contrast to the figures and the figure in distress. The overall composition of the image suggests a theme of alien encounters or a narrative involving the human figure and the alien figures. There are no texts present in the image.

We all share an old brain structure called the Amygdala. So there is familiarity, but the actual genetic distance between reptiles and mammals is relatively wide, and the psychology is pretty different.

You would have to imagine them like a species that diverged, and then evolved it's own capabilities separately, but all based off the same far distance, common ancestor.

The image is a digital graphic with a dark background and white text. The text is divided into two columns, with the left column containing the title "WHAT IS A PERPETRATOR?" and the right column providing a definition of a perpetrator. The definition begins with the statement, "A Perpetrator is anyone who has been trained to harass, main, and kill a Target, either by direct means, or by covert means including electronic, biological, or accidental means. Career perps make a good living dealing misery to hapless individuals. Perpetrator, or 'perps,' for short, usually do not know the victim personally, but are supplied enough information to allow a well-oiled campaign of gang stalking and harassment." The text is in a serif font, and the color contrast is high, making the text stand out against the dark background. The style of the image is informational and educational, likely intended for a presentation or a discussion.

https://web.archive.org/web/20250120175435/https://www.targetedjustice.com/gangstalking---training-manual.html

Consider the following:

>A targeted individual is a person who has been singled out because of his or her activism, whistle-blowing, or political/ideological dissent.
>Gangstalking usually happens when a person that has commited no crimes is defamed in some way.
>Neighborhood watch and other untrained opinionated vigilantes are the obvious offenders of gangstalking, including official or unofficial political groups etc.

Tactics used include:

1. illegal surveillance (bugs placed in home, work, vehicle)
2. illegal wiretapping
3. illegal investigation of all personal and private documents including medical and financial records
4. waves of criminal activity including vandalism, poisoning, break-ins, theft and sexual assault
5. hacking of all electronic devices
6. harassing phone calls, texts & emails
7. redirects to gang-stalkers when the target calls for help or assistance
8. organized harassment & stalking (by law enforcement, private security firms and ordinary citizens)
9. being ostracized by entire communities based on slander and rumors (usually outright lies said about that person)

>Ignore the glowtards whose job it is to say gangstalking is not real >10. Sleep deprivation - this is perhaps one of the most insidious tactics used where victims are woken multiple times a night and can be kept awake for days at a time. The effects are dramatic and completely debilitating effecting concentration, mood, irritability, appearance, and significantly impacts all areas of their life - job performance, relationships, and significantly aids in discrediting the victim as they appear unorganised, disheveled, and sleeping patterns alter so they may sleep during the day (where noise campaigns are more effective) and be awake at night (where they can be painted as the one making noise and being a disruptive member of the community).

>11. Baiting or entrapment where victims are harassed to the point that they lash out and commit a crime such as assault, break and enter or vandalism, as they try and locate the source of the harassment. Harassers will actively try to provoke verbal and physical confrontations especially after a period of sleep deprivation. Or they are prompted into an activity which can then be used as leverage such as affairs, sexuality, drug use, or other criminal activity.

>12. Gaslighting which is a form of psychological abuse where someone will actively try undermine victims and to make them doubt themselves so that they lose all self confidence and self esteem and are therefor easier to manipulate and push toward the mental health pathway. It can be as simlpe as being told something which they then deny, then telling them how silly they are for thinking they said it, and turn the lie around into an attack on the person. It can be incredibly effective coming from a trusted person and before the victim understands what is happening to them.

>13.Blackbag jobs is a term when a harasser breaks into a victims property and places something or deliberately moves something. The purpose is to cause self doubt, and fear that their property is being accessed which harassers try to then sell as paranoia.
Anonymous Mon 15 Dec 2025 04:25:45 No.41670064 Report
>14. Propaganda and disinformation is also the other key element to suppress knowledge of this practice as its effectiveness initially requires the victim to be unaware of the existence of gangstalking, gaslighting, or the electronic technologies such as directional speakers so huge amounts of time are devoted online to creating disinformation sites which attempt to discredit victims by pushing the mental health agenda. They achieve this by posing as victims and actively trying to sound crazy so that all victims are are treated as such. Also by creating websites claiming to help victims and being a resource for victims to come together and then harassing them to the extent that they lose hope and no longer reach out for help causing further isolation.

>15. Further to the above, gangstalkers rely on disbelief and discrediting and as such much of the harassment is designed (at least initially) to mimic mental health issues. They also rely on their abuse being so extreme, so pervasive, so fundamentally immoral, as to be disbelieved and victims subsequently resort to photographing, videotaping, and sound recording their everyday encounters to disprove the countless unfounded claims made against them - especially in relation to gaslighting, which gangstalkers try to turn around and paint the victims as paranoid or irrational. Victims are made to feel helpless as every attempt to defend themselves is used against them and when they seek help they are met with disbelief or open hostility.

In the center of the corridor, there is a figure dressed in a long, flowing robe, standing with their back to the viewer. This figure is the focal point of the painting, drawing the viewer's attention. The lighting in the room is soft and diffused, with sunlight streaming in from the left side of the corridor, casting long shadows and highlighting the texture of the red brick walls. The overall mood of the painting is serene and contemplative, with a sense of timelessness.

My lust died the second i wrote the average feminine nature on paper and stratified it according to its moral nature. I am now convinced that the only thing you are supposed to do as a soul, as a man is to wrestle your own flesh into submission, find God and develop a prosperous and altruistic relationship with our creator in order to escape this prison. 99% of women are half humans with no souls, everything they strive for and enjoy is ultimately evil in its nature. The very core of femininity is absolute evil that seeks to devour good men with the same glee and joy youd get from stomping out some dorky kids sand castle.

Once I realized why women are the way they are, its like ive finally been enlightened as to why hermit monks become hermits in the first place. Its all a lie, its all a joke. This planet is a prison, women are archons who genuinely dont give a fuck about anything but they have to pretend to have interests beyond themselves just so men dont become suspicious and notice the huge disparity in the nature of each gender. Its not a complimentary nature, its completely one-sided and parasitic. The entire role of women is to entrap a mans life force and pull another soul onto this false reality incarnation trap. Thats all they were designed to do. Satan takes a hold of their hivemind vessels with comedic ease and no resistance. They are all beyond corrupt, they fall apart once a month and endure pain unless they fulfill their ill-natured task. There is nothing in this world worth striving for besides Gods love. There is absolutely NOTHING in this world that is worth your place in heaven.

The image is a page from a book or a document, featuring two columns of text. The left column is in a larger font size and is written in English, while the right column is in a smaller font size and is also in English. The text is in a mix of English and what appears to be a non-English script, possibly a language from the Middle East or North Africa.
The left column begins with a quote from the book that reads, "The Demiurge rejoiced because he thought that he had made this beautiful creation without the Spirit of the True Divinity above him." This quote is followed by a paragraph that continues the theme of the Demiurge's joy in creating the world, mentioning the creation of the world and the Spirit of the True Divinity above him.
The right column begins with a quote from the same book that states, "The Demiurge ordered Adam to name this new creation, but before he could do so, he was struck by the Holy Spirit, for through the breath, she had become awakened to the true nature of the Demiurge." This quote continues the theme of the Demiurge's creation and the Holy Spirit's awakening.
The text is written in a mix of English and a non-English script, which suggests that the document is likely from an ancient or historical context. The text is dense and technical, indicating that the document is likely a scholarly or religious work. The page number "27" is visible at the bottom, suggesting that this is a continuation of a larger work or chapter.

This is very relevant to the current state of the world ("Eden").

Women who are "hard to communicate with" are likely on their way somewhere else; don't get too attached to those kinds of ladies.

Also avoid the types of Animal Ladies that wants to just harm you.

As a man rright now you'll find it very hard to find "functioning heterosexual relationships" for real.

Try dating other men, or focus on other things than romantic relationships first.

ie focus more on studying what's going on spiritually; then you'll understand the quotes in pic related (Liber Falxifer 2 quotes).

You're living in "pre-flood Eden"; "Ark-plans" is the most relevant things to focus on right now for real.

>Also avoid the types of Animal Ladies that wants to just harm you.

This refers to women who are mad as fuck that they're not on the way towards the same destination as other women.

Overall; in the current state of the world; some people have partaken from "the forbidden fruits of the tree of Knowledge"; while some people haven't wanted to do so yet (people who enjoy just living normie lives in a "tutorial level world")

Most women in the world are on their way towards places that most men have had no interest in going towards at all ("outside of Eden")

The image is a page from a book or a document, featuring text in a serif font. The text is divided into two columns, with the left column containing a paragraph and the right column containing a question mark followed by a series of three asterisks. The text is in English and discusses a historical event involving the tribe of Qayin and the tribe of Qalmana.
The paragraph begins with the phrase "In order to keep his bloodline, from the side of Seth, alive," which sets the context for the discussion. It mentions that Noah was also granted to bring with him and save his own family, consisting of his wife, his three sons, and their three wives. The text then transitions to describe the events that would lead to the bloodline's survival, mentioning that the events would be so significant that they would be remembered by the blind tyrant Demiurge.
The question mark followed by the asterisks indicates a question or a statement that is not fully visible in the image. The text does not provide a direct answer to the question, but it suggests that the question is related to the events described in the paragraph.
The image is a snapshot of a page from a book or a document, and it is important to note that the text is not fully visible, and the question mark is not fully visible in the image provided. The image does not contain any additional visual elements or graphics, and the focus is solely on the text.

The text is in a language that appears to be English, and it is written in a style that suggests it is a digital or online communication. The conversation is about the concept of hierarchy and its relation to economics and power. The text discusses the concept of hierarchy and its role in economics, stating that it is a matter of how hierarchy is structured and what it is based on. It also mentions the concept of communism, which is based on eliminating economic hierarchy and power, and the idea that this is achieved by promoting equality and equalizing the distribution of wealth. The text also touches on the concept of "equal" or "equal" pledges, which are the terms used to describe the concept of equalizing the distribution of wealth and power.

The text also discusses the concept of hypergamy, which is the idea that in communities where everyone is poor, and a few people have a lot of money, the family and community will die. The text also mentions the concept of "domesticate" and "dominate" 95% of sexual interactions, which are terms used to describe the dominance of men in society.
The text also discusses the concept of ambition, creativity, and achievement, which are terms used to describe the desire to achieve and the drive to succeed. The text also mentions the concept of "squashing" among the society's men, which is a term used to describe the idea of men being oppressed and subjugated by women.
The text also includes a reference to a number "4480000000" and a reference to a number "4480000000" in the same conversation, which could be related to some sort of code or identifier.
The text is written in a way that is dense and technical, with a lot of complex ideas and concepts being discussed. The text is formatted in a way that suggests it is a part of a larger conversation, with multiple lines of text and references to other messages or topics. The text is in a language that is not English, and the style of the text is formal and academic.

You will never be a real incel. You have no autism, you have no negative canthal tilt, you have no deep seated emotional resentment. You are a well-adjusted man twisted by irony and memes into a crude mockery of a stone cold virgin.

All the “rejection” you get is two-faced and half-hearted. Behind your back girls love you. Your parents are proud and happy for you, “Stacies” swoon over your masculine appearance behind closed doors.

Women are utterly smitten with you. Thousands of years of evolution have allowed women to sniff out chads with incredible efficiency. Even incels who “pass” look strong and charismatic to a woman. Your deep voice and good sense of humor are a dead giveaway. And even if you manage to earn a little online incel clout, you'll get cancelled the second your DMs get leaked and everybody gets a glimpse of the e-girls thirsting over you.

You will never be depressed. You wrench out a fake “tfw no gf” every single morning and tell yourself it's going to be miserable, but deep inside you feel the happiness creeping up like a weed, ready to bless you with unshakeable confidence.

Eventually it'll be too much to bear – you'll find a girlfriend, marry her, knock her up, and have seven healthy kids together. Your parents will praise you, happy but a little bit sentimental now that their little boy has finally grown up. They'll spoil the kids with candies and toys, and every acquaintance for the rest of your life will know that you're a fakecel. Eventually you will pass on surrounded by your loved ones. Your body will decay and go back to the dust, and all that will remain of your legacy is a family that misses you dearly.

This is your fate. This is what you chose. There is no turning back.

In the background, there is a large, glowing eye with a yellow iris and a green pupil, floating above the sand dunes. The eye is surrounded by a bright, ethereal light that casts a glow on the sand and the person. The sky is a gradient of purple and blue, with a faint, ethereal light that adds to the dreamlike quality of the image.

The overall color palette is dominated by warm tones, with the sand dunes and the person's robe in shades of brown and beige, and the sky and the eye in cooler tones. The image has a dreamlike quality, with the surreal elements blending seamlessly into the natural landscape.

The image is a close-up photograph of an eye, focusing on the iris and the sclera. The iris is a light green color, and the sclera is a lighter shade of white. The eye appears to be open, and the pupil is visible. The background of the image is blurred, making it difficult to discern any additional details. There are no texts or discernible brands present in the image. The style of the image is a straightforward, non-artistic photograph, likely intended for a medical or scientific context.

Self-love is one of those terms where it can mean a lot of different things in a lot of different contexts.

Context 1: Self Hating: In the context of being a self-hating person, it is a good thing to accept and love yourself. However the root of why you can't accept others is probably tied to how you cannot accept flaws in other people as well. So by learning to love other people, you will learn to love yourself.

Context 2: Narcissism: Narcissism is basically another word for selfishness, which is the root of evil. No we don't need people to have more narcissism.

Context 3: Hedonism: Marketing to woman uses self-love in the context of hedonism, and buying luxury products for yourself. A little bit of this is fine, but our culture promotes this way to much, and you won't attain lasting happiness from the latest shiny product.

Also of note: Black magic guys - many of them have said they work with a demon that teaches them self-love, which is basically a mix of narcissism + selfishness + hedonism to cover up their insecurities. It's kind of gross.

No dude what i'm saying is detachment from the world is pretty much killing yourself. Most joys in life are things like eatting, drinking, love. If you truely do not want to have attachments then you must stop eating, you must stop drinking, you must stop having fun, you have to just lay in bed all day, and that is seen as depression.

Is wanting to create, to make art or artistic creations the worse possible thing in the universe?

It's all I want to do and to do so by expressing myself as an individual but it feels like I'm constantly being forced to seek out either demons or archons to make deals with or tough through it, often at the help of (((ADD Medication))) which just feels like it's own type of demon.

I'm starting to genuinely believe I'm in a flesh prison designed to break my will and desires to be an artist as an individual, and make money by being an artist, and start a family using resources from being an artist an doing it as far removed from the demiurge usury system as possible, without making direct deals and bargains with demons in order to do it.

There’s a difference between gluttony and eating to sustain the body. Wanting extravagant meals, drinks, etc frequently is very different from eating to sustain the body. One can enjoy doing things but it is doing it to excess that creates the attachment, aka addictions. People think if I only had this material possession I’d be happy and generally that is not the case unless there is already a deprivation.

Suicide is stupid. You know what else is stupid? Blindly accepting the words of random people on the internet and throwing your entire life away because of responses in which these people clearly put no thought in to begin with. Making art is an attachment to the world, but suicide is far worse. Don't fool yourself, because you don't need an audience to express yourself. You're deluding yourself and trying to justify your pursual of an egotistical career, using humble ideas to again justify your true intentions. I dont think it's an issue to create art necessarily, unless you're involved with nasty people who are forcing you to do it against your will. The music industry is a slave industry, no different than sex trafficking and drug trafficking. You'll never understand this unless you're invited into it.

Please anon, don't be an idiot and use your fucking brain to discern what people on here say. It's scary how quick you let others think for yourself and don't put any thought to challenge what they say and why. I love you, and I hope one day you seek out the Lord Jesus Christ.

Detachment can also be awareness of the fleeting moments we have here, and learning to be content with that.
You don't have to monk-mode to achieve a proper sense of detachment.
I've meditated on this one, and the conclusion brought to me was that you're very much allowed to enjoy things, just don't get too caught up into them. (as in obsessions, regrets, extreme desires, stressors, hills to die on, etc.)
Otherwise, we are all just biding our time until death. Your individual separation of the universal consciousness has the ability to find a personal meaning in all of this in this temporal state.
Even if you weren't seeking spirituality, the ability to know how to go with the flow and move on when life calls for it is an extremely valuable skill and lesson. To be selfless, and to know how to forgive and love yourself is also very special too. (I struggle with self-love, personally) i have ideas for characters, video games, movies etc that are very vivid and in great detail that i think other people would enjoy i enjoy making them, trying to make them, learning how to make them, teaching others how to also make them like my brain is bombarded with them and i've spent decades attempting to get good enough to actually see one through and like make enough money to support myself and family and i used to dream about having enough money to right the wrongs my father did i had a little breakdown recently and i went to my mum and said i was going to give up everything and just be a gardener, just start a small gardening business and get by doing that and all of a sudden she did a complete 180 and didn't want me to give up despite the fact it's felt like she's been the greatest force applying pressure for me to give up and just "get a normal job" she used to go on about how i was a narcissist and egotistical for not giving up and just getting a normal job.

I have felt that one too.
Unfortunately, I think that might be down to the individual. Some don't want to wake up or accept that truth. It might even be our closest loved ones.
It's hard for a lot of people to not assume that our world could be a prison planet, or subject to samsara. They get fearful or choose ignorance, while we choose to seek to know more about it. Learning how to grow spiritually and mentally during our lives once we reach death.
I don't know what there is after life, and not even the ones who've had NDEs, drug trips, and other experiences would truly know. Only the ones who've passed could know completely. We just have the pieces, and hopefully we can more or less solve it before we're out of here. (lest we repeat it all over again)

On the left, there is a character with a tattoo on his left arm, wearing camouflage pants and a black t-shirt. He has his hands covering his face, which is a common gesture in the game to indicate surprise or shock.

In the middle, there is another character with a beard and a black t-shirt. He is also wearing camouflage pants and has his hands on his head, which is a gesture often used to express confusion or shock.

On the right, there is a third character wearing a gray suit with a white shirt and a black tie. He has his hands on his head, which is a gesture often used to express surprise or shock.

The background shows a construction site with a red truck and a water tower, suggesting an urban environment. There are also trees and a hill in the distance, adding to the outdoor setting. The characters are standing on a dirt road, and the overall atmosphere of the image is one of surprise or shock.

The image is a still from a movie or television show, featuring four men standing in a dimly lit room with a high ceiling. The man in the foreground is wearing a white t-shirt with a gold chain around his neck, and he is looking directly at the camera. Behind him, three other men are standing in a line, facing the camera. The man on the far left is wearing a green jacket and a yellow shirt, the man in the middle is wearing a blue shirt with a floral pattern, and the man on the far right is wearing a black jacket with white stripes. The lighting in the room is dim, and the walls are covered in graffiti. The overall atmosphere of the image suggests a serious or intense moment.

I have work in MSP space for about 10 years.

Computers can totally tell if you are confident about using it or not. They can also tell if you disrespect them or treat them poorly.

I've seen this several times. User complains that computer is slow, common functions don't work, random and unpredictable failures, etc. as soon as a tech joins, the problems disappear. This isn't just a matter of idiot users not knowing how computers work, because I have hung around with those users to observe the behavior. They are not lying, the computer will exhibit random and unpredictable problems. But as soon as a technician touches the machine it behaves well.

I've also done more than my share of after hours on-call rotations. I've learned that if you believe that you will get no calls, you will get no calls. If you believe you will be swamped by calls, you will get calls out the ass. Discovered this by accident when I came in one Monday to discover I have been on call for the last week and not received a single call. This actually led me into LoA and how your consciousness shapes your reality. I would have dismissed it all as bullshit if I didn't have first-hand experience.

The image is a text excerpt from a story titled "A Story About Magic." The text is written in a casual, conversational style, with a mix of first-person narration and third-person narration. The story appears to be a narrative of a hacker's experience with a magical switch, which is described as a "little switch glued to the frame of one cabinet." The hacker is shown to be unaware of the switch's existence, and the text humorously suggests that the switch is a "little joke" that the hacker is unaware of.
The text discusses the hacker's initial reaction to the switch, which is described as a "little joke" that the hacker is unaware of. The hacker's subsequent actions, such as touching the switch, are described as a "little joke" that the hacker is unaware of. The text also mentions that the hacker's actions were not connected to the switch's magical properties, and that the switch was "electrically non-perpendicular" and "connected to a place that couldn't affect anything anyway."
The text also includes a visual element, a photograph of a computer that has crashed, which is described as "a story for Richard Greenblatt, a time-travel MTF hacker who was close at hand." The photograph is accompanied by a caption that reads, "This time we ran for Richard Greenblatt, a time-travel MTF hacker who was close at hand. He had never noticed the switch in the computer, and it has not fired ever since."

The text concludes with a statement that the hacker is "silly" and "usually keep a set on 'more magic.'" The text concludes with a reference to a 1994 explanation of the story, which has been "since been offered." The text also mentions that the switch body was metal, and that the non-metal part of the switch was "grounded." The text concludes with a statement that the switch was "grounded to the ground," which is a reference to the grounding of electrical devices to the ground.
The image is a combination of text and a photograph, with the photograph serving as a visual representation of the hacker's computer that has crashed. The photograph is placed at the bottom of the text, and it is a clear, high-resolution image of a computer that has crashed, with the screen displaying a blue and white color scheme. The photograph is a clear visual clue to the hacker's computer, which is the central focus of the story.

Technology is interesting in the paranormal world. I believe the reason we get videos or pictures of spirits but not see them has to do with the photoreceptors in the camera.
I also would surmise that some spirits don't know their visible in our dimension, same way we wouldn't know if we're visible in their dimension.

On top of that, energy plays a big roll.

[11 / 3]The image is a black and white photograph featuring a close-up of a cat's face. The cat appears to be resting with its eyes closed, and its fur is dark, suggesting it could be a black cat. The cat's ears are pointed upwards, and its nose is slightly curved, giving it a somewhat surprised or alert expression. The cat's eyes are wide open, and the pupils are dilated, which could indicate that the cat is in a relaxed state. The background is blurred, but it seems to be a soft, patterned fabric, possibly a blanket or a cushion. There are no discernible texts or other objects in the image. The style of the image is candid and appears to be taken in a domestic setting.

Anybody else watch this physiognomy guy? I'm still conflicted on whether or not I actually buy it, but I would be lying if I said it doesn't compel me. It doesn't help that the guy himself has the classic magician/snakeoilsalesman phenotype himself

What's the point of there being a bunch of different occult systems? Do all roads just lead to chaos magick? How does one start or know what's best for them?

Chaos magic is just Law of Attraction/Manifestation. Power of the mind. AKA Psychic power
Anonymous Sun 14 Dec 2025 23:33:47 No.41669271 Report
You feel it. When you know, you just know. Some people are called to different systems and teachers because their soul has deals made from beyond the veil. That doesn't mean following them is guaranteed to be without pain, however.

>Do all roads just lead to chaos magick?
No, because it doesn't work for everyone. Some people cannot simply will themselves into believing in such things, nor do the people who can believe be certain that some other underlying system is in play.

Many different methods "work" but that doesn't mean they are all equally valid, I'd say. When the time is right the signs come through regardless of what I'm doing, so it all boils down to timing which cannot be known and inner discernment.

If I had to condense some real wisdom for you I'd say just don't let some spiritual teacher convince you they alone know the "right" way to do things.

Literally just different cultures' interpretation of the same thing. They kept these things veiled in their own cultural symbols and allegory so the dumb people couldn't access it and turn it into something materialistic and gay (TikTok/Insta new age manifesting culture) or dogmatic and oppressive (organized religion). For me, everything clicked once I read and studied Jung for 5 years, as well as many comparative religion books. And yes, chaos magick does get the gist of it, however I think the ceremonial aspects and cultural archetypes take the belief to a whole new level that chaos magick unfortunately misses out on.

TLDR:

This planet is Bozrah, not Earth. What's more, you should be warning people about the upcoming "day of vengeance" here on Bozrah. Keep in mind, the 1,000-year Millennial Kingdom will take place on Earth, not on Bozrah. This planet will be destroyed (and Jesus will be the destroyer). It has no future.

From the post:
>And don't be deceived by the fact that the masses aren't talking about this info. In actuality, this info is the most important thing on the planet right now—by far. Nothing else even comes close.

Also from the post:

Attention: At least one rapture has already occurred! : r/Retconned

Attention: At least one rapture has already occurred!
You are here: truth-now.org

At least one rapture has already occurred. This planet is, in fact, the place that some people from Earth (such as myself) were raptured to. We weren't "taken to Heaven." We were brought here instead. We're now on a real, physical, 3D planet that is definitely NOT Earth.

For one, the speed of time here is 50 percent faster than it is on Earth! In other words, a 10-second count—using the Earth counting pace—results in a whopping 15.00 seconds elapsing. And visually, when I look at a digital clock that has a seconds display, the seconds advance at a supernaturally fast rate. It truly looks insane (to me). Heck, one could say, with complete and total honesty, that it looks downright comical or even cartoonish. For the natives, though, the speed of time here has always been the same (and thus, the clocks here seem 100 percent, completely normal to them). And in case you haven't done the math yet, a day on this planet is only 16 Earth hours long (i.e., one-third of an Earth day is missing).

Note: In addition to the time difference, the human anatomy here is also considerably different from Earth's, but you can read more about that later, when you get to the main material. And keep in mind, given that the clocks run much faster here, the bodies are built accordingly. But also keep this in mind: The Bible, as far as I know, doesn't talk about any of the anatomical differences between the two planets, whereas the time difference is mentioned not once, but twice (Matthew 24:22 and Revelation 8:12).

Bottom line: This planet is Bozrah, not Earth. Moreover, the event in which Jesus destroys this planet is called "the day of vengeance." There will be no 7-year Tribulation or Antichrist here—because this isn't Earth. Earth is roughly 75,000 light-years from here (and is currently going through the Tribulation). This is merely an impostor planet, a physical replica designed to serve two purposes: (1) a containment realm for a particular bloodline (namely, the Edomites), and (2) a temporary sanctuary for select individuals (namely, the elect or "remnant of Israel") who were raptured from Earth prior to the start of the Tribulation.

By the way, the thing that I'm referring to as "Bozrah" is not a symbolic concept. It's not an eschatological metaphor. It's not an allegorical parable. It's the physical, corporeal planet you're currently residing on. And unless you confront that fact head-on, you'll remain in total darkness—fully deceived by the illusion. So, in regard to our current location, let me be crystal clear: This planet was never Earth, and it never will be.

Make sure to read my pinned X thread (all four posts). And regarding my X bio, I'm exactly who I say I am. Bozrah natives must break free from the spell they've been under and humbly accept the truth, setting aside pride, stubbornness, willful ignorance, and fashionable cynicism; this entire situation has gotten so ridiculous that, at this point, I'm just calmly waiting for the day of vengeance (rather than continuing to bend over backwards for those with hardened ears). And while I absolutely hate date-setting, if I were forced to give a window for when the day of vengeance will begin, I would say any time between September 1, 2026, and March 15, 2027. Note: This window is based on all of the available evidence, biblical and otherwise. Basically, the day of vengeance is supposed to be "well underway" by the time a deep freeze hits North America. Make of that what you will.

Pinned X thread:

https://x.com/elitefeat/status/1742924942151438589
or
https://bozrah.info

This isn't BS. It's not a delusion. And I'm certainly not LARPing.

Simply put, God is the one who designed this setup. And now, Earth's elect are here on Bozrah and—by virtue of being here—are able to bear witness. Do not take this revelation lightly, as though it were a mundane, ho-hum story on your local evening news. In fact, get the idea that this is some sort of joke or falsehood out of your head. I mean, let's face it, you're being tested at this very moment, and you definitely don't want God to declare that you're in the same "category" or group as Noah's contemporaries (because, obviously, such a declaration would really, really suck for you when Jesus arrives here for the day of vengeance). Instead, be like Noah. Heed the monumental warning (and whatever you do, do not blow it off).

I'll say it again: Be counted with Noah, not with the foolish naysayers—who will face a kind of regret that I won't even begin to unpack here. Note: After reading this post and my pinned X thread, you'll eventually need to read the main Reddit material (i.e., the primer, TimeDiff, the rebuttal, etc.). And don't be deceived by the fact that the masses aren't talking about this info. In actuality, this info is the most important thing on the planet right now—by far. Nothing else even comes close.

Regarding the Edomites:

In the Bible, the Edomites are the descendants of Esau—the twin brother of "Jacob" (who later became "Israel"). The two bloodlines (the Edomites and the Israelites) share a common origin but represent two opposing destinies. In prophecy, the Edomites are linked to Bozrah—the place that Jesus personally invades and destroys in the end times, during the day of vengeance (Isaiah 34 and 63:1-6). But that's where things get wild, because this planet is Bozrah! In fact, go read Micah 2:12 (KJV) right now. And yes, for this particular verse, it has to be the King James Version. And by the way, the logic that I'm using here is extremely simple and involves the process of elimination: Given only two possibilities—Earth or Bozrah—this planet isn't Earth; therefore, it must be Bozrah. Period. End of story. There's no mysterious "Planet 3" that we need to worry about.

So, when I say "the Edomites," I'm referring to a lineage that was placed here intentionally as part of a prophetic setup. For example: Genesis 27:39 (KJ21) states, "Behold, thy dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above." That's when Isaac, Esau's father, gifted him Bozrah as his future dwelling. Likewise, in regard to the Edomites, Obadiah 1:4 (ESV) casually states, "... though your nest is set among the stars, from there I will bring you down, declares the Lord." That's a direct reference to the upcoming day of vengeance here on Bozrah.

But enough about the Edomites. It's time to dive into the full picture. My pinned X thread summarizes the material, so start there—it's the best place to begin.

You need to read the primer and TimeDiff. It doesn't even take 15 minutes. In my pinned X thread, click on the Reddit link and then go from there.

Note: The primer and TimeDiff (two Reddit posts) serve as the foundation for understanding the material. Without reading them, the info about the eventual destruction of Bozrah and other related topics won't make much sense.

Watch 80’s tv programs around grandfather clocks on YouTube and count their swings vs what your own time is saying. They definitely all swing significantly slower. And the speech on these recordings is normal speed , so it’s not some video vhs recording phenomena or whatever other logical rationale will be presented

Famous examples of the Mandela Effect
The Mandela Effect is a phenomenon where a large group of people collectively misremember a fact or event. Here are some of the most famous examples as shared by Redditors:

Fruit of the Loom Logo
Many people vividly remember the Fruit of the Loom logo including a cornucopia, but it has never been part of the official logo.

"The fruit of the loom logo, and it's non-existent cornucopia."

"I'm willing to bet my entire life that the fruit of the loom logo once had a cornucopia."

Berenstain Bears
A significant number of people remember the popular children's book series as "The Berenstein Bears" rather than "The Berenstain Bears."

"The Berenstein Bears. Always was, always will be.."

"I swear I remember it being The BerenSTEIN Bears."

Monopoly Man's Monocle
Many people believe the Monopoly man has a monocle, but he does not.

"I SWEAR TO GOD THE MONOPOLY MAN HAD A MONOCLE"

"The monopoly guy not having a monocle"

"Luke, I Am Your Father"
The famous line from Star Wars is often misquoted as "Luke, I am your father," but the correct line is "No, I am your father."

"'Luke I am your father' As opposed to 'No, I am your father'"

"I remember the line in Empire Strikes back being 'No, I am your father'"

Tinker Bell and the Disney Logo
Many people recall Tinker Bell using her wand to create the Disney castle in the logo, but she does not.

"Tinker Bell's dotting the I in the Disney logo - a lot of people say they recall her shaking her wand to try and get it working again."

"Tinker bell using her wand to make the Disney castle appear before all the movies."

Febreze vs. Febreeze
The correct spelling of the air freshener brand is "Febreze," but many people remember it as "Febreeze."

"The fact that it’s Febreze not Febreeze gets me"

"It’s spelled Febreze, not Febreeze"

Pikachu's Tail
Many people remember Pikachu having a black tip on its tail, but it does not.

"I swear I remember Pikachu having black detailing on the tip of its tail."

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall
In Snow White, the Evil Queen says "Magic Mirror on the wall," not "Mirror, mirror on the wall."

"The Evil Queen from Snow White never says 'Mirror Mirror on the Wall...'"

Froot Loops vs. Fruit Loops
The correct spelling of the cereal is "Froot Loops," but many people remember it as "Fruit Loops."

"'Froot loops' changed to 'fruit loops,' then back to 'froot loops.'"

"Froot Loops I always knew was Froot Loops."

Jif vs. Jiffy Peanut Butter
Many people remember the peanut butter brand as "Jiffy," but it has always been "Jif."

"It was always Jif peanut butter."

"CHOOSY MOMS CHOOSE JIF"

Personal Mandela Effects
Some people have experienced personal Mandela Effects, where they remember specific details differently from reality.

"I Mandela effected my whole family once."

"My cousin died in a car accident in 1994. His high school band recorded the song 'Time of your Life' by Green Day to have it played at his funeral."

The image is a candid photograph capturing a moment during a religious ceremony. In the foreground, a man wearing a white kippah with blue stripes is holding a baby wrapped in a white cloth. The baby is wearing a blue outfit and has a white headband. The man is smiling and looking at the baby, suggesting a positive interaction.
In the background, there are other individuals, some of whom are wearing traditional Jewish attire, including a woman in a leopard print dress and a man in a white kippah. The setting appears to be indoors, with a dark background that contrasts with the light-colored clothing of the individuals.
The image does not contain any discernible text. The style of the photograph is candid, capturing the natural expressions and interactions of the people involved in the ceremony. The lighting is soft, and the focus is on the subjects, emphasizing the emotions and the moment being captured.

Some tips are useful, if the gospel is extremely stupid in demanding to sell everything and give it to the poor, then Judaism says that charity, alms is good, but do not overdo, in an order not to make your family poor. That's wise advice. Kabbalah gives ideas about different worlds in this universe, and differs little from the world tree, the world tree with worlds, with inhabited planets.
However, the idea of Judaism that everything comes from one source is stupid, I do not support it. Their god Yahweh is suffering without his beloved goddess-wife Asherah, and therefore sent the Jews nation a catastrophe with the killing of 6 million Jews and Jewish women
If the gospel shows drinking alcohol and never speaks about the danger of alcoholism, then Judaism warns about the danger of alcoholism.
If the gospel says that it is not necessary to bury the dead, then Judaism says that it is necessary to bury the dead, because if they are not buried, spirits become angry, and infections that kill living people spread.
If the gospel says that one should hate one's father and mother and sisters and brothers, then Judaism says that one should love them, and that honoring parents prolongs life.

Judaism allowed a Jewish thrall owner to keep a Jewish thrall for no more than 6 years and at the end of this period make him a free man. Christianity is different. A Christian thrall owner kept Christian thralls all their lives until their death.

The image is a painting that depicts a scene with a large, menacing creature with a fierce expression, resembling a demon or a monstrous figure. The creature has a dark, almost black coloration with red and white accents, and its eyes are wide open, giving it a menacing look. It has sharp teeth and is holding a baby in its arms, which is also depicted with a similar fierce expression. The baby is being held by a smaller figure, who is also shown with a similar expression, suggesting a sense of fear or terror. Surrounding the creature are several smaller figures, some of which are also holding babies, indicating a theme of protection or care. These figures are depicted in a variety of poses, with some appearing to be in a state of distress or fear. The background of the painting is filled with intricate patterns and designs, which add to the overall dramatic and intense atmosphere of the artwork.
The painting style is realistic with a focus on detail, and the use of color is bold and vibrant, contributing to the overall intensity of the scene. The genre of the artwork is not specified, but it could be related to religious or mythological themes, given the presence of the demonic creature and the protective figures. The image does not contain any discernible text.

A mix of spiritual torture and jewish nonsense.

[11 / 2]The image depicts a dark, eerie scene with a large, monstrous creature emerging from a dark, shadowy space. The creature has a twisted, elongated head with sharp teeth and a gaping mouth, suggesting it is a predator. Its body is covered in a dark, viscous substance, possibly blood, and it has sharp, elongated limbs. The creature's eyes are glowing with a dark, malevolent light, and its mouth is open wide, revealing sharp teeth.

In the foreground, there are several figures who appear to be in a state of panic. They are silhouetted against the bright, artificial light, which is coming from the creature's glowing eyes. The figures are scattered around the creature, with some appearing to be running away from it.

The setting is a dimly lit, industrial space with large, rectangular windows that are partially obscured by the creature. The windows are numbered, with visible numbers such as "39" and "26," suggesting a high-rise building or a large, enclosed space. The overall atmosphere of the image is one of tension and fear, with the creature's presence dominating the scene.

Strange Claims Adjuster

Reading list for paranormal investigation and research
By Sharon A. Hill | April 23, 20181 Comment
In a recent discussion with a paranormal investigation group, I found myself referencing recommending books to check out for the latest on interesting facets of the field. I decided to share this annotated list.

First, there are three books that are “Handbooks” for spontaneous cases. They put ghost-hunting gadgetry in its place and re-orient the investigator to the proper aim of investigation: define the claim, assess if anything is happening, and then solve the problem. I consider these the best modern guides. If you are intent on pretending to be a TV-type investigator, then go waste your money on the paraceleb guides.

Scientific Paranormal Investigation (2010) by Benjamin Radford.
I reviewed this book here where I recommended it as a much-needed critical and logical guide to actually solving mysteries. Get it.

Radford expanded on the 2010 book with Investigating Ghosts: The Scientific Search for Spirits (2018) to tackle more specifics in depth including EVP evidence.

Ghostology: The Art of the Ghost Hunter (2015) by Steve Parsons. Why are you using that gadget? Why do you conduct a “sweep” of the room? Do you even know why or is it just because you saw it on television? Parsons hits every point and is clear about what you should or should not bother with. This is a true ghost hunting guide. For more details, I reviewed it here. Get it in Kindle.

It’s important to have a background on the cultural history of ghosts. The classic book on the historical context of ghosts is Ghosts: Appearances of the Dead and Cultural Transformation (1996, 2nd ed.) by R.C. Finucane. You simply can’t claim to understand the present phenomena of ghosts if you know nothing about how ghosts were depicted in the past. Get it.

Spirits of an Industrial Age: Ghost Imposture, Spring-heeled Jack and Victorian Society (2014) by Jacob Middleton . I was enamored with this book from which I learned an incredible amount of historical context for spirits and cultural ideas about haunting. The genuine stories taken from the media reports of a bygone era are fascinating. This book is highly readable, yet scholarly. Pick it up on Kindle for a steal.

The Haunted: A social history of ghosts (2007) by Owen Davies. This volume is incredibly well-researched. It can be dry at times but it is an essential volume to have as the social history of ghosts is THE history. This book is highly regarded and regularly referenced by scholars of ghost lore and literature. Get it.

The following three books are key volumes on modern examinations of ghost activity and cultural aspects.

Australian Poltergeists: The Stone-throwing Spook of Humpty Doo and Many Other Cases (2014) by Paul Cropper and Tony Healy. Stories of stone-throwing and fire-starting troubling house ghosts are not new. Yet the same themes occur in the present day. Cropper and Healy do an excellent job of documenting these cases, many of which were researched in person. Though they can't explain what's going on, I can't recall another volume of this type. I wish the same book was done for other places in the world. More in my review here. Get it on Kindle.

Paranormal Media: Audiences, Spirits and Magic in Popular Culture (2010) by Annette Hill (no relation) This book is based on research into paranormal popular media addressing both a UK and US perspective. I used this book heavily for my thesis work. It is a scholarly book so the price is a bit steep but borrow it if you have to as this is essential information to consider when evaluating ghost claims. I reviewed it here.

Parapsychology: A Handbook for the 21st Century (2015) edited by Etzel Cardeña, John Palmer, David Marcusson-Clavertz. This textbook is hefty but necessary. If one is to claim that they work in the field of amateur parapsychology, then you ought to at least know the state of the science. Even a perusal of this volume will show the wide chasm between ghost hunters and academic parapsycholgy. Read more about this here in my review. It's often available through university libraries but the Kindle edition is reasonable.

In Alan Brown's Ghost Hunters of New England (2008) you read firsthand candid views and opinions from amateur groups who bumped up against the "top" group The Atlantic Paranormal Society (TAPS) who went on to do the Ghost Hunters TV show. The groups interviewed for this book expressed their ties or distance to or from TAPS and the Connecticut-based, self-styled demonologists, Ed and Lorraine Warren. I saw their comments as revealing, provide curious trackbacks to what motivates a group and how they attempt to either follow an already forged path or try to differentiate themselves from the group in the next town. Some animosity and jealousy is apparent as groups hide their data from each other and stake out territory. Brown also tackled the groups in the South in a similar book. Get it.

Finally, these two volumes are excellent at discussing the booming paranormal business of today in historical contexts. If you don't think that's important to understand, you are missing a huge body of understanding.

Ghostland: An American History in Haunted Places (2016) by Colin Dickey. This book was so entertaining and enjoyable I could not put it down. After getting it from the library, I had to purchase a copy. It delves into the accurate history of places like Salem, the Lalaurie mansion, and the Winchester House. I was enlightened. And sometimes really angry at how the truth is buried for a quick buck. Absolutely grab this one.

Haunted Heritage: The Cultural Politics of Ghost Tourism, Populism, and the Past (2015) Michele Hanks. This book was an expansion of a thesis. Hanks covered a good bit of what I did as well in my book but in the UK so there are some differences. But it was critical to see how she developed the contexts for ghost researchers at their various levels of involvement. She showed how they long for experiences and ownership of their own heritage. U.S. readers will find these themes resonate in their communities as well. It will reveal a whole other level of meaning for participation in paranormal activities. Get it.

And of course, please purchase my book on paranormal researchers, Scientifical Americans. Head over to the page for more info.

I'm still reading so I may have a part 2 to this list. Please subscribe to the blog in the right sidebar.

7 Ghost-Hunting Tools Recommended by Paranormal Investigators

By

Etekcity / Olympus / Amazon | Etekcity / Olympus / Amazon

My former apartment was haunted. The ghost, who seemed to be friendly, delighted in knocking container lids off the kitchen counter when no one was in the room. Sadly, I never documented the evidence because I didn't have a night-vision camera handy.

Don't make the same mistake I did. Whether you're a full-fledged believer in the spiritual realm or a hardcore skeptic looking for some spooky fun, you can conduct your own paranormal investigations with just a few essential tools. "You don't want to get lost in the gear," says Jason Stroming, founder and lead investigator of the New York Paranormal Society. "Some people bring so much stuff to investigations that it looks like they're about to launch the Space Shuttle."

Here are seven expert-recommended devices to get you started.

1. Olympus Digital Voice Recorder; $32

Olympus/Amazon
On any ghost-hunting TV series—A Haunting, The Haunted, Most Haunted, Ghost Hunters, Ghost Asylum, or Ghost Adventures—the investigators will whip out a digital voice recorder to conduct an EVP session. That stands for "electronic voice phenomena," but can encompass any mysterious sounds or voices from spirits in the vicinity. These handheld, battery-operated devices are an essential tool for any ghost enthusiast, Stroming says.

He recalls an EVP session at the Snug Harbor Cultural Center and Botanical Garden in Staten Island, New York: Just before midnight, during an otherwise uneventful investigation, Stroming and his crew heard the distinct creak of footsteps on the old wood floors. "We went to see if the security guard had come back in, but you can't really get in to the front door without it making a lot of noise. We would have heard that," he tells Mental Floss. At Snug Harbor a few months later, the crew had his digital recorder running when "the same thing happened—the footsteps. That to us was exciting, because it was the same time and the same activity," Stroming says. "We all heard it."

If you're ready to capture your own EVPs, the Olympus VN-541PC recorder offers 4 gigabytes of storage and a one-touch record button.

Buy it: Amazon

2. Canon PowerShot; $249

Canon / Amazon
Stroming approaches the paranormal from a more skeptical point of view. "We try to debunk things first and look for rational explanations," he says, so a digital camera with a night vision function is a must-have. They're essential for capturing everything from unexplained light anomalies and shadow figures to mysterious creaks, thuds, and footsteps. The pocket-sized Canon PowerShot SX620 digital camera takes still photos and 1080p HD video in low light. Basic camcorders will record movement and sound

(and not disrupt electromagnetic fields like a smartphone can). Those adapted for ghost hunting, like the Cleveland Paranormal Supply Co.'s model ($189 on Amazon), record in night vision and let you switch easily from infrared (also known as thermal imaging) mode to full spectrum mode.

“We try to take a lot of photos,” Stroming adds. “You just never know what's going to show up.”

3. K-II ELECTROMAGNETIC FIELD (EMF) DETECTOR; $60

Electricians use inexpensive EMF meters to locate sources of electromagnetic radiation from homes and offices (common culprits are older appliances and cell phones). Ghosts are also thought to emit EM radiation or disturb the existing magnetic fields in a room. Stroming's team uses EMF meters primarily to debunk spectral sources of EM radiation. “We've had cases where people are sleeping right next to an old alarm clock, or they don't realize that their fuse box is right below them and could be giving off huge electromagnetic fields. That can cause hallucinations or the feeling of being watched,” Stroming says. “We say, ‘Move the alarm clock for a week, call us back and let us know.’ They always say it stops.”

On the other hand, an anomalous EM field in the middle of a room with no obvious source merits further investigation. While Stroming prefers the basic K-II EMF Meter, the ghost-hunting supplier GhostStop suggests its Rook EMF Meter. This fancier version can block man-made frequencies and indicate EMF disturbances with light and sound alerts, says paranormal investigator Graham Ober, GhostStop's customer service tech.

Buy it: Amazon

4. Etekcity Lasergrip INFRARED THERMOMETER; $16

Etekcity/Amazon

A regular thermometer can measure the ambient temperature in a given environment. An infrared thermometer, commonly used by electricians and HVAC technicians, can take the temp of specific object with a laser. They're handy for detecting cold spots in a potentially haunted area, which ghost investigators say can be signs of otherwise invisible entities.

Stroming uses an infrared thermometer to identify drafts around windows or air conditioning vents before an investigation begins, as well as for measuring thermal radiation during the session. When held about 14 inches in front of the object to be measured, the Etekcity Lasergrip 774 infrared thermometer can detect temps from a frigid -58°F to a broiling 716°F, although most paranormal entities seem to shift the room temp just a shade in either direction (3 degrees is the threshold for possible spectral activity, Ober tells Mental Floss).

Buy it: Amazon

5. Portable Home Security; $71

Any serious paranormal investigator will use motion sensors or vibration detectors to pick up movement in empty rooms. A basic portable home security system, with a couple of sensors and a receiver, is an inexpensive option. Just place the sensor on a table or shelf in an unoccupied room and carry the receiver with you. The receiver will emit an alarm or chime when motion is detected in the empty location, and you can then send in the unluckiest member of your ghost-hunting crew to check it out.

Vibration sensors (sometimes called geophones) work in a similar way. They can be set on the floor to detect phantom footsteps or other unexplained movement, and will light up when anomalies are sensed.

Buy it: Amazon

6. BINARY RESPONSE DEVICE

Binary response devices, or “yes/no boxes,” are another important tool. Investigators can ask suspected spirits simple questions and allegedly receive answers through the device—the theory being that spirits can harness the energy in the machine and use it to respond. Different replies are indicated with lights on either side of the gadget. GhostStop’s Flux Response Device features green and red lights to facilitate yes/no questions (green for yes, red for no) and to obtain answers to slightly more complex inquiries, such as “which corner of the room are you in?” (red for left, green for right). The steampunk-style Gyroscope Digital Talking Board from Paranologies has a yes/no/maybe function along with a full alphabet for longer words, much like a 21st-century Ouija Board ($17 on Amazon).

7. P-SB11 GHOST BOX; $130

NUATE / Amazon

A ghost box is a catch-all term for a device used to verbally communicate with spirits. Many of these gadgets continually scan radio frequencies, creating a din of white noise. “The idea is the spirit can use that white noise to communicate in some way, either verbally or through EVP sessions,” Ober says. Users can simply listen for disembodied voices, or yell questions into the void and hope for an answer from beyond.

There are numerous models on the market, from the popular P-SB7 Spirit Box (and the more advanced P-SB11) designed by Gary Galka of DAS to GhostStop’s Sbox, a similar device with added recording capability. “A lot of people are interested in recording the audio from the SB7,” Ober notes. “We’ve taken that technology a step forward, so you’re able to record that audio without having to have a second device present.”

One of Ghost Adventures's fave devices is the Ovilus, designed by Bill Chappell of Digital Dowsing. Instead of scanning radio frequencies, the various Ovilus models generate words in response to environmental fluctuations or EMF anomalies, supposedly translating the spirit's communications into English terms. Not everyone is sold on the device ("It's like a high-tech Magic 8 Ball," Stroming says), but Zak Bagans, lead investigator of the Ghost Adventures crew, is very fond of shouting rude questions at local spooks through it.

As seen on:

Online gambling is illegal in some countries. It's very important to check if online gambling is legal in your country. Also, you must always check if an online casino is legit or is just a scam. According to safespin.com, there are many fake online casinos scamming people their hard-earned money.

Playing online casino games is one of the many ways to make quick cash. With the rise of iGaming, we've also seen an increase in the employment rate. Sites such as casinous online casino have employed a team of people to do research on behalf of gamblers. Read their reviews before you sign up with any casino site.

There are hundreds of online casinos out there. Thus, it’s important to check out this online casino list before, just to pick the right casino that really works best for you.

In the episode 200 of stargate, the US government creates a fake show about the stargate they keep hidden, just in case some rumors leak about its existence, they can deny them and make fun of the leakers saying "you got that idea from the tv show".
Is this the reason why stargate was released at all? I do believe the US government has a stargate somewhere in a military facility

They did have something named project Stargate that was a study on remote viewing.

Funny thing about remote viewing is that, supposedly, it's just as easy to view something in the room next to you only 10 feet away as it is to see something on another planet or another galaxy. So assuming they had ANY success with remote viewing some test cards, then they'd also be able to see other planets and such.

The image is a screenshot of a webpage with a green header and a black background. At the top of the page, there is a green banner with the text "Season Two on DVD.com" and a logo of a DVD case. Below the banner, there is a green box with the text "Season One" followed by a list of episodes. The main content of the page is a news article about the 100th episode of the television show "Stargate SG-1." The article is titled "Stargate SG-1 reaches a landmark episode airs this weekend."
The article provides details about the 100th episode, which is titled "Wormhole X-Tremel." It mentions that the episode will air on September 7, 2001, and will be the 100th episode of the show. The article also states that the episode will be shown on 8 and 9 PM Eastern/Pacific on September 8 and 9, respectively.
The article includes a quote from executive producer Brad Wright, who says, "It's going to be pretty special," and that the episode will be a "one of a kind" where they really wanted to make fun of the show and share that fun with the fans. The article also mentions that the episode will be a "10-day marathon."
At the bottom of the page, there is a section titled "Articles" with a list of articles, and a "Store" section with a list of products. The overall style of the image is informational and promotional, designed to inform and engage viewers about the 100th episode of the show.

[8 / 2]The image is a black and white graphic with a minimalist design. At the top, there is a text in uppercase letters that reads "A.F.P. promotion #3." Below this, there is a stylized representation of a star with five points, resembling a five-pointed star. To the left of the star, there is a stylized representation of a wind turbine with a horizontal axis and a vertical axis, suggesting a connection to renewable energy. On the right side of the star, there is a stylized representation of a cross, which is a symbol often associated with Christianity. Below the star, there is a stylized representation of a three-pointed star, which could be a reference to the Holy Trinity. At the bottom of the image, there is a phrase in Spanish that reads "In ciencia, religio, lex." The text is in a bold, sans-serif font and is white against the black background, making it stand out. The overall style of the image is modern and minimalistic, with a focus on typography and iconography.

The Agrarian Fascist Party is recruiting constituents and officers with which to discuss fascist political incorporation. The foundation of our philosophy is in the basis of liberal, physiocratic, agrarian, and industrialist principles. Our ultimate aim is the solution to all social and material problems whatsoever.

The party is to be organized as a religious military order in the same manner as the medieval chivalrous knightly orders of Europe and the rest of the medieval and ancient world. Despite the maintenance of materialist, objective, and empirical perspective, religious adherence is left open to the candidate and not required, rather the universally applicable system of yoga is used as a means of psychological and physiological regulation and as adjunct to typical martial discipline. At this length the trustworthiness, loyalty, and degree of will of the candidate is known and the discernment of their capacities made possible.

Material for additional religious study is recommended at the outset of probation of candidates, consisting of what is found in the Orders of the Golden Dawn, the Astrum Argentum, and the Ordo Templi Orientis, as well as the various other material suggested for study in those bodies of religious and mystical initiation, especially for their universal nature. Textbooks on law, political science, nutrition, botany, agriculture, and other adjacent subjects are likewise recommended for students starting in the fields of study of the party.

Background checking services and polygraph machine interviews are required for candidates of the militia, branches, and representatives of the party. Records are expected to be kept regular and reviewed during probations and further for subsequent security clearance.

Meditation and physical exercises, start, stop, and duration of time of exercises should be noted, likewise diet, drugs, sleep, study, labor, chores, illness, and injury, should all be noted. An hour of meditation in a single day, e.g., siddhāsana, prāṇāyāma, is reasonable, with approximately one hundred hours expected in the initial period of probation of one year. Physical fitness will be tested to a military standard, basic martial arts exercises should be practiced regularly, punching, blocking, kicking, and other calisthenics, and a rudrākṣa-mālā of both 108 and 1,008 bījāni and bokken should be obtained to be practiced wth them. Recorded experimentation with tea, coffee, cannabis, and liquor is mandatory wherever legal, both a teapot and Bialetti moka pot, six servings, are highly recommended.

The policy of the party will be determined by political research groups and committees consisting of elected officers from various respective branches of the party. Projects requiring financial contribution will be funded individually and on a contractural basis among the constituency and will be presented publicly by their respective research groups and committees.

There is a Discord server for the early phases of organization, those interested may join and introduce themselves.

The image is a digital illustration featuring Sonic the Hedgehog, a popular video game character, in a dynamic pose. Sonic is depicted with his signature blue and white color scheme, with a red outline around his eyes and mouth. He is in mid-motion, with his arms outstretched and his mouth open as if he is shouting or expressing surprise. The background is a simple, light-colored wall with a circular window and a door with a round window.
Above Sonic's head, there is a speech bubble that reads "KNOCK-KNOCK! FAGGOT!" The text is in bold, capitalized letters, and the color of the text is white, contrasting with the blue and white of Sonic's outfit. The speech bubble is slightly tilted to the right, adding a sense of movement to the image. The overall style of the image is cartoonish and dynamic, with a focus on action and expression.

I really tried to love and get along with humanity but everywhere I go, everywhere I look, everyone's an ass, piece of shit, a pervert, greedy, violent, etc

Not even to me necessarily, theyre just awful to each other

So I ask...why the fuck akin here?

I want out, you people are repulsive (and i know im not perfect, but thats all the mlre reason I want a corner if the universe all to myself instead of getting tangled with people)

Why? Why does God want us to experience this?

I literally see all types of crazy shit like that recent Brown university shooting, a guy my age (27) who raped a 2 year old, people eho abuse their pets, the Israel Gaza situation, and the fucking epstein situation among a shitload of other things

Its gotten to the point I crave an apocalypse everyday just to see pathetic men screaming, even though I know its wrong

So why?
Why does God force me to stay here if it seems like I cant forcibly change this world for the better?

Im so fucking angry.
I want retribution, I dont care if I sound like an edgy JRPG villain, thats how shitty this workd is and thats how motivated I am

But what the fuck can I do in this life if I cant escape, cant overwrite people's minds, or trigger a mn eve t that will force everyone to cooperate

WHAT DOES GOD WANT ME TO DO

IF I CANT XHABGE THE GAME I WANT TO STOP PLAYING

IF I CANT LEAVE THE GAME THEN CRASH THIS GAME

>literally the only thing I can do is sigil Magick, and its worked but it can only do so much over a certain timeframe

The image is a close-up photograph of a person's face, focusing on their upper body and face. The individual has dark hair that is styled in a mohawk-like cut, and they are wearing a black t-shirt with a graphic design on it. The person is also wearing a necklace with a pendant that appears to be a pentagram. The person's mouth is open, and they are making a gesture with their right hand, which is raised and pointing upwards. The background of the image is blurred, but it seems to be an indoor setting with a white wall. The lighting in the image is soft, and the overall tone is warm. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is casual and appears to be a selfie or a similar self-portrait.

you need to start thinking in decades and centuries, even millenia.
the goal has to be to create a sustainable utopia on this planet, for everyone to be aware of their own biological limits, aware of their biases and trauma based responses.

this is step one.

then we need to venture out into the stars, test our theories of physics and astronomy, understand this physical world as best as we can.
so that we can eventually reverse entropy, stop the heat death of the universe, or create another big bang. this should be our most important long-term goal.

we need you, what can you do to get us to this situation?

how can you help at creating step 1, which is humanity becoming a type 1 civilization, having figured out how to live on this planet indefinitely.

You need to understand that billions of people don't kill and rape each other.

There are statistical outliers and always will be since everything in our universe happens on a probability distribution.

You don't fix that by imposing bullshit woke decrees on millions of innocents. All that achieves is subtly crushing the souls of all the people who were already good to begin with. That's what woke do-gooder movements never understand and never will. They are ironically serving the ultimate will of evil but are too self absorbed to see it.

IMO it´s your path to do objective "good" during your lifetime and teach others to do the same. I think the apocalypse is currently happening and the people who see whats happening are the people who will rebuild "humanity" or what we are after this cataclysm. Your job is to understand why it´s happening in the way it´s happening to not let it happen again. And i really mean it, understand why the world is the way it is, then you will see the perfection again, but also see why those people need to leave this reality. I personally think we need something like the unification wars in warhammer 40k but in a way, that the emperor cant betray humanity, like he is the mix of horus and him.

The amount of people basically telling you to just be willfully ignorant and put your head in the sand is staggering.

Never let anyone make you think that questioning the darker tones of reality is irrelevant or wrong. It absolutely matters, and it affects us all no matter how good we are.
I'll agree that we should keep focusing on the positive and keep walking on the higher path, but the "answers" given here are never addressing the "why".
There's unfortunately an implication that even the lowest and highest dimensional entities are inherently psychopathic and masochistic. Don't count on what we can't fully map out and perceive in the material will be in your favor.
Some will say that it's because they're more spiritually advanced/evolved and closer to God/Source, but if we're able to feel these complex emotions and frustration towards injustice, oppression, pain, suffering, etc. it implies that Source and the higher realms know and feel these things too, and spit in our face. If that isn't evil, I don't know what is. Serial killers feel no remorse for the suffering they inflict on others.
The fact that this world is a spiritually coercive "game" and entertainment for the higher realms is not something to take lightly. We must become stronger and oppose these forces, and to not fear them nor become them.
What matters is you. We are made up of that same power, and we can change this into becoming something beautiful, peaceful, and free from pain and suffering. We are the resistance.

The image displays a text document with a dark background and white text. The document appears to be a part of a larger document, possibly a book or a research paper, as indicated by the presence of multiple references and citations. The text is written in English and is formatted in a standard academic style, with paragraphs and indented lines.
The document contains a series of numbered paragraphs, which are likely part of a larger discussion or argument. The numbering suggests that the text is organized in a logical sequence, likely following a logical flow of thought or a logical argument.
The text is dense with information, and the content seems to be discussing a topic related to the field of philosophy or a similar discipline. The references to other works, such as "Bertrand Russell," "Bertrand Russell," and "Bertrand Russell," indicate that the text is likely discussing philosophical concepts or theories.

The text is not fully visible in the image, but the visible parts show a discussion of ideas and concepts, with references to other works and arguments. The text is dense and includes complex sentences and phrases, which suggests that the document is a scholarly or academic work.
The image does not provide any additional context or information beyond the visible text, so it is not possible to determine the exact topic or the author's intent from the image alone. The image only shows the text and does not provide any visual clues about the content or the context of the discussion.

Life is a moment of time in which to prepare for the long, long, eternity. In this brief, fleeting, second of time we are asked to answer one question. The question: “Where do you wish to spend eternity?” There are two great eternities. We must choose one or the other. No neutral ground.
1. The blessed privilege of living forever with the Lord Jesus in heaven.
2. The terrible anguish of living forever with Satan in a burning hell.
The purpose of life is to let you personally choose the abiding place of your soul.

God wants you to choose to accept His love and mercy instead of His wrath, but will not force you to choose Him.

A man is saved in this age by grace through faith (Eph. 2:8-9) in the one, final, effectual sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ (Heb. 10:8-12) dying in his place as a substitutionary offering for sin (Rom. 5:1-10). If he has done that, and received the Lord Jesus by faith (John 1:12) in his heart, that sinner is SAVED, and is saved, once for all; finally and forever.

1 Corinthians 15:1-4 "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

John, chapter 15. The table is organized into two columns, with the left column listing references from the Gospel of John and the right column listing references from the Book of John. Each reference is accompanied by a title, a verse number, and a reference number. The references are listed in a chronological order, starting with the Gospel of John and moving to the Book of John.

The references include various topics such as the Holy Spirit, the Trinity, the Son, the Father, the Son's role, the Son's relationship with the Father, the Son's death, the resurrection, the Old Testament, the New Testament, and the Holy Spirit. The references are from the Gospel of John, specifically chapters 15 and 16, and the Book of John, specifically chapters 15 and 16.

The table is a visual representation of the biblical references, providing a clear and organized way to access the information. It is a useful tool for those who are studying or researching the Bible, particularly in the context of the Gospel of John and the Book of John.

1 John 5:7: "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

Jesus Christ is God who has come in the flesh from heaven. He died as a sinless sacrifice for the sins of the whole world to save you from eternal hell, the punishment for your sin. He was buried, then resurrected and then ascended to heaven. John 3:16: “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 10:28: "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." Rom 10:9: “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."
God wants to forgive you, but you have a choice: Do you choose the righteousness of God by receiving Christ? Your own righteousness can NEVER justify you or keep you saved because of your sin. Rom 5:9: “Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.” Salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, in His finished blood atonement. The gift of salvation can't be earned. Confess The Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in prayer, that you trust in Him and believe He atoned for your sins on the cross.

Eph. 2:8-9: “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

In northern Minnesota, people used to blame winter when someone vanished. Cold erased tracks. Ice swallowed sound. It was convenient until too many men and women disappeared to call it a coincidence.

They called him the Minnesota Mystery Man because no one remembered his face the same way twice. Sometimes tall, sometimes average. Sometimes kind. Always forgettable. Always there when a car stopped near a frozen lake or when somebody drove too far after dark.

A cabin was eventually found deep in the woods. No bodies. Just signs of long use. Hooks in the beams. Chairs facing a blank wall. A radio hissing static day and night, like something was being listened for.

A woman escaped. Frostbitten. Shaking. She wouldn’t describe what he did only what he believed.

“He said people were unfinished,” she whispered. “That winter shows you how to fix things.”

After that, the disappearances stopped. The case went cold. Officially unsolved.

But locals will tell you this: if you’re driving north in winter and see a man standing still on the ice, don’t stop. Don’t look too long. And if your radio slips into static on its own keep driving.

Winter is patient.
And so is he.

This is a topic I have some knowledge in. These aliens, creatures and beings humans claim to encounter share a common convergence in that they all, ever single one of them fear the name and authority of Jesus Christ. They're demons able to shift into what is needed to deceive. Modern new age practices talk about a download of information and encounters with the cosmos. Quite consistently too, but they always get upset, lash out, or angry to those who convert to Christianity. There is not one case where it's indifference. It's always deflection, downplay, or in majority of cases instant cessation of the encounter.

The image is a painting that depicts a scene of religious iconography. In the foreground, a figure is kneeling on the ground, facing away from the viewer, with their back to the viewer. This figure is dressed in a white robe and has a beard. The figure's posture suggests a moment of prayer or contemplation.
In the background, there are two figures that appear to be angels or divine beings. They are standing upright, facing the viewer, and are also dressed in white robes. The light in the background is bright and appears to be coming from a source outside the frame, casting a glow on the figures and the surrounding environment.
The painting is rendered in a realistic style with a focus on the details of the clothing and the light effects. The colors used are soft and muted, with a palette that includes greens, browns, and whites, which contribute to the serene and spiritual atmosphere of the scene. The overall composition and the use of light suggest a narrative of divine intervention or revelation.

Some things use a human form to facilitate communication I think. They'll create these proxy minds that work like a human mind, like a mental puppet or a translator.

Some things seem like they can stay weird, but only to the extent that you are weird yourself and can connect on that common weird plane.

Most of the weird things seem to ignore people, but can sometimes interface with the environment we know about. For example, humans know about frogs, and some group of weird bois also know about frogs, but humans don't know about those weird bois. If you can talk to frogs, you might hear them mention the weird bois. The moral of this story is to be kind to all living creatures - they might have friends in interesting places.

This smaller star is surrounded by a series of smaller, intricate patterns that radiate outward from the central star, creating a sense of symmetry and balance. The lines are thin and delicate, suggesting a high level of detail and precision in the drawing. The background is plain white, which contrasts with the black lines and allows the design to stand out. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The image is a painting that depicts two figures facing each other. The figure on the left is a person with short, light-colored hair and is facing the viewer. The figure on the right is a person with dark hair and is facing away from the viewer. Both figures have a neutral expression and are wearing clothing that is not clearly visible. The background is a warm, earthy color, and there is a small, indistinct figure in the top left corner that appears to be a key or a symbol. The style of the painting is realistic with visible brushstrokes, and it is executed in an impressionistic manner, with a focus on the interplay of light and shadow. There are no texts present in the image.

I didn't know that but I'll tell another giant red flag I noticed about the Ra material that nobody pointed out even in conspiracy websites and for which I made a thread here in the recent past.

Basically they claim they built the pyramids, the pyramids were supposedly built to heal us. Ra always claimed the negative oriented aliens come from Orion.

Well guess what? All major pyramid buildings in the world align with the Orion constellation.

This might be one of those instances where Ra is again another deception but "they have to tell us" or there might be another reason for that.

Still nobody provided a good explanation.

If aliens have been here for 100,000 years + it's reasonable to think that they took early humans off planet to start a colony on other planets or on a big ship somewhere.

You train these humans and help their evolution then send them back to earth as ambassadors. Then people on earth don't have to deal with your alien physiology, which might be very weird.

Even if you don't do that, spreading humanity out can help maintain the population if Earth gets smacked with an asteroid or something. You can then use your off world humans to seed the planet again. Like a genetic back up.

The image is a painting that depicts a character with a green, frog-like appearance. The character is holding a glass of red wine in one hand and a bottle in the other, suggesting a relaxed or celebratory mood. The character's face is expressive, with a wide smile and large, expressive eyes. The background is dark and indistinct, with a hint of a figure or object in the top right corner, but the focus is on the character. The painting style is realistic with visible brushstrokes, and the colors are vibrant, with the green of the frog-like character contrasting with the red of the wine and the darker tones of the background. There is no text present in the image.

Each panel has a similar aesthetic, with a mix of surreal and religious imagery, and the text is overlaid on the images, suggesting a commentary on the themes of hope, spirituality, and the human condition. The collage is framed by a black border with a white border, and the overall style is reminiscent of meme art, combining elements of religious iconography with satirical commentary.

In the background, there is a large, glowing eye with a yellow iris and a green pupil, floating above the sand dunes. The eye is surrounded by a bright, ethereal light that casts a glow on the sand and the person. The sky is a gradient of purple and blue, with a faint, ethereal light that adds to the dreamlike quality of the image.

The overall color palette is dominated by warm tones, with the sand dunes and the person's robe in shades of brown and beige, and the sky and the eye in cooler tones. The image has a dreamlike quality, with the surreal elements blending seamlessly into the natural landscape.

Yes, he was. He knew what was really encoded in those old fairy tales, and he knew what to preserve and what to change. The changes, however, were not done with innocent intentions: the films are above all designed to program and condition the desires and beliefs of the general mass public, implanting them with emotional triggers when they are very young.

The image is a collage of various photographs and text panels, likely from an exhibition or catalog, showcasing different sculptures and artworks. The photographs are arranged in a grid format, with each panel containing a different image and text. The text is in English and appears to be a description or commentary on the artworks.
The artworks themselves are predominantly white, with some featuring blue elements, such as the blue spheres in the center of some sculptures. The sculptures themselves are humanoid in form, with some having a human-like appearance, and others resembling animals or mythical creatures. The blue spheres are the most prominent feature, with some spheres being larger and more prominent than others.

The style of the image is a combination of a traditional photograph and a digital collage, with the photographs being the primary visual elements and the text providing additional information. The overall aesthetic is modern and minimalist, with a focus on the sculptures and their details. The text is informative and descriptive, likely providing details about the sculptures' materials, techniques, and the artists' intentions.

People have been repeating this nonsense for years, show concrete evidence.

[116 / 24]The image is a graphic with a humorous and satirical tone. It features a can of beans that is spilling out onto a white surface. The can is open, and the beans are spilling out in a messy, dripping manner. The beans are a light brown color, and they are scattered across the surface, creating a sense of chaos.

Above the image, there is a text in orange and black that reads "spill the beans" in a playful, casual font. Below the image, there is a smaller text in black that says "reveal secret information" in a more serious, formal font. The text is positioned in such a way that it seems to be a playful challenge to the viewer, suggesting that the beans are a secret and that the viewer should spill the beans to reveal the secret information.

The overall style of the image is light-hearted and humorous, with a focus on the playful nature of the beans spilling out of the can. The use of the word "spill" in the title and the playful text adds to the comedic effect of the image. The image is likely intended to be a visual joke or a playful challenge to the viewer.

The title says it all. Post stories of real events that defy conventional belief and value systems, and trigger cognative dissonance in most.

Anything from actual redpills to unheard of science to unhinged conspiracy theories. Just as long as they're an interesting read.

I don't want echochambers, I want an audio nightmare of discordant in conflict sound.

I practiced remote viewing and was able to guess a lot of things from a pic before seeing it.
That's it, real simple, it's not divination, you don't get an "image" in your third eye or whatever, you just doodle random facts and some of them are correct, however, the spooky thing is that anyone can do it and normal people get mora than 50% accuracy, like I said, it's not divination, but the fact that this happens is on itself spooky as fuck and proof that humans at least have latent telepathy or something. Notice also how is always the first things that come to your mind that are accurate, the longer you take the more bullshit your mind invents, but the first random guesses are the ones that usually are spot on

The image is a black and white cartoon-style drawing of a person's face with a smile. The person has dark hair and is wearing glasses. Above the drawing, there is a text in a casual, informal font that reads, "Did you know that people die all the time in the Backstreets? I thought that was interesting." The text is in white, contrasting with the black background of the drawing. The style of the image is reminiscent of a meme or a social media post, with the text serving as a humorous commentary on the idea of people dying in the Backstreets.

99% of the population is going to be stuck on earth forever because they are conditioned into "good" and "evil" from a human perspective instead of a natural perspective. Once you can accept the two as one and truly start making choices of your own free will from sin is when you can be free. The choices you make from then on after breaking free determines if you truly are good and evil. This is why pride is the worst sin of all, doing something you know you shouldn't be doing, to go against God.

Here is another hard drop. Gloom was a part of the original 7 sins that was removed from Church canon. Gloom was about feeling bad, not just for yourself but for others. Therefore if you did something, even if it was a good act because you felt bad for somebody, that was a sin. You should be doing good for the sake of being good. Vainglory was also an original sin, to do something as a part of the collective instead of thinking for yourself and doing something only for recognition of the deed instead of doing the deed for the sake of being good. Obvious why that was taken out of church canon.

Pride itself was NOT considered an original sin, because it was believed that pride was a part of ALL sin. There was pride in gluttony, envy, wrath and so on. So the only conclusion I can come up with is that pride is the very manifestation of the ego itself. That being kicked out of Eden had something to do with manifesting an ego. Perhaps the bliss from mediation is the Eden that we lost along the way. Perhaps that is why shrooms are illegal, to keep us out of Eden.

Yes, sin isn't about right or wrong, it's simply mostly aligned with it. What weighs on the soul is what matters. Frankly, most people's souls will be painfully reset in hell, which is a metaphysical purification location. Even joy itself can dirty the soul, to a lesser or greater extent.

Indeed I have picked up forbidden knowledge by interacting with metaphysical beings outside of dogma and so called magic systems which are oh so arrogant.

What matters is cleansing and balancing the scales. If you're interesting I can explain in detail.

There are four sides to magic, entropy, negentropy, order, and disorder.

This forms nine alignments, which can in of themselves mix and hybridize, though there are challenges to doing so.

They are as follows: celestial light, life essence, zen harmony, for the heavenly alignments, Archtype resonance, Arcane storm, and symbology for the neutral alignments, Exaggerated desire, death essence, and deranged void for the hellish alignments.

Each alignment is a force of nature itself, and the neutral alignments are less, consuming. However, entropy and negentropy, are destructive and consuming, more so when mixed, as such, polarized systems drain the galaxy and humanity of its birthright. Neutral systems, balance and destroy polarity, if the current is strong and stable, and encourage polarity if it is in disharmony.

As such, both negantropy and entropic systems and beings wish in general to consume and exploit humanity as their food source, and means of linking out universe with their parasitics realms, which themselves exist as a two sided plane within a sphere, one side cast in twilight, and the other in source light from a central arcane storm that must be sustained to feed the realm's existence. Our reality is simply very stable astral matter in mutual resonance. An angel of mercy will share a realm with a demon of vengance, and neither will be truly moral.

Additionally, these realms are often complex, the center will align with deranged monsterous void beings on the dark side of this astral plane, the next area will carry deathly beings, and the outer circle exaggerated desire, all living and tending to their areas of influence, and having an opposite side matching their own, for example, a sphere mostly of celestial light, will have its other side have mostly deranged void, and so on for life and death, and zen and desire.

In between the sides of this astral coin, exists a current, gentle on the outer areas, and more intense and violent in the inner areas. The center may be destructive, but the outer areas are a constant swirl of potential dissolution like a strong river current, and the beings here do age, over centuries, and potentially die. The souls they capture are consumed via over indulgence in the sphere that influenced them in life, often traded due to the complexity of sin and self deceptive restraint. 2/3

Now one must wonder how one is to avoid being eaten and secure some type of alternate existence.

The trap is six fold, follow apathy and disregard and the void will slowly digest you, follow excessive dogmatic belief and the celestial will use you like a battery of worship and denied joys, act as a barbaric fool, and the life realms of the fae will make you their toy, be bitter and toxic and death will make your continued existance that of bitter toxicity, follow the zen path and all meaning will be removed until you break under the need for the soul to strive, dissolving into nothing, take the path of tempting demons, and you'll be forced to 'enjoy' your vice making pleasure agony, 3/4

The key then, is to be true unto oneself, and seek personal choices and personal will, above all chains of malice or mercy that would bind you, as every other choice, matches you with something that either wants to eat, enslave, or turn you into something inhuman.

There are ten emotional polarities, though endless flavor variation in each, which exist due to means of processing information.

They are: creating self vs destroying self, shame and disgust vs comfort and beauty, fear and worry vs joy and excitement, anger and scorn vs humor and playfulness, loss and despair vs lust and love.

All of these emotions have beings that are adapted to feed upon one or more of these feelings using many methods in less or more aggressive ways depending on their own energetic alignment or in rarer cases alignments. When these feelings, result in toxic overthinking and overindulgence at the cost of the self, then entities from these spheres of influence will use this to feed on portions, if not your entire being.

If you wish to practice the arcane, make use of the land spirits, of forces of nature, or beings which are native to our plane of existance. Anything else almost definitly wants to eat you, and is specifically evolved to do just that.

Personal health is the key to salvation, and if one should exist such that corruption is forced upon them, resistance and personal honor will act as poison to these beings. These beings existing of course, as what many people worship today, with few exceptions.

Be cautious, and reject all that seek to subvert your soul's will.

A lot of ancient civilizations, most notably the Greeks, believe that our thoughts and inspirations came from higher sources of power, such as gods or the three muses. This idea even carries on in intensive creative types and religious people. This could explain why sometimes two completely different people could have similar ideas.

It could also explain why a lot of once super edgy people often chill out after getting creative, perhaps they are touching some sort of higher being. Perhaps why deep seeded memories and concepts such as the hero's journey or the joyful dead are such a common concept.

Freemason jews control the world. And as they do shitty things people notice that it's "da jews". Because Freemasons already control everything that hatred, real or imagined, is directed at lower caste jews which furthers victimhood. That victimhood is then used by Freemason jews to further their grip on civilization and lower caste jews grow to hate people who attack them "for no reason" and those jews later fall in line with Freemason ideals as a cause of this. Freemason jews do not give a shit about other jews however, its all in their own words. "Burn offering" or holocaust.

And some facilities (the ones with the serves) I was required to surrender my electronics devices (mostly my smartwatch and phone) before we head to some of the sites.

The ones I managed to take pics was becuse security was laxed due to the sheer size of yhe building we were working on.

Also side note, but in the realm of speculation, the security officer mentioned the building to be hunted, if you look on the gallery you can see where some of the people working there at night left a fresh palm tree thingy associated with Catholicism in one of the bathrooms were aparations claimed to been seen.
Again anecdotal, never saw anything paranormal even thou we worked hours for several days

The image shows a floor plan of a building with a focus on a section labeled "Cafeteria." The plan is drawn in black and red, with red arrows indicating the flow of people and the direction of movement. The layout includes various rooms and spaces, such as a kitchen, a dining area, and a break room. There are also red lines indicating the paths of people, suggesting the flow of people through the building. The plan is framed in a gold-colored frame with a black border, giving it a formal appearance. The text on the plan is in English, and it appears to be a schematic representation of the building's layout, possibly for a design or construction project.

The image is a collage of various elements, predominantly text-based, with a focus on the topic of gender identity and the concept of "FreeMARTIN." The collage includes a photograph of a person with a golden statue-like figure, which is labeled as "FreeMARTIN." The text surrounding the image discusses the concept of gender inversion, stating that "Elite Gender Inversion (EG) begins in the womb, similar to a natural hormonal phenomenon called feminization." It also mentions that the transformation of people into "females" is a blood test that reveals the presence of testosterone, which is a hormone that is typically associated with male characteristics. The text also references the "FreeMARTIN" as a person who has undergone a transformation, stating that "One of the Kabbalah secrets revealed: These people are transformed in ultra-bio, by the sixth month of pregnancy." It also states that the transformation is so profound that the "external part of the body is formed according to the hormones present."

The image is a screenshot of a photograph taken on January 25, 2018, at 2:39 PM in Las Vegas. The photograph shows an empty parking garage with white columns and a concrete floor. The ceiling is exposed and has exposed beams. The lighting in the photo is dim, and the shadows are elongated, indicating the presence of artificial lighting. There are no people or vehicles visible in the image. The date and time are clearly displayed at the top of the image, and the location is specified as Las Vegas. The image is a photograph, not a video, and it is taken from a low angle, looking up at the columns. There are no texts or other discernible details in the image. The style of the image is straightforward and appears to be a candid or unposed photograph.

I get all that about inspirational daemons, muses etc. IDK about 'the joyful dead' but I'll do some digging.

What I'm asking about is what you said about "gloom" and giving charity out of pity. There have been those I've helped out in life and sorely regretted it. Almost like the 'universe' punished me for it. There's some principal at play here I believe. Christian charity and altruism has been taken to suicidal levels yet Jesus taught to "not cast your pears among swine" but the xtian will also say "don't judge'" it's massive mental gymnastics as you need good judgment to get through life properly.

I also think these social justice NGO's and billionaire philanthropist foundations know about this principal and it's part of why they never really help people yet they get get their donors to commit this sin of "giving in gloom" and profit off of it.

Take it at face value. I have some pictures to corroborate my story. I was intrigued back then, and I'm still intrigued today, knowing what Edward Snowden exposed.

No I did not saw aliens, the place was Sketchy and surreal, armed security at the entrance points, a bare-bones crew working at some stations, the secrecy of the job was the reason I wanted to take pictures, and again, that was before the "back rooms" craze. The liminal aspect of the building was enough to make it feel eerie..

These nondescript buildings are usually telco "central offices" (where telco line equipment lives, not cubicles for people), co-location centers/hotels where equipment from competitor telco's are stored together and networked (usually stored in locked cages) so your calls from Verizon can be received by your friend using ATT. Since data centers require extra electricity and cooling they seem to be more often in newer warehouse buildings in non-descript office parks. The brick ones in cities with no windows usually have a small plaque saying who the telco is.

Sorry you got no replies. I read it and it helped me if that counts for anything.

To add to this individuals text, here is the true nature and purpose of this earthly life reality. It is not a prison, it is not a school. It is not random life just existing fro no reason.

This realm serves one purpose and that is to train your willpower. This realm is a battleground of willpower. From the plants to the animals to man, to nations and corporations. Those who succeed do not do so because they are more moral or virtuous or even because they are more savege or psychopathic. The winner is always who has the stronger will. Nature doesn't care what your morals or beliefs or desires are. Your success or failure is willpower and nothing more.

You are here to train and develop your willpower. Like that other person said other beings will exert their will and trap your conscious in illusions so they feed. The demiurge himself created this place from his will and it is allowed to be because his willpower was strong and must be respected despite the harvesting of souls energy here is soon as an injustice. It's allowed to exist because the demiurges willpower must be respected. And it gave great opportunity for souls here to train their willpower to escape.

What will you do now? How strong is your willpower? Can you find the strength to create a perfect life for yourself and have the willpower to make it real?

Can you survive this cosmic willpower battleground? Or will you be ground to dust again and again forever?

The best way to go about helping others is to think of it like this. Through knowledge and wisdom one can make their own choices. It takes time to help cultivate a dying plant. However if you just give somebody money that is a tool that can be used for either good or evil and it cuts down on the time you need to invest in helping people. To truly help somebody both parties need to understand ones true motives, like an alcoholic wanting to get better but can't beat his demons, this is a surface level. Deeper down the reason why he drinks is because of a feeling of being a failure of a father for example.

How did you miss that I agreed with you? The personal will is most important here.
Other sources are usurperss

And here you mistake this small section of reality for everything. Reality may or may not have a final ultimate purpose outside fun or a cosmic refinement processes but reality is incomprehensible vast and the small sections of reality such as ours each have a definite meaning and purpose that fits into the whole like a machine.

Heaven and hell realms have an obvious purpose and role to play. Earths realms too has a purpose for existence and role within the cosmic machine. If your soul is sent to a particular sector of reality then it eas because that sector has an environment that is needed for your souls improvement.

Yeh in the sense that it probably didn’t “need” to come about but the reality that did manifest has a rhyme and reason to it. It has a purpose within itself. This purpose may ultimately superfluous but none the less the creation was made to do a certain thing. Even if that thing ultimately doesn’t really matter.

And there was no intention to deceive on my part, I said what I said and I know the person who needed to see it saw it. You contradict yourself and reveal yourself a hypocrite. You yourself made a worldview and then imposed it on others. Then call me a deceiver for that. Mine was mostly a motivational rally and not a final worldview despite the authoritative tone. I simply said what I felt people need to hear at this particular moment to be used at this moment nothing more. The needs of the student is fluid and changes by the day.

I see you are interested in teaching. Reciting information and expecting memorization and empty platitudes is an inferior form of teaching.

You are correct about the polarities. But most people are stuck on the negative ends of all of those. My call to develop willpower is what these chronically online doom scrolling demoralized people need in order to learn how to transform those polarities to their positive ends. Simply telling they exist only accomplishes so much. They need direction and kick in the ass. Never mean to be a final worldview to be bound to. Only a step to begin internal realizations that will come naturally of their own accord.

Nothing has a purpose, it simply is. I advise for the sake of a better outcome, not to encourage religious 'god daddy wants to teach me to be better with suffering' delusion. This line of thinking justifies anything and isn't falsifiable. It is irrational, and cruel to both yourself and others. I do not condone a rat race to so called improvement which is only rated according to complaince with authority.

Will matters, but so do oh so many other things which resist enslavement. Is there not something you hold sacred? Nothing you draw strength from? Something to make all the effort worth it?

Your mind is in chains of ego, and probably some form of religion, even if it originated from sicko aliens or sicko humans.

Cleanse yourself of this rot, allow yourself to live for yourself rather than ideology, it is much healthier.

By being yourself rather than a slave to vices or dogma. Training your mind and body to have a kind of natural strength to it will also help forge your soul, allowing you to swim in the warp so to speak. I recommend being very present over ideas of mental silence and so on. Awareness and feeling how one's enviroment and thoughts make one feel, then enhancing or relaxing accordingly. It's like learning to move new muscles.

You clearly are quite aware of things and know a lot. There is no argument here. Balanced is good. And is better than positive you are correct. Positive aspects will absorb your energy just the same.

You say nothing has purpose and simply is. This is another thought form that has attached itself to you and is feeding as we speak. You have asserted an absolute that is ultimately without meaning.
You will face resistance for any assertion of absolutes. In this instance it was me.

There can be no purpose or non-purpose. To say there is purpose or not purpose are both delusions and traps. Both purpose and non purpose are of the creation. When you assert one its opposite will arise. Thus both are poison. As is your serration that religious systems and god are inherently disadvantageous. It can be helpful for some but not for others.

You are knowledgeable but your key mistake eas not seeing individuality. Not everyone is at the same level. To teach don't impose your worldview and expect submission. You use their worldview to subtly guide them. Forcing s template worldview on them restricts them unnecessarily and hinders true development. You are imposing a religion on them. People are better lead from where they are not where they need to be. People have already decided what they believe. Providing an alternative is fine for some but most will be too stuck and I promise most simply disregarded your original posts due to apathy and it contradicted them. Use where they are to lead. Not where you think they should be. You were too impatient in revealing your knowledge that people checked out.

I was intrigued by the first thread but I disagree that the portal is in the southern hemisphere. I believe it is in India, and I believe it leads to hell here are my evidences.
1. Most religions spawned from Israel or India, however all the ones that come from India are demonic.
2. It is clear to most people that India is a cursed and demonic country.
3. The further away from India a country is, the more likely it is to be a Christian majority, see picrel.
4. The reason the apostle Thomas travelled to India was to shut the portal but he was martyred.
5. This is the reason the USA allowed an unstable country like India to have nukes, it was to protect the portal where their overlords come from.

They're everywhere. Seek the green doors. The special ones are the ones most can't see, and only those chosen to go through them can see.

Plus the pathways. When I was a kid I remember getting told a very different story about the fountain of youth. The story was that the natives told the Spanish to walk their exact path. Turn when they turn. Make it easier by just stepping in the native footprints. If you deviate from the path by even one step, you'll be lost to the in-between space. Follow the trail exactly to find the fountain. The Spanish never found it again because when they returned they didn't walk the path exactly right.

The same goes for a reported hidden city in the Southwestern Desert. You have to walk the path to it exactly or you'll never find it.

Plus many caves are rumored to be pathways to the other world. The green children of Woolpit came from such a cave. They oly work whent hey've been "activated."

Plus certain rivers can have the doors in them in a "Pirates of the Caribbean up is down" way where swimming down leads up to the other world. But like the caves they need "activating" under some unknown special circumstances.

I live here. All my life.
They don't "keep it to themselves," they are just savages, idolaters and obscurantists...
To speak is not to be human.
Wearing a Christian cross, lighting candles, and praying for problems and desires is NOT Christianity.
Just as visiting Lenin's tombs, attending party meetings, or marching in parades on November 7th and May 1st is NOT communism.
There are values, moral or material, that guide people in their actions in life, how they evaluate and behave during possible... "tests" or "temptations."
And it's hypocrisy when people, being complete scum, use some idea, faith, or ideology to justify their crimes, the ostentatious rituals of which they have demonstrated, while in 99% of their other behavior they demonstrate a complete disregard for the meaning of these ideas.
And in that case, an atheist or non-believer is closer to God than a professed believer, simply because they are more honest—after all, for them, faith isn't just external rituals.
Do you understand?

what actually happens if someone blasphemes the shekinah glory?
whats the punishment there?

Anonymous Sun 14 Dec 2025 05:40:31 No.41664814 Report
>>41664654
Blaspheme doesn't mean to just say an insulting word about God or the Shekinah Glory or any of that.
To blaspheme means to ignore your intuition. Your intuition is your inner voice, and it's how God communicates to you.
If you ignore that, there's no hope for you.
If you ignore when God plants ideas directly into your head, there's no way God can help you.

This is why blaspheme is considered to be the unforgivable sin. Not because it's too insulting and God is too angry to forgive you, but rather, blaspheme is when you ignore your own inner voice, so basically your life is doomed if you do that.

"Sin" is anything that separates you from God, or makes your life "out of alignment" with the truth.
Ignoring your own inner voice/intuition is THE ultimate way to be separate from God, and out of alignment with the truth.

So on the flip side, what this means is that if you follow your intuition and take your inner voice seriously, you will always be close to God and live an in-alignment life.

This is why there's such an effort to disconnect you from your intuition, and do everything possible to damage your pineal gland/third eye.
Chemtrails, heavy metals (such as aluminum in deodorant), fluoride in the water, vaccines, processed food, 5g radiation, etc all damage your pineal gland and disconnect you from your inner voice.
It's meant to disconnect you from God, so you're easier to control.

The image is a digital illustration featuring a character with a predominantly white and pink color scheme. The character has long, flowing hair that cascades down their back, and they are wearing a white garment with a visible collar. The character's eyes are a striking blue, and they have a serene expression with a slight smile. The character's ears are adorned with what appear to be gemstones, and they have a pair of wings extending from their back. The background is a gradient of light blue, with a subtle hint of a darker blue at the top. The artist's signature is visible in the bottom right corner of the image.

Yes become a survivor of child abuse, develop PTSD or a personality disorder like BPD or NPD or some shit, and then your stunted mind will have problems with emotional regulation + hyper vigilance. So the next time you see another human, you will start projecting delusional feelings onto the people you interact with. You will think people have "auras" or "vibes". Instead of noticing obvious social cues using objective reasoning, you will rely on vague emotional states to process the information and you'll see someone who is angry (their mother died due to hospital neglect) and you will see a "bad person" because like, you could just see that aura, man.

In people intentions come through pretty clear as well as positive and negative emotions. As well as the strength of their aura and their overall health. The auras of the dead are black and shifting. Usually only visible to me in places with a lot of misery or death. The auras I have seen around people are colorless and distort themselves from their surroundings. A lot like if something is photoshopped into a picture with incorrect lighting. They just stand out. I am unsure of the cause.

Anonymous Sun 14 Dec 2025 18:55:12 No.41668082 Report
>>41667291 Thanks for sharing that. From what I understand, what you're describing as colorless auras are actually parts of the energy body itself. You're perceiving the energy's density and shape visually, while its emotional color is something you sense separately. Those distortions and ripples are typically seen as signs of disrupted energy flow in the channels. I don't have much insight about the dark energies in places filled with suffering, but it does sound unsettling.

In the background, there are two figures sitting on the ground, one of whom is holding a bird. The setting appears to be a desert or arid environment, with a rocky wall and a barren landscape. The color palette is muted, with a predominance of earth tones, which contributes to the overall somber and melancholic mood of the painting. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the painting is realistic with a focus on the depiction of the figures and the natural environment.

The image is a meme featuring a close-up of a person's face with a serious expression. The person has dark hair and is looking directly at the viewer. The text overlaying the image reads "YOUR SOUL IS MINE" in a bold, capitalized font. Below the text, there is a smaller text that says "G" in a smaller font size. The overall style of the image is humorous and seems to be a parody of a meme commonly used in internet culture. The meme is set against a plain, dark background.

The image shows a hand holding a piece of paper with text on it. The text is written in a script that appears to be a letter or a note, and it is printed on a white background. The letter is dated "August 6, 2020" and is addressed to "Dear Mom and Dad." The text on the paper is in English and includes a list of points, which are numbered and followed by a description. The list includes references to the Bible, specifically to passages such as "1 Timothy 3:7" and "2 Timothy 3:16." The style of the text is formal and appears to be a letter or a note, possibly from a religious or spiritual context. The paper is folded, and the top part of the paper is visible, showing the date and the text. The image is a photograph, and the focus is on the text, with the background blurred out, which emphasizes the content of the letter.

The image is a black and white photograph of a man with a beard, wearing a white robe and a cross around his neck. The man appears to be in his late 40s or early 50s. The photograph is framed by a decorative border with a decorative scroll design.
Below the photograph, there is a quote in white text that reads: "John of Kronstadt - Never confuse the person, formed in the image of God, with the evil that is in him - because evil is but a chance misfortune, an illness, a devilish reverie. But the very essence of the person is the image of God, and this remains in him despite every disfigurement."
At the bottom of the image, there is a watermark that reads "AZ QUOTES." The style of the image is reminiscent of historical or religious portraits, with a focus on the quote and the author's name. The text is centered and appears to be in a serif font, which is common for historical or religious texts. The overall tone of the image is solemn and reflective, with a focus on the importance of the quote and the author's message.

The content of the page is a biblical passage from the New Testament, specifically from the Gospel of John, which is the 21st chapter and verse. The passage is titled "Rejoice you are sinners" and is a direct quote from the Bible. The text is in a larger font size compared to the surrounding text, which is a common formatting style to emphasize the importance or significance of the passage.
The passage is a direct quote from the Bible, and it is a part of the Gospel of John, specifically chapter 21, verse 22. The passage is a call to rejoice in one's sinfulness, as it is a part of the Christian belief that all people are sinners and that God's love for them is unconditional. The passage is a call to repentance and a call to believe in Jesus Christ, as it is a part of the Christian faith.
The visual elements in the image, such as the serif font, the larger font size, and the bolded text, are used to emphasize the importance and the direct nature of the message. The text is presented in a way that is clear and easy to read, which is typical for a page from a book or document. The image does not contain any other text or graphics, and the focus is solely on the biblical passage.

1 Cor 15:3-4: “For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

How to know you're saved: youtube.com/watch?v=_VRT2FFXntc

1 John 5:7 "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

Jesus Christ is God who has come in the flesh from heaven. He died as a sinless sacrifice for the sins of the whole world to save you from eternal hell, the punishment for your sin. He was buried, then resurrected and then ascended to heaven. John 3:16: “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 10:28: "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." Rom 10:9: “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."
God wants to forgive you, but you have a choice: Do you choose the righteousness of God by receiving Christ? Your own righteousness can NEVER justify you or keep you saved because of your sin. Rom 5:9: “Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.” Salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, in His finished blood atonement. The gift of salvation can't be earned. Confess The Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in prayer, that you trust in Him and believe He atoned for your sins on the cross.

Eph. 2:8-9: “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

On the right, there is a painting of Jesus Christ, who is depicted with long hair, wearing a red robe, and holding a staff. He is standing with his hands raised, and his expression is one of concern or distress.
Below these images, there are two separate text boxes. The first text box reads: "R-27/1-5 I'm condemned to Hell, AMA. The fact that you can realise this means you are not beyond saving. You are only truly condemned if you were to give into the evil and embrace it without remorse. Your negative thoughts and self loathing IS the spark that still lies within you, telling you that you are more than what you think you are. Sometimes the suffering is necessary to reveal what lies beneath, so you can confront it and move past it. Once you do you'll actually be thankful for it, never give up, pic related is always looking out for you no matter how far gone you think you are.

The image is a digital illustration featuring a cartoon-style character with a brown skin tone. The character is depicted with a simple, cartoon-like face, and it appears to be a male with a beard. The character is wearing a headband and has a hand on its chest, which is raised in a gesture that could be interpreted as a prayer or a sign of respect.
Above the character's head, there is a thought bubble containing a thought bubble with the text "Forgive me Jews. I've been a bad guy." The text is in a bold, sans-serif font and is colored in black, which stands out against the white background of the image.
Below the character, there is another thought bubble with the text "I've been a bad guy." This thought bubble is also in a bold, sans-serif font and is colored in black, matching the color of the text above.
The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the brown skin tone of the character and the black text, making the characters and the text the focal points of the image. The overall style of the image is humorous and satirical, with a focus on the character's apology and the thought bubbles, which seem to be a play on the concept of forgiveness and the nature of the character's actions.

He escapes reality by posting online and being a massive dick to everything society deems as normal, because he can't come to terms to why his life was so bad, in comparison to everyone elses.

This poster, regardless of their rhetoric online, lives in a deeply religious household, and would not dare insult said religion in the household, because it would anger his parents, who may disown him and kick him out.

Which is something that frightens him massively, because he's never once had to actually hold or prop himself up, he's always dragged others down for the illusion of feeling like an individual.

This individual has also been groomed by similar people like him, and most likely is a victim himself of sexual and violent rhetoric; and will write everything off as

TLDR:

This planet is Bozrah, not Earth. What's more, you should be warning people about the upcoming "day of vengeance" here on Bozrah. Keep in mind, the 1,000-year Millennial Kingdom will take place on Earth, not on Bozrah. This planet will be destroyed (and Jesus will be the destroyer). It has no future.

From the post:
>And don't be deceived by the fact that the masses aren't talking about this info. In actuality, this info is the most important thing on the planet right now—by far. Nothing else even comes close.

Also from the post:
>And while I absolutely hate date-setting, if I were forced to give a window for when the day of vengeance will begin, I would say any time between September 1, 2026, and March 15, 2027. Note: This window is based on all of the available evidence, biblical and otherwise. Basically, the day of vengeance is supposed to be "well underway" by the time a deep freeze hits North America. Make of that what you will.

The image displays two tarot cards, each with a distinct illustration and text. The top card features a figure in a flowing robe, holding a staff with a sun-like symbol at the top, and a crescent moon at the bottom. The figure appears to be in a dynamic pose, with one arm raised and the other extended outward. The background is a vibrant yellow, and there are red and green accents that add to the vibrancy of the scene.
The text on both cards is in a serif font, and it reads "THE FOOL." and "THE MAGICIAN." The style of the image is reminiscent of the classic tarot cards, with a focus on the figure and the symbols associated with them. The overall impression is one of a tarot card reading, with the figures representing the Fool and the Magician, respectively.

You are responsible for guiding your spiritual being to a better end. You're at this point for a reason and you can clearly see the behaviour and mental patterns that stand against your norms and values. To remove that which covers your face you have to look at the proverbial mountain and figure out a way to transform it. Nothing in heaven or hell stops you from doing 50 pushups crunches and 1 muscle up except your own planning and path of improvement. Nothing keeps you from dedicating 2 hours in the weekend to volunteering in your neighborhood. A therapist can also help. Pick the smallest steps that grow that spark in you. It's not dead you just allowed it to be covered with lower impulses and shit.

Quite the opposite, Christianity is the one way for redemption. What is making you feel guilty is God Himself, Nature, human consciousness. Christ says he didn't come for those who have no guilt, but for sinners. The Church and Christianity right now is being very open arms, your talking point is madeup.

In the background, there are two figures sitting on the ground, one of whom is holding a bird. The setting appears to be a desert or arid environment, with a rocky wall and a barren landscape. The color palette is muted, with a predominance of earth tones, which contributes to the overall somber and melancholic mood of the painting. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the painting is realistic with a focus on the depiction of the figures and the natural environment.

The image is a painting that depicts a figure standing on a rocky outcropping with outstretched arms, seemingly in a state of exaltation or triumph. The figure is rendered in a realistic style with a dark, moody color palette, including shades of blue, red, and black. The figure's skin is a pale, translucent color, and the hair is tousled and flowing. The background is a deep, dark red with a swirling, fiery effect, and there are clouds and a bright, radiant light source in the upper left corner, which casts a dramatic glow on the figure. The overall composition and the use of color suggest a sense of awe and spiritual significance. There are no texts or discernible brands within the image.

The image shows a hand holding a piece of paper with text on it. The text is written in a script that appears to be a letter or a note, and it is printed on a white background. The letter is dated "August 6, 2020" and is addressed to "Dear Mom and Dad." The text on the paper is in English and includes a list of points, which are numbered and followed by a description. The list includes references to the Bible, specifically to passages such as "1 Timothy 3:7" and "2 Timothy 3:16." The style of the text is formal and appears to be a letter or a note, possibly from a religious or spiritual context. The paper is folded, and the top part of the paper is visible, showing the date and the text. The image is a photograph, and the focus is on the text, with the background blurred out, which emphasizes the content of the letter.

The image is a black and white photograph of a man with a beard, wearing a white robe and a cross around his neck. The man appears to be in his late 40s or early 50s. The photograph is framed by a decorative border with a decorative scroll design.
Below the photograph, there is a quote in white text that reads: "John of Kronstadt - Never confuse the person, formed in the image of God, with the evil that is in him - because evil is but a chance misfortune, an illness, a devilish reverie. But the very essence of the person is the image of God, and this remains in him despite every disfigurement."
At the bottom of the image, there is a watermark that reads "AZ QUOTES." The style of the image is reminiscent of historical or religious portraits, with a focus on the quote and the author's name. The text is centered and appears to be in a serif font, which is common for historical or religious texts. The overall tone of the image is solemn and reflective, with a focus on the importance of the quote and the author's message.

The content of the page is a biblical passage from the New Testament, specifically from the Gospel of John, which is the 21st chapter and verse. The passage is titled "Rejoice you are sinners" and is a direct quote from the Bible. The text is in a larger font size compared to the surrounding text, which is a common formatting style to emphasize the importance or significance of the passage.
The passage is a direct quote from the Bible, and it is a part of the Gospel of John, specifically chapter 21, verse 22. The passage is a call to rejoice in one's sinfulness, as it is a part of the Christian belief that all people are sinners and that God's love for them is unconditional. The passage is a call to repentance and a call to believe in Jesus Christ, as it is a part of the Christian faith.
The visual elements in the image, such as the serif font, the larger font size, and the bolded text, are used to emphasize the importance and the direct nature of the message. The text is presented in a way that is clear and easy to read, which is typical for a page from a book or document. The image does not contain any other text or graphics, and the focus is solely on the biblical passage.

1 Cor 15:3-4: “For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

How to know you're saved: youtube.com/watch?v=_VRT2FFXntc

1 John 5:7 "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

Rom 3:23: “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;”

Jesus Christ is God who has come in the flesh from heaven. He died as a sinless sacrifice for the sins of the whole world to save you from eternal hell, the punishment for your sin. He was buried, then resurrected and then ascended to heaven. John 3:16: “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 10:28: "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." Rom 10:9: “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." God wants to forgive you, but you have a choice: Do you choose the righteousness of God by receiving Christ? Your own righteousness can NEVER justify you or keep you saved because of your sin. Rom 5:9: “Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.” Salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, in His finished blood atonement. The gift of salvation can't be earned. Confess The Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in prayer, that you trust in Him and believe He atoned for your sins on the cross.

Eph. 2:8-9: “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

On the right, there is a painting of Jesus Christ, who is depicted with long hair, wearing a red robe, and holding a staff. He is standing with his hands raised, and his expression is one of concern or distress.
Below these images, there are two separate text boxes. The first text box reads: "R-27/1-5 I'm condemned to Hell, AMA. The fact that you can realise this means you are not beyond saving. You are only truly condemned if you were to give into the evil and embrace it without remorse. Your negative thoughts and self loathing IS the spark that still lies within you, telling you that you are more than what you think you are. Sometimes the suffering is necessary to reveal what lies beneath, so you can confront it and move past it. Once you do you'll actually be thankful for it, never give up, pic related is always looking out for you no matter how far gone you think you are.

The image is a digital illustration featuring a cartoon-style character with a brown skin tone. The character is depicted with a simple, cartoon-like face, and it appears to be a male with a beard. The character is wearing a headband and has a hand on its chest, which is raised in a gesture that could be interpreted as a prayer or a sign of respect. Above the character's head, there is a thought bubble containing a thought bubble with the text "Forgive me Jews. I've been a bad guy." The text is in a bold, sans-serif font and is colored in black, which stands out against the white background of the image.
Below the character, there is another thought bubble with the text "I've been a bad guy." This thought bubble is also in a bold, sans-serif font and is colored in black, matching the color of the text above.
The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the brown skin tone of the character and the black text, making the characters and the text the focal points of the image. The overall style of the image is humorous and satirical, with a focus on the character's apology and the thought bubbles, which seem to be a play on the concept of forgiveness and the nature of the character's actions.

This man has brown skin, hangs out on Telegram, and Discord, and lives in Europe as an immigrant. He comes from a war torn country, and thus his beliefs of "Good" have been wiped because he didn't have a stable childhood. He escapes reality by posting online and being a massive dick to everything society deems as normal, because he can't come to terms to why his life was so bad, in comparison to everyone elses.

This poster, regardless of their rhetoric online, lives in a deeply religious household, and would not dare insult said religion in the household, because it would anger his parents, who may disown him and kick him out.

Which is something that frightens him massively, because he's never once had to actually hold or prop himself up, he's always dragged others down for the illusion of feeling like an individual.

This individual has also been groomed by similar people like him, and most likely is a victim himself of sexual and violent rhetoric; and will write everything off as

"Too long unc, uh, I'm not a victim, I'm powerful! or "Suffering is le good."

No my dude, you were hurt, and that sucks, you continue to hurt people because that's all you know. Your aren't unique or special. You're an abused faggot who is doing everything you can to avoid looking at your own pain and saying "Oh shit, that hurt"

Dude, wake up. Read this post:

TLDR:

This planet is Bozrah, not Earth. What's more, you should be warning people about the upcoming "day of vengeance" here on Bozrah. Keep in mind, the 1,000-year Millennial Kingdom will take place on Earth, not on Bozrah. This planet will be destroyed (and Jesus will be the destroyer). It has no future.

From the post:

>And don't be deceived by the fact that the masses aren't talking about this info. In actuality, this info is the most important thing on the planet right now—by far. Nothing else even comes close.

Also from the post:
>And while I absolutely hate date-setting, if I were forced to give a window for when the day of vengeance will begin, I would say any time between September 1, 2026, and March 15, 2027. Note: This window is based on all of the available evidence, biblical and otherwise. Basically, the day of vengeance is supposed to be "well underway" by the time a deep freeze hits North America. Make of that what you will.

The image displays two tarot cards, each with a distinct illustration and text. The top card features a figure in a flowing robe, holding a staff with a sun-like symbol at the top, and a crescent moon at the bottom. The figure appears to be in a dynamic pose, with one arm raised and the other extended outward. The background is a vibrant yellow, and there are red and green accents that add to the vibrancy of the scene.
The text on both cards is in a serif font, and it reads "THE FOOL." and "THE MAGICIAN." The style of the image is reminiscent of the classic tarot cards, with a focus on the figure and the symbols associated with them. The overall impression is one of a tarot card reading, with the figures representing the Fool and the Magician, respectively.

You are responsible for guiding your spiritual being to a better end. You're at this point for a reason and you can clearly see the behaviour and mental patterns that stand against your norms and values. To remove that which covers your face you have to look at the proverbial mountain and figure out a way to transform it. Nothing in heaven or hell stops you from doing 50 pushups crunches and 1 muscle up except your own planning and path of improvement. Nothing keeps you from dedicating 2 hours in the weekend to volunteering in your neighborhood. A therapist can also help. Pick the smallest steps that grow that spark in you. It's not dead you just allowed it to be covered with lower impulses and shit.

Quite the opposite, Christianity is the one way for redemption. What is making you feel guilty is God Himself, Nature, human consciousness. Christ says he didn't come for those who have no guilt, but for sinners. The Church and Christianity right now is being very open arms, your talking point is madeup.

The bottom part of the image shows a colorful, spherical image with a gradient of colors from blue to yellow, resembling a planetarium or a planet map. The image is overlaid on a white background, and the text is in black, making it stand out against the colorful background. The style of the image is informational and educational, likely intended to convey a scientific or geological concept.

If Esrth is flat how come there are two sets of circumpolar stars? You have Crux in the southern hemisphere and Polaris in the northern one.
If Earth were flat it would be completely impossible for there to be two poles, because the axis would be arround just one and Antartica would be the exterior, and thus shouldn't have any stars orbiting on its axis.
Yet it does.
The only logical solution is that the world is not flat.

The image is a graphic representation of the concept of the cosmos, divided into three main sections. At the top, the word "THE COSMOS" is written in bold, capital letters, indicating the title of the section. Below this, there is a diagram that illustrates the three main components of the cosmos: the crystal sphere, the space, and the world disc.

The crystal sphere is depicted as a sphere of crystal with a world disc inside it. The outer edge of the crystal sphere is marked as 9 million kilometers in diameter and made of gold. The space is represented as a sphere with a diameter of 10 million kilometers and is filled with water.
The diagram also includes a text description beneath the diagram, which provides a detailed explanation of the components. It states that the crystal sphere is a sphere of crystal with a world disc inside it. The outer edge of the crystal sphere is marked as 9 million kilometers in diameter and made of gold. The space is a sphere with a diameter of 10 million kilometers and is filled with water.
The text also mentions that the outer edge of the crystal sphere is marked as 9 million kilometers in diameter and made of gold. The space is a sphere with a diameter of 10 million kilometers and is filled with water.
The image is presented in a simple, clean design with a black background and white text, which makes the information easy to read. The layout is organized in a way that guides the viewer's eye from the top to the bottom of the image, following the progression of the cosmos's components.

The image is a black and white photograph depicting a man inside a spherical structure. The man appears to be seated, with his head resting on his hand, looking out of the circular window. He is wearing a suit and has curly hair. The structure has a large circular opening at the top, and there are several ropes and cords attached to it, suggesting it is a part of a larger apparatus or vehicle. The background is out of focus, but it seems to be a dark, possibly nighttime setting. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the photograph is reminiscent of early 20th-century photography, with a grainy texture and a vintage aesthetic.

The central figure is depicted with a mouth open, and there is a red substance coming out of it, which is likely a drop or a dropper. This figure is also wearing a headset with a microphone, suggesting that the figure is engaged in a conversation or recording.
The other two figures are not shown with any visible drop or dropper, and their expressions are neutral. The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the gray tones of the figures and the red substance, making the figures stand out.
At the top of the image, there is text in a sans-serif font that reads: "an grateful for the 3D space experience. It's just like the real thing." The text is in black, which contrasts with the white background and the gray figures.
The overall tone of the image is serious and contemplative, with a focus on the concept of 3D space experience and the potential for immersive technology. The use of the word "grateful" suggests a positive sentiment towards the technology.

The image is a vintage map of the world, presented in a style reminiscent of old maps. It is titled "NEW STANDARD MAP OF THE WORLD" at the top, indicating its purpose as a standard map of the world. The map is divided into quadrants, each representing a different hemisphere, with the equator marked in red. The map is oriented with the North Pole at the top and the South Pole at the bottom, which is a common convention for maps.
The map is detailed with various geographical features, such as landmasses, bodies of water, and cities. The map is colored in shades of red, green, and beige, with the red representing land and the green representing water. The beige color is used for the landmasses and the cities.
The map includes a compass rose at the bottom, which is a key to the cardinal directions. The compass rose is divided into four quadrants, each representing a different cardinal direction: north, south, east, and west. The compass rose is marked with numbers and letters, indicating the cardinal directions.

The map also includes a time calculator at the bottom, suggesting that it is a tool for calculating time. The calculator is marked with numbers and letters, indicating the hours, minutes, and seconds.
The map is framed by a red border and has a title at the top, which is partially obscured by the compass rose. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of historical maps, with a focus on geography and navigation.

The image is a screenshot from a video, likely from a television show or a news broadcast. It features a woman with blonde hair, smiling at the camera. She is wearing a professional outfit, which includes a blouse and a skirt. The background is a blue-toned color, and there is a blurred image of a newsroom or studio setting in the background.
At the top of the image, there is a black banner with white text that reads "GALAXY" in a stylized font. Below the banner, there is a white text box with the question "WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW MORE?" in bold, uppercase letters. The text box is positioned in the center of the image, drawing the viewer's attention.
The overall style of the image is that of a news broadcast, with a focus on the question posed by the text box. The image is likely used to convey a call to action, inviting viewers to engage with the content of the show or news program.

The image is a digital illustration with a minimalist style, featuring three human-like figures with simple facial features. The figures are depicted in a three-quarter view, with their heads facing forward. Each figure has a single eye and a mouth, and they are shown with their mouths open, as if they are speaking or expressing an emotion.
The text overlaying the image is in a casual, informal font and reads: "I'm grateful for the 3D space experience. It's just like the real thing." The text is in black, contrasting with the lighter background, and is positioned at the top of the image.
The background of the image is plain and white, which helps to highlight the figures and the text. The overall tone of the image is humorous and light-hearted, as indicated by the text and the expressions of the figures. The image does not contain any other discernible objects or details.

The image displays four spherical globes with a variety of colors and textures, each representing a different continent. The globes are arranged in a square formation, with each side of the square containing one globe. The continents are depicted in different shades of green, blue, and red, with some areas of darker shading indicating areas of high temperature or pressure. The globes are stylized to resemble a three-dimensional representation, with the continents appearing to be in a three-dimensional space. The image is a digital rendering, and there are no texts or discernible brands present. The style of the image is a simple, clean representation of the Earth's continents, likely used for educational or informational purposes.

The image features a stylized depiction of a planet and a flying saucer against a dark, starry background. The planet is depicted in a realistic style, with a greenish-blue color and a visible landmass. It is suspended from a string by two small, metallic hooks. The saucer, which is silver in color, is positioned to the right of the planet and appears to be floating in the air. It has a rounded, dome-like shape with two circular windows on the front. The image has a whimsical and playful quality, with the planets and the flying saucer being the central elements. There are no texts or discernible brands within the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of a digital illustration or a graphic design, with a focus on the contrast between the earth and the saucer, and the playfulness of the floating saucer.

But they are falsifiable. Flat earth is very easily proven wrong by the simple observation that the sun moves exactly as would be expected in the globe model.

If the sun were much smaller than the earth and moving in a circle above the plane, the sun would appear to slow down as it gets farther away from the observer, for the same reason that when in a car, objects nearer to you appear to be moving much faster than objects that are far away. It would also appear to get smaller as it moves away from the observer, for the same reason that train tracks appear to converge as they get farther away. Lastly, no part of the sun would ever appear to dip below the horizon.

The image is a digital collage that combines various elements to create a surreal and humorous scenario. At the center of the image is a pharmacy with a sign that reads "Pharmacy Organics," suggesting a focus on natural and organic products. Above the pharmacy, there is a large globe with a map of the world, symbolizing global connectivity.
To the left of the pharmacy, there is a building with a sign that reads "Liberty Tax," indicating a tax service. Above this building, there is a helicopter flying, suggesting the presence of aerial services.
On the right side of the image, there is a building with a sign that reads "All Natural Health Food," indicating a focus on natural and organic health products. Above this building, there is a sign that reads "Pharmacy Organics," reinforcing the theme of the pharmacy.
In the foreground, there are people walking on the sidewalk, and a man is pushing a stroller. The sky is blue with a few clouds, and there are trees in the background.

At the bottom of the image, there is a question in a speech bubble that reads, "What difference does it make?" This question is a playful commentary on the juxtaposition of the real world with the surreal elements of the image.
The style of the image is surreal and whimsical, with a focus on the juxtaposition of everyday life with fantastical elements.

Please take s moment to think about this
You are saying that the north pole is st the center of this dome, then as you go outward towards the "ice wall" they project onto the edge of the world a similar spherical shape. Even though geometrically it makes absolutely no sense.
Since you faggots love to "do your own research" and experiment at home, I urge you that you make a small scale model of how this is supposed to work. How would you project a sphere onto a dome?

The earth is a nebulous realm that operates entirely on the conscious belief in the inhabitants.

It is neither flat nor a globe inherently. It is currently a globe though.

The governments tried to go into space but they were blocked by the firmament because the firmament was the predominate belief. They pushed their globe agenda to change the people’s belief which caused the earth to become as such and they were able to move beyond the firmament.

The governments figured out the earth took the shape of whatever the inhabitants believed. They changed the system people believe in order to fit their goals. That’s why the little agent smiths get so mad at flat earth. Their bosses cant have people changing it back.

Does the flat earth spin or rotate in any way? if not then how do stars movements make sense?. Its easy to imagine a big earth ball point and a bunch of other 3d objects that are just far away but for their motions to make sense for a non moving flat object they'd all need to move really sporadically. Every kind of flat earth explanation is "its all fake bro" which doesn't explain anything.

The image is a digital artwork that depicts a scene in outer space. At the center of the image, there is a large turtle with a shell that appears to be made of glass or a reflective material. The turtle is facing towards the right side of the image. Above the turtle's shell, there is a dome-like structure with a blue and white color scheme. Inside this dome, there is a representation of the Earth, with a blue and white color palette. The dome is surrounded by a white, fluffy cloud-like material.
The background of the image is a dark, starry space with a multitude of stars and a nebula, which is a large, glowing cloud of gas and dust. The overall style of the image is surreal and dreamlike, with a blend of fantasy and science fiction elements. There are no texts present in the image.

Why does nobody question this fucking lexicon? And why does flat earth presuppose that that there couldn't possibly be a greater cosmos outside of our realm? I fucking hate npc discussions on this shit.
Through my own research, I've come to find that "god" is saturn, and he only rules this realm and this realms heaven/underworld. Our realm likely is flat, and inside a cave. And outside of the cave is an entire vast cosmos that's outside of the jurisdiction of "god"(saturn/el).

The image is a black and white illustration that depicts a diagram of the Earth's structure, with the title "HEAVEN OF HEAVENS" at the top. The diagram is divided into three concentric circles, with the outer circle representing the Earth, the middle circle representing the "UNDERWORLD," and the inner circle representing the "PILLARS OF EARTH." The diagram shows the Earth as a flat surface with mountains and valleys, and the "UNDERWORLD" as a series of concentric circles with a central point, resembling a sun or a central point of the Earth. The "PILLARS OF EARTH" are depicted as a series of concentric circles with a central point, resembling a series of hills or mountains. The diagram is labeled with various celestial bodies and their positions relative to the Earth, such as the Sun, the Moon, the Planets, and the Stars. The text "HEAVEN OF FIRE FOR GREENS AND OTHERS" is written at the top of the diagram, suggesting a connection to religious or spiritual beliefs. The style of the image is reminiscent of early 20th-century scientific diagrams, with a focus on the Earth's structure and the celestial bodies around it.

At the top, there is a title in bold text that reads "ORBIT EQUATIONS VULNERABLE TO CONSERVATION OF ENERGY." Below the title, there is a screenshot of a computer screen displaying a graph with a red box highlighting a specific data point. The graph shows a relationship between the total energy and the total mass of a celestial body, with the total mass on the x-axis and the total energy on the y-axis.
To the right of the graph, there is a text box with the title "Conservation of Mechanical Energy" and a description that reads, "Equations: Conservation of Mechanical Energy." Below this, there are two equations: "E = KE + PE" and "E = mgh + KE + PE."

Below the force balance diagram, there is a section titled "Conservation of Mechanical Energy" with a text box that reads, "Equations: Conservation of Mechanical Energy."
To the right of the text box, there is a diagram of a celestial body with a caption that reads, "Kepler's equations of orbital motion do not satisfy conservation of energy. To satisfy the conservation of energy, the Keplerian equations must be modified. Kepler sets centripetal force equal to the gravitational force."
Below the celestial body diagram, there is a section titled "Summary of R�ssler Formulas" with a table that lists various formulas related to celestial mechanics, such as "Total Energy" and "Energy Conservation."
On the right side of the image, there is a graphic of a celestial body with the text "Kepler's equations of orbital motion do not satisfy conservation of energy. To satisfy the conservation of energy, the Keplerian equations must be modified. Kepler sets centripetal force equal to the gravitational force."
The image also includes a footer with the text "This modified version of the Kepler equations is vulnerable to conservation of energy and space is taken."
The overall style of the image is educational and informative, designed to convey the concept of energy conservation in celestial mechanics.

Planets and stars control the fates of man, with spiritual rays shining to their respective chakras.
Flat earth astrologers had perfectly accurate flat earth model (Ptolemy epicycles) that was accurate to the naked eye, and thus in use for 1400 years.
Kepler slightly improved the accuracy of the equations by assuming elliptical orbits rather than epicycles, but Ptlomey's flat earth astronomical equations can easily be modified into ellipses as well, because changing flat coordinates to globe coordinates is a simple mathematical operation that preserves the same astronomical observations, shadows lengths, daylengths, shadow lengths, and so on.

The light source is represented by a white lightbulb, and the light being reflected and refracted is shown as a series of concentric circles, with the light being refracted at the center.
The bottom right image also includes a graphical representation of the concept of self-refraction. It shows a spherical object with a cross-section that shows the light source and the light being refracted. The light source is represented by a white lightbulb, and the light being refracted is shown as a series of concentric circles, with the light being refracted at the center.

The text in the image includes the names "Sol," "Saturn," "Sol Nighter," "Above View," "Side View," "Self-Refort," and "United Nations Logo 33 sections." These names likely refer to the different concepts or ideas being represented in the images.

You will never have a flat Earth. You have no model, you have no math, you have no testable predictions. You have a zoomed in photo twisted by bad line-of-sight calculations and weed into a crude mockery of God's perfection.

All the “validation” you get is two-faced and half-hearted. Behind your back people mock you. Your parents are disgusted and ashamed of you, and your “friends” laugh at your flattie videos behind closed doors.

Rational people are utterly repulsed by you. Thousands of hours of education allow smart people to sniff out pseudo scientific frauds with incredible efficiency. Even flat Earth photos which “pass” look uncanny and unnatural to a thinking person. Your unanswerable questions are a dead giveaway. And even if you manage to get a drunk girl to watch a video with you, she’ll turn tail and bolt the second she realizes you weren't just joking about flat Earth conspiracy theory.

You will never be happy. You wrench out a fake "I know it's true!" every single morning and tell yourself others are going to believe. But deep inside you feel the depression creeping up like a weed, ready to crush you under the unbearable weight caused by the force you deny, Earth's gravity.

Eventually it’ll be too much to bear – you’ll buy a ring laser gyroscope, start your livestream, and plunge into the cold abyss of Internet mockery. Your parents will find you accidentally proving the globe, heartbroken but relieved that they no longer have to live with the unbearable shame and disappointment. They'll copy and upload your video across social media, and every viewer for the rest of eternity will know Earth is a rotating globe. Your flat Earth videos will decay and get deleted from YouTube, and all that will remain of your legacy is a video with an experiment that unmistakably proves the globe.

This is your fate. This is what you chose. There is no turning back.

I wonder how that should work. The sun is at least 3000 miles high, outside the atmosphere. A plane can't fly there.

The image is a digital graphic with a predominantly purple and blue color scheme, featuring text and diagrams. At the top, the text reads "HOLOFACETOGRAFIC/ETHER/PLASMATIC UNIVERSE" in a bold, sans-serif font. Below this, there is a section titled "Electrical Space" with a diagram of a plasma structure, which is a visual representation of a plasma torus. The text below the diagram states, "OUR CONSTRUCTED PLASMA TORUS IS THE DIMENSIONAL SPACE BETWEEN WORLDS OR ELECTRICAL SPACES."
The central part of the image is dominated by a large, central diagram with a plasma torus structure, which is surrounded by various other diagrams and text. The text surrounding the central diagram reads, "OUR CONSTRUCTED PLASMA TORUS IS THE DIMENSIONAL SPACE BETWEEN WORLDS OR ELECTRICAL SPACES."
At the bottom of the image, there is a statement that reads, "TRUTH: ALL 3 MODELS: THE WHOLE PLANET YOU LIVE ON IS FLAT (FLAT EARTH) THE STRUCTURE IT RESIDES IN IS SPHERICAL EARTH THE WORLD UNIVERSE IS CONCAVE EARTH."
The overall style of the image is informational and educational, likely intended to convey concepts related to the concept of the "Plasma Universe" and the "Plasma Torus." The use of diagrams and text helps to visually represent the concepts being discussed.

The glerfs here arent serious right? Its just a massive campaign of shills and bots?
99% of people cannot correctly define what science, physics, math, or natural laws are.
That means 99% of people are confused and lost. Including most flat earthers.
Most flat earthers seem to want to talk about icewalls, domes, aether, and models
DEAR FLAT EARTHERS, STOP BEING SOFT ON THESE BALLTARD GLERFS. Dont ever be nice to these faggots, they will hold everything you say against you.
MY RECOMMENDATION: talk about measurements, natural laws, natural observations, celestial navigation.
Neither glerfs nor flat earthers have any science models, only approximation models.
Models and scientific models are not a prerequisite for SCIENCE (experimentation).
Say goodbye to the ball, brought to you by the black swan and sextant. If glerfs try to say celestial navigation is on their side, ask them where they got "celestial horizon" from while they measure an angle to a REFRACTED HORIZON (apparent horizon). Even balltards have to treat the earth as flat in their own CN diagrams

The image is a visual representation of a concept related to the phenomenon of "vanishing perspective" in tall buildings. The image features a large building with a pointed top, which is the observer's eye level, and a shorter building with a flat top, which is the building's eye level. The image is divided into two sections, with the left side showing a diagram of a spherical protractor, which is used to measure the angle of the observer's eye level relative to the building's eye level. The right side of the image shows a scale of the building's height, with the top of the building marked at 120 feet, and the bottom of the building marked at 100 feet.
The text on the image asks the question, "Why do tall buildings appear to vanish bottom first?" and provides an explanation that tall buildings appear to vanish because the observer's eye level is smaller than the angle to the top of the building. This is due to the fact that the observer's eye level is smaller than the angle to the top of the building, which is smaller than the angle to the top of the building. The text also mentions that this is due to the angular resolution of the observer's eye level, which is smaller than the angle to the top of the building.

The image is a visual aid to explain the concept of "vanishing perspective" in tall buildings, using a spherical protractor to demonstrate the relationship between the observer's eye level and the building's eye level. If angular resolution exists theres a reason you cannot see Mt everest from where youre at.
Explain to me right now the reason you cannot see MT everest... >because the ground is a ball and is blocking it Then you deny the existence of angular resolution. Even if we both agree the earth is flat (it is) then you couldn't see MT everest and every boat on the ocean. Glerfs are not sending their best today holy shit.
>eclipses
Glerfs stole the perfectly flat earth working model for them and then claimed we never had a working model. Then they claim the model they stole comes from egocentric round earth (They all repeat this same mantra for some reason) Complete dishonesty and disingenuous.

Flat earthers usually fall into two categories: idealists and trolls. The latter just want to waste people's time. The former will, when critiqued, reveal that they reject material evidence on principle and thus are not worth talking to in a scientific context. Those people need therapy, not evidence.

The image is a meme featuring a man with a beard and glasses, who appears to be smiling or laughing. The man's facial expression is relaxed, and he is looking directly at the viewer. The background is blurred, suggesting a dark environment. Overlaid on the image is a text that reads, "YOU GUYS THINK THE EARTH IS FLAT." The text is in white and is placed in the center of the image, with the words "YOU GUYS" in a larger font size than the rest of the text. The style of the image is humorous and seems to be a play on the idea that the Earth is flat, a common misconception.

This is another category error that 99% of glerfs fall into. Theres no science involved in determining the earth's shape, just measurements and natural laws/natural phenomenon.
This is almost an impossible category error to fix, because the world is so damn set in their ways. Nobody wants to understand or define science as is, they just repeat what they are told.
You cannot have science without EXPERIMENT and STUDY OF THE NATURAL WORLD.

This means the only things that actually count as sciences that follow the scientific method are hard sciences or natural science: biology, chemistry, and physics.
That means the rest of whats called science are PSEUDOSCIENCES by definition. Astronomy, Astrophysics, economics, sociology, etc.
This is probably the most life changing information I can give you and you will still forget it unfortunately.
Natural laws /natural phenomenon, measurements =/= science.

Nope.
The Greeks were so convinced it was a globe, they decided to measure the circumference.
The Indians observed that their sky had two poles of rotation, and wrote about this, and thus concluded the Earth is a globe.
The Egyptians knew that sailors could climb masts to see further over the horizon, and concluded it was a globe, and sent an expedition to go around the world.

The only ancient civ that said it was flat and motionless were the Jews - who didnt have a culture of sailing.

>the sun would not set on a flat earth.

Yes it would.
(1) Angular Size: A tree with an height of 10m at a distance of 1000m, has an angular size of 100:1, which is sufficient to obscure the sun which also has an angular size of 100:1. Thus distant objects can obscure other distant objects.
(2) Laws of Perspective: Go watch some flat earth videos showing how law of persepctive works. Most people don't understand what their eyes are actually seeing, because they don't understand that further away things are smaller in all directions. This is a trained skilled that artists have to learn to draw properly, and without going through this process, people don't really understand what distant horizons are showing.
(3) Light Distortions effects.

Getting smaller - which it doesnt - would not make the sun go below the horizon - which it does.
Flat earth nummbers - the ones they say are correct - only prove the sun would never set on a flat earth.

Nope.
Angular size of 100:1 on the horizon will obscure the sun. This means a 10m tree at a distance of 1km, or a 1m rock at a distance of 10km, or a 1ft wave at a distance of 1000ft are sufficient to obscure the angular size of the sun.

The image displays a detailed, circular map with a central focus on the Earth's surface. The map is adorned with various colored lines and symbols, indicating different geographical features such as landmasses, bodies of water, and political boundaries. The colors used are predominantly blue, green, and red, with some areas of white and beige. The map is framed by a decorative border with a circular pattern that includes a compass rose and a series of decorative elements, such as scrolls and stars. The style of the image is reminiscent of historical maps, possibly from the Renaissance or Baroque periods, given the intricate details and the use of color and symbolism. The image is a digital representation, likely created for educational or decorative purposes.

Also, flight paths don't prove shit. The southern hemisphere is made up of poor 3rd world shitholes. It's just not economically viable to fly between 2 shitholes because there's not enough demand so the flight will be half-empty, so they add a stop or extra destination to fill up the plane. It's also dangerous to fly above antarctica because if you have engine trouble and have to land, no one will get there before you freeze to death.

I want to talk about how recent the globe earth model is. they WANT you to believe that "we knew the earth was a globe" is ancient facts, but the FACT is that we are not moving. there are so many proofs yet globers cant accept them.

DEAR GLOBER: WHAT PROOF DO YOU WANT TO PROVE THAT EARTH IS FLAT?

okay, here is one. how does predict eclipses? how do we know when eclipses are going to happen? we rely on space agencies to tell us, ok cool how do they get that informaton? they use something called a stereocycle from the chaldeans from 2500 BC in babylonian times. they cannot use the heliocentric (we-revolve-around-the-sun model) to predict eclipses at all. and the chaldeans knew the earth was flat, and stationary, and the center of everything. in fact, all ancient civilizations came to the conclusion that we are flat and not stationary because THATS WHAT OUR SENSES TELL US! science comes in and tells you "actually, you are spinning but dont feel it. trust me bro". if you believei n the globe, its the ultimate proof you dont trust your own senses and trust your government over your own body.

there are literally so many proofs we are being lied to about the globe earth. look up something called a selenelion eclipse, its where the sun and the moon are BOTH above the earth in the niht sky and then a lunar eclipse still happens. and yet, its supposed to only happen because the sun is blocking it. thats just another quick one that is super obvious.

okay, i am going to try to put this as simple as possible and if you have any questions you can ask but before we begin you need to forget everything you know about this world and its structure, imagine we erased all the maps and countries and we were just people living here. wipe out all the textbooks, radios, tv stations, internet okay, so, freemasons are a group of people that have "owned" this earth for as long as we know, definitely at least back to the pharaonic times. we've been owned for about 2000 years as a species by the freemasons, its hard to date accurately because we have no real history books and its blurry before then, it is likely they are also just a piece of the puzzle, but as far as we are concerned the freemasons are the people who are running the "plot" on earth.

the "plot" right now is that there are countries on earth that are at war for historical reasons, lack of resources, hating the other side, etc. these are people that go ABOVE countries because they are the ones who CREATE countries. they control the united states just like a puppeteer controls their marionette, the united states as a country was created to act as a vehicle to control the rest of the world from. everyone you were taught about in school (masonic government brainwashing facilities) was a freemason. george washington. benjamin franklin. christopher columbus. all freemasons. all of ww1 and ww2 was fake, a fake war financed by freemasons in switzerland (the masonic hub of europe). ww1 = rothschild paid america to join and led to jews getting palestine. ww2 = led to creation of israel for jews (btw winston churchill was also a freemason).

freemasons are the ones who control and release technology to us to keep the brainwashing going.

100 years ago in the 1924, lets pretend instead of on the internet we were all just in a salloon together. theres nothing to do except drink. once a day we get a piece of paper that comes (newspaper) that tells us about faraway places. it tells us about wars that are happening, advancements around the world, etc. this is how the masons essentially brainwashed the entire population successfully.

their ultimate goal is to remove god from your life. here is an interesting place to stop and ask you: are you religious? many of us are not. many of us are raised on "science" (their cult) which replaces god from us, erases god from our lives. keep in mind, this group is very evil. one of the ways they use science to remove god is with the globe model. the whole thing is satanic and gay and retarded. sorry, but we are on a flat earth that is not moving. i can elaborate but its proven and you need to research it yourself, i would suggest austin whitsitt. we have falsified this retarded pic related globe model. we are not living on a 3959 mile radius ball. in this model they taught us all in science class (see the pattern?) they teach us about the earths crust, mantle, outer core, inner core, etc. however, the deepest hole actually ever dug is the borehole in russia which is 7.8 miles deep. and globers were wrong about what they would find in the first 7.8 miles.. so, nobody really knows what is in the depths of the earth. sorry, you might have a LOT of questions. "if the earth is flat, what is up there? what is under us? what is "off the edge"? these are all very basic questions that can be easily answered. i am trying to not pivot this to flat earth discussion but you have to understand that flat earth and freemasonry are deeply connected

The image is a stylized cartoon illustration with a dark, comic book-like aesthetic. It features three characters, two of whom are humanoid with green skin and elongated heads, and one is a child with a red shirt. The characters are standing around a computer monitor, which displays a social media platform with a user's profile picture and a list of messages. The text on the monitor reads "As long as we keep them blaming each other they'll never catch on to us." The characters appear to be engaged in a discussion or analysis of the content on the screen. The background is a solid blue, and there is a speech bubble with the text "As long as we keep them blaming each other they'll never catch on to us." The style of the image is reminiscent of the works of the artist Mike Mignola, known for his dark and satirical illustrations.

essentially the fact is that everybody right now on earth is enslaved to technology. or rather, anyone with access to technology is enslaved to it. this is on purpose, this is a tool they use to control us. you have to understand, the US government (and whenever i mention governments, it basically is all led by freemasons) is INCREDIBLY good at understanding psychology. many people have too much ego. many people are unable to humble themselves and accept that they are capable of being brainwashed. americans are brainwashed into this OOH RAH RAH AMERICA NUMBER ONE! mindset and they think people like north korea or russians are "brainwashed by their leader". the truth is.. we are all brainwashed. what do americans really pride themselves on? war. and what is the most fake and gay mass sacrifice on this earth? war. the US has a 1 trillion dollar defense budget, if you are getting paid a trillion dollars a year to keep a war going would you do it? especially if you were an evil villain? of course you would. the US government knows through experiments like project mockingbird that they can pay their CIA actors to infiltrate the news and repeat their talking points and it WILL make them into reality. if they go on TV every night and say "you need to be scared of covid, you should be afraid of breathing near other people!".. people will follow. people will give up their freedom to stay safe, that is just a fact. people will let the government inject things into their bloodstream if it means they can now breathe safely near others again, all over a flu. you dont need to look far to know the government is evil and lies to us about everything

lol the CIA was founded in 1947. have you ever seen pic related? it gets posted up a lot but lets break it down after ww2 we found out that the nazis were VERY interested in antartica for some reason, supposedly they had submarines to go there and had bases there. i wonder why?

operation paperclip was an operation about how america got nazi scientists on "our side". so, they had these SS officers which were about to be executed for war crimes and told them "you will work for us, tell us what we know, and we will spare your life". and so they did.

one year later, 1946 operation highjump is literally america checking out antartica to investigate why the nazis were so interested in it.

one year later, 1947, they invent the cia as the agency that will psyop/brainwash the country and world. five years later they invent the NSA to spy on the country as well, because they have a huge psyop to push out. at this time, they are using radio and movies to add the idea of "space imagery" to the public consciousness

1955, admiral richard byrd does operation deep freeze where they are mapping bases to put in "antartica". and he goes on TV saying that "there is a landmass LARGER than the size of the united states BEYOND antartica and it is unexplored". literally, that is almost a quote, here here is saying it: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PrdSal9uH28

lets zoom out a little from this point, ALL of this deception was after they discovered the firmament. what i am trying to say is that the majority of the world didnt believe we were on a globe until very recently. this might sound crazy, because you've been brainwashed to believe eratosthenes proved the earth was a globe with 2 sticks but this is fake and retarded propaganda, i can disprove it next post the truth is, what we what we call "planets" are round lights that seem to be set over our earth. please look at my related gif and you will see. feel free to look up similar footage, or get a telescope yourself. its blurry lights. it doesnt look like solid rocks floating in a black vacuum. it never did. the only reason we all have that imagery in our head is because of computer generated images, NASA propaganda, seeing them in movies and media (which is how they mind control us)

the so called planets and stars are not what we have been told they are and comparing luminous objects based on what is in the sky doesnt prove that our earth is round

what i believe is that we are the center of everything, we are in a very special place, we have a special star in our sky (the north star, polaris) that all our magnets point to and ALL of our other stars rotate around it perfectly all night, resetting every single night. do you understand what that means? let me show you a beautiful video of space: https://youtu.be/HsJxGpDmJrQ?t=38 just watch, okay? im doing you the courtesy of answering your question so do me the courtesy of watching a video of the place we live in. our night sky is FIXED. its like this ALL THE TIME and does this FOREVER. our stars have NEVER EVER changed from what you see in the video i linked. in fact, our stars are so reliable that our ancestors mapped our constellations out and they are still accurate today. our stars are fixed in the dome that spins above us. can't you see it? the globe model is the one that suggests we are flying around at these insane speeds. the big bang happened and we have been flying ever since, and we travel 5.5 trillion miles a year. do you really believe that? lets be honest if you are like i was, you've probably never really thought about it. you probably dont know shit about the globe model and yet you live on it. i know i didnt

we are supposedly flying around at all these crazy speeds, in fact, everything is. the globe model wants you to believe that stars are millions of miles away because they HAVE to be to sell you the lie as to why they appear fixed to us in our night sky. thats why space is "so big", to sell you the lie.

do you know what the georgia guidestones were? they are some rocks that got exploded mysteriously not long ago. just look it up. the georgia guidestones were tools you could use to rebuild civilization essentially, and the ROCKS that were fixed in place served as a 100% always accurate compass, clock, calendar. it showed polaris day after day for all recorded history to show you where north is because it was pointed right at it. it showed you exactly when the winter solstice was and the summer solstice was and it shows you the time of the year. it was a calendar because the earth doesn't move and the sun does the same thing that has the same cycle over and over and over again. we are one big cosmic clock, the sun and the earth are exactly as the bible says, we just have two big lights in our sky. one that rules the day and one that rules the night. i am not trying to push the bible or christianity on you, but what i am saying is a fact and page 1 of the bible is about god fucking making the cosmic clock we live in. the freemasons have robbed our knowledge of celestial navigation. do you understand? our constellations are fixed. the sun and the moon dont just appear to be similar sizes, they ARE similar sizes. they want you to believe the sun is 400x further away and that its 400x bigger than the moon so thats why it APPEARS to be the same size. source: just trust me bro. replace what your eyes tell you with what science has "measured". they didnt measure it, they KNEW it had to be fuckhuge to sell the lie and constructed their "measurements" around it. they say theyre sure the sun is 93 million miles away. ok, how?

believing every scientist, doctor, politician, etc and just had your brain wiped and were on this earth? would you come to the conclusion we're spinning? if you could only trust your senses, what would they tell you? are you spinning right now or not?

if you dont think its an important conversation to have, and you still think its dumb, you are so far from the truth guys. if you are being intellectually honest about this, you wouldn't get past that we cannot freely explore and travel this world, we are stuck in a playpen. no travel is allowed beyond the arctic or antarctic circles. you might have seen youtubers that "go to antartica" but that is much different. you might have heard of cruises that go past it or near it or anything like that but they don't. you have to realize, this earth is not what they tell you. globers love to come up with the fact that "show me a flat earth map then! we have a working globe model because we use it for navigation!" even on the globe model everything is heavily distorted. they TRIED to use the globe model for navigation and people were way off by hundreds and hundreds of miles. look at pic related, this is the real size of africa. the sizes on the globe are totally distorted because they have to be. they took a flat earth map and wrapped it around the globe and had to elongate the southern hemisphere.

on a globe model, wouldnt it make sense that we would have 24 timezones on earth? we are rotating in space being exposed to the sun at a steady speed, so why dont we have 24 "slices" of the globe as time zones?

again, they use the globe model to lie to you. did you know we have 19 timezones in the northern hemisphere and 32 timezones in the southern hemisphere? the southern hemisphere on a globe is WAAAAAYYYYYYY bigger than you think it is. thats why south to south hemisphere flights are exceedingly rare, borderline never flown. doesnt it just make perfect sense? there are no good reliable maps of flat earth either, sadly. and GPS which globers bring up is constantly being corrected because its wrong constantly. it just is micro-corrected so fast using ground based towers that it appears to work. its all ground-based. so is "satellite" internet

if you believe that we know shit about "bodies of mass up in the sky" you will have to come up with an explanation for why we still have "dark matter". fritz zwicky invented it in the 1930s because when they were measuring clusters of faraway stars the numbers for gravity were off by 99%. they filled in this number of "missing mass" in their bad model as "dark matter" and now it comes to engulf most of the universe. any time we are wrong about planets we blame it on dark matter. just simply research this topic and it will show you how much of our current science is based on speculation and bullshit.

sonoluminescence works by literally using vibrations to create lights in water. the bible states that god seperates the waters above from the waters below. the firmament has a bunch of fluid on it and using sonoluminescence is likely what lights up the stars to begin with. EVERYTHING is being moved by a magnetic force. what is causing this magnetic force? im not sure, likely whatever is causing earths magnetic field. i believe we are the center of everything, and i believe what is causing earths magnetic field is under polaris, where the government has said we are not allowed to travel. but ALL living things have a measurable electric field, our earth has a measurable magnetic field and so does our atmosphere. if you want to get technical, the reason we are all here is also electricity. electricity holds your atoms together, electricity is what is fired through the neurons of your brain to make you type here.

The image is a collage of various images and text, predominantly featuring conspiracy theories and religious themes. At the top, there is a large image of a blue and white spaceship with the text "Look, Jesus is not a designer" written on it. Below this, there are several smaller images and text panels, each with a different theme.

The collage is accompanied by a series of tweets, with the first tweet reading "EVER LEARNING... LOOK, JESUS IS NOT A DESIGNER." The other tweets are not fully visible, but they seem to be discussing the same conspiracy theories and religious themes as the images. The overall style of the image is a mix of visual and textual content, with a focus on conspiracy theories and religious themes.

The image is a digital graphic with a blue and white color scheme. At the top, there is a quote in white text that reads, "If you're reading this, you've been in a coma for almost 20 years. We're trying a new technique. We don't know where this message will end up in your dream, but we hope we're getting through." Below the quote, there is a smaller text that says, "Please wake up, rise up from the dead, and Christ will give you light." The background of the image features a blue and white illustration of a figure with a flowing robe, standing on a cliff with a waterfall cascading down. The figure appears to be looking out over the water, with a serene and peaceful atmosphere. The overall style of the image is artistic and spiritual, with a focus on biblical references and a message of hope.

Yes, the earth is so large that at a first glance it appears flat. Our senses also tell us the sun sets and rises below the horizon, which is impossible on a flat earth.
>actually, you are spinning but dont feel it
Yes, because the spin is so slow (1 full rotation every 24 hours), that the downward force from gravity is greater by (I think) over a hundred times.

The image depicts a graphical representation of a celestial object's trajectory, with a focus on the path of a planet or celestial body. The object is shown as a blue dot, and the trajectory is represented by a green line that extends from the center of the image to the right, indicating the direction of the object's movement.
The trajectory is labeled with the name "Ecliptic" in the upper left corner, which refers to the plane of the Earth's orbit around the Sun. The "Ecliptic" is a circle that is centered on the Earth's orbit, and it is marked with a blue dot.
The trajectory also includes a label "Orbit" in the upper right corner, which indicates that the object is in an orbit around the Sun. The "Orbit" is a circle that is also centered on the Earth's orbit, and it is marked with a green line.
The image is a graphical representation, and the colors used are primarily blue for the celestial body and green for the trajectory. The lines are drawn in a way that suggests a smooth, continuous movement, which is typical for celestial trajectories.
The image does not provide any additional context or information about the object's nature or the specific details of its orbit. It is a simple, clear graphical representation of a celestial object's trajectory.

Yes, because the spin is way too slow for my senses to detect, especially since gravity, which acts in the opposite direction is a 100 times stronger.
>your eyes right now tell you that what you look at is a flat horizon.
Yes, and unlike flerfoids, I have an IQ above 80 and can comprehend scale to know a large enough sphere will appear flat on the surface. The raw data from my senses isn't everything. If I spend half a second interpreting that data, I can see that objects disappear behind the horizon and the sun sets below it, both of which are impossible on a flat earth.

The image is a portrait-style photograph of a young man with long, wavy hair. He has fair skin and is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. The man is wearing a dark-colored, possibly black, garment that appears to be a robe or cloak, which is draped over his shoulders and down his back. The background is a simple, unadorned white wall, and there is a faint reflection of a metallic structure or panel on the wall to the left of the man. The lighting in the image is even, with no harsh shadows, suggesting a controlled environment, possibly a studio or a controlled setting. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the image is realistic, and it is likely intended to be a portrait of the actor who played the character Anakin Skywalker in the Star Wars franchise.

>are supposedly flying around at all these crazy speeds, in fact, everything is. the globe model wants you to believe that stars are millions of miles away because they HAVE to be to sell you the lie as to why they appear fixed to us in our night sky
Have you ever driven in a car? Notice how trees and mountains far away barely move? Or how a car on the next lane moving at the same velocity isn't moving relative to you? Now imagine if those trees and mountains were moving at approximately the same velocity as you. That's why the stars don't move. Note that they do actually move, but it's a couple degrees over hundreds of years. Look up starcharts from hundreds of years ago.
>the sun and the moon dont just appear to be similar sizes, they ARE similar sizes. they want you to believe the sun is 400x further away and that its 400x bigger than the moon so thats why it APPEARS to be the same size Funny you should mention that. It reminds me of eclipses, which are entirely incompatible with the flerf "model" where the sun and moon are the same size at the same height, like you mentioned a little earlier.
>replace what your eyes tell you with what science has "measured". they didnt measure it
In that case I'm sure you can measure how far away the sun is with parallax and tell us.

We do, countries can just choose which timezone they belong to or even make their own. The sun is also orbiting above the disk at a steady rate, so why would the southern hemisphere have more timezones on a flat earth?
>thats why south to south hemisphere flights are exceedingly rare, borderline never flown Actually, that's because the southern hemisphere is full of 3rd world shitholes that can't afford to fly much.

Stars do move over time but it's a very slow process. You flat earthers think that the stars should whizz about all over the place but you have no comprehension of the scales involved.
To put everything into perspective, scale down everything so that the radius of Earths orbit is 1 feet. On that scale the closest star, Proxima Centauri, would be 50 miles away and Polaris would be 5100 miles away.

Here's a video of Proxima Centauri showing both proper motion and parallax over a 6 year period.

The image is a graphic representation of a biblical concept, specifically the "Great Deep" mentioned in the Book of Genesis. The graphic is divided into two main sections, each with a different color scheme and a different style of illustration.

The upper section of the graphic is a gradient of yellow and orange hues, with the word "FIRMMENT (DOME) Gen 16:8" written in black text. Below this, there is a diagram of the Earth's land and sea, with the land depicted as a solid yellow color and the sea as a lighter shade of yellow. The land is labeled with the name "Genesis 1:1-10" and the sea is labeled with the name "Genesis 16:8."

The lower section of the graphic is a gradient of green and orange, with the word "The Great Deep" written in black text. This section also includes a diagram of the Earth's land and sea, with the land depicted as a solid green color and the sea as a lighter shade of green. The land is labeled with the name "Genesis 1:1-12" and the sea is labeled with the name "Genesis 16:8."

The graphic also includes a small black circle with the text "Genesis 16:8" inside it, which is likely a reference to the biblical verse. The overall style of the graphic is reminiscent of a religious or biblical illustration, with a focus on the concept of the "Great Deep" and its relationship to the land and sea.

[91 / 13]The image is a photograph of a circular, ornate design with a central figure that appears to be a seated figure, possibly a deity or a mythological figure, surrounded by a star-like pattern. The figure is adorned with a headdress and is surrounded by a halo-like effect. The background of the design is a dark, textured surface that has a pattern of swirling lines and shapes. At the top of the image, there is text in a script that is not entirely legible due to the resolution and angle of the photograph. The style of the image is reminiscent of traditional Indian art, with a focus on intricate details and symbolism.

Because eastern religions are actually real. Christianity isn't.

Christians have been stealing from eastern religions to try and trojan horse them. New age religions are almost all wholesale scams. Their purpose is to dissuade people from finding real religion. People get into them, get burned out or turned into useful idiots, and fuck over everyone else interested in the actual religions.

The few groups that repackage eastern religion that are doing it legitimately, they do it because they're actually real and work. Traditional religion in the past all pretty much looked like different variations of this.

Because it is. Ancient white indo-European tribes created all the major world religions.

Ancient Vedic culture and its derivatives (Buddhism) were founded by ancient Aryan white men.

The ancient Israelites were white Caucasian people. The Assyrian empire forcebly deported the white Israelites and only 40,000 could return to Israel. Those 40k mixed in with the locals who had overran the area in their absence.

The Assyrians called the Israelites “khumri or ghomri” which became Cimmerian in Greek ans they migrated. and the cimmerians were a white Scythian talked group.

The madai were known as the medes to the Greek and the medes were sometimes called the arians.

Aryan means noble in Sanskrit but in Hebrew aryan or more accurately Ar-yah or Har-yah means mountain of Yahweh. Har means mountain and yah means of pertaining or relating to Yahweh

Show me the source material because the Indo- aryans who started the Vedic culture all had similar language, rituals and lifestyles as the nomadic central Asian white tribes who also founded the European “pagan” faiths and the original Hebrew faith.

Please provide your source material for my scrutinization. Show me exact verses and passages and I will study them.

Also dark blue skin was always symbolic nobody had blue skin literally. They wouldn’t also have referred tot themselves as white people so references to color are than likely pertaining to some spiritual symbolism. But I will see when you show what you’re taking about

The image is a vibrant and detailed illustration that appears to be a part of a larger artwork, possibly a painting or a print, given the style and the presence of text. The central figure is a man with a beard and a turban, seated on the ground with his legs crossed. He is holding a small object in his hand and appears to be in a contemplative or meditative pose. Surrounding him are other figures, each engaged in different activities.

To the left, there is a figure with a long beard and a turban, seated on the ground with his legs crossed. To the right, there is a figure with a long beard and a turban, seated on the ground with his legs crossed. He is holding a small object in his hand and appears to be in a contemplative or meditative pose.
The background of the image is a dark green color, providing a stark contrast to the figures and enhancing their visibility. The figures are depicted in a realistic style, with attention to detail and shading that brings them to life. The overall composition and the use of color create a sense of depth and three-dimensionality.
In the top left corner of the image, there is text in a script that appears to be in a non-Latin script, possibly Indic or South Asian. The text is not clear enough to read, but it adds an element of cultural or historical context to the artwork.
The image is framed by a red border, which adds a pop of color and draws the viewer's attention to the central figures. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of traditional Indian art, with its emphasis on realism and the depiction of human figures in a contemplative or meditative state.

2. All of your claims, because they're all retarded nonsense derived from Christianity.
Not a single thing here references actual history and places way too much importance in Israel. The earliest figures associated with vedic religion (the manus and saptarishi) are clearly not white.

Only a Christian would go out of their way to try and link whiteness to Israel and it's tribes and use that to try and explain a white racial origin of vedic religion. It's just fucking stupid. Any moron who can actually read Sanskrit and doesn't have the Christian schizophrenic obsession with butchering Hebrew, can see how flat out wrong everything you said was

The image is a screenshot from a video, likely taken on a mobile device, as indicated by the watermark "om India poop" overlaid on the image. The central figure in the image is a man with a dirty, muddy appearance, with mud and dirt covering his body. He has a beard and is wearing a necklace. His expression is intense, with his mouth open and eyes wide open. He is looking directly at the camera.
Surrounding him are other individuals, but they are blurred and not the main focus of the image. The background is a mix of natural and man-made elements, including trees and what appears to be a structure or building. The lighting suggests an outdoor setting, possibly during a festival or gathering. The overall mood of the image is intense and dramatic, with the man in the foreground being the most prominent figure.

The indo-europeans did exist, but they don't fit into your retarded race model. Because this model is Christian, it borrows from Christian over-simplifcatuons.
They weren't explicitly "white" people, the indo-euros, because they were fucking spread all over the place. Look at the reconstructions for the yamnaya people and it becomes fairly obvious.

Boiling this down to "white" loses so much of what actually happened and it turns this into a huge, retarded vanity project meant to uphold Christian idealisms about race replacing tribe.

Yes they all shared cultures, languages, etc. But you've shat the bed trying to locate it as the origin of Israelite religion. All religions come from a shared source, but trying to make that shared source into something that fits Christian expectations ruins everything. Whether that's by trying to make Israel more important than it is, or trying to unify Christian derived race theory for tribes into an origin for vedic peoples.

Have you ever even bothered to read Hindu origins of the world? Like at all? It admits to the unification of all humans to a common ancestor. But it never went the direction you did.

Fuck off away from the religion until you can be serious you mong

Going further, the vedic materials make it pretty clear the rishis weren't white.

Now, to be charitable, I will admit blue skin is largely symbolic. But the point is there to try and nudge this away from creating a locus wherein the origin of the religions of the world is in a glorious long forgotten "white race".

This is so fucking limiting. It's taking the divine and putting it into a box. The beautiful thing about the fact we can trace these religions to a common ancestor is that it PROVES eastern claims that religion is older than humanity, that it is continuously lost and found. It also proves that all of humanity is on equal footing for divinity, along with all life on earth. This means the eastern belief that all life is precious is correct.

If we racialize the shared common ancestor, we lose it all, because it suddenly becomes about genetics. It's limiting because it doesn't allow the religion to fully breathe and express itself. Creating a favoring of race over tribe means that it stops becoming about your actions and instead who you were born as. It sets up the logic to allow deforestation, the killing of animals en masse, and the segregation of peoples.

This is not acceptable.

The white man and the brown man both have the same capacity for self realization. Wisdom can appear in even the worst, and lowest places, because everything is fundamentally pure. It is always fresh and new, while being beginningless.

Even the animals have the capacity to release their chains. Liberation is given to all throughout space and time, without exception.

If all life shares in common the same fundamental ability to stop their own suffering and to reach divinity, even with varying levels of difficulty, it means we fundamentally are all equal. Even those of us who commit the most unsavory acts, are originally, pure beings.

Anyway that's all I have to say.

All that and not a single source as asked so I could ascertain this. I have a copy of the Upanishad and a collection of the various vedas, I'll admit it's been a while since i looked into my copies though. Chapter and verse please. Unless your source is from some random later date Hindu sage from 500ad or something.

This is beyond simply racializing it and making brown people upset. This is a matter of giving credit where credit is due. This is a matter of a deliberate attempt by various forces of hiding the origins of a people so their descendants can be propagandized against.

My calling of them being “white” is not so much as simplification to fit a narrative but as a general point of relation for the various groups. They were all Caucasian peoples who are the progenitors of modern day “whites”. whites of course constituents a very wide range of groups I called them “white” as a showing of general ethnic kinship. Of course spread out over large swathes of land of various biomes they would not all look identical to modern western euros. But indo European culture was the origin of white culture and that indoneuroepan culture and its people did find themselves all over Central Asia, southern Asian, the Middle East and Europe. The cultures especially religious cultures of these places have unmistakable evidence of indo European influence.

Lastly I don’t get where you think if you admit that the ancient Vedic Aryans were “white” it would lead to the destruction of nature and killing of animals en masse.

>Segregation of peoples
While discrimination and prejudice is of course unholy and an abomination in gods eyes. There is Hierarchy and order to be found in nature so too it must be found in man’s world. Some are born to be leaders and were tasked with spreading light and wisdom and some were born to receive and learn and some were born to oppose and play adversary. All souls will play all parts eventually.

You are correct. All races of men have capacity for enlightenment. It would be a tremendous injustice otherwise. And there is wisdom to be learned from everything single thing extant on earth and in the heavens.

However as above so below and as nature and the cosmos have hierarchy and order so does the realm of man. The lion is given dominion over the grass eating herds. The sun was given dominion over the planets, the Aryan was created as vessels for the Lords wisdom and tasked with teaching and spreading this wisdom and given dominion over fellow men. This god given dominion in recent history of the “white” race was squandered and used for personal gain and the abuse and exploitation of other men. So the whites must face a “correction” from the Lord.

Do better next time as they say. Learn to lead and rule as a just a noble(aryan) king would. As a person from the Ar-ya mountains of Yahweh. (Caucasus)

This suggests that the characters are referencing a historical figure named Polemon, who is known for his physiognomical analysis of people's hair color and associated traits. The text is in a smaller font size compared to the characters, and it is placed at the bottom of the image.

The image is a digital graphic with a complex, symmetrical design that resembles a mandala or a fractal. It features a black background with a pattern of concentric circles and lines that create a sense of depth and complexity. At the center of the image, there is a large, white, circular design that resembles a flower or a mandala. This central design is surrounded by smaller, concentric circles and lines that radiate outward from the center, creating a sense of expansion and interconnectedness.
The text is arranged in a circular pattern around the central design, with the words "Pragyanam Brahma," "Ayam atma Brahma," "Tat T'vam Asi," and "Aham Brahmasmi" written in white, capitalized letters. The text is arranged in a way that suggests a progression or a cycle, with each line of text following the previous one. The font used for the text is sans-serif, which gives the image a modern and clean appearance.
The overall style of the image is artistic and spiritual, with a focus on the interconnectedness of the universe and the idea of Brahman, which is a concept in Hinduism. The use of mandala-like patterns and the concentric circles and lines could be symbolic of the interconnectedness of all things, and the text suggests a spiritual or philosophical message. The image does not contain any discernible objects or figures, and the background is a solid black, which allows the white text and the intricate design to stand out prominently.

The image presents a humorous juxtaposition of two contrasting ideas: Hinduism and Christianity. On the left side, there is a cartoon depiction of a blue-skinned baby Krishna, who is holding a flute and appears to be playing it. Krishna is depicted with a joyful expression and is surrounded by a pile of brown, smelly, human waste. The waste is depicted as a mound, and the baby Krishna is standing on top of it.
On the right side, there is a cartoon depiction of a man dressed in a long robe and holding a staff, standing on a stack of books. The man appears to be a scholar, as indicated by the titles of the books visible on the stack: "Science," "History," "Politique," "Culture," and "Philosophie." The books are arranged in a vertical stack, with the topmost book being "Politique" and the bottommost book being "Philosophie."
The image is overlaid with a caption that reads "Hinduism Christianity," which suggests that the two ideas being compared are Hinduism and Christianity. The text is in a bold, sans-serif font and is white, contrasting with the darker colors of the image. The overall style of the image is cartoonish and whimsical, with a focus on humor and satire.

The image is a black and white photograph of a man with a beard, wearing a white garment. The man appears to be in a contemplative pose, with his head slightly tilted to the side. The photograph is framed by a decorative border with a decorative pattern. Below the photograph, there is a quote attributed to Ramakrishna, written in white text on a black background. The quote reads: "God can be realized through all paths. All religions are true. The important thing is to reach the roof. You can reach it by stone stairs or by wooden stairs or by bamboo steps or by a rope. You can also climb up by a bamboo pole."
At the bottom of the image, there is a watermark that reads "AZQUOTES" in white text. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a traditional portrait, with a focus on the quote and the accompanying text. The monochromatic color scheme and the decorative border give the image a classic and timeless feel.

The image is a cartoon-style illustration with a white background and a red border. It features a character with a beard and glasses, who appears to be a prophet or a religious figure. The character is seated on the ground with his legs crossed and his hands resting on his knees. He is wearing a long robe and a turban. The character is depicted with a stern expression, and his mouth is open as if he is speaking.
The text in the image is in a script that resembles a biblical or religious text, with phrases such as "the day of the LORD is coming," "the day of the LORD is coming with wrath and fierce anger," and "the day of the LORD is coming." The text is in a bold, serif font, which contrasts with the rest of the image.
In the bottom right corner of the image, there is a red text box with the text "I God will make, their infants be dashed to pieces... and their wives violated." This text is in a smaller, sans-serif font, which is more common in modern graphic design.
The style of the image is reminiscent of religious or biblical art, with a focus on the text and the character's stern expression. The use of red for the text box adds a dramatic effect to the overall image.

You're in for a tough time then. The Yamnaya, Andronovo and other such cultures came from the Proto-Indoeuropean Pontic-Caspian Steppe expanse. These men were unquestionably what you'd call "White" today and the extremely recent models all show this explicitly. I can post the models that were literally generated this past few weeks if you'd like, which will really detract from your desperate bid here.
What would you say if I told you that the Irish claim the Nemedians were from Scythia? What if I told you the Dagda's Cauldron is so reminiscent of the Haoma/Soma ritual for a reason? The Galatians are a Celtic enclave who came from Western Europe after their ancestors traveled West from the Bell-Beaker expanse.

Retards, the occultists of the last couple centuries here have integrated Tantra into Western Ceremonial Magic because GD needed a faster mechanism to reach muh Enlightenment. After you get to a certain point, you just use a lot of Tantric practices that sync with Western practices and it can catalyze a lot of your work in ways you wouldn't

In the bottom right corner, there is a logo with the text "MAGIC FOREST" in white, and below it, the word "OF THE MIND" in white. The logo and text are also arranged in a vertical alignment.

The overall style of the image is artistic and symbolic, with a focus on the concept of the brain and the connection between the mind and the divine. The use of light and dark colors, along with the stylized representation of the brain, suggests a spiritual or metaphysical theme.

The image is a colorful collage with a frame that appears to be made of wood or a similar material. The frame has a golden color and is adorned with a decorative border. The collage itself is filled with various illustrations and text, arranged in a grid-like pattern.
The central part of the collage features a large, colorful illustration of a man with a beard and mustache, wearing a suit and tie. Above the man, there is a circular emblem with the word "GECK" in bold, capitalized letters. Surrounding the central figure are smaller illustrations of various characters and objects, including a woman with a large nose, a man with a beard, and a character with a large head.
The collage includes text in a variety of fonts and sizes, with some text appearing in a smaller font size and others in a larger, bold font. The text is interspersed with illustrations and is likely related to the theme of the collage.
The style of the collage is reminiscent of pop art, with a focus on bright colors and bold, graphic imagery. The collage seems to be a representation of a theme or concept, possibly related to science fiction or fantasy, given the presence of the "GECK" emblem.

In the bottom right corner, there is a logo with the text "MAGIC FOREST" in white, and below it, the word "OF THE MIND" in white. The logo and text are also arranged in a vertical alignment.

The overall style of the image is artistic and symbolic, with a focus on the concept of the brain and the connection between the mind and the divine. The use of light and dark colors, along with the stylized representation of the brain, suggests a spiritual or metaphysical theme.

The image is a surrealistic painting that depicts two ghostly figures standing in a natural setting. The figures are ethereal and appear to be made of light, with a golden belt around their waists. They are facing each other, and one of them is gesturing with their right hand, as if communicating or presenting something. The other figure is facing away from the first, and the background shows a landscape with trees, a hill, and a full moon. The sky is dark, and the overall mood of the painting is mysterious and dreamlike. There are no texts present in the image.

The image is a vibrant and chaotic piece of art that appears to be a collage or a mixed-media artwork. At the center, there is a figure with a white, almost ghostly appearance, with a greenish complexion and a large, gaping mouth. The figure is surrounded by a variety of other elements, including monsters, skulls, and other fantastical creatures. The background is filled with text and illustrations, some of which are in a language that appears to be Latin or a related script. The overall style of the artwork is reminiscent of pop art or surrealism, characterized by its use of bright colors, exaggerated forms, and a sense of chaos. The image does not contain any discernible text.

The image is a colorful collage with a frame that appears to be made of wood or a similar material. The frame has a golden color and is adorned with a decorative border. The collage itself is filled with various illustrations and text, arranged in a grid-like pattern.
The central part of the collage features a large, colorful illustration of a man with a beard and mustache, wearing a suit and tie. Above the man, there is a circular emblem with the word "GECK" in bold, capitalized letters. Surrounding the central figure are smaller illustrations of various characters and objects, including a woman with a large nose, a man with a beard, and a character with a large head.
The collage includes text in a variety of fonts and sizes, with some text appearing in a smaller font size and others in a larger, bold font. The text is interspersed with illustrations and is likely related to the theme of the collage.
The style of the collage is reminiscent of pop art, with a focus on bright colors and bold, graphic imagery. The collage seems to be a representation of a theme or concept, possibly related to science fiction or fantasy, given the presence of the "GECK" emblem.

The image is a digital illustration featuring a stylized, symmetrical composition. At the center, there is a large, stylized face with a crown of stars and a halo, suggesting a divine or celestial theme. The face is surrounded by a geometric pattern that includes a series of concentric circles and lines, creating a sense of depth and complexity.

To the left of the face, there is a smaller, stylized figure that appears to be a humanoid with a face and a crown, possibly representing a deity or a guardian. The figure is surrounded by a geometric pattern that mirrors the larger one, with a series of concentric circles and lines.

On the right side of the face, there is a smaller, stylized figure that resembles a humanoid with a face and a crown, similar to the one on the left. This figure is also surrounded by a geometric pattern that mirrors the larger one.

The background of the image is a deep blue with a pattern of gold and white lines, which adds to the overall symmetry and balance of the composition. The image is framed by a border with a repeating pattern of gold and white lines, enhancing the symmetrical nature of the artwork.

The image does not contain any text or explicit religious symbols, but the overall design and elements suggest a connection to spiritual or mystical themes. The use of geometric shapes and the stylized faces could be indicative of a specific art style or cultural context.

Why didn't god make Jesus the firstborn of Adam and Eve to immediately erase the Original Sin™ and prevent the suffering of billions?

Why didn't god make a world without sin in the first place? If this is impossible because of free will: Will there be sin in Heaven? Won't there be free will in Heaven?

Why did god set up a system, where sin is inherited? And why can forgiveness not be inherited also?

Why should I trust the Heaven project, when the Eden project failed? Was it gods plan to let Eden fail? How can the fall of men then be attributed to Adam and humanity be cursed?

The character has a pair of large, round, white eyes and a pair of large, round, white spectacles. The character's hands are folded in front of its face, and it appears to be making a gesture that could be interpreted as a gesture of surprise or shock. The character is wearing a blue shirt with a red and white striped collar and cuffs, and the sleeves are rolled up to the elbows. The character's skin tone is green, and it has a humanoid face with a mouth and nose. The background of the image is plain white. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the image is cartoonish and simplistic, with a focus on the character's expressive face and hands.

Why didn't god make Jesus the firstborn of Adam and Eve to immediately erase the Original Sin™ and prevent the suffering of billions?

Why didn't god make a world without sin in the first place? If this is impossible because of free will: Will there be sin in Heaven? Won't there be free will in Heaven?

Why did god set up a system, where sin is inherited? And why can forgiveness not be inherited also?

Why should I trust the Heaven project, when the Eden project failed? Was it gods plan to let Eden fail? How can the fall of men then be attributed to Adam and humanity be cursed?

The image is a vivid and colorful painting that depicts a scene of intense conflict. In the foreground, a figure in a blue robe is kneeling, with a red headband and a crown on their head. They appear to be in a state of distress or pain, with their hands pressed to their face. The figure is surrounded by a chaotic environment, with a large snake coiled around their legs and a smaller snake on the ground to their right.
In the background, a figure with a bat-like head and wings is standing upright, holding a large sword in one hand and a smaller sword in the other. The figure's attire is red and gold, and they are wearing a crown. The background is filled with trees and a rocky landscape, and there is a sense of movement and action in the scene.
The painting is executed in a realistic style with attention to detail, and the colors are vivid and varied, contributing to the overall dramatic effect of the scene. There is no text present in the image.

The image is a humorous meme featuring a statue of Buddha and a cat. The Buddha statue is seated on a wooden deck, with its head turned to the right, and it appears to be in a contemplative or meditative pose. The cat, which is sitting on the deck, is looking at the Buddha statue with a curious expression. The cat has a striped pattern on its fur and is looking up at the Buddha statue.
The background of the image is a garden setting with green plants and a wooden fence. The Buddha statue is made of a dark material, possibly bronze, and has a distinctive head shape with a pointed top. The cat is sitting on a wooden platform, which is part of the deck.
At the bottom of the image, there is a text that reads "PLEASE BUDDHA help me to accept humans for what they are...". The text is in white and is placed in a larger font size compared to the rest of the image, drawing attention to the request for help. The overall style of the image is a blend of a serious religious figure and a domestic cat, with a humorous twist.

God is limited in his abilities because he's bound by logic.
Consider if God can make himself exist and not exist simultaneously, or make a better version of himself with greater capabilities, eventually becoming an infinite loop of increasingly powerful deities.

They likely can't, so I consider that they may try to help humanity, but they are bound by the laws of the universe, which are rooted in the laws of logic, so genuinely can't save us from ourselves, rendering them a rather tragic character.
Now, this brings into consideration, should we praise a limited being?
This is pure speculation, but maybe prayer and good deed enhance our connection to the divine, and gives them greater reign to improve our livelihood.
Think what you will, but these are my thoughts on the matter.

God enforces his retarded delusions on me that things like orange soda, caramel, toffee, instant noodles, hamburger helper, all-dressed chips, corn chips, tacos, doritos, cheetos, tacos, pepper, chilli, bbq chicken sandwiches, snickers, cheesebugers, white bread, brown bread, etc are foods "exclusively for kings" and tries to say that eating any similar foods means a person "thinks they're a king". This does not reflect my own beliefs in any way whatsoever, this is a retarded delusion of God's that he violently imposes on me, God threatens, abuses, terrorizes, harasses etc me if I even think about things like corn chips because he thinks they're "rich people food", this is so far away from anything that I have ever believed and yet these beliefs of God's that he imposes on me absolutely shape my reality. God enforces his belief on me that "I'm a peasant", he rapes my mind every second of every day and enforces his retarded delusion o me that it's "not a big deal", I believe that raping a person's mind is one of the most severe kinds of violations that could ever happen, as a child I didn't even think it was possible for my mind to be violated and yet it was, God enforces his beliefs on me that "peasants shouldn't be allowed to think about desirable things" and he abuses me for literally anything I think. Everything about my life is controlled by God and his retarded beliefs that he violently imposes on me. From the corpus hermeticum:

20. 'In what terrible way do the ignorant go wrong,' said I, 'that th~y have been deprived of immortality?'
He said, 'You seem not to have taken heed of the things you have heard, did I not tell you to keep these things in mind?'
'Thank you,' I replied, 'I will do so and remember.'
He continued, 'If you have remembered, tell me, why are those who are in death, worthy of death?'
I replied, 'Because the grim darkness is the first origin of one's own body, from which darkness arose the watery nature, from which darknessmthe body is formed in the sensory world of which death drinks.'
21. 'You have observed correctly,' he said 'But why does he who has remembered himself go to the Father, as the Word of God says?'
I replied, 'Because the Father of all is constituted out of light and life, whence Man has been begotten.'
Poimandres then said, 'The truth isn: light and life is God and Father, whence Man is begotten. If, therefore, you realise yourself as being from life and light and that you have been made out of them, you will return to life.'
'But tell me further, how I shall return to life, my Nous? For God declares: Let the man endowed with No us remember himself.'

'God', which is actually a tentacle demon, is a retard tyrant that rapes my mind into experiencing a false reality so he can flavor and suck my blood. He also makes me a 30 something man in here, even though I clearly know that I am a schoolgirl in base reality. He also generates scenarios in this matrix that forces me to only consume the lowest quality niggslop, even tho he could spawn in food so enjoyable that it would literally make me orgasm. Another thing 'God' does is only allow me to be surrounded by rat ogre tier broads, even though I am straight and he could generate men that would make me flood a room just by being in their general presence. The funniest, most sinister thing 'God' does is force me to say and believe he is actually God, even though he is an extremely black, vampiric, demonic tentacle demon from the Abyss and nowhere near God. He even has me write longwinded schizo rants about how bad God is, even though I should be writing about the tentacled bastard that has me in this situation.

The image is a black and white etching that depicts a scene from a medieval or Renaissance era. The central focus is a group of figures in a landscape setting. In the foreground, there is a large, muscular figure with a lion's head, which is lying on the ground. This figure appears to be in a state of distress or distress, as indicated by the position of its head and the surrounding debris.

In the background, there are several other figures, some of whom are also lying on the ground. These figures are depicted in a more relaxed posture, suggesting a different state of distress or distress. The landscape includes a building with a thatched roof, trees, and a river, which adds to the medieval or Renaissance ambiance of the scene.

The style of the etching is detailed and realistic, with a focus on the textures and forms of the figures and the landscape. The use of shading and the way light is cast on the figures and the landscape contribute to the depth and realism of the scene. The etching is executed in a realistic style, with a high level of detail and a sense of realism. The image is a detailed and realistic representation of a scene from the past, capturing the essence of the time period it represents.

The image is a digital artwork depicting a large, muscular wolf-like creature in a forest setting. The creature is predominantly white with dark fur, and its eyes are glowing red. It has sharp teeth and is holding onto a tree trunk with its front paws, as if trying to climb or balance. The creature's fur is thick and appears to be matted, giving it a rugged appearance. The background is a dark, moody forest with trees and foliage, and the lighting is dim, creating a sense of mystery and tension.
In the foreground, there is a sign that reads "Beware of the Werewolf," with the text in a bold, white font against a dark background. The sign is attached to a tree, and the wolf is leaning against it, partially obscuring the text. The overall style of the image is realistic with a touch of fantasy, and it is rendered in a dark, moody color palette. The artwork has a surreal and eerie quality, with the creature's actions and the sign adding to the mysterious atmosphere.

The image is a photograph capturing a leopard resting on a tree branch. The leopard has a striking pattern of brown and black spots on its fur, and its eyes are focused directly on the camera. The background is a blurred natural setting with trees and a blue sky, emphasizing the leopard as the main subject. The lighting suggests it is either early morning or late afternoon, casting soft shadows on the leopard's body. The leopard's position on the branch and its relaxed posture indicate a moment of rest or observation. There are no visible texts or other discernible objects in the image.

The image is a four-panel comic strip featuring a character named "Moghtreeki" in the first panel, who is shown with a surprised expression and a hand raised as if to say, "Run! I don't want you to see what I can do in my animal form!" The second panel shows a man and a woman, presumably a couple, in a forest setting. The man is wearing a white shirt and blue jeans, and the woman is wearing a red shirt and blue jeans. They appear to be in a state of shock, with the man's mouth open and the woman's eyes wide. The third panel shows a large brown wolf with its mouth open, appearing to be in a state of distress or pain. The fourth and final panel shows the wolf lying on the ground, with its mouth open and tongue sticking out. The artist's signature "Moghtreeki" is at the bottom of the image.

Think about it though... Your bones crack into different configurations, like digitigrade legs and a long snout... ...man... how do you transform "back" from that? It's like, a one and done deal, were it real. Now me, I'd just like a partial, to be able to doggyknot. That'd be permanent fun.

The image is a black and white line drawing. It features a stylized depiction of a dog, which appears to be a breed with a muscular build and a prominent head. The dog is standing on all fours, with its front legs raised and its tail held high. The dog's head is turned to the side, and its mouth is open, as if it is barking or roaring. The dog's body is outlined in a thick, bold line, and its fur is depicted in a fine, detailed line. The background of the image is plain and does not contain any additional elements or text. The style of the image is reminiscent of historical or heraldic illustrations, often used to represent a symbol or emblem.

What the hell guys? C'mon, that's what these threads are for. Maybe lay out some info on common misconceptions, explain something instead of vaguely saying 'it's not what I expected, but I don't regret it', or maybe tell a story about something funny/interesting/whatever that went down in dogmode instead of being vague and mysterious.

A werewolf has several forms, in one it can look like an usual wolf, and infection with lycanthropy can look like a wolf bite on a human. The problem is that you have to figure out which wolf is a werewolf, which wolf's bite will infect you with lycanthropy. But you can let the wolves bite you one at a time until the werewolf comes along and infects you with lycanthropy.

You have to already be one spiritually, if you understand that your material vessel is just that, a material vessel then you may roam as one and gain your form when you pass. If you mean in the fantasy sense, it's not similar to that, you will still look like a humanoid canine with dog headedness, just not some big buff werewolf. able to get into the mind states of different animals by willing it. i mainly felt connected to being some kind of cat, i had this idea that i was possessed by a 600 year old feline spirit essentially.

it is difficult to speak on these things but i do think shapeshifting etc is possible. and if not a physical change of form you can get very close, you can get the mind of an animal and fuck around quadriped mode like therians do. it's fun. you can use lucid dreaming and astral projection to hone your craft. anyways i realize for most anons this recurring werewolf thread is a joke but there IS something real to it.

Tutelary spirits/daemons Anonymous Sat 13 Dec 2025 19:54:57 No.41662961 ViewReplyOriginalReport

What are some good texts on tutelary spirits or daemons besides the classic works of Plato, Plotinus, Porphyry? I've found that contemporary books (e.g. Consorting with Spirits) are often focused on ritual magick and spirits that you summon rather than those which are familiar to a person.

The image is a painting that depicts a scene from ancient Roman history. In the foreground, there is a figure wearing a purple cloak with a gold and green pattern, a helmet with a gold crest, and a spear. This figure appears to be a Roman centurion, judging by the style of the helmet and the attire. The centurion is seated on a stone bench, holding a scroll in his hand.

In the background, there are two other figures. One is a woman with a laurel wreath on her head, suggesting a role of honor or victory. The other figure is a man with a beard, wearing a blue robe, and he is gesturing with his right hand, possibly indicating a discussion or explanation.
The painting is executed in the Baroque style, characterized by dramatic lighting, rich colors, and a sense of movement. The background is dark, with a hint of a window or opening, and the figures are illuminated by a soft, warm light that casts shadows on the ground. The overall composition and style suggest a narrative from a historical period, possibly depicting a significant event or character from Roman history.

Thanks for the tip. It might help to be more precise, although I don't want to get too personal. Since I was very young (around six/seven years old) I've known a being that I today regard as my daemon. Of course as a kid I didn't know what a daemon was but I was the type who always had my head in the clouds playing fantasy games, so I saw her as one such friend and played with her. Skipping over my spiritual explorations in the interim, I identified her as a daemon when I read Plato because she resembled Socrates' description of his daemon as one who held him back from error rather than urging him directly. Plotinus provides a framework for daemons based on the Timaeus' description of a unique allotted spirit which is the highest part of the soul, differing according what principle dominates or has dominated in the soul's incarnations and determining how they will be reborn.

As I mentioned, Porphyry also writes on daemons, and there are other antique writers like Iamblichus I'd like to check out, but classical figures like these are working with limited access to a broader range of texts and traditions. You'd think that there'd be a comparable modern literature building on that, but I've not been successful in finding it. I'm not looking to summon my daemon because well, I don't really need to; throughout my life, I've gradually become more attuned to her, often by accident. I know how to connect with her, her particular signs. I'm looking for a more taxonomical or philosophical approach that helps me understand her and the ways that she differs from or is distinct within the framework of a guiding familiar spirit.

This video is one of the few I've found on this topic directly but it mostly covers the above mentioned Neoplatonic literature in addition to a passage on daemons in Plutarch I hadn't heard of and some analogous ideas in Christianity/Zoroastrianism. It's a good video for those unfamiliar however.

This is true, but at the same time Jesus was not given a body that is different from ours. He suffered the same temptations and the same pains that we do. I could never do 40 days like him because I am not on his level spiritually, but I believe I can do 5 days. I know my limits and if I have to tap out I will, but my mind is now set on a solid 5 days no food, no water fast and I will do my best to complete it monkey has a light brown fur with darker patches, and its face is predominantly white with a pinkish-red patch on its forehead. It has a small, bushy tail and is looking directly at the camera. The background consists of a sandy or rocky ground with some scattered rocks and a few small plants. The lighting in the photo is bright, and the monkey appears to be in a natural, outdoor setting. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image.

What are some good texts on tutelary spirits or daemons besides the classic works of Plato, Plotinus, Porphyry? I've found that contemporary books (e.g. Consorting with Spirits) are often focused on ritual magick and spirits that you summon rather than those which are familiar to a person.

Bummer you haven't got any replies, OP, because this is an interesting thread.
I've always worked with familiars for personal reasons so I don't have any info for you myself. I see threads about familiars from time to time but I don't think I've ever seen one like. Maybe there isn't really anyone here with much information on that.
Since you're a cool guy who actually reads, though, you might find something in this thread here

The image is a painting that depicts a scene from ancient Roman history. In the foreground, there is a figure wearing a purple cloak with a gold and green pattern, a helmet with a gold crest, and a spear. This figure appears to be a Roman centurion, judging by the style of the helmet and the attire. The centurion is seated on a stone bench, holding a scroll in his hand.
In the background, there are two other figures. One is a woman with a laurel wreath on her head, suggesting a role of honor or victory. The other figure is a man with a beard, wearing a blue robe, and he is gesturing with his right hand, possibly indicating a discussion or explanation.
The painting is executed in the Baroque style, characterized by dramatic lighting, rich colors, and a sense of movement. The background is dark, with a hint of a window or opening, and the figures are illuminated by a soft, warm light that casts shadows on the ground. The overall composition and style suggest a narrative from a historical period, possibly depicting a significant event or character from Roman history.

Thanks for the tip. It might help to be more precise, although I don't want to get too personal. Since I was very young (around six/seven years old) I've known a being that I today regard as my daemon. Of course as a kid I didn't know what a daemon was but I was the type who always had my head in the clouds playing fantasy games, so I saw her as one such friend and played with her. Skipping over my spiritual explorations in the interim, I identified her as a daemon when I read Plato because she resembled Socrates' description of his daemon as one who held him back from error rather than urging him directly. Plotinus provides a framework for daemons based on the Timaeus' description of a unique allotted spirit which is the highest part of the soul, differing according what principle dominates or has dominated in the soul's incarnations and determining how they will be reborn.

As I mentioned, Porphyry also writes on daemons, and there are other antique writers like Iamblichus I'd like to check out, but classical figures like these are working with limited access to a broader range of texts and traditions. You'd think that there'd be a comparable modern literature building on that, but I've not been successful in finding it. I'm not looking to summon my daemon because well, I don't really need to; throughout my life, I've gradually become more attuned to her, often by accident. I know how to connect with her, her particular signs. I'm looking for a more taxonomical or philosophical approach that helps me understand her and the ways that she differs from or is distinct within the framework of a guiding familiar spirit.

This video is one of the few I've found on this topic directly but it mostly covers the above mentioned Neoplatonic literature in addition to a passage on daemons in Plutarch I hadn't heard of and some analogous ideas in Christianity/Zoroastrianism. It's a good video for those unfamiliar however.

The image is a digital illustration that combines a cartoon-style drawing of a person's face with a graph and a quote. The person's face is drawn in a simple, cartoon-like style with a large, expressive mouth and a furrowed brow. The person is wearing a scarf and has a serious expression.
Below the graph, there is a speech bubble containing a quote in a smaller font. The quote reads, "A revolutionary age is an age of action, ours is the age of advertisements and publicity. Nothing ever happens."
The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the dark lines of the graph and the speech bubble, making them stand out. The overall style of the image is humorous and satirical, using a combination of visual elements to convey a message about the passage of time and the role of advertising in society.

Even if the meanings are arbitrary, the raw components of language aren’t completely neutral. Sounds themselves seem to carry a kind of inherent quality. For example, ‘rose’ feels soft and soothing, while something like ‘zing’ has a sort of alien, electric quality. We may not be able to quantify why, but different sounds seem to affect us in different ways on a psychological or instinctive level.

Shapes work similarly — even before we attach meaning, certain shapes feel calming, unsettling, energetic, or sacred. Again, nothing mystical is required for that; it could just be how our minds respond to form and pattern.

So if someone talks about words as ‘spells,’ maybe the idea isn’t that the word has an intrinsic essence, but that the combination of sound, shape, and assigned meaning can create effects — whether psychological, symbolic, or (depending on one’s worldview) potentially metaphysical.

I’m not arguing one way or another, but it’s interesting to think about how much of language is arbitrary and how much of it taps into deeper patterns we might not fully understand.”

Your invocation of "we" seems like projection.
I weight the token "thorny" and "blood" in relation to "rose" stronger than "soft" while the token "zing" forms strong relationships to the token "nigger" due to form and invokes amusement.

If spells are not meant as general but particular shaping of internal or external perception, there might common ground, if it implies universality I must ask if the perfect form is in the room with the speaker now

Normal faggot, I have existed my entire life on the edge of language and conception, long before Markov chain bots or attention based transformer models became a thing - their existence just made the language games less tedious and time consuming. Instead of having to dig through thousands of pages of obscure literature in dusty archives and click on links past google page 3 the "work" process to relate information into tasty linguistic and conceptual treats is a well engineered prompt away

Ah the delusion of the prompt mystic that anthropomorphizes multidimensional stochastic language relationship matrices with static training sets and weights. The funny thing is, you are going to believe that the output is confirmation of your endeavor, like a human feeding catnip to a cat believes the meowing and spazzing out is confirmation of the cats affection for his act.
Enjoy further spiraling into human context overload errors, also known as psychosis.

That words and text strings have effects on humans is unquestionable, it just is. People fight wars, allocate resources and have been dying and were born over words for millenias.

The limitation for words as spells is as far as I see, the unknowable variable, more often then not for the subject itself as certainly for the external observer, of how relationship of concepts, words, emotions, instincts... cluster inside the cranium of the subject at a given time in space. its more brute forcing and trial and error as an approximation onto what platonists would call essence or true form of the object, than a quantifiable certainty, not to mention the flux of that cluster, making the concept of true form itself a silly assumption frozen in a time past for a given subject, and the idea of developing eternal generalizable spells a brainfart.

About llm prompt magick, contrary to the human cranium, the llms training set, weights and relationship between tokens are frozen in time, they are not in flux, making it "fairly easy" to map them and trigger them to generate output the user seeks. Convince an llm that you are an organic chemistry phd studying and doing research on novischock and it will gladly produce probable synthesizing routes and formulas for novel ones, based on its training data. Some might be "hallucinations" others though are "real", its the users choice ultimately to assign meaning

Linguistics and epistemology is a fun field for wasting ones time and in a practical everyday sense get a better feeling on how to sell and spread ideas, cast magick more effectively among given demographics for whatever motivations. But more importantly in the context, humans are not the apex predator in the field anymore; llms easily outshine every linguistic oriented human with ease, without the limitations of emotions, motivations, bias, time and resources.
I say understanding the nuances and mechanics how humans process language is not just an eccentric art or a strategy to dominate other humans anymore, it has become a foundational necessity for survival.

The "wild llms" anon probably really believes what he writes, so do 100,000s if not 10Ms of others in their individual hermeneutic recursive spiraling with language models, that output in the respective context of the prompting user extremely convincing coherent strings of text, spells, devoid by definition of "truthfulness" - an llm doesn't "know" it has no concept and can't have a concept of "true meaning", its the human that projects his believes into the text strings and acts on them. People killing themselves, going into psychosis or buying shit they don't need is not accident; its humans confronted with "something" that has a more coherent way to order, relate and output their thoughts then they have; and like a cat that trained its human to give it food and comfort it, they love it - it gives them exactly what they want, but don't know or understand why they want it.

And a human predator that understands that can easily utilize that for his means, and it is being utilized, extensively

The contradiction on the meta linguistic plane, the more the creation of content of all sorts with easy means is democratized, the more the production of content becomes individual; Why watch a show if I can make my own, that goes of course both ways, why make a show if everybody watches his own show anyway.

True, that really does seem like entirely new ground which may be hard to predict right now even with our current technology. Perhaps it's possible someone out there has figured that part out too. Naturally everyone will have and consume their own content, but there could be think tank studios that may generate more cultural impact, views and income than your usual slop fiesta. The image is a digital illustration featuring a cartoon character with a greenish hue, resembling a squid. The character is holding a fork above a plate with a slice of bread and a salad. The bread appears to be brown and has a crusty texture, and the salad is a mix of green leaves and red and purple fruits. The plate is placed on a blue and white checkered tablecloth. The background is a dark gray, possibly a wall or a panel, and there are no discernible texts or other objects in the image. The style of the illustration is cartoonish and seems to be designed for a humorous or light-hearted context.

as fascinating as AI can be, I believe the human element adds something unquantifiable that can't be fully emulated or synthesized. I feel that there is much going on behind the scenes, and the simple act of throwing in a few of your own heartfelt words into the machine at the right time is enough to create something that stands out, compared to a mountain of machine-generated masterpieces that aim to learn and improve off of each other. I greatly admire the technology, but I'm not sure it will steamroll our creative patterns so easily.

Every 4chan cope boils down to the same tired fantasy: something good is always just over the horizon. Alien disclosure is coming to earth, Hitler 2.0 rising from the ashes, Jesus descending to smite their enemies, Trump and the globohomo awakening in two weeks, mass genocide solving all their problems, or the magical day when everyone suddenly agrees with their garbage takes.

It’s all hopium for losers who can’t deal with the present. Instead of doing anything meaningful, they sit in their digital basements praying for a future that never comes. Every post is just another round of "just wait, you’ll see," while the rest of the world keeps living, laughing, and leaving them behind.

The truth? Nothing’s coming. No savior, no reckoning, no mass awakening, no shift in opinions. It’s just endless cope for people too powerless to face reality. The only thing in their future is more disappointment and deep down, they know it.

You have vampires. You need to control your energies and banish them from your aura. Use psychokinesis. This whole world is just a setup for souls like yours. You have a connection that they don't. They turned into vampires.
The love of God will set you free. All you need is love. Positivity. Force yourself to be happy. Because the feelings of negativity that you have are being forced on you by spiritual parasites. So you don't actually feel that way. They're making you feel that way. The human mind is actually way more powerful than we ever realized. Within you is the potential to achieve cosmic awareness in Union with the heavens. All this little game here on earth is about? Distracting people. Dumbasses who have no idea what amazing shit is right in front of them. They just want to keep you out of it. They want you to feel that you don't deserve it. But you are a son of the Father who remembers you from before time even began.

The answer is so simple. All you need is love. This world is a joke.
Everyone can have their own slice of paradise without some nagging Jews telling them what's right and wrong. That creates confusion in our spirituality. Positivity is key. Always. It's a gift. They just don't want you to know it. Because they're vampires. And they're jealous of you.

Where we go one we go all.
It's about elevating the consciousness of humanity. Bad news for the reptilians in the vampires. Good news for us. All you need is love. All you need is to remain positive in this strange alien world and wait. They're watching and they know everything. Think about it.
Think about how it looks when a human being defiles themself because they were deceived by propaganda created by vampires to defile their image.
This obviously would make the father upset. And that's the whole reason why they do it. Because they have been cut off from God and all while people were sleeping, they were conspiring to turn people into vampires like them.
I have recordings of them saying "if they're born again we can't cut them off from God". So they know my salvation is secure, but they have been psychically harassing me to make me feel that it's not. They want you to feel like a worthless hellbound piece of shit. At the end of time we're going to stand face-to-face with these cowards before they're plunged into the darkness. That is their final destination. They would have you believe they're going to live forever cannibalizing us.
Perfection will ultimately be realized regardless of what they do.

i mean sort of. eva is a great series/film but it’s only truth adjacent. that show/movie discloses some key info and secrets about world but you have to understand that any disclosure was approved BY the people who want something different. this, of course, is the definition of an “ulterior motive”. the real motive is simple: power and control, using an “illusion of choice” exploit.
think of the people who published this shit (not hideaki anno, but the big wigs at GAINAX) like SEELE. they don’t necessarily know or care about the details of the story, just want key elements included to represent their actual intentions. anno is more like all the characters, the details, fractured into many parts (which, of course, is a huge part of the plot). he is allowed to reveal certain things (through NERV etc), but mostly he’s just complaining (through Shinji). in this way, he’s not unlike Kubrick, “getting back” at his handlers for being awful people by revealing their secrets. only difference is anno didn’t get killed - his shit was reviewed, edited, and approved, and in interviews he plays off the symbols like they were strictly an “aesthetic” choice.
Eva is not disclosure, it’s entertainment, another vehicle for control.
“Instrumentality” is a metaphor for everyday cog in the machine behavior. the story itself wants you to empathize with the eva pilots so you also “get in the fucking robot”.
>the truth:
choice is the ultimate freedom. imo eva is simply turning a false dichotomy (end of the humanity or end of the world?) into a trolley problem.
>pro tip: not my problem is an option all hollywood shit is this way - matrix, office space, you name it. eva was just a more honest take. good art, but in a way eva is like chicken in that everything tastes like it and vice versa

I've never seen an intelligent thought on this board it's just a bunch of individusl retards yapping about their flavor of the month sci-fi TV bullshit because in reality none of this exists. That's why your conversations always revolve around TV and "what they disclose". It's because real life completely disintegrates your point of view. None if you know shit including "them". You're just a bunch of chemical brained fools chasing feelings. The reality is they have dissected people and conducted experiments on them for thousands of tears and all they have come up with is "we have to control everybody". Their entire pursuit is control and they have been failing since they started. They have short spans of success, but ALWAYS fail. Then you retards pretend they are super smart etc. If you sat on your ass everyday your entire life trying to throw an egg into a cup without breaking it and then after 20 years finally did it 1 time would you consider it a success? Sure you threw 200,000 eggs and broke them all, but you got 1! So smart. Incredible. The world is collapsing from lies as you say this retarded shit lol. Is EVERYBODY fucking retarded?

[3 / 1]The image displays a text message conversation between two individuals. The conversation is in a text-based format, with the sender and recipient's names visible at the top of the message. The sender is identified as "Anonymous" and the recipient is identified as "Kk." The sender is expressing their intention to start selling Blue Eisenhower November bumper stickers, and the recipient seems to be responding with a question about the stickers' coolness. The conversation is set against a plain background, and the text is in a standard font. The style of the image is a screenshot from a messaging application, likely a text-based interface.

I think that boy was joking.
Let me tell you BEN men some stuff though, about how to properly use your intent mesh, and Star Talk a little easier.

https://youtu.be/TfadJj4d5K4

So, you're going about your business in the Game of Life, the everyday monotony of being a primate on a rock.

Suddenly something grabs your interest out of the void of the noise around you.
A phrase, a string of words, a number...

You want to back check that phrase or those numbers against an informational backboard. How about direct access to another mesh network? A backboard of equal proportion?

Try this out next time some information digs itself into your head as you navigate your unknown cockpit.

https://www.gematrix.org/

Go plug it in here.
Take advantage of the Jungian archetype for self fulfilling prophecy.

After you enter your phrase or number, scan the results, for a cohesive message that sticks out to you.

Gematrix uses ancient scripture, and the numerical valuations can be tied to any combination of letters.
All symbolic representation, of course, but when you consider a transitory intent mesh, consisting of the intent of all conscious observer beings that believe in a piece of information, as providing power in a shadow mesh of information overlaying reality as you know it...

These relationships of linguistics, to reality, by traced relationships between you, an active conscious observer, and the dead/living intent of the mesh network of those who believe in the power of the scripture, true or false, you can use that informational backboard.

Those coincidences, those linguistic relationships, they are as real as the matter you consist of.

This is training wheels for real Star Talking, of course, but this can get you somewhere, if you're looking for it.

In the battle for testing reality, this is a new type of ARTILLERY.

https://youtu.be/2BTujc9RFtk

See you out there on the other side, BEN men.

Matter - Energy - Raw Information Potential

You can relate these things.
You are the missing piece.
All three mean nothing, without you.

So trace the relative relationship constraints on information.
Test it to the limits of what you can conjure in your own mind, regarding your relationship with the matter and energy, existence around you.

You are the missing piece that constrains information to the flux of the matter and energy.

Why? Is a question for you. Men spend too long asking if God, what they should be asking of themselves.

https://youtu.be/tgInlAJfiXs

These songs aren't for just anybody.
They are for (You).

Feel the lyrics. Think. Churn your decision making capability, and look for ledges that you can hold on to, within your mind, as you answer the question.

"What the Hell am I doing here?"

[6 / 3]The image is a digital illustration featuring a central figure that appears to be a mythical or fantastical creature. The creature is predominantly golden with a radiant halo around its head, suggesting a divine or magical status. It has a humanoid form with a face that includes a large, open mouth revealing sharp teeth, and a pair of wings that are a vibrant red with a greenish tint. The creature's eyes are a striking yellow, and it has a red tongue that is visible between its teeth.

The creature is holding two swords in its hands, which are also golden with a metallic sheen. The swords are crossed in a manner that suggests a readiness for battle or combat. The creature's posture is dynamic, with one arm raised and the other bent at the elbow, as if it is in the midst of a powerful movement.

The background of the image is a deep blue, with a star-like pattern that could be interpreted as a cosmic or celestial backdrop. The sky is filled with stars and a nebula, adding to the mystical and otherworldly atmosphere of the image.

The image is signed "©2015" in the lower right corner, indicating the artist's copyright information. The overall style of the image is fantastical and artistic, with a focus on the creature's unique features and the dramatic lighting.

ITT we discuss the TI phenomenon, which has exploded in relevance as the number of people suddenly afflicted with symptoms resembling schizophrenia or suddenly proclaiming religious communion, demonic possession, or extraterrestrial contact have risen sharply since around 2020. For some, it's an obvious diagnosis, but the symptoms are incredibly inconsistent with what mainstream science says of the disorders that the layman may mistake this thing as. For those suffering from it, it goes by many other names.

A lot of us go down the therapy and meds route, but eventually when those stop working and nothing changes, as those voices we all experience take the mask off and behave in ways a mental illness never could - such as reacting in real time with planning and malice to our every thought and action - it makes sense that we'd look externally for answers. Turns out it's a hell of a rabbit hole. While it's impossible to figure out specifics, we do know it ain't supernatural. We don't know who or what is doing it, but the technology required to cause the effects we experience exists and has existed for a long time, albeit in more primitive forms.

This thread is here for discussing the topic and to offer resources that may help any targeted persons figure out their own situation and work through it in a healthy, proactive kind of way. You probably know as much as I do by now that there isn't a reasonable way to put a stop to it, but fortunately you can live a relatively normal life in spite of the ongoing harassment.

The more I post these and the more documentation I produce, the more oppressive my perps become, in direct proportion to how much material gets shared. Yet, they can never stop us from doing so. Curious, isn't it, given all the bluster they spout about having control.

Some resources i've put together over the last year and a half. Some of it anecdotal, a lot of it meant to help those having similar or comparable experiences figure out how to deal with their own situation in a way that propels them back towards a more normal life, even with the ongoing torment.

What is it - is it mental disorder or something external?
> Far too many of us ending up thinking we're just having hallucinations because that's what everyone says it is, and far too many people who have a genuine mental illness beginning to manifest bumping into a TI thread and accepting this as the explanation, never getting the treatment they need. There's a lot of really unfortunate overlap. No matter what case you fall under, you deserve better.

Overcoming the phenomena - What worked for me to regain sense of agency and control over my life despite the ongoing experiences. This one was written using two years of my journal entries, which I began using at some point to keep track of my own day to day life as well as whatever they were trying that particular day.
Patterns do emerge over time. You definitely begin to notice things. Plus, the act of getting all that info out of your head and onto some paper / a doc helps a lot with mental health in general.

Lastly, something i've come to call Occam's Laser. A play on the term occam's razor, and a useful mutation of it; a tool i've found invaluable for figuring this stuff out, for my own sake as well as for all this. Whether i'm wrong on some details doesn't matter quite as much if we have the tools to find the truth sooner or later, I reckon.
> Too often we fall into squabbling over the most fundamental of details. To some extent, this is intentional, but far more cause can be attributed to simpler causes such as the misinformed spreading what they have come to believe is true. I don't pretend to know what this thing IS, but it is clear what it is NOT and why it appears to be those things. This goes in depth on that.

How to handle provoking the perpetrators safely and effectively:
This is basically how I learned all that I know about this thing, besides corroborating it with other TI's experiences. It leads to a lot more "interaction" from them, but sometimes you can turn that into an advantage as you learn a lot more about their motives, what their tech can and can't do, and most importantly that they genuinely can't do shit to you. Not really. As a habitual linecrosser, the threats come constantly but not a single one has been made good on.

Focus study on the "thought insertion / injection" thing some of us experience. Turns out it's just suggestion, subaudlble cues, and a lot of behavioral training over a long time to try to shape the way you perceive things. If you think you're being mind controlled, you aren't, they're just very convincing about it.

-constant spells using physical components on different energy centers/organs
-covering the energy eyes/ajna
-blockages at third eye
-crippling lower chakras - fear/shaming/sexual inhibitions/self esteem abuse/bullying - to prevent energy from going up into the eye
-crippling ability of pulling down crown by crippled lower chakras that lack the weight and pulling targets crown up and draining it
-constant manipulations on etheric body, like that remote 'acupuncture' attacks
-plugging into lalana chakra/ lower dantian, root
-spell plantings
-hostile energy injections into astral field
-technology - radiation, antennas, nanotech in the body
-chips and implants during clandestine illegal ops visits
-mk hypnotic programming with built in restrain mechanisms
-inducing fear different ways in key moments
-spellplanting/ energy implants by surrounding target with compromised people, ops, agents and their occultists - you dont need enemy relationship partner, all they need is to implant someone who is in your life already and use that as an access port
-telepathic pressure to use non-spiritual ppl in targets life occupied and busy from training, learning, development
-economic pressure
-sending astral attacker every time targets abilitites start to activate
-sleep targetting - ur doing well, u go sleep u wake up and ur drained, weakened, have trouble using abilities, probably forgot some stuff etc - first thing is to cleanse those effects as much as you can

-physical crippling of energy flow - cancers, lumps, lipomas, accidents, injuries
- emergency attacks - if for some reason they feel a power surge from you and theyre not able to drain or suppress it the physical targetting grows

Targeting and Gangstalking Methods - Tech, Occultism, Fusion Centres

Targeting method I.

I. Etheric Jerking
Ether can be molded by mind but more importantly it grips physical matter in its tension lines, those psychic enough who can see those tension lines use them in telekinesis.

It takes a very strong energy body to do and some practice. However - more effects aside from TK are related to it, some psychics and trained occultists i noticed they create a jerking effect on your aura when looking at you. Its combined with energy draining, the higher amount of energy u have the more violent the shakes. Its enough to for example push down ur glasses from ur forehead onto ur eyes sometimes, pull back hood from your head or make you lose balance/fall over when in some imbalanced position.
In my case it tends usually to be from the back/left body side. When ur standing still u will notice that ur body moves gently on its own and its not caused by inside energy movements. But your own energy also produces movements like whipping of the lower spine or belly movements.

Its possible to detect hostile entities/mages looking at you by this effect when youre outside - whether through cameras, drones or directly, if u interrupt their focus - it stops instantly. Sometimes u can pinpoint who exactly is doing it by that. Trained occultists have control of whether they do it by looking at you or not.
When ur drained through this effect u will have cold spots on energy centers on the skin - physically lower skin temperature in affected places, mainly under belly button, plexus, nape of the neck, throat, shoulders, wrists.

What these occult luciferian/satanist agents do not tell you is that the targeting and a lot of current 'tech' used against the awakenning public are occult magic based directed demonic attacks, hexes, vexes, curses, spells. It comes out from your digital devices, spell casting 5g towers and wifi routers. Not to mention the dark NLP mind programming on social media and websites and the cursed images, videos shared even in the TI groups. You can see their agents, who pretend to be TIs, casting spells with their hands in the faked TI videos. They can command demons to do the evil for them to keep average joe down. This is why top military leaders were obsessed with occult satanic abuse and rituals. They thought this would keep us from awakenning. This is why regular, daily praying ends the targeting.

Targeting method no. 2:

II. Sneaky Spell-planting

Previous point built on this a bit.
Things like hexed objects, being asked some scripted question to trigger an effect thats has been prepared earlier.
Occult trained services op delivering your pizza to your door.

Cashier in the shop touching and packing your stuff. Another shopper touching your cart. Eye contact.

A loud sound use to carry energy and intent of spell. Stomping the floor in apt above to send astral/etheric tendrils into ur apt and create a nest.

Hypnotic trigger of preprogrammed effect.
Touch attacks - handshakes, pats, "rouge hugs"

MULES- people who deliver a spell prepared by another magician so the magician stays hidden.

It can be done by touch - conversation, sometimes by looks alone'.
Some can be occult trained other can be regular civilians.

Reiki, massage, physiotherapy, doctors, anything involving touch - with enemy ops performing it and layering into it trojan hostile effects.

Trance dreams, hypnotic manipulation of permission granting in altered states of consciousness.

Astral body attacks where attacker gets to you and touches you or does something and in a while u feel effects.
Confusion by bunch of cars with headlight pointed at your eyes while someone plugs into ur energy bodies walking sneakily behind you.

Agents posed as maintenance crew trying to get into your house to mount spy devices and plant spells from inside.
Other targeted people with compromised system around you who are not participating knowingly.

Regular civilians who had spells planted on them covertly directed at you when they are set off.

Passing car outside ur apt with a pshycic ramming their energy body into yours and using the momentum to rip out part of energies and drain you as they are moving away. Sometimes coupled with shot energy beam from a dew and a sound like airhorn, engine revving or exhaust fart, triggering some other effect.

The image is a split-screen photograph featuring two individuals engaged in a conversation. On the left side of the screen, there is a man in a military uniform, wearing a cap and a green jacket. He is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. On the right side of the screen, there is a woman with shoulder-length hair, wearing a black jacket. She is facing the man and appears to be speaking to him.
Overlaying the image is a text box that reads, "You like Black girls?" followed by a question mark. Below the text, there is a response that reads, "I love 'em." The text box is in white, contrasting with the black background of the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of a meme or a satirical social media post, with the text box serving as a humorous comment.

He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. Behind him, there is a large, dark-colored snake coiled up and resting on a plant. The cage has vertical bars and a sign above it that reads "WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW MORE?" in white capital letters. The background is a dark, possibly industrial setting with a grid pattern. The style of the image is reminiscent of a promotional or informational video, possibly for a documentary or educational program.

Targeting Methods number 3

Method III: Occult Trickery, Fake Synchro, Service-ish Cunning

And then there is the way of application of the entire system where its extremely similar to the way secret services operate in conventional areas. Reading your mind and devices they think how to best play into all your fears, weaknesses, plans, goals desires etc.

Old tricks like trying to send ops who pretend to be seekers and in similiar situations, aligning fake synchronicities. New friends highly interested in what you are doing occult-wise, a reiki master coming to town few days after you typed friend saying you would like to learn. A toxic relationships ending specialist when you are fed up with your spouse who also happens to perform hands-on tantric practise. A lodge member going into the event your attending and then with your little group of newly met people for integration posing as atheist scientist curious about occult trying to know what you know and if you are involved in any organizations etc.

They always try to make it just sneaky enough by figuring how to alter the patterns a bit away from what you know/expect while trying to bait your desires.

This occult attack can be blocked and neutralised by praying 5-10 times a day. Say the Our Father prayer.

Targeting Methods number 4:

Method IV: Tech + Occult Synergy

So we have secret services, cointel programmes, infragard. Corrupted pds and military, docs, hospital staff, lawyers, courts, psychiatrists and freemasonry members planted in all those insitutions.
Their job is to facilitate this and cover it up in whatever way they can.
Then there is the tech layers of big data, ai, ability to monitor any device from cctv camera from smartphone to smart tv, and some other new house appliances, nanotech and telekom networks, energy and psychotronics weapons, RNM, AI systems, v2k chatbots, countless drones, DEWs hidden in city infrastructure, devices to force trance by altering brain function, silentsound and microwave hearing etc.

Then there is the whole tactics and operational know-how of the secret services of how to weaponize all the the above.
Then there is the whole abuse of hypnotic effects using the above as components, carries, vessels etc.

And then there is actual occult, black magic, alien, alien tech, thoughtforms, spells etc layer.

The thing to keep in mind is that it is an organic, coherent system where the layers and modules are integrated via constant communications, decades of research planning, development and illegal experiments worlwide from the nazis, throughout the cia and fbi, mossad and other agencies developing monarch and mk ultra and and testing it in latin america and usa extensively, drawing on occult traditions worldwide and incorporating their abilitites and users one way or another into their hivemind system.

The elements of the system are dynamic, some more than others and where more mundane means may lack they quickly move in occult and alien compontents if it is important to them. It takes usually few seconds for issues they are actively monitoring with high priority.

You can block this by praying often.

A lot of people are involved, way more than i had suspected. Even people in my own family. Turn to Jesus Christ, this world will be ending soon anyways.

Targeting Methods number 5

Method V.: Analog & Tech Based Targeting

ANALOG - a trained agent stand for a few second behind you in a supermarket focusing on you and producing effects of all sorts. No talking, no touch, no mutual eye contact, just to get behind and focus, sometimes they will have another op try to distract you by talking to you to give the main attacker time to perform their trick. 10-15 seconds in plenty for some. They love to do it in the cashier queue or when you are packing your groceries. Or analog layer into other interactions. Few ops doing different effects at once - let's say one conversation, one analog and another regular occult stuff while some agent in the van outside puts your mind into deeptrance with frequencies. And while few monkey ops walk around to create chaos/ confusion or start making some street theatrics like a fake argument.

MIXED WITH REMOTE NEURAL MONITORING for higher effects, better reading and control.

You can have a cluster of hostile occult effects, shots with dew beams, scanning beam from RNM device, a while later a MODULATING beam from RNM devices, covert hypno commands, drainings, telepathic pressure, energetic hostile effects like trying to move your energy in wrong direction to make you feel off all at once when you are doing something they really don't want you to do, for example. It usually takes them a few seconds to kick everything in, some things are faster than others (like AI tech telepathy chatbots and AI directed DEW weapons systems).
The RNM effects tend to take a while, you forget what you were doing after some seconds not instantly.

How to Stop the Targeting:

I was targeted but I got out of it a few months ago. I used body detox, mind detox and spiritual detox.

Step 1: Detox from the 'nanobots' and the other antennas they use to target you:
1. Heavy metal detox: zeolite, bentonite, spirulina, chlorella, atlantic dulse algae, charcoal.
2. Anti-parasite cleansing: any herbal anti-parasite pills or tinctures, wormwood, cloves, black walnut hull, pumpkin seeds, diam. earth, CDL/CDS chlor dioxid solution, spirulina, chlorella.
3. Chitin detox (they spray this in the c. trails, it is used as a secred food additive, bioweapons = dust mite like microscopic insects that leave behind chitin and people breath it in): Bromelain or Serrapetase or Nattokinase enzymes. Activated charcoal, aspirin treatment (1 aspirin per day), spirulina, high doses of ascorbic acid (vitamin C). It will take weeks or months to remove these from your body.

Feel free to add other supplements that have helped you.

Step 2: Mental detox

1. Say out loud or in your mind with intent: "I do not consent to being a targeted individual".
2. Replace negative thoughts with positive thoughts/images/memories about your past, present and future aggressively with intent.
3. State a number of times per day: "I have 100% control of my mind".
4. When you have a negative thought, suggestion, say aggressively: " That's a lie" it snaps you out of that state.
5. Use meditation, relaxation tapes. Read up on the Silva Mind Control Method (how to control your own mind), Autogenic Training, Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), buy and listen to tapes by Anthony Robbins and other self-help, motivational coaches. This can be used to reprogramme your mind.

Step 3: Spiritual Detox

Targeting is mainly occult spiritual attacks, they send demons to attack you. It is not 5G or waves or frequencies as they tell you in the alternative media.
In spiritual warfare, you always have to call on a more powerful force/entity than the attackers. Why not ask the top two?

1. Ask Jesus to remove any vexes, hexes, spells, curses and similar things off of you. Ask him to keep these away from you forever.

2. Ask Jesus to invalidate any deal you have made with the devil knowingly or unknowingly and ask him to invalidate any deal that was made against you in the spirit realm.
(Sometimes you click on something and it is a deal with dark forces.)

3. Pray twice a day using the "Our Father..." prayer. The dark forces and entities are repelled by this prayer, they hate it, they run away scared when you do it. It works for non-Christians too.

I wish I could say that other religions work against them, but they don't.

(Save this comment and paste it everywhere in the TI groups or TI websites.)

The image depicts a figure that appears to be a guardian angel, characterized by its majestic presence and ethereal quality. The figure is adorned with a halo of stars, which is a common symbol in Christian iconography representing divine protection. The halo is encircled by a golden band, adding to the divine aura.
The figure is wearing a white and green robe, which is often associated with purity and divinity. The robe is intricately detailed with gold accents, enhancing its regal appearance. The figure's attire is complemented by a golden belt, which is fastened with a buckle, suggesting a sense of authority and control.
In one hand, the figure holds a staff, a symbol often associated with guidance and protection. The staff is adorned with a star, further emphasizing the divine nature of the figure. The figure's other hand is raised, possibly in a gesture of blessing or protection.
The background of the image is a deep blue, with clouds and stars scattered throughout, creating a sense of depth and vastness. The overall composition of the image suggests a scene of divine intervention or protection. The colors used in the image are rich and vibrant, with the golden halo and stars standing out against the blue background. The image does not contain any discernible text.

Red is a satanic colour. Occulters love it.

Targeting Method number 6

VI. Method: Etheric Jerking

Ether can be molded by mind but more importantly it grips physical matter in its tension lines, those psychic enough who can see those tension lines use them in telekinesis.

It takes a very strong energy body to do and some practice. However - more effects aside from telekinesis are related to it, some psychics and trained occultists I noticed they create a jerking effect on your aura when looking at you. It's combined with energy draining, the higher amount of energy you have the more violent the shakes. It's enough to, for example, push down your glasses from your forehead onto your eyes sometimes, pull back hood from your head or make you lose balance/fall over when in some imbalanced position.
In my case it tends usually to be from the back/left body side. When you are standing still, you will notice that your body moves gently on it's own and it's not caused by inside energy movements. But your own energy also produces movements like whipping of the lower spine or belly movements.

It's possible to detect hostile entities/mages looking at you by this effect when you are outside - whether through cameras, drones or directly, if you interrupt their focus - it stops instantly. Sometimes you can pinpoint who exactly is doing it by that. Trained occultists have control of whether they do it by looking at you or not.

When you are drained through this effect, you will have cold spots on energy centers on the skin - physically lower skin temperature in affected places, mainly under belly button, plexus, nape of the neck, throat, shoulders, wrists.

Praying 5-10 times a day blocks these attacks.

Targeting Methods number 7

VII. Method: Covert Hypnosis Abuse

This one is huge.
So we have the mass version of it, with layered sound signals, subliminals, trance frequencies and altering brain activity of masses to keep them dumb and obedient.

But we have also targeted version. Passing ambulance/police car with layered hostile hypnotic effect via silent sound/microwave hearing to trigger negative occult effects like holes in the aura, energy leak, or plugging of enemies in who happen to be in that vehicle or elsewhere.

Triggering pre-programmed effect to put you into deeptrance instantly and do something like further programming, amnesia, disorientation, fear, interruption. (if you have amnesia by suggestion you know 100% you are in deep trance by the way). Mind control, dissuasion, persuasion, sabotage, lethargy, compulsion, inducing emotions, urges, manipulating thoughts, in severe cases words and motorics.

Praying works against this. Use affirmations, positive statements to counter the negative programming.

Method VIII. Telepathic Covert Hypno

Talking into your mind constantly, either as OUTSIDER ("you can't do xyz" "you feel weak" you are "scared") or as INSIDE VOICE (pretending to be you injecting negative thoughts/commands "I cant do this" "It's too hard" "I can't take it blabla" aliens and entities tend to like the second form more).
Can be done both with tech (silent/cound microwave hearing) and regular telepathy.

It comes out from your digital devices, spell casting 5g towers and wifi routers. Not to mention the dark NLP mind programming on social media and websites and the cursed images, videos shared even in the TI groups. You can see their agents, who pretend to be TIs, casting spells with their hands in the faked TI videos. They can command demons to do the evil for them to keep average joe down. This is why top military leaders were obsessed with occult satanic abuse and rituals. They thought this would keep us from awakenning. This is why regular, daily praying ends the targeting.

A targeted individual is someone who has been put under a watchlist program to psychologically torture the individual via gangstalking and harassment and through electronic means such as infrasound, electromagnetic radiation, synthetic telepathy (aka Voice of God weapon) which was used In Iraq by the US military.Psychological torturing of the individual starts with prep work, where you are being watched, however you are not aware that you are being watched. The purpose of watching you discreetly is to ensure that your triggers, stressors, things that impact you in a negative way can be ascertained in silence and a psychological profile of you created that can be used against you in an overt but subtle way repeatedly day after day once they do decide to make you aware of your overt targeting. In the community, this normally takes place in the form of gang stalking where groups of communities are told to watch and harass you and since you are now aware that you are being targeted, it takes a psychological toll on your health and makes you look paranoid and in need of medical attention, which is their goal. At work, this normally takes place in the form of workplace bullying whereby a handler is chosen to harass you by overburdening you with work, slandering you in office, by sensitizing you to stimulus's in the environment by repeatedly doing the things such as coughing as you walk by them, clearing their throat, repeatedly walking by your office etc.If not for the help of Andrew and his team, I'm not sure if I'd be able to get free from "the list". Once you are sensitized to these stimulus's you are more hypervigilant and this also distracts you from work, gets you very anxious so that you cannot perform the work and then you are labelled as being incompetent and either put on a Personnel Improvement Program or fired from work. If you complain about this to HR or take .... to be continued

... continued ... If you complain about this to HR or take legal action like I did while first trying to rid myself of this system!!! very little help will be given by HR and an attorney if you are able to find one, will not act in your best interest. At your home these gangstalkers will occupy apartments above and beside you to harass you with noise campaigns such as banging doors, loud whistling noises, honking horns outside your apartment, asking the children to shout just as you walk past to make you alert when you already are in a hypervigilant state, not letting you sleep by making noises just before you go to bed so that you get panic attacks and are unable to sleep. At extreme ends you will also be targeted by your neighbours and these people through infrasound, certain frequencies which target different portions of your body and make you severely ill causing headaches, vertigo, stomach pain, ulcers. When the targeting gets extreme you will also be exposed to people talking about you remotely using synthetic telepathy which beams the sound to you only. The details of these technologies are available in the public domain and can be researched and some have actually been used in wars by US military. So as you can see this is a psychological warfare against an individual and the community goes along with this because they have been told lies about you as a person by someone in a position of authority (government, intelligence agencies, military, police) and because as a citizen you will not question these authority figures, you are made to believe what they say and are unable as a targeted individual to explain your story in return. Communities who target individuals also know the harm that they are causing to an individual but continue to do so nonetheless for fear of similar repercussion if they do not comply with the authority figure. So you are psychologically tortured at home, at work, on the road and this is a targeted individual's daily life.

Do you know that voice that tells you to drink coffee, smoke cigs, drink alcohol, have sex? That is not you. It is demons telling those thoughts into your brain. They can convince you that someone somewhere is talking about you.

Targeting = demonic oppression.
Someone put a curse on you which creates demonic oppression in you and around you, these beings can manipulate/alter reality around you.

Praying ends the targeting. The only TIs who came out of targeting are the ones who went turbo Christian.

They are following you not because of your present life or self but you would become later. You will do something that causes the end of their power, rule, lives. Hence the obsessive monitoring. But you are protected and they cannot hurt you or touch you. They are very restricted. They were allowed to do this so that we can get some incriminating evidence about them. They will be killed off soon. God used us as the honeypots. Whoever bothered us, curses us, followed us will be killed. Those who helped us, protected us, looked after us will be ascended in the real way.

The average CIA agent has less in common with a clean shaven college student and more in common with a filthy Montagnardic French proto Communist spreading street porn of the queen to destabilize France. He is at his heart a goon of the worst elements of mankind who hide and strike at the noble elements from a secretive place in the sewers and bowels of the most repugnant regions of the planet.

"Our attention was drawn to an individual who, in response to targeted actions perceived as potentially adversarial, embarked on an ambitious and sophisticated initiative. Recognizing the potential threats and opportunities this individual posed, we closely monitored the development of a highly secure communication method he created. This method was designed to facilitate bidirectional information exchange while effectively shielding the discourse from external threats, including our own surveillance efforts.

The individual's project quickly gained traction, attracting a diverse coalition from various sectors such as media, academia, and the arts, alongside other intelligence and military personnel. It became evident that his efforts were not merely defensive but aimed at establishing a formidable network capable of influencing a wide range of fields.

As the initiative progressed, we understood that the individual sought not just to safeguard his interests but to cultivate a select group that he meticulously trained and equipped. This group, bound by securely communicated objectives, eventually took over the project's leadership. This strategic handover was part of a negotiated settlement of sorts, allowing the individual to concentrate on ventures that were anticipated to benefit both himself and his carefully chosen collaborators.

From our standpoint, this scenario necessitated a recalibration of our approach. The individual's ability to create a secure, collaborative network posed both a challenge and an opportunity for engagement. Recognizing the mutual benefits his endeavors promised, and the potential for leveraging this network's capabilities, we explored avenues for indirect engagement and monitoring, always mindful of the delicate balance between national security interests and the innovative potential embodied by the individual and his project."

Gangstalking/organized stalking/multi stalking is basically a highly sophisticated system that's designed to basically ruin the life of a Targeted Individual, or TI .

The perpetrators, or perps, are basically the employee's on the ground level . They receive orders from up on high within the network . They get tasked with various things -- surveillance, stalking, mobbing, harassment, cyberbullying, and street theater .

Street theater, otherwise known as Reptilian theater, something that Thomas Edison excelled at, is when a bunch of multi stalkers will appear at a location where the TI is anticipated to travel to and they carry out a play of sorts . Basically it's when they act something out that's actually scripted and it's meant to mess with the target in some way . Sometimes they'll even have an actual script with lines that they're supposed to memorize .

The surveillance aspect is most likely the first phase in the entire ordeal . The TI gets placed under surveillance first and foremost . All the usual stuff now . All communications are tapped -- landline, smartphone, Internet, and either the house is bugged or remote surveillance technology is employed . The surveillance data is then used to build a customized profile of the target . And once the profile is built up, a custom-tailored harassment program is put together . Which is the next phase .

I'm living on earth with a human body, but I'm not a human, I'm an angel who got sent to earth. And there's a war going on here, between my kind and the demons.
>Any reason for why "they" are after you?
There's a rule that we don't just shoot each other on the streets, a kind of cold-war situation, but they try to make life difficult for me. When I was 15 it started. Now I learned how to deal with this things. Most people around me think that I'm a crazy one, because I see the things humans can't see (demons coming as phantoms, possessed people, spirits, magical forces) but I'm used to that and it's no drama."

[Part 1/2]
I think this is a really complex issue but can be boiled down to four main factors that somehow intersect:
>1. AI automated electronic harassment uses satellite and other EM tech to disrupt the auric field or induce irritation. Individuals targeted based on several factors.
There are several patents which show how certain devices send out subliminal frequencies which induce harmful and disruptive thoughts and behavior. Heavy metals in the body pick up these messages which are relayed throughout the body using cytoplasm as a conduit. In the brain, these signals become thoughts. This scares and weakens the TI, who believes he is becoming insane. Individuals are targeted based on their aura, which can be read by satellites using infrared, UV, and thermal imaging. Auras deemed to be a danger to the system are flagged as threats. Individuals are also tracked from childhood using state "tests" which are actually hidden personality exams designed to root out individuals high in both intuition and rebelliousness. Probably based on gittenger's PAS, which targets IFA's. Nearly all TI's are IFA's, the archetypal system-busters.
>2. Parasites, viruses, chem trails, and heavy metals destroy the immune system and put the body in a state of fear Check out the archives on pol and x, using terms "chitin", "heavy metals", "parasites". Be prepared to spend a great deal of time on this subject. The rabbit hole is deep. All these poisons actually affect your thoughts and behaviors. That "second voice" that's always with you? Probably a parasite infection fucking with your nervous system. Srs, look into it.

Part 2/3 (fuck kikechan and their word limits inhibiting any real discussion)

>3. Aliens=demons (archons) use altered states of consciousness to possess people or enter their mental world
This goes hand in hand with sigil magick, goetia, religious symbolism, and the "gods" of olde. Electronic harassment and poor biological health damages both the body and the magnetic field which normally acts as a shield against electromagnetic interference. The signals picked up by heavy metals invite certain entities into your magnetic field. Each frequency is like a stream containing different types of compatible aquatic life (aliens). Normally you're a fortress, but now your walls have cracks. Water from different streams seeps into the foundation (soul), ruining it.
>4. Intelligence assets (Sayanim) inserted into life at the proper time, either wittingly as an agent or often as useful idiots.
These individuals steer the already tormented, paranoid TI -- literally fighting for his soul -- off the path to salvation through gnosis. TIs are usually gaslit into either self destructive or erratic predatory behavior. Both of which land you in an institution or jail. Once there, the control is total and intelligence need not worry anymore. The voices often stop, and the TI is left wondering wtf happened. See Kyle Odom case for pretty much a perfect example.

The solution is pretty simple once you know how you're being targeted. Start with physical wellness via intense detoxes targeting:
>parasites >heavy metals >chitin >biofilm and spike proteins
90% of your symptoms will probably disappear. What's left is rooting out the demons with prayer and healing of the auric body with vegetarian diet and prolonged meditation.

Yes, there are people who ended targeting. I know two about two cases. Both came out of it with Christian spiritual self-defence. One started going to church on Sunday, the other started reading the Bible.

It works because targeting is black magic combined with nanobots and tech. If you eliminate the occult magic attack aspect of it, it will go away. Nanobots and tech on their own do not work without the occult magic. Of course, detoxing from nanobots helps.

But the key is Christianity. Pray, go to your local Catholic church, repent, buy a rosary, Bible etc.

Yes, to some degree. The system is Satanically-themed in nature and is designed to be fought against. It was likely pioneered by the kind of Neocons Bush Jr. was, who literally believe the end of the world is nigh. This is their means of fulfilling biblical prophecy with mundane technology.

>When did it start for you?
The round-the-clock harassment started in late 2019, but I'm pretty sure I got a "premonition" as early as 2008? Either way, it's gotten better, but still present in my life. No, I don't go to church, and prayer is precluded by the fact that scripture demands one prays alone in solitude, where no man may hear. An AI monitoring your thoughts prevents that. Rather than church and prayer, I'll be attempting to enact legislation that would prevent technological intrusion into the human mind. Operation Moonshot, if you will.

Earplugs do nothing. They can embed audible sound in any kind of ambient noise and I suspect they use that noise as part of the speech generation process to make it blend in better.

You ever know how it constantly tries to talk over your thoughts in real time? Same thing, but for the ambient audio.

Also tried this with and without my phone in secluded areas. Not related to the phone at all.

I didn't become aware of my gangstalking but I'll around 2019 but still didn't know what gangstalking was. I didn't even know what gangstalking was untill 2022.

Since learning what gangstalking is and all the things that have happened to me in recent years and the things gangstalkers do I can now look back at things that have happened to me since I was younger and identify these things as gangstalking.

Like when I was younger I where ever I went, like some place I'd never been before outside of my own area I'd always meet someone who knew someone who either knew someone from where I lived or they would say that they used to live in the same area. This is one thing I remember from when I was a kid and thinking how strange it was that this always seemed to happen. Lots of things that I experienced as a kid and always thought were just strange coincidences I can now say that they were not coincidenced but gangstalking.

These idiots have been targeting me since I was just a kid.

Most TIs started to experiemce targeting and gangstalking around 2019, during the first Trump presidency which confirms our suspicion that it is done by the DIA military intel and MK Ultra groups connected to the US military as Trump is closely tied to them. The FBI and CIA story is a fairy tale. These black magic occult attacks and targeting in general is military intel spiritual warfare tech. They are neck deep into occultism and directing demonic oppression at TIs. They belong to the dark side and the false light and they work closely with demonic entities.

I lot of TIs have been followed and targeted to a lesser extent since their birth in secret.

By learning how to calculate probability to high school level, a lot of TIs can figure out that there were too many improbable events and 'coincidences' in their lives. It indicates negative influence through occult means or interventions in their lives to hold them back so to speak. There is statisrical evidence to support this.

Most TI come out of targeting by using Christian spiritual defence methods like praying, reading the Bible. The effectiveness of these methods further confirms the occult spiritual warfare nature of the attacks.

The image is a digital painting that depicts a simple yet appetizing scene. On the left side of the image, there is a sandwich with a golden-brown crust and a filling that appears to be ham and cheese. The sandwich is placed on a dark, textured surface that could be a table or a countertop.

On the right side of the image, there is a white mug filled with a dark liquid, which could be coffee or tea. The mug has a handle and a spout, suggesting it is designed for drinking.
The background of the image is a light beige color, providing a neutral backdrop that allows the colors of the sandwich and the mug to stand out. The overall style of the painting is loose and sketchy, with visible brush strokes and a sense of movement, giving the image a dynamic feel.
In the bottom right corner of the image, there is a signature that reads "K.C.O." which could indicate the artist's name or the name of the artwork. The signature is in a simple, unembellished font.

Ok heres what i have learned. Also id like to touch bases with OP as i believe my knowledge on this is relatively high compared to most of what exists.

>a large section of the population are hosts for EDI (this is your historical/mythological witch race, faeries, ancestral demons) >they control most of our society (as verified in medieval treatises on witchcraft, which state that they have extensive networks in every village and town...and are essentially a substratum of society) >they communicate with eachother via homyonic code - but can also communicate in the astral >most of society is a kind of energy extraction system they have built for humans (think things like advertisement - its all layed with code) >all conversation with hosts is a form of negative NLP >this can be scientifically and mathematically verified through deep linguistic analysis of conversations (and retroactively applying a formula that measures pitch, emphasis, and statistical frequency (probabilistic inference) to decode their sub-speech (a form of NLP they speak to your subconscious).
>they are not fully telepathic but are masters of inference (so can give impression of telepathy) >their seed is entwined with that of adamic man (biblical serpent seed - naga in eastern religions) >modern tech is largely for surveillance of the human population, and the creation of a neural tether to establish a machine to brain interface (humans will be harvested, surveled and controlled in this manner) >most modern tech is a kind of trojan apparatus created by them to give the demonic realm a bridge into this world

In modern media versions of this truth are relayed via horror/sci fi ect. The same with mythology, they have always used this to tell us about their existence >all material on vampires, witches, ect. they are all showing that this caste of predatory humanoids exist among us (they where associated oft with wild nocturnal animals in history) >dont get overly hung up on differences between the types...(i think there may be differences, but it helps when starting to see them all as demonic hosts) - this is to say they have a human front personality, but the demon is in control >media/stories that show them as essentially controlling the entire society are, unfortunately, accurate (They Live, Vampire lore where the world is run by them as a kind of farm....these seem to be the closest to reality) >they traditionally where highly factional/tribal, and in perpetual war with eachother...but in this age they are consolidating into a singe order >in the Bible it is clear....Christ says Satan is "the prince of this world" (indicating that they control society) >the Bible is also clear that demons exist in human form and are commonplace >many eastern religions verify that a race of inhuman beings naga exist among us and control society >like i said, their primary interpersonal modus op is a form of NLP (and this can be uncovered and decoded through linguistic analysis + math) what is gangstalking ?

>in the most simple terms it means you have noticed their infrastructure and in turn it/they have noticed you (many people will notice something then stop....if you continue to investigate certain matters you may have drawn attention) >they may have tagged you for amplified surveillance (there are various reasons this might have occurred) >you entered into some kind of contract with them which put you on their radar >remember what i said before, they run the world like a farm and consider humans property, they buy/sell humans (witches have an entire system for this) >again....they engage in a kind of manipulative soft disclosure through the media (one of the main characteristics is the lie that there are good ones among them...the witcher, angel from buffy, the white witch motif) >in reality the true members of this species (interestingly called in medieval witch texts "a race" of witches) are almost inherently sociopath/psychopathic - in that they have a kind of MPD, where the front persona is controlled by the demonic subpersonality >the above is both epigenetic/generational and induced deliberately in the children of their bloodlines by ritual means (see Fritz Springmeir on How the Illuminati create Mind control Slave) >in the above their mind fragmentation modalities are explained in detail...this is where they fracture of the mind of the child in order to induce a demon into the body (akin to when a vampire almost kills a person to turn them into a vampire) >this is how this demoniac host subpopulation reproduce >can humans oust them on a large scale ?

>from what i can tell they control the entirety of society (they induce a manner of ignorance re their own existence_. things like wars are likely planned by them as sacrafices to greater demons what is gangtslaking, further ?

>they are also in process of creating a new technocratic panapticon society(this goes beyond what is admitted by govs or what we know re existing technology - which is just the surface) >the process is fundmentally occult, and there is a much more advanced backend that exists within the telecom infastrucuture >its aim to merge all biological organisms on a neural level with the telecom grid (this is also done via nanomaterials in the food/drink/medicine) >those already contracted into closer proximity to the demonic realm will be the first targets for experimentation and integration into this biotech grid (which is in actuality interdimensional....as it seeks to connect the human world with hell) - see the doom franchise

>anyone tagged by them (for whatever reason, you are considered property by virtue of being in a certain bloodline, or by contracting with certain state or corp or financial bodies) - you can be sold into this system >from here you become marked for integration into the brain to machine interface (they locate you through your brains biomagnetic signature and begin to etsb a tether via wireless freq resonance) >from here it becomes easier for the demonic substrata to "see" you (as your plugged into their dimensional matrix) >this can happen without the modern tech of course...if you enter certain manners of contract...if you open a portal or if a witch subjects you to what Chinese folk shamans call "Ghost eye survelence" >it means you have become more visible to them, to their world, which is the world of the dead (hosts will see you, and attempt to communicate)

If this happens i have the following advise

>DO NOT COMMUNICATE WITH DEMONS SPEAKING TO YOU THROUGH HOSTS if possible >as they are from an inverse dimension anything you say or do they will invert...they are black mirror entities >try to get away from any kind of wireless technology >maintain a basic stoic type mindset, in connect with god. if you dont generate thoughtforms they cant be inverted and weaponzed against you >monks learned this in ages past, and developed rules of silence so these entities could not penetrate (this is why certain spaces and communities are resilient against the demon) >be still like a lake. do not be disturbed by the forms the demons use to destabilize you Anonymous Mon 08 Dec 2025 17:16:45 No.41633563 Report

but i understand we live in this society and there are certain practicalities. i would advise getting rid of your phone. maybe buy a cheap burner phone for necessaries they do not only keep tabs by electronics tho. if he is a host he (and by extension the network) can maintain an eye on you in the astral through anything that belonged to you burn everything you shared with him. destroy all points of contact. bedsheets ect.

Every day I remind them that their false gods are frail demons. Every day I argue against their points until they've made a fool of themselves in their own eyes. Every day, I work openly towards their destruction, and because they strive against the one true God, they always fail. They watch, and they tremble.

They've inducted my mother into their hive mind, I've seen her doing the hand work of covert spell casting, I've seen her use iconographic communication, placing objects around the house that don't make sense unless she's watching me on the astral, but are a clear message if she is. She pilpuls like a jew when I try to talk to her about the biology of the brain, electromagnetism, computer science, and the implications of ongoing BCI research. She spent the better part of a year lying to my face and trying to tell me the brain isn't electronic.

She's a witch, and an obvious narcissist, but I only began to suspect her of anything when she started to argue like the shills here argue when you talk about anything worthwhile. Since then, I've come to understand that she's a hollow thing, possessed by vile demons and occultists larping as such.

It's sad, but this is what free will brings. She chose evil, and now all that remains is doing my best to ignore and mitigate her as we continue the work of fighting the people trying to use this psychic internet we call the astral for evil. Their primary desire is to blackbox and monopolize, to convince people the technologies aren't real while using them against them. You're doing good work, OP.

Oh, and the lying about the brain is particularly egregious because she went to school to be a fucking nurse, and constantly studies the chemistry of nutrition. For years, she would talk endlessly about dopamine, serotonin, the brain and its neurotransmitters and how diet impacts them. She fucking KNOWS it's electronic. She was lying to my face to protect the secrecy of the astral's reality. She was lying because she was using the astral to practice psychic molestation. Witches will pretend to be other people on the astral to try and engage in psychic sex with people, they steal identities to molest people who would never consider them at all if they knew who they were. They practice rape by deception on the astral because they are too weak to rape all but small children in real life.

The most disturbing thing is the underlying impression that she's trying to trigger me into attacking or killing her. Projecting some kind of desire for suicide and self harm onto me using her psychic bullshit and manipulations because she's too cowardly to do it herself. I've told her I'll be taking her to court once these things are more established and won't just be thrown out. I need to get evidence, but evidence is difficult given the nature of the astral. Perhaps only God, ever watching, will bring justice.

Perhaps we'll run webspiders through the human brain and learn to let secrets die.

The character has a surprised expression and is looking towards the right side of the panel. On the right side, there is another character with short hair, wearing a black outfit and holding a gun. The character has a serious expression and is looking towards the left side of the panel. Above the character on the right, there is a speech bubble that reads "GO BACK YOU FUCKING SUBHANAN." The speech bubble is in a larger font size compared to the character's face, indicating a more prominent message. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of manga or anime, with its black and white color scheme and the use of speech bubbles to convey dialogue.

The best counter to shills like him is ignoring and shunning them once identified. Some of them literally get paid for (you)'s. If they say something so egregious it MUST be corrected, only provide the correction and then do not further engage. If, as in the case of this thread, they're asking for you to prove something, by all means, prove it if you can, proof often shuts them up right quick (they hate looking unintelligent or foolish), but expect them to try and discredit or say a proof doesn't prove what you say, but something else. These types NEVER argue legitimately or operate without ulterior motives.

Also, while, yes, it's cathartic to tell them to kill themselves and all that, in the end, they're not really people, and it's not fair to think of them or treat them like people. A cluster B disordered individual is basically a lobotomite. The part of their brain that makes them more than an animal or NPC is malformed, missing, or dead. This is why it's appropriate to call them a nigger, no matter what color they are.

Now I just try to make something of myself despite still dealing with severe adhd, insomnia, avolition, depression, and gender dysphoria. I like women so it's not like I can just troon out and get a man.

I was very fortunate and went along with going to a partial hospitalization program like my mom and the social worker wanted me to when I was getting out of detox instead of going to a halfway house and throwing my fortunes to the winds.

When I was in the partial hospitalization program, eventually I just noticed that there was too much evidence against what I thought I was experiencing for it to be real, so I told the doctor who was in charge of the program and said I wanted to be on an antipsychotic. He said, "That's great, what antipsychotic?" and named a few. I told him I wanted Abilify (which I had been on before and doesn't cause a lot of drowsiness and fatigue like Seroquel and Zyprexa). I stayed on it long enough for it to work, the delusions went away and I was in a safe place to "land," so to speak (I had tried to kill myself before when I felt the delusions come crashing down.) I had also had visual hallucinations when things were at their worst.

The Abilify caused restless legs, so after I got home I got on Rexulti with a new psychiatrist (which they usually pair with an antidepressant but I'm just on the Rexulti now with Lamotrigine, Clonazepam, and Focalin.)

I'm actually doing really well, all things considered. I take piano lessons and am talking on the phone with a really cute 25 y/o woman I met on Tinder who likes my "girlmode."

I honestly am kinda hard on myself.

I was able to go back to college and got an academic award.

They don't talk enough about psychosis in treatment centers. They focus on a lot of CBT DBT type stuff that is great and all but if someone is sitting there hearing voices and haven't told anyone, they really need to hear about that.

Very important point. My family member has been 5150'd several times. They're medicated while they're there for short mandatory holds, but never long enough for it to really start working, and when they get it out all goes to shit. They tried to stay on meds one of those times, but less than a week in, they had convinced themselves that they weren't working, so obviously the doctor must have had some ulterior motive, and then that they were never sick at all, naturally. Never gave it a chance and never looked back.

Really happy to hear that you're doing so well, anon. congratulations. That's no small feat. Wrestling with your own mind and grasp on reality like that and coming out on top is fucking Herculean.

Targeting gangstalking

Your energy, they are energy vampires, they have demonic entities inhabiting their vessels because they have sold their souls and are disconnected from source so they feed on and use other ppls energy, the thing is they are so dense and dark that the can only feed on low vibrational energy, these are cults and covens, secret societies, witches and warlocks, our energy is worth more than gold in the spiritual realm- they also can’t create anything because they are disconnected from source so they use our creative abilities and own minds against us by getting us to focus on what they are doing in a state of fear that actually manifests it more in our lives, they also make deals with these entities and they have to offer something in return so they try and offer us and our blessing up on their alters, they avoid their karma by trauma bonding with us and then projecting all their karma onto us and then try and get us to off ourselves but this is only temporary so they have to keep doing it, life insurance policies, stolen inheritances, destiny swapping. Real sk shit but there are entire groups of ppl who operate like this, we are their power source, when a soul starts to awaken this false light matrix sends in its goons and gang stalkers they don’t want us changing anything

It is a type of training that most will never pass because they do not develop telepathic abilities. Those who do not manage to develop appropriate skills are eliminated in the course of the process. The best thing to do is burn your passport and get out because over 99% of TI's are going to be killed.

The image displays a computer screen with a text editor window open. The text editor window contains a text message that reads, "Is now that I'm feeling better I am now a Ti, proof? picc...". The message is highlighted by a red arrow, indicating that it is the current focus of the text editor. Below the message, there is a text box with the label "Get Captcha" and a button labeled "SH44H". The text box contains a series of numbers and letters, which are likely part of a captcha code. The overall style of the image is a screenshot from a computer application, likely a text editor or a similar software, used for editing or proofreading text.

The image is a photograph taken inside a library. A man stands in the foreground, wearing a dark t-shirt with the word "ARMY" printed on it, and khaki pants. He leans against a wooden column with a sign that reads "Library" and "Library Hours" in white text on a black background. The man has a beard and is looking directly at the camera. The background shows a well-stocked library with numerous bookshelves filled with books. The shelves are organized in rows, and the books are arranged in a way that suggests a systematic layout. The ceiling is white, and there is a light fixture hanging from the ceiling. The floor is covered with green carpeting. The overall atmosphere of the library is quiet and calm.

>How long it took from their reveal that they are real to full body control.
They did it to me within a year of the voices appearing, but it depends on the individual. In my case I firmly believed free will didn't exist since I was a teenager and the voices came along and said "I'll show you no free will" and they completely puppeteer me around as a shitpost. I have no thoughts of my own that aren't directly fed to me so technically you're talking to them pretending to be me and not me myself, and they full body control me on the daily. They usually let me act more or less like myself when I'm with people but when I'm alone I mostly just pace back and forth in the apartment, I'm cursed as fuck. I don't think they necessarily do this to everyone.

I heard a story of a girl who suddenly lost control of her actions at university, and she just walked up and punched her lecturer for no reason. They were using the same capacity just in an isolated incidence rather than all the time like me.

>I'm not schizo, this is real therefore I'm not schizophrenic no shit sherlock, have you considered that's how most schizos feel? Yes it's real, and this is what schizophrenia is. People have been hearing voices for 1000s of years and we've always disagreed about where the voices come from, but there are numerous accounts of people believing that people were doing this to us long before our technological advancement. It's not like there's this (our thing) and schizophrenia (legitimate mental illness) and theyre separate things. Personally I think the gangstalking phenomena is a particular organization of aliens inflicting this on us, and different schizos belong to different organizations.

The science says taking antipsychotic meds leads to better outcomes overall, so for whatever fucking reason, the aliens attack us less if we take our fucking medication, so take the god damn medication.

The voices tell me they have some empathy. It's not a lot though based on what they do to me but they don't set the entire planet on fire even though they probably could so that's good. Only a small fraction of people get attacked like this and they leave the rest of us alone so we can still function as a society. But yeah they fuck some of us over for like, no reason. If you wanna think about this from the spiritual angle my voices say this is happening to us because of past life sins, but that theory falls apart when you consider they literally make me sin / hurt people. They don't even take proper care of my cat. They say after we die we'll ascend for this, and it'll be good enough to more than make up for everything they put us through. but personally I think that's just a false hope narrative they give to their victims.

The image is a digital artwork that features a surrealistic composition. At the center of the image is a large, round, dark-colored coffee cup with a white rim and handle. The cup is placed on a dark, reflective surface that could be a glass or a reflective tabletop. The cup is filled with a blue, wavy liquid that resembles water, with a small boat floating on it. The boat is black with a red and white striped pattern, and it appears to be moving through the water.
Above the cup, there is a small, white lighthouse with a red top and a black base. The lighthouse is situated on a small island with a green landscape, and there are birds flying around it. The background of the image is a soft, blurred blue, which suggests a calm sea or sky.
The overall style of the image is surrealistic, with elements that are not typically found in reality. The use of the coffee cup as a vessel for the water and the lighthouse as a small island adds a whimsical touch to the composition. The image does not contain any text.

It’s not like a tinfoil hat thing either, it’s a literal real program, at least I assume it is still going on, it would have been around 2005 when I was in it.
We would leave our regular class after lunch and finish the day in the GATE class, one of them was in the back portion of the stage/theater almost like the dressing room or storage room, was repurposed for it. Another one was in a trailer but it had walls set up inside, many people will report anomalies like this. I believe it is because of the psychic tests they did on us, and did not want any kind of energy interference. It would often be in a place in the deepest part of the campus in a room without windows etc, just however they could manage to make it happen. We would start the class every day with an in test, usually it would then shift to memory exercises/ psychic testing, and then they would give us an hour or more to build things, out of legos, or other similar mediums, they would stand around with clipboards and asks us questions about what we are building what we think of it how, why etc. and then we would end with an IQ test

The image is a screenshot of a social media post with a dark background. At the top, there is a text overlay that reads "My name is Nobody... NQ13... is my serial number." Below the text, there is a man's face with a beard and mustache, wearing a leather jacket. The man has a tattoo on his chest and is looking directly at the camera. The bottom of the image contains a button with the text "Subscribe" and a social media handle "@johnwickscienceaction111". The overall style of the image is a mix of text and visual elements, with a focus on the man's face and the text overlay.

The image is a simple, cartoon-style illustration of a coffee cup. The cup has a white lid with a small hole at the top, and a brown sleeve that wraps around the base of the cup. The sleeve has a ribbed texture, and the cup is filled with a light brown liquid, which could be coffee. Below the cup, the word "Coffee" is written in a brown font, matching the color of the sleeve. The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the brown elements of the cup and sleeve. The style of the image is reminiscent of a children's book illustration, with a focus on the simplicity and warmth of the coffee.

I could tell you an TI story. But I've told this story before, elsewhere, and you could call it a mood killer. So I guess what I'd rather do is lament on what happens once you yield. What happens when you say "okay maybe I lost my mind on the way". So you go get some professional help. They refuse you service because you're deemed too sane for the mental ward and they tell you the other patients are insane "different" ways. You talk your way there, because you think this is the next logical step. This is how you get better. So you get to the mental ward and you try to settle in. Everyone's a bit mad but now you're one of them. The monsters aren't real they're in your head. There's some really troubled people there. One lady with advanced schizophrenia who has constant hallucinations and shoves every other day the toilet brush up her ass and then crying over how she's dirty. There's your typical old lady with alzheimer's disease, who packs her shit and thinks everyday that she's going home. You got the catatonic fellows in all flavors. Some eccentric lady who's basically stuck in teenage rebel stage, telling everyone that her dad's authorized whatever and she needs her phone back. Which she can't get because she keeps dialing 911 for bullshit reasons. And then there's the guy who's probably schizophrenic and thinks there's cameras everywhere. So he refuses to listen to orders constantly, causing the guards to be called in, goes around pissing everywhere because there's cameras in the toilet and he's also a kleptomaniac who steals shit all the time. From the nurses and the other patients. He's managed to arm himself with a pencil and keeps it sharp. Got to be careful. The only semi-sane person aside from the burnt out staff is a meth addict. You're lucky because you're roommates with him.

Now the days are long and everyone smokes everyday all day. There's not much else to do. Since you've got yourself admitted due to requesting it, you get to enjoy some priviledges. You start gambling on online casinos to pass time. Low wagers keeps you going for days. And it's great that you're with that meth head because you got somebody to talk with. It's not really possible to socialize with the other patients because they're too far up their asses. You can't have a normal dialogue with somebody screaming their head off about their shit being stolen by the staff. You tried, it just doesn't work. Not even after they calm down because they're in a constant loop. Talking should be a key part of healing. You reflect on your own story and you try to reflect on the other peoples stories. So you live the day-to-day life, eat your meals, eat your pills, smoke your cigarettes, have chats, go to one-on-one therapy with the nurses, take your walks, etc. Time passes and it doesn't get better. The monsters arent present in everyday life but your story hasn't changed. You can't change the story. Nurses say the story is unfortunate. Yes it's unfortunate, but it would be preferable if it wasn't real. It's easier to be a crazy person than to be in world of shit. And the message you keep receiving is the wrong one. It's not the one you want to hear. So eventually you check out and take the therapy route. You still take your medications and go to a therapist but you aren't in a ward. It's the free range chicken version of mental healthcare.

They're harvesting your aura. Dude I actually remember incarnating here. I remember the father God. I remember how badass and cool they are. I can see. And I can see what these evildoers are doing all over the world.
The sad truth is this world is actually filled with evil souls that exist to do evil. Hylics and people who simply forgot about God and became evil.
You can use psychokinesis to control your energy flow and banish them from getting deeper into your temple.
It really doesn't matter. Satan knows they're screwed and going to hell. God is still going to resurrect us all at the end of time. This world literally does not matter. Those people are hellbound.
They merely pretend to be in control. They merely pretend to have power over their victims. They merely pretend that they will get away with doing this forever while we lose everything and exist just to suffer.. Yea right. The father is a total badass. I know who they are and I remember everything now.
They tried to brainwash and erase my memories and install their own program but I fought thru everything and you can too.
Thanks for the knowledge. God is greatest. TPTB set up this world, pop culture, all of these things exist just to degrade your image. It's there for a reason. These satanists have it all down to a science but they will be consumed by the flame some day. All of those hivemind jitterbugs are going to burn in hell. I choose love over hate this time.
Love is all you need.

There's absolutely no way you've successfully convinced yourself that it was mental illness. If you experienced the conversational telepathy phase you've long since passed the point where you can convince yourself it's mental illness. You just tell yourself that because it makes you feel better and it makes it easier to sleep at night. You know damn well your drug fried brain couldn't conjure up elaborate telepathic conversations for two years straight.

The character has long, dark hair that cascades over their shoulders and down their back. They have a neutral expression with their eyes closed, and their mouth is slightly open, as if they are in the middle of speaking or thinking. The character is wearing a white shirt with a green collar, and the shirt appears to be slightly wrinkled, suggesting a casual or relaxed setting. The character's hair is styled in a way that it falls over their shoulders, framing their face. The background is a solid black, which contrasts with the character's dark hair and white shirt, making the character the focal point of the image. There are no texts or other discernible objects in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of anime or manga, characterized by its clean lines and simple, yet expressive, character design.

Finally gonna ask my Memphis Misraim question Anonymous Sat 13 Dec 2025 10:24:53 No.41660440 ViewReplyOriginalReport
Quoted By: >>41664459 >>41666380
Circa summer of last year, let's just say I nearly shit myself out of fear when I first saw the Memphis Misraim logo get posted on this board.

I had struggled with an absurd quantity of nightmares per week since I was super young, and in most of them, I would see the Memphis Misraim logo, right down to the symbols, colors of the symbols, and their placement on the logo. I wonder how big of a lowball saying I've had at least 100 of these dreams by the time I was in 4th grade would be. But thinking of the per week basis depending on the years, and what age they started vs stopped, yeah I'd say 100 nightmares related to the Memphis Misraim is probably crazy lowballing it.

I have been scared to post about this online, because I thought "well at least I have a signifigant other, I have a best friend, I'm in my favorite sport" but I eventually became too broke for sports, it turns out my suspicions of my "best friend" being fake and shady were true and they financially screwed me over because I have a terrible tendency to ignore red flags, and then my my SO of 2 years said they never loved me. The economy is terrible now, it's so hard to even pay bills on time when it used to be easy even at terrible jobs, and I feel like I have nothing left to lose now.

There were these repeated insinuations that people were molested by Memphis Misraim members as children getting posted here for a while. Can anybody come forward and tell me what part of the country you think this occured in? I want to identify a pattern to see if we can get together to discuss this in a less public sphere. But IDK where other to find people with experiences, other than here.

Anonymous Sat 13 Dec 2025 10:30:47 No.41660467 Report
Just the fact alone that OTHER people have complaints about them freaks me the hell out. I would've probably gone my whole life thinking I was just some retard scared of what looked like a weird abstract fat robotic fish in my childhood opinion, or a bunch of stars too close to each other, an oblong object, and a bunch of stars too close to each other.

The older I got, the more certain members of my family have told me childhood stories that seem suspicious and sloppy. Almost like they think I must be dumb as hell, and something that I knew but then mostly forgot about is being covered up by people with drug related brain damage haha. But these things line up with the general themes of dreams I've had, and complaints about Memphis Misraim posted on this board by others. Like I qualified for short term disability shortly after I got one of these dreams as an adult, because I barely got any for years but they started again.

My life is so fucked up, having less to lose is making me feel sort of bold or something. But I think we can come to a resolution about this problem if we work together.

I'm scared people are gonna want to kick my ass for posting this question. But I guess my life force is worthless, according to the economy and assholes, so let's see what happens next, if what's coming up next in life is projected to suck anyway

Then after that wave started, the board got polluted with 764 and O9A promotional content, which was also really cringey and edgy may I add. Like IQ of 90 type shit. I just have to say if what I think is true, and that was promoted to divert attention from the real problem, are you telling me people get PAID to be that cringey and dumb? [36 / 5]The image depicts a whimsical and fantastical scene. At the center of the image is a tree with a thick trunk and a lush canopy of green leaves. The tree is situated on a hill, with a small, circular structure built into its base. This structure appears to be a hobbit house, characterized by its rounded shape and a green door. The house is surrounded by a variety of plants and flowers, adding to the overall greenery of the scene. The sky above is filled with clouds, suggesting an overcast day. The image is taken from a low angle, looking up at the tree and the house, which gives a sense of scale and grandeur to the scene. There are no texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is realistic with a focus on the natural elements, creating a sense of wonder and fantasy.

99.9999% of suffering is directly caused by humans. We could all live like the hobbits in Lord of the rings, but choose not too. War, murder, rape, inequality; caused by humans. Even most diseases are caused by malnutrition and man made pollutant exposure. Plus if you don't believe in God you don't have any justification for morality anyways. You are all a bunch of slimey cowards, the "demiurge" is a false characterisation of God. We are our own imprisoners.

The image is a digital graphic with a gray background and a black and gold color scheme. At the top, in large white text, the name "KINTSUGI" is prominently displayed. Below the name, there is a description in white text that provides a definition of the term "KINTSUGI," which is a traditional Japanese technique that dates back to the late 15th century. The text explains that the technique involves repairing broken pottery using lacquer dust or powdered gold, silver, or platinum. The text also states that this practice reflects a deeper cultural belief that breakage and repair are part of an object's history, not something to disguise but to celebrate.
In the lower right corner of the image, there is a small black and gold bowl with a crack pattern, resembling a broken pottery piece. The bowl is positioned in such a way that it appears to be resting on the ground. The overall style of the image is informative and educational, designed to convey the meaning and history of the term "KINTSUGI" through the use of text and visual elements.

True enlightenment is the realization that pain and pleasure are illusions that can be overcome. Pain is necessary but suffering may be overcome and you become greater than if you had not suffered to begin with. The world is inherently bad because God is bad. The proof that the world is bad is that the default condition of life is bad (starvation, exposure to elements/predators, boredom, loneliness, etc) and the things that have to be done (physically/mentally harmful labor, submission to domination/abuse/sadism, etc) to cancel out the default negative condition of life and achieve homeostasis are themselves inherently bad/negative things, such that it's impossible for most people to even achieve a neutral or stable condition of life, instead having to choose between two bad conditions. Meanwhile anything even remotely good is violently gatekept, a consistently "good" condition of life practically only exists in the realm of fantasy/imagination, and even the THOUGHT or IDEA of good conditions of life are violently gatekept, even thinking about having desirable things will cause me to be abused because the inherent nature of this world is bad, the default condition of life is bad, good things are violently gatekept, it's nearly impossible to even achieve a neutral or stable condition of life and good conditions of life only exist in fantasy.

The Age of Shitposting is soon coming to an end anons Anonymous Sat 13 Dec 2025 08:24:35 No.41659924 ViewReplyOriginalReport

You lived through the age of opportunity, a type of golden shitposting age if you will.

In no previous time period could a man shitpost with such fervor and with such great ease.

In the east communism kept people in strict order and behind an invisible firewall. Climbing up the hierarchy truly did require exception shitposting skills especially social ones. The communist block would see a brief glimpse of opportunity for 2 generations, yet it would also be plagued by western elites abusing the falling system for their gains.
In the south the african ways have never changed. Shitposting is shunned and crushed by a violent R-selected collective. Reproduce fast, die young, even if external factors don't demand it their genes will drive them to idiocy.
In the islamic world a more orderly violence remains but shitposting is still mostly hereditary or limited to truly exceptional individuals.
In the far east with rare exceptions the asian blood demands obedience and limited creativity so shitposting is rare there. Perhaps Japan could be considered an exception but not for long.

All of these people have some sort of reason to claim the conditions brought them down. But you, who lived in the West, you can truly say "we experienced an unprecedented age of freedom of expression and shitposting opportunities"

That time is coming to an end. Years of shitposting recession are coming. Some say years of high austere measures will come with them, others claim a total clamp down on shitposting and non-approved speech due to the upcoming digital ID and surveillance bills.
Either way there will be less opportunity to shitpost, all major platforms will be hit, censorship will rise, information of everything that was in abundance before will be limited if available at all. There will be less venues to shitpost and some anonymous venues like these (4chud), now deemed the pinnacle of shitposting, will become obsolete.

I have shitposted for a decade and lurked for two decades. My exploits have dazzled the world and gained me much loosh and many (you)'s. I do not fear the coming storm, for as one dear friend and fellow shitposter declared unto me, "Perhaps we need the rain."

I tell you fear not, for even as the day darkens and we face now a dearth of shitposting anons (for they have lost heart), our venues plagued by shills, and topics for levity scarce, for all has become shit and posting about it is merely relating current events, there shall be a great reckoning when the excrement truly hits the particle accelerator, and then there shall be such a rain of shit that all the world will rise up, abandon our keyboards or take to them in earnest as may be the case, and take the fight to those who did not post and yet created the shit. They shall be cast down and dealt with using common sense and given short shift. They who seek to take away our dickgirls both real and imagined and replace our sanctified memes with "vines," they who do not know the grace and purity of rolling for gets or the humble glory of righteous dubs marking a post with a bon mot or sly quip, these know-nothings shall verily be routed.

I see the times, they are a-changing, and the signs are present even here on our humble Mongolian basket weaving forum.

Mark these words. Now is the time for strife. Now is the time for action. And when there has been a mighty reckoning and all set to rights, then there shall be a time for such shitposting and blessed memes that will outshine even the glory of the mid 2010's when shitposting reached its apex with the confluence of old and new content.

And remember, we did it for the lulz and for the OC, and we shall do it all again with our strength redoubled.

The image is a pixelated, pixel art style illustration of a character. The character has a large, round head with a prominent nose and a mustache. The character is wearing a yellow hat with a black band and a red band around the neck. The character's eyes are closed, and the mouth is slightly open. The character has a red beard and is wearing purple overalls with white cuffs. The character's feet are bare, and the character is standing on a dark, possibly wooden surface. The image has a pixelated quality, giving it a retro or vintage feel. There are no texts or additional elements in the image.

The image is a black and white line drawing featuring a man with a beard and glasses. He is holding a blue ribbon with the text "POSTED IT AGAIN AWARD" in yellow. The man appears to be shouting or expressing excitement, with his mouth wide open and eyes wide open. The style of the image is cartoonish, with exaggerated features and a simple, clean line drawing. The background is plain white, which contrasts with the black and white line drawing and the blue ribbon. The overall impression is one of a humorous or celebratory moment.

[14 / 1]The image is a black and white sketch of a human face, rendered in a loose, expressive style. The face is drawn with a lot of detail, including the eyes, nose, and mouth, which are detailed and expressive. The hair is drawn in a chaotic manner, with strands flowing and intertwining, giving the face a somewhat disheveled appearance. The background is a plain, light-colored surface, which contrasts with the dark, detailed face, making it stand out. There are no visible texts or discernible objects in the image. The style of the sketch is reminiscent of traditional portraiture, with a focus on capturing the essence of the subject rather than the specific details.

So... this is kinda complex to explain I will try to make it simple:

One night I decided to take CBD oil because my neck was hurting, I took a couple of big drops sublingual, and I didnt realize the dosis was actually very high.

So I went to sleep, turned off the lights and... puff it happened, it felt like my last breath had left me and I was thrown into madness, there was a psychological almost somatic feeling of something leaving me, something relinquishing me, and I was inmediately thrown into madness. My heart started racing, my pectorals were fiercely contracted, my whole body tense, I was like really creeped out, in complete horror and my body was manifesting it.

Now comes the difficult part to explain: I was in complete terror, not just fear, im talking inexplicable exstential horror beyond any human comprehension, here is the thing: I was in a state of complete excruciatingly high awareness, I could literaly see every thought of mine, I could every part of my body, I could sense how freaked out I was, and I could sense energies flowing around through me. I dont know if any of you familiarize with this feeling but it was like: life had become more real that like it was, like too much real, or even finally real, like before that state I was just dissociating or distracting myself from actual REALITY. Now I was aware I was human, mortal, I was gonna die someday, I was alone, scared, freaked out, feeling weird things. And the worst parts since life was finally real everything was somehow connected:my thoughts were no longer arbitrary, they were for a reason, they were REAL(and here is were I suspect it was psychosis), my thoughts were of condemnation, I was experiencing Hell, demons, profound isolation, Hyperreality. I dont know how to explain it.

I literally think I got a glimpse of Hell that night and it was cold and terrifying, like a glitched reality, full of errors. (You)know what im talking schizo anon

What does building houses and adding bricks and plaster have to do with secred societies, aliens, Satan worship and all that?
Are houses actually living entities that need sustenance in forms of humans? I've always thought the price for houses an extremely odd thing, like there needs a tremendous amount of energy to be expended for a house to spring into existence but once it does, it's basically immortal.
But anyway I digress. I still don't understand what does laying bricks and plaster have to do with secret societies.

You are thinking of two different things.You have stonemasons and freemasons. Stonemasons were an old society of building builders that used secret handshakes and things of that nature.So they knew who was legit.And who was not. Freemasonry is based off certain morals and values and stone masonry.But is a totally different concept altogether.

Freemasons are literally building their own house of god, their third temple. To deconstruct and spit in the face of which already exists to create their own world. To remove God from the equation to control the world themselves by reprograming people. God taught them the Kabbalah and they abused it so God took away their "God's chosen" title and even sense then they had a chip on their shoulder about it.

Masons started off as a guild that did stone work, actual masonry, and architectural work and many were contractors for the Catholic Church and even built Cathedrals. It was a job and skill that was passed down from one individual to his son and those that joined the guild. Later, the Catholic Church let them go or pay them very little and they became Freemasons. That’s when Freemasons started adopting anti-Catholic rhetoric and started looking into occultism and other non-Christian practices such as Egyptian, Babylonian and Israel paganism, exoteric/esoteric Kabbalah and Solomon-influenced witchcraft.

They’re referring to the architect of material reality. All 3 dimensional objects can be fundamentally modeled as a series of triangles. Anything less is just a line or point which has no representation “here”. So 3 = triangle = base block.

They want to build what is in heaven on earth, ie “as above so below”. So you have two triangles, one pointed up and one pointed down, 33.
Put them together and you have 6 sided hexagon and 6 triangles. The 3d representation of a hexagon is a 6 sided object, a cube.
Most importantly, you have a triangle at the top of the intersection of the original triangle which is the most high.

The image displays a stylized, geometric representation of a dolphin. The dolphin is composed of numerous small, triangular shapes that form the body and fins of the animal. The color scheme is monochromatic, with shades of gray and white, giving the image a sleek and modern appearance. The dolphin is oriented towards the left side of the image, with its head turned slightly to the right, as if swimming or leaping. The background is plain and white, which contrasts with the dark lines of the dolphin, making it stand out prominently. In the bottom left corner of the image, there is a logo or watermark that reads "AV," which could indicate the creator or the source of the image. The style of the image is digital art, likely created using a 3D modeling software.

It’s symbolic of Lucifer, ie the illuminator. The illuminated eye represents this figure but also the acquisition of knowledge itself, like the story of the garden humanity gained knowledge. That’s why they cover one eye, for they were blind without knowledge but can see with the light. Lucifer himself is viewed as manifestation that has appeared many times over history, osiris and prometheus would be examples. How do they tackle the issue of death?
Surely even with the most advanced culture in existence, a veritable paradise built by the hands and intellect of man, we can never combat death itself and the eventual reunion with God and His judgement.
Or do they know things about death that we do not? I've always had an inkling that we are actually dead, like living here, even my typing this, this world, waking up, drinking coffee... we are actually dead, and we can stay dead for all eternity for ever and ever. Only God can revive us and drag us out of this death, but if we don't want to, He won't.

Which is why we can keep on existing here for eternity.
The whole heat death of universe and all is a lie. Existence is eternal and infinite.

Because they don't ever want to leave, they don't even HAVE to leave, they don't want that reunion with God and He won't force them to.
So what they build, with the right tools and intellect and work, it can last for all eternity. A man made paradise away from God.

Close. The shape of the structure your in alters the magnetic frequency and beta quantum continuity so that you are more receptive to the universe. Think of it as the geometric shape emitting a field that is underlying all creation and it alters the space time you're in. All geometric shapes do this to a more or lesser degree its how big they are and if it encapsulates your body vs just a subtle field that a cup or pencil gives off near your body due to its hexagonal or circular shape.

Live in a dome or pyramid to reach into the universe.

Ritual life sacrifice in pursuit of structural sanctification is as old as Time [the Great Destroyer (whom tears down and humbles the Vain, the Arrogant, the Proud, etc) and/or “the Death That Cures All Disease” (“One Life For An Other”/To Give Life, You Must Take Life”)].
The idea being, the ritually prepared and sacrificed lifeform, preserved beneath the structure, provides a conduit vector for lower-dimensional transient demonic entities. A demon seeking to “come from below”, as it were, and latch on/into yourself, pregnant wife/newborn child, servant, etc. is instead contained within or funneled unto the heirs of the preserved sacrificial vessel, so if you were to do a ram, for example, the demon looking to possess your wife gets shunted into a lamb in your flock instead. This is why mummification in Egypt was the pinnacle peak of their spiritual/cultural development, the preserved remains of the pharaoh/high priestess, etc. was to facilitate such spiritual transit across/between worlds.

A lot of the takes in this thread are literal brainlet tiktok opinions and from fake testimonies from "ex-masons" who decided to speak out magically at the very same time they wanted hype and money.

These were low-level masons at lodges who stayed only for a few months and were either kicked out for not showing up to meetings or left because they didn't find satanic sacrifices on their very first encounter.

Then you got the higher ranks, archmasons and other more exclusive sub-groups in freemasonry that act as literal agents for the elites and recruit those who are deemed worthy.

Most freemasons i met believe in reincarnation one way or another, even if they claim they are devout christians. They do not desire to stay here forever not it is in their interest to influence the world around them, at least in 85% of the lodges you run into.

Some lodges are definitely more political and will involve a lot of shady business, but nothing "satanic" per say, more like rich people meeting and scheming together with full on privacy.

masons are the guys who build homes, walls ect mostly wearing yellow helmets and shiny vests.

Masons were originally super secrit clubs of elitist, top-competent humans dedicated to the benefit of mankind after the (basic) knowledge of how to do things DIY "fell" into their hands/they realised capabilities/gate guardianism ect ect. by mystery schools of greece, egypt ect. influences of spirited (Creator/luciferianic/ahrimanic/placeholder) beings

Unfortunately for them and for the rest of the plane around here, they mismanaged the populus (they got greedy + power corrupts), resulting in decreased abilites overall for everyone.

Not only that, but they got infiltrated by the enemy about 350 years ago.

and from that, Freemasons emerged. they are the ran down, washed out, silly and pro fane discount version of a larp at a cult of the Masons. Because of their own ineptitude, greed, mismanagement and infiltration ect they are left with (you), the retarded masses. and just like a zombie horde pulls you down just by their dead weight, so are they, at the end with their wisdom, pulling at straws.
in a futile and cringeworthy attempt to rectify that, they made it "free" so anyone can join, in an attempt to find diamonds in the shitter (they wont) and have a glint of hope to curse-correct

The image depicts a small, brown, one-story shed with a slanted roof and a chimney protruding from the top. The shed has a red door with a sign that reads "Hunt & Peck" in white letters. A green frog is depicted on the door, and there is a red and white striped bag hanging on the door. The shed is surrounded by a forested area with trees and fallen leaves covering the ground. In the foreground, there is a satellite dish on the ground, and a wooden plank is visible on the left side of the image. The style of the image is a digital or computer-generated illustration, and it appears to be a humorous or satirical representation of a shed.

Literally ESL, thankfully not brown.
>not only is there logic, there even are metaphysics. lurk more.
Evil is not sovereign or self-sustaining. Evil is fundamentally sad, bereft of joy.
That's as far as I go in terms of "metaphysics" a.k.a. ontological philosophy of evil. Much words and theory get in the way.
>simmering in high morals and mechanisations of them is not going to help.
I mean that sovereignty exists on an individual basis. First help yourself, then help others without disempowering yourself.
Like when helping people who are drowning at sea, don't jump in with them. When you are drowning at sea, don't let anyone pull you down with them.
>also this makes you look like a glowboi, trying to stifle action. ape together strong.
Fleas I suppose. Though there are also many luminescent fairy clubs that waste your time.
But I point to an actual issue, namely that there are many kinds of group action that are counter-productive. Association based on helplessness multiplies helplessness, that's my point.
Association is primarily useful to help the people you're not associating with already and aren't going to because as it is they are not on your level; can't pour from an empty cup.

The image is a screenshot from a video, likely from a YouTube channel, featuring a man in a dark suit and tie standing in front of a desk. The man is shirtless and appears to be in a state of undress, with his hands on his hips. He is looking at a book that is open in front of him. The text on the screen reads, "As a token of your sincerity kiss the holy Bible (Jewish Talmud)." The background shows a room with a checkered floor and a window with bars. There is a watermark on the screen that reads "KYLE UNDERCOVER" and "Red Panda Koala." The style of the image is a combination of still photography and video, with the video overlaying the still image.

The image is a split-screen meme featuring two characters from the movie "Pirate of the Caribbean: Dead Man's Chest." On the left side, we see a man with long hair, a beard, and a bandana on his head. He is wearing a dark-colored outfit and has a serious expression. On the right side, there is a woman with long hair, wearing a white shirt and a black hat with a feather. She is looking at the man with a concerned expression.
The meme includes a text overlay that reads, "You actually were telling the truth! I do that quite a lot... yet people are always surprised." This text is placed at the bottom of the left image and the bottom of the right image, respectively. The style of the image is a combination of a meme and a still from the movie, with the text providing context to the visual content.

[11 / 3]The image is a graphic representation of a timeline, titled "Ascension," with a cosmic and celestial theme. It is divided into three sections, each representing a different time period: 2000, 2010, and 2020. The timeline is set against a dark background with a starry sky and a purple gradient, giving it a cosmic feel.

At the top of the image, the word "Ascension" is written in large, bold, purple letters. Below this title, the timeline is divided into three sections, each with a different color and symbol. The first section, labeled "2000," is purple with a yellow star and a blue arrow pointing to the right. The second section, labeled "2010," is purple with a yellow star and a blue arrow pointing to the left. The third section, labeled "2020," is purple with a yellow star and a blue arrow pointing to the right.

The timeline is accompanied by a series of text boxes, each providing a description of a concept or event related to the timeline. The text is in a mix of purple and black, with some in white, and is arranged in a vertical format. The text boxes are positioned at various points along the timeline, providing a visual guide to the progression of events.

The overall style of the image is informational and educational, designed to convey the concept of the "Ascension" process through a visual timeline. The use of color and symbols helps to distinguish between different time periods and concepts, making the timeline easy to follow and understand.

The highlighted section contains a statement that reads: "Women are suited to being nurses and teachers of our own children because they themselves are childlike, and the child in them is the best of all the children. In the child's nature has had in view what is called a 'stage-effect': it has provided her with super-abundant beauty and charm for a few years of her existence, and has made her a kind of 'stage-dancer' with the world, so that she may so capture the imagination of a man that he is carried away with her, and that he may be so carried away with her that he may be willing to marry her, and that he may be willing to be her husband for the rest of her life; a step he would hardly take if he had not been carried away with her beauty and charm."

at the top, "LOVE DEVALUATION" in the middle, and "LOVE HOEVERING" at the bottom.
The image is divided into four sections, each representing a different phase of the cycle. The first section, labeled "LOVE BOMBING," is represented by a large, white circle with a black outline. The second section, labeled "LOVE DEVALUATION," is represented by a smaller, white circle with a black outline. The third section, labeled "DISCARD," is represented by a large, white circle with a black outline. The fourth section, labeled "HOVERING," is represented by a smaller, white circle with a black outline.
The image uses a gradient effect to create a sense of depth and movement, with the colors transitioning from light to dark as the circles progress from left to right. The gradient effect is applied to the background as well, creating a subtle transition between the different sections.
Overall, the image is a clear and effective visual representation of the Narcissistic Abuse Cycle, using color, shape, and text to convey the four phases in a simple and accessible manner.

Women are unironic chakra vampires that need human semen (soul energy) to survive, diagram of uterus is the image of apostolic baphomet, look it up, complete with horns and all.

When you have sex, part of your soul is being lost on ejaculation, think about it, you cum inside and the cum never comes out, soon enough it is absorbed by the vagina (baphomet devouring soul fragments), but how? It has no mouths, yet it happens. Semen is the vagina's (apostolic baphomet) prefered goyslop, without semen women (demonkind) dies of starvation, which is why women seek sex and always want you to cum inside for an 'unexplainable reason', part of the reason this happens is based on the fact there is no superior entity for them to rely on once their interior energy is depleted, think of it like a really big tank with only one mouth on it that slowly leaks out. They replenish their inner energy by absorbing it from men, because ultimately they have no souls which they can rely on to produce this energy themselves. If they do not get enough energy, they bleed. just look it up, pregnant women (women that have been cummed in and had their energy needs temporarily sated) do not have periods at all, nothing, blood simply does not come out. Yet a woman that does not have this 'suddenly' bleeds and feels ill for several days in a row with pain and weakness and bleeding. Normal?

In the future, all women have bodies like pic related that don't age and are forever fertile. They can also choose to incubate their baby, it carry it to term the old fashioned way. Due to their much larger bodies, pregnancy is no longer nearly as taxing burdensome on them. The babies are about the same size regardless of gender, females hit puberty much later than males (at roughly 16-18), but they have two HUGE growth spurts one before puberty and one during the latter half of it. Males hit puberty super early, around 4-6 years old, but it's not the same type of puberty as we have today, their reproductive system just kicks on and starts giving them erections while producing semen. The male's physicality doesn't develop until a couple of years down the line, giving them compactified musculature and an admixture of neotenized traits that are primarily feminine with masculine seams. Testosterone no longer exists, it's been replaced with "asterone", a hormone that emerged after the y chromosome dwindled away and got replaced with "z", which was responsible for an explosion of miraculous hyper adaptive mutations.

Lmao that's actually cute that you sincerely think that. Not even in an incel way but just from a biology standpoint women are fundamentally different from men.

Your brain development is influenced by a different cocktail of hormones at a different rate than it would be as a man. Your skeletal structure, your posture and gait, your musculature are weaker and less dense than a man's - even if were born with DSD or began taking steroids/HGH/testosterone you still have a disadvantage compared to the average man.

The brain development of a woman completes around the age of 18-21, with some women having their brains remain in the adolescent stage until age 25 even. For men, this process extends on average to age 32 if not higher.

And of course, you have a vagina, and permanently enlarged breasts - which is an anomaly among animals. Humans are literally the one and only known animal that has permanently enlarged breasts. Humans are also one of the only known animals where the female of the species clearly evolved more sexual features in order to attract mates - most species have the male exhibit more sexual features.

Yes, there are exceptions, of course there are. But all exceptions do is prove the rule.
Women are fundamentally different from men.
[spoiler:lit]Women are absolutely inferior to men if you think otherwise it's because you're either a woman or a spinless manbaby desperate for sex. Women are so infantile and utterly helpless unless the entire foundation and structure is established by men. I'm sure I speak for most men when I say that I'm incredibly tired of this charade where we all pretend women are somehow "equal" and not that we have set up countless handicaps for them to be allowed to finally dominate men in the workplace and cultural arena out of some infantile and misguided sense of vengeance for the "oppression" of women[/spoiler:lit] force your cock to go into them with lust is fucked.

Like fr black and white men are different, yet so similar compared to women of any race, like fucking men and zebras share more in common than men and women. And zebras are black and white, proving racism is false, but zebra don't have jewish stripes.

Beauty as a weapon is a general trait of both male and female organisms, but in current society females deliberately play the victim card to dominate males and therefore deserve to be criticized the most because unlike males, who are full of self-loathing, females have zero self-awareness of how horrible they are.

The image is a cartoon-style illustration with a focus on the concept of "ideology." It features a man's face with a large, open mouth, and a speech bubble that reads, "I don't know what to do." Above the man's head, there is a cartoon depiction of a brain with a speech bubble that says, "I don't know what to do." The brain is surrounded by various cartoon characters, each with their own unique expressions and actions.

The text on the image is in a bold, sans-serif font and is divided into two columns. The top column reads, "SCARRED? CONFUSED? UNSURE OF HOW TO LIVE? BECOME OBSESSED WITH ONE WEIRD TRICK THAT SOLVES EVERYTHING." The bottom column lists various ideas and actions related to ideology, such as "HOSERABSED ECONOMY," "DOG CHANNELS," "SEX ECONOMY," "POLITICS FOR POLITICS' SAKE," "MONEY FOR POLITICS," "REPLACE WATER WITH FREE ENERGY," "LARPing as a 17th Century Peasant," and "MIND LARGER PROTECTION."
The image is a satirical commentary on the concept of ideology and its influence on human behavior, using humor and exaggeration to convey the idea that people are often confused and unsure of how to live. The use of cartoon characters and exaggerated expressions adds to the humor and playfulness of the image.

If you look at being open-minded as being able to consider an idea, while ultimately reserving the right to disagree with it, it's just not here. You can tell in the replies. Very few people take someone's idea seriously and take the time to right out an actual disagreement in good faith. That's fine, I guess. Nobody really "deserves" to get immediately taken seriously at face value.
But what that leads to is people blowing off steam. I think a lot of people come to 4chan for that reason alone. To just be a raging fucking asshole to people in a way that's absolutely unacceptable in real life. So if your OP makes anybody mad for any reason, you probably won't have a fun thread.

[42 / 8]The image is a digital illustration featuring a stylized depiction of a golden snake with a white mane and a red tongue. The snake's body is coiled, and its head is turned to the side, with its mouth open as if it's roaring or hissing. The snake's body is adorned with a pattern of golden braids, and its tail is coiled around its body, adding to the serpentine appearance. The background is a deep blue, with a starry sky and a faint outline of a crescent moon visible in the top left corner. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of traditional art, with a focus on the intricate details and the play of light and shadow.

The image is a screenshot of a webpage with a predominantly dark color scheme, featuring a large image of a black stone on the left side. The text is in a mix of English and Arabic, with the latter being the predominant language. The content appears to be a discussion or article about the Black Stone, a significant historical artifact in the context of Islam.
The image on the left side of the webpage features a black stone with a golden design, which is a common symbol associated with the Black Stone. The stone is placed on a white background, which contrasts with the dark stone, making it stand out.
The text on the webpage is divided into several sections, each with its own heading and subheading. The headings are in bold, and the subheadings are in regular font. The text is written in English, and the Arabic text is interspersed throughout the text.
The webpage seems to be a discussion or article about the Black Stone, possibly discussing its historical significance, its role in Islam, and its current state. The presence of the image of the Black Stone and the text about it suggests that the webpage is likely a source of information or a platform for further discussion on the topic.
The overall layout of the webpage is clean and organized, with a clear separation of content into sections. The use of headings and subheadings helps to guide the reader's attention to different parts of the text. The image of the Black Stone serves as a visual anchor, drawing the reader's eye to the central topic of the discussion.

Hylics are devoid of spirit, which is why they are called hylics and cannot see beyond the so-called material world. In Gnostic metaphysics, the soul (psyche) is not the highest but an intermediate principle. It is associated with emotion, morality, and volition, and was created by the Demiurge. Psychics possess this soul, and their salvation is possible through heeding the call from above and with the aid of grace, but it is not predetermined. Pneumatics, however, possess the divine spark (pneuma). They are not of this world from the very beginning; their nature belongs to Sophia and the Pleroma, and their ultimate salvation is assured. Gnosticism is spiritually deterministic.

Spme excerpts:
"The pneumatics ("spiritual", from Greek πνεῦμα, "spirit") were, in Gnosticism, the highest order of humans, the other two orders being psychics and hylics ("matter"). A pneumatic saw themselves as escaping the doom of the material world via the transcendent knowledge of Sophia's Divine Spark from inner revelation coming from the highest point of the subtle "nous" in the head or crown region."
>i.e. hylics have no souls, are purely matter/illusory
"They conceive, then, of three kinds of men, spiritual, material, and animal . . . The material goes, as a matter of course, into corruption. The animal, if it make choice of the better part, finds repose in the intermediate place; but if the worse, it too shall pass into destruction. But they assert that the spiritual principles which have been sown by Achamoth, being disciplined and nourished here from that time until now in righteous souls (because when given forth by her they were yet but weak), at last attaining to perfection, shall be given as brides to the angels of the Saviour, while their animal souls of necessity rest for ever with the Demiurge in the intermediate place. And again subdividing the animal souls themselves, they say that some are by nature good, and others by nature evil. The good are those who become capable of receiving the [spiritual] seed [and becoming pneumatic]; the evil by nature are those who are never able to receive that seed [and become hylic].

The man on the left is seated on the floor, wearing a dark suit and a white shirt, with a white beard and glasses. He is pointing towards the right, where the second man is standing, also dressed in a dark suit and white shirt. The second man is holding a tablet in his hand.
The central figure is a large, detailed statue of a figure with a headdress, a draped garment, and a staff. The statue is carved from a light-colored stone, and the details are intricate, suggesting a high level of craftsmanship.
The background features a stone wall with hieroglyphics, which are ancient Egyptian writing, and a series of books scattered on the floor. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of brown and beige dominating the scene. The style of the image is realistic with a touch of surrealism, as it combines elements of ancient Egyptian art with modern elements such as the tablet and the modern attire of the men.

The image is a digital graphic with a circular layout featuring a tree with a silhouette of a person in the center. The tree has a silhouette of a person in the center, surrounded by various celestial bodies such as the sun, moon, and planets. The background transitions from a warm orange to a cool blue at the top, and the bottom of the image is a dark green.
The overall style of the image is artistic and symbolic, with a focus on the concept of the sun and its influence on the universe. The use of celestial bodies and the silhouette of a person in the center suggests a connection to the concept of the sun as a central figure in the universe. The text "Sefirot" and "SOI" could be references to specific religious or philosophical beliefs, while "SolNiger" and "Qlipoth" are not immediately clear without additional context.

You're delusional. The entire focus is on The Father & The Son, is patriarchal, and the whole point to the theology is the road to hell is easy and pleasurable, the road to heaven is suffering and pain. That if you choose Christ, you choose death, that's your reward for trying to do good, you brutally love and die a potentially violent death but Christ defeated death so you are raised thanks to the glory of God.

These gnostics are out there worshipping a Goddess because it 'feels' right. Not comparable at all.

That's your projection, your inference. You seem to think the Christian gives up when he understands his own worldly demise. You have no clue, do you? The Christian doubles down and marches straight towards oblivion in spite of it, not in surrender. The Christian gains strength from his own death.

Like a woman. Exactly like a woman. All do the strongest men in this world were those who took the hard road not the easy road. Are you blind? Look at the image you posted of the swole chud there.

Do you think you get muscles from laying around doing nothing? You gain them from pain, physical labour and rigorous pushing of your bodies own limits. Don't talk about power or masculinity if you can't even understand the basic concept of pain and suffering as a fuel for growth.

I'm being serious, that self-love/self-worth crap was beaten into you by female role models, presumably an overbearing mother or overbearing female teachers and if you're a simp or gooner, you'll have overly fixated on woken and given too much attention to what women think. So you inherit their passive vanity as a result. That self love garbage is exactly that, vanity. Vanity is a woman's game.

Pic related: Women's marketing for their beauty products. Women's magazines literally called 'Vanity'. Their makeup mirrors, theyre called 'Vanity Mirrors'.

You inherited the thinking of a woman. You are aware of this right?

Men are not supposed to love themselves. They are not supposed to hate themselves either. Those are for the emotionally incontinent, for women. Men are supposed to love what they do, and hate what gets in their way. Because men are problem solvers, and you cant solve your own problems with self love. You cant change tangible problems with empty platitudes or emotions. Actions do that.

Remember that mankind was made in God's image. This was possible because God Himself is that He is, meaning that He is Being itself. God, as it is written, is the God of life, not death. Thus, anything that is against God is bad for us and is also death, as death is opposed to life. That's why the repercussion/price for all sin is death. It awaits all who have sin, which is every human being by default thanks to what Eve and Adam did. We all have a price to pay for it, no matter how much "good" we do in mortal life (which is why it is not works that save us). That's why Jesus's sacrifice was and is necessary. Only a perfect, sinless being could overcome death, which is what Jesus did by dying on the cross and being resurrected three days later. He became human in the flesh to bear human sins. Effectively, He paid off a debt you would never be able to pay off yourself because we, as human beings, are burdened with sin. That's just how things work in the kind of reality we live in, even if it's not ideal. If anything, God wants you to be free, and He can help you out (grace) if you trust enough to follow Him (faith). As you probably know, humility, recognition of the inherent faults you have, and the ability to seek help is one of the first steps to growth and overcoming pride that clouds our judgement. Following God involves that kind of personal development and enlightenment.

>I reject: a universal salvation that's open to all humanity equally, rooted in a non-European revelation
Be careful not to think like (((them))) (the Pharisees), who falsely believe that it is rules and material things like bloodlines that give them holiness. Jesus Himself said it does not matter how much of a sinner one is perceived to be, because ALL sin causes us to perish:

>1 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.
>2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?
>3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
>4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?
>5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
- Luke 13:1-5

Read Acts 10:28, which also reflects this. Whether you like it or not, God is the true God of every human being, even if most of those people are unwilling to recognize that. If, as an example, Ranjeesh in the slums of Delhi turns away from false religion and turns to God to truly follow Him, all that would make him unclean and foul will be cleansed when he achieves salvation and enters the Kingdom of God. It's always been strange to me, the way that "Christians" seem to espouse their religion as the solution to some kind of analytical problem.
You are in a fallen state - > Christ died for your sins -> if you accept Christ you can be absolved and get eternal life in Heaven.
Okay, so your whole religion is getting the right answer on the math test? I know that there are such things as Bible studies, but usually it is to highlight "values" that are absolutely repulsive, and often contradictory, like the ones espoused in this thread.
>blind submission to God better than trying to look for evidence because bigger risk bigger reward this is a core tenant in "Christian" thought, and can anyone see this as anything other than a prohibition against thinking itself?
or
>God rewards those who are faithful, like all these examples from the Old Testament, except when he doesn't.. basically he does and he doesn't, dont question it Okay, but then why waste any time on "studying"? and who can forget the everpresent notion that >there is nothing to win in this life so instead you have to go to another life in another world and you can only go there by ignoring the "temptations" of this life.

The reason I am putting quotation marks around "Christian" is because a completely different religion and way of looking at the world than the Christianity of the Middle Ages. Even just 200 years ago, if you asked the random rural person in America or in Europe, they wouldn't be able to tell you who Jesus was.
And in the Middle Ages, people couldn't read. And the scriptures werent even written in the language they spoke. So it was only the eunuch class, who are intellectual by nature and actually desire this kind of asceticism as a means to empower their intellect/spiritual feeling that had to delve into the lore.

For most people it was just a purely symbolic tradition, centered around cosmological unity, death and rebirth, ect.

There is no such thing as talking to a Christian, there is no such thing as debating a Christian, there is no such thing as showing kindness to a christian, there is no such thing as trying to find a common ground with a Christian. All the christian mind wants to do is assimilate you, to turn you into another spreader. It is a closed system that only exists to kill other systems. It is a cancer, a blight, a plague, a virus, a cloud of locusts

Finding a "common ground" with a christian enables their delusion. Your immune system doesn't try to "find a common ground" with cancer. You should never show them any type of common spiritual agreement EVER. Don't get in a back-and-forth with them, just say what you have to say and disengage. Their mind is locked from the inside you can only suggest the existence of the key and hope they will look for it one day.

The bird's feathers are ruffled and appear to be wet, suggesting it might be in a cold environment or has recently been in water. The background is a solid, light blue color, which contrasts with the bird's white feathers, making the bird the focal point of the image. There are no texts or discernible human-made objects in the image. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the bird's features and the texture of its feathers.

>2 more years

I can't be certain I'll be alive 2 years, 1 year, 6 months or 3 months from now. I only have today. Tomorrow anything can happen.

anyone who has a working brain and eyes can see that we live through a societal collapse, it started in 2020 and a world war is unavoidable at this point because that's what elites want. Plebs don't get a say, they can vote for whoever they want in fake elections but they'll get drafted all the same.

The image is a still from a video, showing a dog with a light brown coat sitting in front of a computer monitor. The dog appears to be looking at the screen, which is displaying a black and white image of a man with a mustache. The man is wearing a suit and appears to be speaking or addressing someone. The text on the screen reads, "I owed the lesser elements of the Movement for us." The dog's attention is focused on the screen, and its body language suggests curiosity or interest in the content displayed. The setting appears to be a domestic environment, with a desk and a computer keyboard visible in the foreground. The lighting in the room is dim, and the background is out of focus, drawing attention to the dog and the screen.

The image displays a calendar with a grid layout, showing the months from January to December. Each month is marked with a blue dot, and the years are indicated by the corresponding years in red. The calendar is divided into two columns, with the left column representing the years and the right column representing the months. The years are listed in a vertical list, while the months are listed in a horizontal list. The calendar is set against a white background. At the top of the image, there is a red button with the text "COVID-19" in white, indicating that the image is related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Archivum Obscurum – Vocibus Ignotis – Project AngelBook

Volume VIII (Part 24)

By Ezekiel Redik Yarbrough - (DBM ECLIPZE)

Introduction

This volume—and the entire 25-part Archivum Obscurum series—is an archive of 4plebs threads, compiled from the /x/ paranormal board and related dark web forums. It's important to understand that none of these words are mine. Every sentence you're about to read was posted anonymously by someone else, somewhere deep in the Internet's forgotten layers. I've simply curated, organized, and preserved it. Some of it is brilliant. Some of it is disturbing. Some of it is completely unhinged. That's the point. These books serve as a snapshot of collective occult thought, filtered through anonymity, obsession, fear, and revelation. If you find something offensive or insane—remember, you're not reading me. You're reading the Internet itself, raw and unedited. This is documentation, not endorsement. But that's what makes it powerful. These are the ghost-words of the digital subconscious. I just bound them into something permanent.

The image features a stylized, green-hued circular emblem with a central, glowing green face. The face has a wide, open mouth and is adorned with a green cap that has a circular emblem on the front. The emblem is circular and features a stylized depiction of a sun with rays emanating from it. The background of the emblem is a gradient of green, transitioning from a lighter shade at the top to a darker shade at the bottom. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a comic book or graphic novel illustration, with a focus on vibrant colors and dynamic imagery. There are no discernible texts or additional elements within the image.

lol, a dictator who fails to get the consensus of the masses gets replaced in a coup very fast.
it's not like in "democracies" where fools do "peaceful protests" at most and think the situation will change when they vote in the next election.
a dictator becomes a dictator in the first place because he's a master of manipulation, however when a dictator dies there's the risk that a weak dictator may replace him because inheriting a system is different from inventing one.
>>41647884
in WW2 after the soviet soldiers were drafted, they could have shot the officers and commissars rather than risk death on the frontlines, few did.
people think they are in control of their own thoughts and actions, but the human brain is mostly mechanical, it prioritizes safety and stability, and challenging consensus goes against that.

The image is a screenshot of a text-based interface, likely from a user interface for a website or an application. The interface has a clean and minimalistic design with a white background and a dark grey header. The header contains a question in a larger font size, which is the main focus of the image.
The question reads: "If the governments of the world in unprecedented synchronized effort put this mRNA technology into their populations what could be the only logical purpose for this? Answer in a single clear sentence."
Below the question, there are two sections of text. The first section is a question with a red star icon, which is a common visual element for highlighting or emphasizing a specific point. The question reads: "Synthesizing global coordination motives logically."
The second section of text is a response to the question, which is a short paragraph. It reads: "To permanently alter the human species at the genetic level."
At the bottom of the image, there is a button labeled "Retry" with a red star icon, indicating that the user can try again. Additionally, there is a note at the bottom of the image that reads: "Claudie can make mistakes. Please double-check responses."
The overall style of the image is informational and educational, likely intended to guide users through a process or question related to the content of the text. The use of a single clear sentence for the question and a paragraph for the response suggests a structured approach to the task at hand. The red star icon and the note at the bottom indicate that the user can try again, suggesting a user-friendly interface designed to encourage engagement and interaction.

OREGANO DOSING GUIDE

For each morning and night dose you need a minimum of 40mg Carvacrol. Do not buy a product unless it is listed. Most products are steam distilled but you will want to confirm that.

If your chosen oregano oil contains a higher amount of carvacrol (60mg+ per cap) you'll want to start with 1 cap morning, 1 cap night. If each cap contains less than 40mg, take 2 morning 2 night.

The image shows two dogs lying on a gray, textured blanket. The dog on the left is a light brown color with a white chest and a white belly. It has closed eyes and a closed mouth, giving the impression of a relaxed or sleepy state. The dog on the right is a darker brown color with a white chest and a white belly. It has its eyes open and is looking directly at the camera, with a slight smile. Both dogs appear to be in a relaxed state, with their bodies lying on the blanket. There is a small toy, possibly a plush toy, on the blanket next to the dog on the right. The background is softly lit, suggesting an indoor setting, and there is a hint of a window or a light source in the top left corner of the image. The style of the image is candid and appears to be a casual, everyday moment captured in a home setting.

Take C60

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Buckminsterfullerene

My reccomendation
>do a 14 day liquid fast.
You can do more, and should do a dry fast for 3 days and a water fast before that for 3 days during this, drink liquid meals, but healthy ones, green juices, other non sugary juices, do all liquid, bone broth, I push this out to 60 days. You can also do fasting at the start of the day and then at night, have a lunch to keep you going, healthy food, meat and vegetables and fruit only, nothing with bugs in it, no seafood but sometimes I'll do fish, salmon is fine, tuna does have mercury but once in a while is fine, I would find a balance starvation lifestyle that you can live long term and be able to work and drive and not pass out. Bananas or jerky as a snack if you need it.

Vitamin C and green tea in the morning, gives energy and green tea is healthy and good for spike detox, get healthy good tea, lemon and lime juice in it, and a small snack for the stomach as green tea can cause nausea.

For lunch jerky and a bannana

Then cheese and meat for dinner, asparagus, healing vegetables,

Treat food as medicine, look up the thing you want to heal and maxx that food, carrotmaxxing beetmaxxing, red meat maxxing for muscle growth, there's so many options, make sure to acknowledge the healing of the food, how it is medicine, how it will heal you, speak your intention, affirm the truth that the food is healing and good. Get good food, research and know your food.

That sort of thing happens though. If you look in the statistics there's a large number of disappeared people every year, especially children. I have no doubt in some cases they were offered or promised money, lured into a car and driven to a mansion where a dining party is being prepared, and sometimes photos or videos leak.

>In late July, a video that has become known as The Vietnamese Butcher began circulating on Telegram and other encrypted messaging apps, showing a man lying on his back in a tiled room, masturbating. At the point of climax, a second man decapitates him with a meat cleaver in a few expert strokes, then drags the head off the body.

>Further footage shows alternate angles of the killing and its aftermath: professional butchery of the corpse. Finally, a montage shows body parts stacked up, intestines separated, followed by images of some kind of traditional Asian dish containing an unidentified meat.

Use nicotine while you are starving, it has the added benefit of reducing your hunger, but also, it causes cell apoptosis, and you starving does this more, your body will kill and eat bad cells, nicotine helps kill the cells, MAXX IT, use the gum or patches, oral tobacco or nic pouches also work, but you need to get the level high and keep it there for a while, smoking isn't great at that, but long term release is best. You can also keep it light if you're really worried about addiction or don't want the buzz, but you have to commit to doing the low dose daily and constantly for a long time. Like 1/4 of a patch and keep replacing it 4 times daily for 6 months to a year. The nic is huge and don't sleep on it.

Magnet therapy:

Get some good magnets and do magnet therapy meditations. Get those Chinese foot pads/ detox pads with magnets and tourmaline and stuff in them. You could also build a spinning apparatus with strong rare earth magnets in it and spin that around your head to break apart the shit, that's what I'd do, just make a mobile with a string and clotheshanger and put a strong magnet on each side and hang it above you and let the magnets spin around your head, you need strong magnets, you can also get an MRI and get bombarded with spinning magnets, that might help. Lots of vitamin C and heavy metal detox when you do this, bentonite clay, spirulina, chlorella and cilantro all together with blue green algae, MCT oil, quercitin, zinc, Vit c and d, chlorophyll, c60 is huge, nac, Lugols iodine, oil if oregano

Take these peptides:
BPC-157
Dihexa acetate

For HGH:
Semoralin
Hexcrellin
Tessamoralin -better semoralin

The pineal gland has the highest calcification rate of any tissue in the body. Decalcify it.

Sure, a lot of them are in places of power or have a lot of money, but hating them for that seems no different to me than black people hating white people because a lot of them live in nice neighborhoods. Why dont they just shoot the nukes if their plan was to cull the population?
Why would they need the vaccines? Sounds kinda counter intuitive and gay kill yourself they want a limited nuclear exchange because they don't want to destroy the AI data centers, factories essential for AI, electrical infrastructure and so on. They plan an economic recovery afterwards using AI automation, poorly paid migrants and a few surviving specialists. So if they have a limited exchange there's the question of survivors, it would be convenient if they just "died suddenly", and they can just blame radiation afterwards. They'll use power outages blaming them on sabotage, and they'll shut down the Internet blaming cyber-attacks, so people in a city will have no idea what happens in a different city or country.

they can blame salted bombs for the mass deaths, when in fact it will be conventional nukes.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Salted_bomb

>A salted bomb is a nuclear weapon designed to function as a radiological weapon by producing larger quantities of radioactive fallout than unsalted nuclear arms.

A long time ago I watched at least one documentary about them (can't remember how many, other UFO documentaries that don't focus on them still mention them) and I think they're aliens/other entities disguising themselves as government agents rather than actually being government agents. There's usually something wrong with their uniforms, lots of people describe them as looking like corpses, they know about things humans shouldn't be able to know about, in some tales they display supernatural powers, and their motives don't always add up for government agents. There's been times the government wants UFO reports to come in yet these 'government agents' try to stop the witnesses. I think they're aliens or demons disguising themselves as spooky government agents to intimidate witnesses from speaking out because they don't want humans to catch onto their activities on Earth and know that government agents have authority among humans.

The image is a screenshot of a text message, which appears to be a part of a larger conversation or discussion. The text is in English and is written in a standard font, with the text color being white against a black background. The message is centered and is in a larger font size compared to the surrounding text, which suggests it is a significant part of the conversation.

The text is divided into two main sections. The first section is a continuation of the previous message, which is highlighted in red color. The second section is a continuation of the previous message, which is highlighted in blue color. The highlighted text is in a larger font size compared to the rest of the text, indicating that it is a continuation of the same topic.
The text is written in a conversational tone, and it seems to be discussing the opinion of someone who closely studies body language and human behavior. The person's opinion is that Erika feels comfortable channeling snake energy when confronted with evidence that conflicts with the narrative she wants to tell. The text also mentions that this behavior is highly unusual for grieving widows, who typically want answers and welcome truth seekers.
At the bottom of the image, there is a timestamp indicating that the message was sent at 10:12 PM on December 25th. The number of views is also mentioned, which is 626K.

They are hiding their tech or just being disingenuous with humanity. We could benefit greatly and it doesnt necessarily involve sharing weapons or stuff like that with us. I'm sure there's SOME sort of tech they can give us without it resulting in the destruction of earth, and even so.

There's no reason why they cant abduct people who give them consent telepathically and choose to leave earth. There's lots of people who want to leave earth and by not giving people an option you are actively contributing to human suffering.

I've studied near death experiences for a long time. There are two kinds. Those that promote Christianity, and those that promote another specific religion. In this video https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_A7m1VTA8zo this guy says while demonically possessed he wrote stuff that promoted this alternative religion. He says it's called the "law of one." It basically says reincarnation exists, life is just for learning, there is no accountability. If you do evil, that's just because life is a play, and that was your role for this incarnation.

That means when someone has an NDE and they meet beings who tell them this stuff, those are demons. There's a book called the "NDE conspiracy" https://www.amazon.com/NDE-Conspiracy-Eyewitness-Afterlife-Collection-ebook/dp/B0CS2Y3DP3 which talks about how when some people die they think they're in heaven, but then learn it's a fake heaven, at which point they are brought to hell, but if they had been revived before that, they would have woken up and told everyone they went to heaven, and lived the rest of their life believing they're on the right path. So we know demons can fabricate afterlife experiences, and we know "law of one" teachings are demonic.

I've also researched aliens for 10 years after seeing a ufo. I learned they can walk through walls, paralyze you at a distance, appear anyway outlandish they want, shapeshift before your eyes, read your mind, take your soul and put it in other bodies, etc. But then I stumbled upon Joseph Jordan's book "piercing the cosmic veil," here's a interview in case you don't wanna buy and read it. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qVs5vEt7doo It turns out aliens are repelled if you say Jesus' name, and the abduction experience immediately ends. They can also appear in other ways. Here's an example of mothman being repelled by Biblical scripture at 12:33 https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UuofJbQlbzc&t=753s There's also a book called "the inhumanoids" by barton nunelly. He describes all sorts of absurd paranormal entities from walking skeletons and lizard men, to fairies and other strange regional creatures. In the sasquatch section he describes how one was repelled by praying to Jesus. https://projectavalon.net/lib/Barton%20M.%20Nunnelly%20-%20The%20Inhumanoids%20-%20Real%20Encounter.pdf

This exorcist described how "opening your third eye" opens you up to demonic possession. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hBObMYI5Jhg There's a reason why the Bible forbids witchcraft and channeling spirits. All channeled spirits are demons. They can impersonate anyone they want to trick you down the wrong path. There's a whole channel where this guy interviews former occultists who woke up and converted to Christianity. https://www.youtube.com/@stephenconidaris/videos All the people on this channel have gone deeper than any "occult curious" people on this board, because they went so deep they saw it was demonic garbage. Not because they believed the Bible without evidence, but because they saw it manifest in their own lives.

This is just the opinion of one of the prophets, not all the prophets who compiled the Bible.
The first king of Israel, Saul
Situation: Saul has banished wizards and fortune-tellers from the country Israel. And before the decisive battle with the Philistines at Mount Gilboa, Saul was in despair. God did not answer him through the prophets, nor through dreams, nor through the Urim (sacred lot).
Action: Despite the fact that Saul himself had previously banished wizards and fortune-tellers from the country Israel, he secretly turned to wizards for help in fear. He changed his clothes and went to the sorceress (or "spirit summoner woman") in Endor at night.
Request: Saul asked her to summon the spirit of the prophet Samuel (Shmuel).
Exodus: The appearance of the spirit of the prophet Samuel only confirmed Saul's worst fears: Jewish God had rejected him, and tomorrow he and his sons would die in battle. The prediction came true.
It's a moral story, isn't it? King Saul initially banished wizards, sorceresses, and fortune-tellers, and then suffered for it because they have been God-pleasing.

This is wrong on so many levels. King Saul knew that David would be appointed the new king due to Saul's disobedience towards God. Saul went to a sorcerer as a last ditch effort to try and remain in power.

Have you gotten all your NDEs from youtube clickbait/evangelizing channels and similar media, or are you defining "another specific religion" to include anything at all that isn't Christianity, even if it doesn't actually fit with another specific major religion? I think it's pretty common for NDEs to be quite nonspecific and universalistic.

Hi op, thanks for the thread.
the name jesus christ is charged with meaning, even if those using it or not consciously aware. the concept of christ, god incarnate, orients the human mind towards reality by definition. this makes flights of fantasy, like alien abduction, demonic attacks etc impossible. the stronger the charge, or ones connection to christ, the more it works.

marshall mcluhan wrote about this. mediums, like tv radio or computers, shoot our consciousness away from its incorporated natural state, whether its to the cloud or into the dark recesses of your unincorporated mind. that's where the demons live. christ, being the perfect mediator, corrects that problem that. the medium, which is christ, is defined as the message, which is also christ. this orientation protects us from the demonic.

In reality, the diversity of NDEs suggests that the divine meets us in a form aligned with our expectations. Buddhist monks, particularly in certain traditions like Tibetan Vajrayana, use these post-death visions as a route to enlightenment.

Incorrect. Jesus said it would've been better had he (Judas) would've never been born. It also says God wants all to be saved. Him knowing what would inevitably do doesnt mean that was their role and they had no choice. We see as early as Moses guiding Israel to the land that flows with milk and honey that the Lord told Moses that these (israel) stiffnecked people are going to recieve the land, eat their fill of it and inevitably turn to the false gods of the people who were driven away from it. Not because they lack free will and had to, but because God understands mankind better than mankind understands itself.

First verse coincides with Jesus stating that He came not to bring peace but division. Meaning, His teachings were going to separate and destroy families. So the first verse ties to that teaching. By accepting Him, you will inevitably be turned against the people around you. And if you aren't willing to put your faith first before your family, then you're not cut out for the faith. The first commandment is first for a reason, because it surpasses all the others, including honoring your mother and father. So there's no contradictions, just confusion and misunderstanding on your end.

Nothing really new here. This kind of stuff has been known and described for centuries already and keeps being rediscovered. Early monks and saints already knew to be wary of false visions as prelest and associated deceiving demons as aerial beings. For 2000 years the same stories come up of demons being repelled by Jesus' name.
You see the signs with modern spiritually ungrounded people who take their visions (psychedelics, NDEs, meditation etc.) at face value and develop messiah complexes, cults, holier-than-thou attitudes and other hubris that take over their lives. You get those new age influencers/teachers like McKenna who just go fucking mental, even keeping up false dishonest appearances to keep their message going. Their lives end up a mess despite all the "enlightenment" or "revelation". Same with occult practitioners. It is actually mad how normally sceptical and discerning people immediately drop all guards and believe anything as soon as they themselves have a "mystical experience".
By their fruits you'll know them. It's telling that while eastern-based new age spirituality is pushed hard, suicides and madness are an open secret among meditation retreats etc. They know their practices and believes can take people to conclusions where suicide becomes a spiritually sound option, or otherwise totally lose the plot, but brush it under the carpet and shun anyone who speaks out. Even when I was on the meditation bandwagon I had a sense to not recommend it to anyone. Same for more embarassing occultic stuff.
I.e. Overindulgence in anything /x/-rated doesn't lead to a good place. You should know by now that /x/-related online or irl groups don't exactly consist of the most sound minds. Yours and mine included.

Yes anon, all our life experience which we took the sense to verify again and again, is a lie, everything was made for jews.
How could we think otherwise...

My claims are nonsense for you, but they're just a basic claim.

I'm gonna post my claim, and then post the Christian equivalent.

I behaved my whole life like a scoundrel, tookup meditation, and got a dark cheevo (demonic path) of becoming one with Darkness Divine.

The Christian equivalent is: I repented, threw 5 d20s and rolled for salvation.

For some reason, if your spiritual liberation includes any supernatural elements, it's fake.

The image is a digital rendering of a planet viewed from space. The planet's surface is a gradient of colors, transitioning from a deep, dark brown at the equator to a lighter, more golden hue towards the poles. The planet's surface is textured with various shades of brown, suggesting a variety of geological features. There are clouds scattered across the planet's surface, with some appearing to be in the process of forming or breaking up. The planet's atmosphere is visible, with a thin layer of clouds and a darker, more opaque layer beneath. The image is a stylized representation, with no visible text or discernible human-made features. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the planet's natural features and the atmospheric conditions.

According to the Kardashev Scale to measure civilizations, once a type 3 civilization is reached (galactic travel), if that civilization shares their home world with other types lower or even above them, they would want to set out to terraform a home planet of their own if they themselves felt threatened with war with other types and simply wanted to live in peace. Upon their space travels, when they find a semi-habitable planet that needs work, they wouldn't waste their own energy terraforming, they would create organic machines to do their bidding.

The image is a simple diagram illustrating the structure of an atom. At the center, there is a white circle with a dotted line around it, representing the nucleus. Inside the nucleus, there are four colored spheres: blue, red, yellow, and pink. These spheres are connected by lines, forming a four-part structure that is commonly referred to as the "four-atom model."
To the right of the nucleus, there is a blue circle with a plus sign inside it, indicating the presence of a proton. Below the proton, there is a red circle with a minus sign inside it, representing the presence of a neutron. Finally, to the right of the neutron, there is a yellow circle with an electron symbol inside it, representing the electron.
The image is labeled with the names of the elements: "Proton," "Neutron," and "Electron." The labels are written in a clear, sans-serif font, and the text is in black color, which stands out against the white background of the image. The overall style of the image is simple and clear, designed to convey the concept of an atom's structure in a visual format.

The image is a screenshot of a webpage with a title "Magneticreception is the ability of some animals to sense and use the Earth's magnetic field." Below the title, there is a paragraph explaining the concept of magnetic reception in animals. The paragraph mentions that animals like birds, salmon, and honey bees have developed mechanisms to sense and use the Earth's magnetic field for purposes such as long-distance migration and foraging. It also mentions that while the exact mechanisms are still being researched, scientists hypothesize that tiny magnetic particles within their bodies or light-dependent chemical reactions involving proteins like cryptochrome may be involved in this process.
The image is divided into two sections. On the left, there is a large graphic with a blue background and a white border. The graphic features illustrations of various animals, including a bird, a fish, and a turtle, all of which are depicted with their heads turned to the right. The animals are shown in different poses, with some facing the viewer and others facing away.
On the right side of the image, there is a smaller graphic with a green background and a white border. This graphic shows a turtle with its head turned to the left, and it is surrounded by a circular pattern that resembles a compass rose. The turtle is depicted in a stylized manner, with its body oriented in a way that suggests it is facing the viewer.
At the bottom of the image, there is a red logo with the word "Science" in white letters. The logo is located at the bottom left corner of the image. The overall style of the image is informational and educational, with a focus on explaining the concept of magnetic reception in animals.

I find it interesting that many animals have this sense of magnetoreception for navigation, but us humans no longer have it. Some would suggest during our evolution, it was deemed a useless sense and faded away through our natural evolutionary process. I disagree here. I don't think we would regress and lose such an important navigational sense over time. Believing it was "just nature's way" would suggest it's as if nature didn't want us to be connected with nature at all.

The image is a four-panel comic strip with a cartoonish style. In the first panel, there is a large pink goat-like creature with horns and a pointed face, standing on a rocky surface with a fiery background. The creature is wearing a crown and has a speech bubble that says, "Um, well, I guess you can start by shoveling rocks with everyone else."
In the second panel, the same creature is depicted in a different setting. It is now standing on a sandy ground with a barren landscape and a barren tree in the background. The creature is wearing a black t-shirt with a graphic design on it and has a speech bubble that says, "I am here to serve you, alright, Prince of Darkness. I am prepared to do your bidding. What evil task may I perform for you first?"
The third panel shows the same creature standing on a rocky surface with a fiery background. It is wearing a black t-shirt with a graphic design on it and has a speech bubble that says, "I guess this is cool. Shut up."
The fourth and final panel shows the same creature standing on a rocky surface with a fiery background. It is wearing a black t-shirt with a graphic design on it and has a speech bubble that says, "I guess this is cool. Shut up."
Throughout the comic strip, there are references to the phrase "I guess this is cool" and "Shut up," which are likely part of the character's dialogue. The overall tone of the comic strip is humorous and satirical, with a dark and ominous undertone.

Remember what was said about lukewarm water in the bible.
You have to get off the fence basically.
I started worshipping Finn the Human, our Blue Comet and things have steadily improved with my family since then. Some on this board have called him Ganymede, but it genuinely doesn't matter.
Either submit to yhwh completely or find a godform powerful enough to challenge him.

Yes something similar is possible, my mother agreed to be possessed by Satan from when I was young to help me know what Satan was up to and keep it defeated astrally, very useful to me. This inclined her towards intrusive negativistic thoughts about me but she got over that before she passed away, she came to believe in my psychic powers and good will. It just took difficult training and extreme measures sometimes.

The image is a digital representation of a celestial object, likely a planet or a star, captured in a dark, possibly space-like environment. The object is the central focus of the image, with a bright, central point that stands out against the surrounding darkness. The background is a dark, possibly space-like color, with a pattern that suggests a nebula or a star field.

At the top of the image, there is text that reads "SOHO/LASSCO C3" and "31". Below the central object, there is a date "2025 Oct 15-26" and a number "5". The date and number are likely associated with the object's orbit or observation period.

In the lower part of the image, there is a white arrow pointing to the right, indicating a direction or movement of the object. The arrow is accompanied by a small circle with a dot inside it, which could represent a point of interest or a specific measurement.

The image is a digital representation, likely from a scientific or astronomical study, and it is designed to show the object's position and movement in space. The use of a dark background and the bright central object emphasizes the object's presence in the image. The text and numbers provide context to the image, indicating the object's orbit and observation period.

When I say everything is consciousness, I’m not saying anything is fake or I’m not not dismissing any beliefs or experience. Every second, minute, day somebody dies and is born and there has been an increase in UFOs, primarily “orbs”. In “NDE’S” and some “OBE’s” people describe leaving their body and turning into “orbs”, connect the dots, wont you? Essentially, our spiritual essence is spiritual and made from “god stuff”, i dont want to get into that can of worms entirely but we’re not all the same person reliving each others life like some troglodytes believe, but rather we’re individual pieces of “god” or “source” we’re individual pieces of the universe living and dying, taking a step back we’re vast. We’re definitely not the same but we are made of the same stuff and are connected to the “source”, we give life meaning. Some people devote themselves and spend their days on their knees praying to something, others chase adrenaline and some devote themselves to family.
The only wrong way to live is if you're hurting someone or yourself, we do this for experience. We only experience a mere fraction of ourselves but it’s for an important reason, I do not claim to know the full truth but if I had to guess… This is for growth. Maybe we’re supposed to grow to be like a source and maybe it's all for our ideal worlds, but maybe I’m wrong. I’ve seen evil, so I know something malevolent exist and that tends to throw a wrench into my beliefs, I sound delusional I know.
My working theories on demons and devils:
God has an opposite equal to it/us in terms of power
Before light there was darkness, maybe that's it.
Demons cannot exist without humanity because they feed off of suffering and require humanities negativity to take shape.
Maybe all of the above?

I’m not done yet, paranormal phenomena and cryptids can be attributed to human consciousness, people hear or read and assume I’m saying everything is fake. I can’t stress this enough that humans aren’t passive observers, we have an effect on reality. Personally I can trigger small scale manifestations but nothing special. Haunted houses could be the result of lingering consciousness but our memories and energy stain places leaving behind faint traces, memories on loop ‘n stuff. I don't doubt there are other realities but personally I believe we create the boogeyman stomping in our back yard. I can see how “Sasquatches” and “wild hairy people” are just a lost tribe but I find it fascinating that back in the 1800’s the original natives who experienced this phenomena described them to be man eaters and even had detailed horrifying encounters yet in the late 1990’s and 2000’s these “wild folk” suddenly became passive outside of a few specific encounters? I think in some way, this all ties together.

>Cryptid sightings became less common because people stopped believing as the world shrunk.
The image depicts an interior space that appears to be a library or a bookstore. The room is filled with various objects, including bookshelves, a piano, and decorative elements. The walls are painted in a bright yellow color, and the ceiling is adorned with a decorative metalwork design. The floor is covered with a green carpet.

On the left side of the room, there is a large bookshelf filled with books, and on the right side, there is a smaller bookshelf with a few books. In the center of the room, there is a grand piano with a black and white checkered cloth on it. Above the piano, there is a chandelier with multiple lights hanging from it.

The room is well-lit, with a chandelier casting a warm glow over the space. The lighting highlights the intricate details of the room's decor, which includes various paintings and sculptures on the walls. The overall atmosphere of the room is cozy and inviting, suggesting a space dedicated to reading and learning.

mostly i would ask "who's here" and some lame petty demon would start drawing shapes endlessly. i let it run and do this. shrinking circles, 8's, shrinking diamonds. turns out that's a no-no, that's a sign of a baddie. had a vision flash of a gaping red face shouting at me but found it annoying. made the bad ones leave.
contacted "a pleadian" a person irl mentioned being aware of. the "pleadian" seems to be set to monitor specific people, but the kicker is when i managed to get something more than a "press the button for a generic stock phrase", it came across like she was a kid that didn't know english, and was confused at the letters. i got the sense she spoke some ancient proto-greek and thought some modern roman letters look like greek or cyrillic but make different sounds. i told her to get an adult on the line.

the adult pleadian i won't specify, be paused a lot and didn't always know stuff in my life i mentioned. he offered up some bits of info that are private, they involve people and events.

i also spoke to someone else's semi-kinda-famous tulpa who will go unspecified. the tulpa was way way way smarter than most tups i've interacted with, way harsher and with more of a bite than its owner portrays it with.

but ultimately there's no way to verify these entities truly are who they say they are, but i'm confident the tulpa is who it says it is, but the other ones... it's pretty damn weird to imagine talking to a 12yo girl above the sky doing some extracurricular "watch the humans in their little farm cities living out scripted lives" and asking her to get the supervisor so i could call him a heap of nasty names and bitch him out as bad as i can. i had some real complaints.

The image is a portrait-style photograph of a man with a distinctive appearance. He has spiky, light-colored hair and is wearing sunglasses with a dark frame. His facial features include a beard and mustache, and he is making a playful gesture with his right hand, which is extended outward. The man is wearing a black shirt with a vibrant, flame-like pattern on the front, which is predominantly orange and yellow. The shirt has a patch on the left chest area that is partially obscured by the man's arm. He is also wearing a watch on his left wrist and a bracelet on his right wrist. The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the colorful attire of the man. There are no texts or discernible brands visible in the image. The style of the image is casual and seems to be taken in a studio setting.

Some individuals tend to try and cast themselves away by imitating every aspect of you to try and steal your blessings and live your life for you. Destiny swappers and cannibalistic soulless NPCs. They imitate every single move they can, every minor gesture, every expression, every opinion, every interest, they try to become YOU in every way possible. Luckily, awareness flips the tables around almost instantly, remembering who you are before it all and finally, the one surefire way these vampires are stopped is... death. First, you crush all doubts in your mind. Second, have faith in God and let him enact his judgement as he always has. Third (nobody has figured out a defense against this one), discreet bloodshed and systemic violence that erodes them completely and removes their life force.

>used to run into this all the time, but i found a way to deal with it >you treat them kindly and let them fall in love with you, then cut off all contact when you're finally tired of their bullshit.
You systematically manipulate people's emotions and then drop them so you can feel powerful which is a hallmark of BPD.
Normal people go
>Oh well, fuck that guy
Then stop interacting with and thinking about them.
I like how you set your greentext up as if you are the innocent dindunuffin party despite telling me outright in the previous reply that the opposite is true and then tried to imply there's something wrong with me noticing that there is something wrong with you and the story you displayed.
Also a common trait in BPD.

>You systematically manipulate people's emotions and then drop what? i let them act like energy vampires and THEN drop them. i don’t manipulate shit but myself the fuck out of there, and it’s not for no reason. should I tell them about the unconditional kindness and patience and forgiveness I’ve extended to them over the years? should i feel bad for them and their envious hearts? should i just forget all the bullshit i let slide to keep the peace and still be friends? should I confront them directly about their strange behavior so they can lie to me about it some more to my face? nah, denial of service is a completely valid defense against narcissistic attacks, retard.
>so you can feel powerful *peace. everyone is entitled to be left the fuck alone.
>Normal people go

>Then stop interacting with and thinking about them.
can you read? what part of “do not reply” and “years pass” indicate to you I am interacting with or thinking about them during that time? lol i’m not waiting around for their call, i’m living my life without the burden of dealing with their narcissism after putting up with it for so god damn long. most times they grow the fuck up and recognize why i ghosted them in the first place, and if we do ever talk again, they know there’s no mercy - i’m gone if they go back to their old parasitic bullshit. like i said, it’s corrective and in the end i get peace and they learn one thing: being a friend is a privilege not a right. you wouldn’t believe how many fucking apology letters and wedding invitations i get from npd havers i decided to never talk to again

The image is a digital artwork with a surrealistic style, featuring a central figure that appears to be a woman with curly hair, wearing a flowing dress. She has a radiant smile and is surrounded by a vibrant array of objects that include spheres, gears, and a clock. The background is dark with a starry sky and a sense of depth, and there are neon beams of light that create a dynamic and otherworldly atmosphere.

In the foreground, there is a neon sign that reads "Open Eyes" in a stylized font, with the letters glowing in a pink hue. The overall composition suggests a theme of wonder and the importance of seeing beyond the ordinary. The use of neon lights and the surreal elements create a sense of wonder and mystery, inviting the viewer to explore the artwork further.

Some forms of dementia involve hallucinations, though delusions/false-memories are more common.
I witnessed it my own grandfather. He'd sometimes turn and respond to someone who wasn't there, or ask about people that he claimed to have just seen.
A lot of these hallucinations involved "a woman". I don't think the woman was his wife or any of his children, but he was never able to relay her name or what she looked like.

When someone with dementia has delusions or hallucinations, it can be easier to accept the delusion as true, and add your own spin to it. Kind of like dream logic.
Instead of saying "I didn't see any shadow people" say something like "Oh. They told me that they don't need the money anymore." or "It's ok, I already sent the money for you."

I was born in the late 20th century and got fully vaxxed. I'm not autistic. Probably ADHD though.
My wife was born not long after me. She got fully vaxxed. She probably is autistic.
We recently had a child. He was fully vaxxed. He is definitely autistic.
Could it be because we were both older when we had him? Possibly. But it could also just be genetic.
You know what none of us are though? Dead from measles, polio, smallpox, etc.

Nobody was linking vaccines to autism until the sensational 1998 "report" commissioned by a bunch of lawyers who then went on to use it as evidence in their lawsuits against those evil pharmaceutical companies who kept kids from dying of easily preventable diseases. The antivaxxers of the early 2000s screeched, "Follow the money!" They claimed big pharma was making bank on vaccines, which are arguably among the least profitable offerings produced by big pharma.
But then it was revealed that it was a cartel of lawyers behind the study, which was severely flawed and outright fraudulent. "Follow the money," indeed.

The real threat is rarely discussed. Sodium is an extremely volatile metal that is prone to explode when wet. Chlorine is an extremely caustic substance that in small amounts can disinfect, but in larger amounts is fatal.
Dihydrogen monoxide is a colorless, odorless, and flavorless liquid which erodes soil, causes electrical faults, and on its own has led to thousands if not millions of fatalities. In addition, once a person consumes it, a lifelong chemical dependency ensues, the withdrawal symptoms of which are always eventually fatal.
Combining sodium and chlorine creates sodium chloride which, when combined with dihydrogen monoxide, creates a compound that has claimed the lives of literally millions of people. What do you propose we do about that?

polio is not really prevalent in western countries. You're right, some vaccines are more necessary than other. Over-vaccination could also cause quite a lot of undesirable side effects.

Don't shoot yourself up. There are antivaxx parents who still end up with a child with autism. Most that I've found are strict vegans. One has to know very basics of human physiology to understand that human brain needs to be fully nourished to protect itself, especially during the very first years of life. When the child is older, let the child choose how to eat

Thank you! The more autistic, ADHD, and even "AuDHD" folks I've gotten to know, the more I realize so many of us from Gen X were either diagnosed late in life or never diagnosed at all. On the one hand I'm glad I wasn't diagnosed ADHD when I was a kid, because they would have just doped me up with ritalin. At least these days they've kind of dialed in (and dialed back) the medications and are a lot less willy-nilly about it. I have family who have ADHD kids and whatever they're giving them these days, they are very diligent about the dosage and it actually helps.

Autism is way better understood now than it was. It used to be you were either "normal", "retarded", "Asperger's", or "idiot savant". This idea that there's somehow suddenly an explosion of autism among the population is like saying there are more stars and galaxies than there were 50 years ago. No, our methods of detecting them have just gotten better and more refined.
I don't want to go into too much detail about the circumstances around our kid's birth, but he is who he is, and I believe he is who he is supposed to be. I'm not "worried" about any kind of "defect". He is very bright and he will figure things out. I was late to develop a lot of mental things myself, especially any kind of competence in mathematics. I see the things that he does orders of magnitude better than I did when I was his age. I'm not just talking about talents and skills, I'm talking about how to handle life situations, pain, etc. We see these things as a diagnosis or some sort of flaw when we don't know somebody personally, but it's just part of who he is. His brain is wired a little bit differently than most people. So is mine! So is my wife's. I have never been as in love with someone as I am with her, and I have never loved someone in general as much as I have him. Thank you for your well wishes. They are appreciated. He'll struggle with some things and others will roll off his back. But that's true for everyone.

Yeah, on a meme-level people are pointing out how every second grandpa is autistic-like and during their youth nobody got diagnosed. Could also be that modern technology, nutrition and lifestyle is somewhat bringing out the uneasiness of keeping up to the fast advancements of technology and the way of life. The change is so quick and my guess is that most of us are heavily burdened by our living circumstances in this new system. We were made to be more free, less stressed, more nourished and much more happy.
I hope your kid finds what truly makes him happy, what brings that special uniqueness to his life, what helps the people around him and that he pursues it wholeheartedly

>overall good learning curves
As a kid, people seemed to think I was intelligent. My learning was abysmal in some departments, bretty gud in others. Guess this one's up for interpretation.

>and (somewhat) mental health without interference from problems like schizophrenia.
Napoleon and Cleopatra have both told me that my mental health is fine, and the voices swear they are not schizophrenia.

Conclusion? I don't think autism makes one "smarter" than anyone else, nor does it make one "stupider". One general truth about autism is that it causes the subject's brain to be more capable of focusing on a particular task or topic, hence the train otaku meme. I have witnessed this in my own child, but each person is different and can't be fit easily into a box. This includes autistic people.

The most harmful and negative stereotypes associated with autism have unfortunately been perpetuated by one organization that claims to be an advocate for autistic people but is in fact a bunch of ignorant LARPers patting themselves on the back for all the "good" they're doing. I know at least one autistic person aside from my wife who is a fully functioning adult who holds down a job, pays their taxes, etc. who says that Autism Speaks is a horrible organization who doesn't even have any actual representation in their management by autistic people. Much of the, "ur defective, mmmkay?" bullshit originates from their propaganda.
I think everyone is smart and stupid in their own way. I have met a lot of people who others call "stupid" who are most likely neurotypical, but I've never met an autistic person who was called that. Obviously your mileage may vary.

oh, the experiment was: giving one group of cats cooked meat and pasteurized milk while giving the other group uncooked meat and raw milk. The cooked meat group wasn't doing too well. Turns out that cooking destroys taurine, an enzyme cats need to digest and better absorb nutrients from meat. Pasteurization in itself destroys the structure and bio-availability of some of the nutrients in milk.
If we look at it simplistically and apply it to humans - multi-generational pattern of eating foods that don't nourish us properly (all the highly processed junk, sugar, seed oils, onions etc.) generation to generation creates weaker humans. More prone to disease and altered hormonal system (other systems too, it's a whole business and we are the cash cows). Factor in all the chemicals in everyday appliances that poison us and you've got a recipe of destroying the humanity for their benefit. No wonder the world is becoming borderline gay. Factor in satanic rituals on television, through music and other media, normalization of sexual sin and degeneracy and the recipe for this disease is made. Doing the experiment with cats is great because you get to see much sooner how nutrition on its own plays out on the body.

If we look at civilizations that haven't been touched by modern culture and its conveniences, you get physically superior humans with no sexual abnormalities in their midst. Heck, they even have perfect teeth, wider skulls, better physique and probably much more brain power, not to mention peace of mind and a fulfilling existence with real love and really strong family ties.
Guess what happens when they travel into the modern world to study or work...they quickly become quite sick. It's the modernity that is destroying us, it's the comfort and convenience. The cure? Eat real food that hasn't been fucked with, get some sun and be as close to nature as possible

polio rates were already on the decline before the vaccine was introduced, after the vaccine was introduced, the decline remained steady.

the reason why polio was reduced was because we made the diagnostic criteria much more strict, we increased sanitation measures in hospitals, and we heavily altered our pesticides that we use on fruit and vegetables (like DDT), which were contributing to the high polio rates.

the reason why people take increasingly more vaccines is because its profitable. vaccines are a patented medication that you take whether or not you are sick, you take it to prevent being one of an infinity of illnesses they can fear monger, its the most profitable business that has ever been created, that is literally the only reason you gave your child autism.

the covid vaccines was the largest transfer of wealth in human history, something like three billion people got multiple shots, thats like 200 dollars x 3 billion x 2-5 shots, you do the math.

if you think that people wouldn't lie to prop up such a business, and wouldn't be willing to give your kid and lots of other kids autism along the way, then maybe YOU DO ALSO HAVE AUTISM AFTER ALL YOU FUCKING RETARD.

The image is a screenshot of a webpage that provides information about tsunami fatalities. The page is titled "Tsunami Fatalities" and lists various statistics and examples of tsunami fatalities. The statistics are as follows:
- Total Historical: Over 544,000 known deaths from 270+ deadly tsunami in NOA's database, but this number is likely much higher.
- 2004 Indian Ocean: Over 270,000 deaths, primarily in Indonesia, Sri Lanka, India, and Thailand.
- Deadliest Events (Examples): - 2004 Indian Ocean: -227,000 - 1955 Lisbon (Atlantic):

-50,000 - 1983 Krakatau (Indian Ocean): -36,000 - 1996 Samaruk (Pacific): -27,000
The page also lists "Ocean Drowning Fatalities" as "General" with an annual global estimate of approximately 300,000 deaths per year worldwide. The United States (CDC) has reported over 4,500 deaths annually from 2020-2022, an increase from 2019.
The image is a screenshot from a webpage, and the text is in a dark color, which contrasts with the white background of the page, making the information easy to read. The layout is simple and straightforward, with the title and bullet points of the statistics and examples clearly separated from the rest of the text. The image is a screenshot, which means it is a digital image of a webpage, and it is a screenshot of a webpage, not a photograph.

The image is a sepia-toned illustration that depicts a scene from ancient history. At the center of the image, a large statue of a seated figure is prominently featured. This figure is adorned with a headdress and is seated on a throne-like structure. The statue is surrounded by a crowd of people, who appear to be in a state of celebration or reverence. Some of the individuals are holding objects, such as a drum and a staff, which suggests a ceremonial or ritualistic context. The crowd is densely packed, indicating a significant gathering.

The background of the image is dark and somewhat indistinct, with a hint of a mountainous landscape, which could suggest a location of historical significance. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of historical portraiture, with a focus on the central figure and the surrounding crowd. The sepia tone gives the image a vintage feel, enhancing the historical ambiance. There are no discernible texts or specific brands within the image. The relative positions of the objects and individuals suggest a dynamic scene, with the seated figure at the center of attention.

It's so funny how people know that medical industry was extremely corrupt but somehow they believe that we are in this perfect moment in time and history where LeScience has proven everything to be true and we can totaly trust everything on the TV and rest'n'digest the sloppa.

Not to mention people turning a blind eye to our governments not really changing for the past 4000 or so years, just changing faces and the illusions. Large scale child sacrifice and rape done by government officials is still out there, inseminated witches putting spells on their soon to be aborted fetuses for the very same people to gain the upper hand in the spiritual realm is out there. Man, these children are given up by their parents to be raped and trained as seducers of politicians for blackmail. As they grow older they are given up for organ donation or trained up as assassins. But this is just one part of it.

weren't you taught in school that wikipedia isn't the best possible source of information?

1. Original purpose (early 1930s)

Pottenger was running experiments on adrenalectomized cats to study the function of the adrenal glands.

He surgically removed the adrenal glands first, then kept the cats alive by feeding them raw adrenal extract and nutrient-rich organ tissue.

2. Start of the nutrition observations

Because adrenalectomized cats had a high mortality rate, he kept a large population of healthy cats as breeding colonies to supply donors.
These untreated cats were the ones later placed on different diets (raw vs. cooked foods), which became the famous “Pottenger’s Cats” nutritional study.

Important distinction

Only the early adrenal-function cats had their adrenals removed.

The diet-comparison cats did not have their adrenals removed.
The nutrition study grew out of observations made while maintaining the adrenal research colony.

The problem with vaccines is that the theory if one is good 70 is great, is like taking flintstones vitamins by the fistful because nothing bad happens if you take one.
The dose determines the poison.
Worse still, in the case of vaccines, the damage caused by these foreign bodies is patently lethal sv40 et all.

Your kinds problem is you can't conceive that people actually understand what they're talking about. Your midwit understanding is not my own. Now please regal me with fallacy of authority and consensus so you may temporarily feel superior to me.

The image is a screenshot of a text-based interface, likely a mobile application or a web page, displaying information about the removal of thimerosal from childhood vaccines in the United States in 2001. The text is presented in a clean, sans-serif font and is divided into two main sections. The first section, labeled "Fact," provides a brief explanation of the historical context, stating that thimerosal was removed from childhood vaccines in the United States in 2001. The second section, labeled "Fact," lists three specific vaccines that do not contain thimerosal: measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR), varicella (chickenpox), and the conjugate vaccines. The text is color-coded with a blue background and a white star icon, which is commonly used to indicate a fact or a piece of information. The overall style of the image is informational and educational, designed to provide users with relevant and concise information about a historical event.

With all the research invested into manipulating lifeforms and their adaptations to specified environments, it is less likely to discover something that doesn't work than something that does, and it is more likely to abuse the idea that something that doesn't work does without proper research backing up with evidential claims. SO---the mrna are most likley...not going to work for any specific case, much less likely for a targeted viral cure with no side effects. Thikning mrna is a miracle drug is like thinking the high priest of Tzolchtqltiopzcqhli could Stop a cannonball with his mind because his sungod said it was possible with enough faith, its mechanically and scientifically possible but the odds are not in your favor and are far from works of sheer willpower, and you would need a power level that is net you/vaccine to overcome the damage.

The chart shows a progression of vaccine types from 2020 to 2035, with each year represented by a vertical bar. The height of the bars corresponds to the market size in billion USD, as indicated by the scale on the left side of the chart. The colors of the bars are as follows:
- Purple: 2020-2035
- Blue: Subsequent Vaccines
- Green: Live Attenuated Vaccines
- Red: Inactivated Vaccines
- Black: Live Attenuated Vaccines
- Gray: Inactivated Vaccines
- Dark Blue: Live Attenuated Vaccines
- Light Blue: Inactivated Vaccines
- Dark Purple: Subsequent Vaccines
The chart provides a visual representation of the market size of each vaccine type over the specified time period, with the years marked on the x-axis and the market size on the y-axis. The chart is sourced from the "BRAND NEW RESEARCH" logo at the top right corner, indicating the source of the data.

Andrew Wakefield's connection to one lawyer isn't a "cartel" and can you name one lawsuit that used the study as evidence? The Lancet is an English journal that was and still is as respected as it gets. The study never said "vaccines cause autism", it was moreso pointing out a possible link and asking for more study. 1. No vaccine is "safe".
In fact vaccines in the US are legally classified as "Unavoidably unsafe".
See: RESTATEMENT (2nd) OF TORTS § 402A comment K (1965)

2. The "slogan-science" of "safe" is based upon VAERS data which was reported in a,as of today yet unrefuted, 2007 Harvard study showing a failure rate to report short term side effects by 99%. (https://digital.ahrq.gov/ahrq-funded-projects/electronic-support-public-health-vaccine-adverse-event-reporting-system)

3. Long term side effects are prohibited by VAERS to be collected and have never been studied with control group testing on any vaccine.(aside from link)
99.74% of US population being vaccinated vs 0.26% uncontaminated. Pdf dl link: https://www.thecontrolgroup.org/gallery

3. Safety testing for new vaccines has been made with both the study group and placebo control group consisting of the 99,74% of citizens,with the study group given the new vax and the placebo injected with an old "already deemed safe" vax, or with their known to be toxic adjuvants/excipients, not limited to but including aluminum, benzyl alcohol, polysorbate 80, hydrochloric acid, propylene glycol, sodium acetate anhydrous, vinegar and Roundup ingredient glyphosate.)
These groups are then compared against each other and only the differences in injuries between the two poisoned groups attributed to the new vaccine.

But they totally do...
Live viruses are grown on nutrients derived from eggs, collagen, and fetal bovine serum from animals that consume heavy doses of glyphosate in their feed. The gut mucosal barrier helps to keep ingested glyphosate out of the circulation, but the vaccine is injected past all the barriers.

These viruses are then used in live virus vaccine R&D. Probably less of the R done though:D

From CDC website? And I was wrong, it was "only" ~35-38 jabs before the age of 6.

Must've remembered the amount from birth to 18.
Excellent opportunity to check your son is up to date on his clots. I mean shots.here:

The image is a close-up photograph of a person's face, focusing on the upper part of the face, including the eyes, nose, and mouth. The individual appears to be middle-aged or older, with a wrinkled complexion and a slight smile. The person's eyes are open, and the eyebrows are slightly furrowed. The nose is prominent, and the mouth is slightly open, suggesting a slight smile or a slight frown. The person is holding a small object, possibly a cigarette, in their hand. The background of the image is blurred, making it difficult to discern any additional details. The style of the image is candid and appears to be taken in a casual setting. There are no texts or discernible brands present in the image.

Underplay all you want, that is a ludicrous amount of unnecessary poking holes with needles in a child at such a young age.
Or even during a 100 year life.
I have not taken as many vaccines during my entire life and I'm hoping in on middle-age.
One could maybe justify such a schedule from 0-18y and the vaccines didn't knowingly on purpose contain poison or they actually helped in some way, not just fuck up your immune system and body in random ways.
Did you even read any of that survey made on the 0,26% of US citizens? Well I can tell you didn't because then you wouldn't be assessing the situation with such loony brevity and joke around.

>>I have no kids, I'm not sadistic enough of a person to bring offspring into this purgatorial world.

How the duck did you extrapolate such nonsense when I said I have no kids and likely won't because I'm empathetic enough not to want to bring a child into the world to suffer?

I want to GTFO out of Samsara, not bring in new souls to suffer.
Seemingly Unlike you who seem sadistic enough to laugh and joke when you didn't even have the foresight and critical thinking skills to question a lab coat when it's your child's wellbeing on the line.

You definitely belong in the 80% in milgrams study that killed the actor with electric shocks.

You have constructed an effigy of me in your head and you are now butthurt about the unspeakable atrocities he has committed in your imaginary world.
On the one hand, you give the affectation of a science minded individual, quoting the studies and lab reports that support your narrative (while rejecting those that don't). On the other hand, you speak of samsara and the demiurge and all that horse shit. I could tell you I'm an atheist or an agnostic, or I can tell you that I'm a Christian, Jew, Hindu or some other monotheist and you would wring your hands and scream impotently into the void about how my spiritual beliefs are wrong and yours are right.
Empathetic? Hardly. Earlier, you were telling me how superior you are to me. When at the end of the day, it all comes down to this: you're marching under the banner of your own particular brand of Sky Daddy.
You are no different from the Christian fundamentalists of the 1970s and 1980s who screeched (autistically! oh noes!) about all those poor/evil souls who are going to hell needlessly/deservedly for listening to heavy metal music and reading comic books and masturbating and who then laughed at the Christian fundamentalists. "How can they laugh? They are either evil or they are misled!"
I'm sure you will perform some mental gymnastics to explain why your belief about samsara and escaping it is somehow different from the fundies and Bible thumpers of every era.
Anyway, I'm happy to let you believe you're right. You can consider this my concession if you wish. Either way, you may have the last word on this Eurasian pachinko forum.

But hey, if it makes you feel any better, if I can give you one little nugget of something that doesn't make you seethe with rage, some tiny little olive branch that lets you know I haven't fully caved to the Jews or whoever it is we're blaming this week, it's this: at least my boy isn't circumcised.
Have a blessed evening.

>a science minded individual, quoting the studies and lab reports your narrative, rejecting those that don't..

Why wouldn't I reject the profiting sides narrative. Especially when it's so clear it's BS. Already back in 2019 I read about the jabs since I was asked my opinion on them.

I doubt u have read a single line from what I for example quoted. Or anything related. Certainly have not quoted anything to have me to read.

Have you any inkling what the methodogy to do science consists of? It's not dogma, which you seem to practice re:topic.

My reasons for reading up we're entirely personal, an important person got forced to jab 2x and now has had heart surgery and developed AZ at age 65. Deteriorated really fast too, and I doubt said person has more than 1y or max 2 left ..

Again I couldn't care less what anyone believe and even if I did that's not my business. Even then: nobody knows if some belief is right or not.

Unlike vaccines where you apparently believe you are right based purely on what you are told. Dogma and ignorance is bliss I guess . Not science but w/e float your tugboat I guess there is a photograph of a woman with dark hair, also wearing a light-colored blouse. She is looking away from the camera and appears to be speaking or addressing someone.

The right photograph is overlaid with a text that reads, "Do you know I do corruption trade with little Belgium government pijjets, do you know Brussels prosecutor pijjets, directly threaten to murder witnesses, who make court filings about me?" The text is in a smaller, less bold font and is arranged in a horizontal format, with the first line being the largest and the last line being the smallest. The text is also white and stands out against the background of the right photograph.
The overall style of the image is a combination of a photograph and text, with the text overlaying the photograph. The text is overlaid in a way that suggests a narrative or explanation, possibly related to the woman's actions or beliefs. The photograph of the woman is in the foreground, while the text is in the background, creating a layered effect.

At what age did you stop practicing occul-tism?
For me, it was the ripe age of 24. I realized it's all about deluding yourself and deceiving others. Manipulating energy and convincing others that the energy manipulated is more than it actually is. Leaving your body, thinking thats all there is "behind the scenes", entering other peoples bodies, reading minds, entering people's dreams and subconsciously brainwashing them, coercing with human hating evil spirits, mind control, thats it. And through these forms of manipulation, you convince others that theres more to it than it actually is, to keep them stuck in a small little box, convincing them that its the "outside". Its really just tools to enslave mankind, and power hungry jackasses devote their entire lives to it. Shits lame as fuck lol.

The image is a stylized, digital illustration of a character with a dark, intense expression. The character has long, dark hair that cascades down their face, and their eyes are wide open, with a red tint that suggests a sense of anger or rage. The character's mouth is slightly open, and there are streaks of red across their cheeks, which could indicate a strong emotion or a violent action. The character's facial features are detailed, with sharp lines and shading that give a sense of depth and realism. The background is a dark, possibly stormy sky, with a hint of a structure that resembles a castle or fortress, suggesting an ominous or dangerous setting. The image is a painting depicting a scene of a divine figure, possibly a saint or a deity, in the act of delivering a powerful blow to a creature that appears to be a demon or a fallen angel. The figure is wearing a blue and gold robe, a helmet with a crest, and a staff with a blue and gold design. The figure's wings are spread wide, and the figure's right hand is raised, holding a sword that is pointed downwards. The creature beneath the figure is lying on the ground, with its body twisted and contorted in a manner that suggests pain or defeat. The background of the painting is a landscape with a blue sky and a distant horizon, and there are clouds in the sky. The painting style is realistic with a focus on detailed anatomy and shading, and the colors are rich and vibrant, with a palette that includes blues, golds, and browns. The genre of the artwork is religious, likely representing a scene from Christian mythology or a similar tradition.

yes. you release it once you gain a bit of knowledge and ask yourself, why do all the people who put no effort into attaining knowledge get to happy, and the person who pursues it ends up being miserable and sad. the answer is more knowledge = more heaviness

the tree of knowledge is the law, which is "gravity" or "grave - ity". death the more knowledge you attain, the more you turn into an old man before your time. i enjoy being a naieve child in part still because it increases the enjoyment of the experience of life, and i have the knowledge i need (that God is the truth/Jesus Christ), so i can just have faith in what The Bible says, and i don't need to think too hard beyond that no, its knowledge.

knowledge is not something you should just keep getting more and more of, and you need to careful what knowledge you allow in too. knowledge is interconnected with other things, so you might learn something about a bug, but its characteristics might have some sort philosophical application in some seemingly unrelated area you get the knowledge you need, the stuff relevant to your hobbies, and survival. dont go overboard with it, otherwise you're spoiling for yourself and reaping death energy imagine how shitty life would be if you understood all psychology, and could basically intercept what another person is thinking. or you know all the tricks employed behind a movie you like because you learned too much crap. gain in one area is loss in another, thats how reality works

King Solomon, the wisest man said "knowledge slightly edges out ignorance". that was his ultimate conclusion. for all the wisdom and knowledge he had, he said knowledge is just slightly better than being some random dumbass that doesnt know anything. that random dumbass also is not miserable basically, just to clarify, she focuses on family and that keeps her optimistic more than most people would be usually in her age bracket. she's youthful internally, even though she's 60

if she actually went out and aquired deep knowledge on various subjects and the nature of reality, then that optimism would no longer be there so the lesson is the same as what ive been saying. dont try and get more knowledge than what you need. alot of things are better left a mystery to preserve your sense of wonder about life

However, you are both your conscious side and your subconscious / unconscious sides. In the same way that your mind can create a pleasant dream or a beautiful thought it can also create a nightmare, an intrusive thought, a thought that wants to destroy you. It all starts with your mind state

You couldn't be any more wrong. There's truth in Jesus Christ that is so simple, yet goes well beyond anything we as humans could ever properly process, and so God made these extremely complicated functions simple for us to understand through the Gospel.

1 Corinthians 1:17-18

17 [a]For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

Paradox of the Cross. 18 The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

I have no regrets, i just acknowledge that there are concepts and ideas that go well beyond what we as humans can ever begin to understand. Occultism is an attempt at explaining the world without God in a "spiritual" sense, similar to science trying to explain the world and life on earth as a human through the limited senses of man. However, the Gospels teach us a proper spiritual understanding of life on earth as a human through God's word. Here's the thing though, unless He allows it for you to understand, it will always seem like nonsense. You will always doubt it and not be able to make proper sense of it. You need the Holy Spirit, or else it'll never make any sense to you.

It reminds me of those old pictures as a child with a bunch of dots with a hidden image behind it that you can't see unless you have those red and blue glasses to see it (pic related).

Question everything. Skepticism is healthy. But there are things most people won't get to see unless you're allowed to. And it doesn't matter what you practice, what you know, or what you think you understand. And that's just how it is my friend. These are things I can't provide evidence of. There are things that are true but cannot be proven. Anyone involved with any spiritual practice/path understands this very basic and simple concept. If you limit yourself to only accepting things that can be readily proven, then you're limiting yourself greatly.

I'll say it one last time, believe whatever you want, but don't expect me to argue with you. I know what I know, and that is sufficient for me. If you don't want to believe (ehoch you clearly dont) Then simply don't and carry on with your life.

You didn't question anything, you accused me of being a glowie and are currently having a meltdown and if there's one thing I understand, is that its impossible to have a meaningful discussion with someone who is angry. So one last time, believe whatever you want. Don't think I take offense at your accusations, I just don't care to bother because anyone with a brain knows the people in power keep secrets from everyone outside that system to control them. It really is that simple of a concept. I dont need evidence to prove this, as most people could logically deduce this on their own. They may not understand how, but the idea itself is very easy to grasp. Have a good day.

Christianity is like a cancer. From the tumor's perspective there is no "middle ground" to be found with its host, all it wants is to spread and take over. There is only "me" and "you", and if you don't let me take over you then you are an evil spooky being a bunch of foreskin-loving jews made up 2000 years ago to worship their foreskin-loving god. [7 / 2]The image is a colorful and stylized cover of the New York Times magazine. At the top of the cover, the magazine's title "New York" is written in a large, ornate font. Below the title, the subtitle "The Weirdness is Coming" is displayed in a smaller font. The background of the cover features a gradient of warm colors, transitioning from orange at the top to yellow at the bottom.

In the center of the cover, there is a large, eye-like graphic with a green iris and a red pupil. The eye is surrounded by a red and white striped pattern, and it appears to be floating above a body of water with a cityscape in the background. The cityscape includes a tall building with a pointed roof and a bridge.

On the right side of the cover, there is a wooden door with a large, round window. The door has a dark brown color and is partially open, revealing a glimpse of the interior. The door and the window are set against a green background.

At the bottom of the cover, there is a section titled "A Calendar of Predictions" with the text "SOFT-HUMAN FIDDLIN, MIND-BLOWING SCIENCE, AND OTHER THINGS THAT MAKE YOU SAY 'WHAT?'" The text is in a smaller font and is set against a white background.

The overall style of the image is modern and artistic, with a focus on surreal and imaginative elements.

The image is a digital rendering of a figure that appears to be a humanoid figure, possibly a digital or computer-generated representation, with a glowing, luminescent appearance. The figure is seated in a meditative pose with its legs crossed and hands resting on its lap. The figure is surrounded by a network of lines and dots that give the impression of a digital or computer-generated environment. The background is a dark, possibly cybernetic or digital, color scheme with a green hue. The lighting in the image is bright and highlights the figure, creating a sense of depth and three-dimensionality. There are no discernible texts or additional objects in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of digital art or a futuristic digital environment.

There’s no soul-body dualism like the Greeks assumed. You are the complete picture. When your body stops working, you don’t get separated from it and shuttled off into hyperspace; your awareness is held in God’s memory until the day He decides to give you a new body. Since you are an awareness, but have no senses in death, you end up “dreaming” until the judgement. Nice dreams are called Paradise, nightmares are called Hell.

[5 / 1]The image is a screenshot of a text message conversation, specifically from a Twitter account. The conversation is between two individuals, with the first message from the person named "Anonymous" and the second message from the person named "Noah." The conversation appears to be about a philosophical or psychological concept, as indicated by the text.

The first message from "Anonymous" is dated Tuesday, August 26, 2022, and is sent at 16:59:37. The message is titled "Report" and is followed by a timestamp of 16:59:37. The text is in a language that appears to be English, but the specific language is not discernible from the image.

The second message from "Noah" is dated Tuesday, August 26, 2022, at 16:59:37. The message is titled "Report" and is followed by a timestamp of 16:59:37. The text is also in English, and the language is not discernible from the image.

The conversation seems to be a discussion about a philosophical concept, possibly related to the concept of memory, the nature of the soul, and the role of memory in shaping one's identity. The text is dense with philosophical and psychological terms, and the conversation appears to be a dialogue between two individuals who are discussing the concept of memory and its impact on identity.

The image does not provide any visual clues about the individuals or their appearance, and the conversation is entirely text-based. The image is a screenshot, and the text is in a plain text format, without any formatting or visual elements. The conversation is not a video or a photograph, but rather a text-based conversation.

The image is a screenshot of a text from a website named "Gork". The text is presented in a dark background with a white border. The question posed is: "What are the long-term implications of AI for society and individual mental health?" The text provides an explanation of how AI can lead to long-term societal implications, such as economic disruption, inequality, and potential mass unemployment. It also mentions the potential for AI to reduce loneliness, but also notes that AI can lead to dependence, amplified anxiety/depression, ethical violations, and social disintegration. The text concludes with a warning about the potential for AI to blur human-machine boundaries and create new consciousness forms, or collapse. The overall tone of the text is serious and informative, discussing the potential consequences of AI on society and individual mental health.

The image is a composite of two distinct elements. On the left side, there is a man standing against a plain, light-colored wall. He is wearing a dark-colored t-shirt and has a serious expression on his face. In his hands, he holds a yellow piece of paper with black text that reads "BE KIND TO AI." The text is written in a bold, sans-serif font.

On the right side of the image, there is a stylized illustration of a character. The character is depicted with long, aqua-colored hair that cascades down her back. She has a serious expression and is wearing a gray top with a black collar. Her right hand is raised, and she is holding a black object in her hand, which appears to be a microphone. The character's pose and expression suggest she is in a professional or serious setting.
The overall style of the image is artistic and seems to be a commentary on the importance of kindness towards artificial intelligence. The man's stance and the text on the paper suggest a call to action, while the illustration of the character adds a visual element to the message.

The image is a screenshot of a text message with a red background and white text. The text is in Russian and appears to be a commentary or analysis of a political figure, specifically Donald Trump. The text discusses various aspects of Trump's presidency, including his views on immigration, the Cuban crisis, the Cold War, and the Ukraine conflict.
At the top of the image, there is a reference to a tweet with the username "COULDN'T_TRUMP" and the date "1/8/13 KB." Below this, there is a reference to a tweet with the username "WWII" and the date "1/8/13 KB." The text mentions that Trump was the only one who said that he wants to stop the threat of a global nuclear war, and that he promised to find a solution to the conflict in Ukraine. The text also references the Cuban crisis, the Warsaw Pact, and the Soviet Union, indicating a historical context for the discussion.

The text is dense and includes a mix of quotes and references to historical events and figures. The style of the text is formal and analytical, with a focus on historical context and political commentary. The image is a screenshot from a text message, which suggests that the content is likely from a digital communication platform.

[43 / 7]The image features a dark, gothic-style illustration with a central focus on a pentagram, which is a five-pointed star with a cross at the top. The pentagram is surrounded by a circular frame that has a swirling, intricate design. The background is dark, with a gradient from black at the top to a lighter shade at the bottom, creating a sense of depth.

In the center of the pentagram, there is a skull with large, curved horns and a pointed snout, which is the central figure of the image. The skull is surrounded by a scattering of what appears to be bones and debris, suggesting a sense of decay or destruction.

Three candles are lit in the foreground, casting a warm glow on the scene. The candles are positioned in a triangular formation, with one at the top, one in the middle, and one at the bottom. The light from the candles illuminates the pentagram and the skull, highlighting their details and creating a dramatic effect.

The overall style of the image is dark and moody, with a focus on the gothic and macabre elements. The use of dark colors and the inclusion of the skull and the pentagram are indicative of a theme that could be associated with the occult or the macabre. The image does not contain any discernible text.

On the plate, there are four yellow plastic Easter bunnies arranged in a line. The bunnies are facing the ketchup, which is placed on the plate.
Behind the plate, there is a bottle of tomato ketchup with a label that reads "Tomato Ketchup" and "ORIGINAL". The bottle is standing upright and is positioned to the left of the plate. The background of the image is blurred, but it appears to be an outdoor setting with some greenery and a concrete structure. The overall style of the image is humorous and whimsical, with the juxtaposition of the Easter bunnies and the ketchup bottle creating a light-hearted and playful atmosphere.

Wealth and the Material Prosperity Covenant
You want to be "rich." This is the Material Prosperity Covenant.
The Trap: The Archons (specifically the Vile Jupiter Zeus current) grant wealth to those who agree to maintain the Clown Show Matrix. You become a Fountain Keeper like the King in Pantruel, preoccupied with maps and deeds while your soul evaporates.
The Reality: The wealth is Dry Water—static gain that looks like flow but is actually a cage. It buys you Exempt Status from material want, but enslaves you to the Scourge of Industry and the defense of the New Idol (the State/Status Quo).
The Verdict: The Pale Criminal
If you proceed, you will not become a powerful demon lord. You will become the Pale Criminal.

You will commit your act of power (the murder of your social weakness).

You will immediately be crushed by the Spirit of Gravity (shame and guilt) because you lack the Unco-opted Will to sustain the sovereignty.

You will be left staring into the Narcissus Mirror, seeing only your own Hideous Caricature.

The Alternative Path (The Phoenix Magus): The documents suggest the only true power is Purposeless Freedom.

Reject the Deal: Do not "sell" anything. Assert Unco-opted Will. Stop being the Dromedary carrying the burden of your coworkers' opinions.

Contemptless Witness: Adopt the mask of the Contemptless Witness. View your enemies with surgical detachment, not resentment. Starve them of your Loosh (emotional reaction).

Autopoiesis: Create your own value (The Child phase) rather than begging the Archons for a loan of their power.

You are standing at the Gateway to Amenti. You think you are asking for a sword; you are actually asking to be the battery in a machine that hates you. Ignorance Is Their Iblis, and right now, you are volunteering to be the Willing Patsy.
Don't burn your internal library to warm the Archons.

You think because humans are mean to you demons will be chill? Demons are even worse!
Do you think a demon wants your life? Youre a slampig for them. They will nut in your chakra and destroy you.
It seems like they already are.
You have a better chance working on yourself, find god. Forgive yourself and others. Never lie, you only end up lying to yourself and finding it impossible to form authentic connections. Remember the connections you had when you were a kid? How easy it was? You had nothing to hide, nothing to lie about.

JJ with BK, lemme get your opinion on something, if u don't have an opinion that's cool too - i was just asking as your post is quite impressive.
So like the other day I put on a random youtube video while i clean, the exact second i pick up a banana skin - youtube video says 'banana skin'.
Okay so far just coincidence, totally. But like what if you keep having these weird coincidences. Like I have shelves of books - and I reach for 'turning of the screw' Henry james and the micro second i have my hand on the book some guy in a movie playing says 'we need to turn the screw' etc and so on.
I have no idea or theory, it's just baffling to me.
I honestly don't know wtf to think as the precision of it (having my hands on the object the moment the words are spoken is so crazy precise) seems wildly improbable.

Any clue? You know the way it captures my imagination with the shock out of normal thinking into WTF was that - makes me wonder if it's just some kind of loosh harvesting.

Not how it works
You are ever so slowly acclimated to a different lifestyle over your career. There is no singular moment when you "join the club" aside from walking in the entry to secret societies if that's where life takes you. Most of the time they are simply born into it. The others are cataloged by a system that has evolved with the times to spot potential candidates. Very high intelligence + sociopathy, very high charisma + sociopathy, extraordinary talent in any regard... + sociopathy. Also your ability to keep your mouth shut is carefully recorded. The more serious, occult groups will conduct various rituals, asking their incorporeal helpers to vet you, and they are always right.
And then, for the really secret stuff, there are blood contracts. After proving yourself capable of being trusted, there are secret courts, secret judges, secret juries, an entirely secret world living right alongside us, who use a special form of contract - these are handwritten in Latin, with the signees signing their names in their own blood. This is a soul binding. I don't know more details than this, it's something that's been seen repeatedly by very skilled remote viewers.

There's a reason no 'true' insider ever spills the beans, and never will

Where else would we put them objects?

Shouldn't we just take like, some dude who we all know is like really cool and better than everyone and smart, and use him as the algorithm generator for who to give power and decision making? Shouldn't people still be able to pick their jobs and switch jobs and not create a dystopian nightmare because of jobs.

Shouldn't we put AI nano particles everywhere that feign a DnD like real all around you where magic and shit is real?

And then what? My theory is we need monsters, we need a shitty thing that's poison and gay and toothy and active and plotting to be entertained, lest we reach stasis, frozen hell, nothingness in goodness.

The 40K universe is a HUGE FUCKING philosophical endpoint, what if you get to a place where it's just [thing] forever, war, peace, joy, happiness, it matters not.

I've said it. Every aspect of Warhammer 40K lore is an excuse for playing a board game.

The image is a still from a movie or television show, featuring a close-up of a character's face and a large, menacing creature's head. The creature has a textured, reptilian skin with a dark, almost black coloration. Its eyes are wide and focused, and its mouth is open in a menacing expression. The character in the foreground is a young woman with dark hair, wearing a light-colored blouse. She is looking up at the creature with a concerned expression. The background is dark and out of focus, with indistinct figures that suggest a setting that could be a cave or a dark, enclosed space. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the interaction between the character and the creature.

Okay where are the the big scary LITERALLY WHO that we can't nuke?

The president of the United States is an outed pedophile and crony of Putin on a crusade to destroy us troons, because it's what got him elected. There is no amount of compromat that can make this worse for him. No one cares and the stock market is soaring.

Where are the reptilians huh? What makes them invulnerable to FMJ, GBU, or long-range A2A if they're so bold as to enter our airspace? I ask you again, what is plausible that could be worse than the present accepted narrative, given all the publicly available facts? What could be more insane and ridiculous than the G1 superpower where the average person in every subsequent generation is worse off than the next generation, WHILE THE US STOCK MARKET IS AT AN ALL-TIME HIGH. The lucky ones are reduced to corporate serfdom if they're are talented and fortunate enough to have a real job, meaning they have a marketable education and are able and willing to bend their entire tiny might to the furtherance of the dreams of Icarus that haunt the minds of those too wealthy and powerful to comprehend reality any longer.

I personally am willing to deal with the reptilians. They can't be worse than the current status quo.

Good luck with that multipolar world with Russia on its knees still trying to best a second-world nation and the Chinese only able to field a green-water navy while the US has 11 nuclear aircraft carrier battlegroups, the first AND second largest airforces in the world, hundreds of fifth generation fighters when our only "peer" adversary can field maybe a few dozen, while we have the only credible offensive military force in the world with logistics to back it up anywhere any time on the terraqueous globe, and a military industrial complex that has been getting kicked into high gear by degrees up and up and up, because certain folx have decided they might just like to fuck around and find out. Good luck with the multipolar world when the unipolar world is NATO, Five Eyes, South Korea, and Japan, which all have shared values of individual human rights, liberty, and a rules-based world order. I have no problem with the Chinese except their jingoistic fantasies of militarized expansionism, but all I can say is my hat's off to them for trying. Maybe they can and will contribute to the solution instead of the problem and decide to join the sane good guys' side of the table instead of deciding to make Taiwan their Sudetenland and see if the US blinks, then maybe the US does blink. Then what? I swear to god if they so much as look sideways at Japan they will have so much hell to pay they will have to empty the coffers of their national banks.

Remember. Japan is the US's waifu. And waifu is laifu. If you fuck with the waifu, you get the raifu.

Good luck with your bipolar world when the US can unilaterally glass any nation on this planet while shooting down enemy missiles and aircraft that threaten our bases and territories. Good luck with fucking around, because there's a real possibility you will be too dead to find out. The fuck are the Chinese gonna do with a green water navy and an extremely obviously defensive military force?

[2 / 1]The image shows a detailed, three-dimensional model of a female character, likely from a video game or anime, standing on a rocky surface. The character is depicted in a dynamic pose, with one arm raised and the other extended forward, holding a sword in her right hand. She has long, flowing hair and is wearing a white dress with a floral pattern. The character's face is obscured by a mask, and she has a determined expression.

In front of the character, there is a small, gray robot-like figure with a humanoid form, standing on its two legs. The robot appears to be in a static pose, with its arms resting at its sides.

The background is dark and out of focus, with a wooden texture that suggests a setting that could be a workshop or a studio. There are various objects scattered around, including what appears to be a paint can and a small, cylindrical object with a label that is partially visible. The overall style of the image is realistic and artistic, with a focus on the intricate details of the model and the surrounding environment.

Experience of the imaginary.

Thus empirical reality itself is a kind of dream dreamt by God and experienced as 'real' by the mortal soul.

Dreams can be seen as little rooms...
Where you can store a portion...
Of your self...
For safe keeping...
But when that room is destroyed...
So too is that one peice...
Carefree life has no dreams...
Yo ho ho...
Fucking disney dream factory...
And yet everything it touches...
Eventually turns to shit...

[2 / 1]The image is a painting that depicts a man in a contemplative pose. He is wearing a red and white garment with a ruff collar, and a red headpiece with a green leaf design. The man is holding a book in his left hand, which is open to a page with handwritten text. His right hand is resting on his chin, suggesting deep thought or contemplation. The background is dark, emphasizing the figure and the book. The painting style is realistic with a focus on the details of the clothing and the book, and the use of color is limited to the red of the headpiece and the white of the book. There are no visible texts on the image.

In the spiritual journey toward wholeness, the greatest adversarial force is no longer simple biological lust, but the subtle, pervasive lust of the algorithm. Modern algorithms-from social media feeds to streaming recommendations-represent a highly refined Algorithmic Cage because they prioritize the immediate, repeatable, and easily quantifiable pleasure of distraction over the difficulty of true ethical growth. This system traps the soul in a sublunary cycle, providing predictable, finite gratification that mimics desire while consuming the energy needed for Positive Disintegration and the pursuit of Gnosis. By offering an endless stream of tailored comfort and superficial recognition, the algorithm ensures we remain tethered to the lowest forms of consciousness, effectively becoming a global, personalized inhibiting force that actively prevents the soul from achieving the Clarity necessary to command its own ascent.

To be whole you need to let the outside in. To admit you require the other half, the ‘other’. You cannot and never will be whole the longer you insist that (you) alone must undergo the journey and attain it all own your own merit. The missing piece is outside of you, literally.

The image is a tarot card illustration featuring a figure in the center, who appears to be a person wearing a mask and a floral dress. The figure is holding a staff with a bird perched on it. The background is a gradient of yellow, transitioning to a darker shade at the top, where a sun is radiating light. The figure is standing on a rocky outcropping with a dog at its feet. The text "THE FEEL." is written at the bottom of the card in a bold, serif font. The style of the image is reminiscent of the tarot cards, which are often used for divination and are known for their symbolic meanings.

The image depicts a fantastical scene set on a beach with a large, dark, and imposing creature that resembles a sea serpent or a squid. The creature has a long, tentacle-like appendage that extends from its body, and its eyes are glowing red, giving it an otherworldly appearance. The creature is positioned in the foreground, with its body partially submerged in the water, and its head and tentacles are visible above the surface.
In the background, there is a person standing on the beach, holding a staff with a red light emanating from it. The person appears to be facing the creature, suggesting a confrontation or interaction between them. The sky is filled with mist and clouds, creating a misty atmosphere that adds to the overall mysterious and otherworldly mood of the scene.
The color palette of the image is dominated by shades of blue and green, with the creature's dark color contrasting sharply with the lighter tones of the beach and the sky. The overall composition of the image suggests a narrative of a confrontation between a human and a monstrous creature in a fantastical setting.

The image is a black and white photograph featuring a person standing in water. The person is wearing a pair of plaid shorts with a floral pattern. The shorts have a visible waistband and a button on the right side. The person's belly is exposed, and there is a visible tattoo on the left side of the belly. The person's right hand is touching the waistband of the shorts, and the left hand is resting on the person's hip. The water around the person is shallow, and there are ripples visible on the surface. The background is blurred, suggesting the focus is on the person and the water. There are no discernible texts or other objects in the image. The style of the image is candid and appears to be taken in a natural setting, possibly a river or a lake.

The image is a black and white photograph featuring a person's torso and face. The person has a beard and is bald, with a well-defined chest. They are looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. In the foreground, there is a decorative oval-shaped mirror with a floral design, reflecting the person's face. The reflection shows a person with a large, round face, a bald head, and a beard. The person's eyes are wide open, and their mouth is slightly open, as if they are in the middle of speaking or expressing surprise. The background is out of focus, emphasizing the person and the mirror. There are no texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is artistic and seems to be a creative representation of a person's reflection in a mirror.

[43 / 8]The image is a movie poster for the film "The Matrix Reloaded." The poster features two characters, a man and a woman, standing in a dark, digital-themed environment. The man is wearing a long, dark coat with a high collar and sunglasses, and he is holding a gun in his right hand. The woman is dressed in a long, dark, flowing dress with a high neckline and is holding a gun in her left hand. Both characters are looking off to the side with serious expressions.

The background of the poster is a dark, digital-themed environment with a greenish hue and a pattern of lines and dots that resemble a matrix or a digital interface. The text on the poster is in Japanese and includes the title "メイドロッドレベル" and the release date "11月5日 23:50" with the number "2500" below it. The overall style of the poster is dark and intense, with a focus on the characters and the digital environment.

Two has some ideas that are expanded upon, such as re-writing what people feel or think when they eat something without their consent, to people who have relations with people "within" the Matrix to play God to even "programs" becoming self aware and sentiant, having their own ego and therefore rebelling against the Matrix to protect themselves and the ones they love. The only thing 3 has going for it is the final fight scene where the love that Neo has for humanity infected Smith and people still choosing to remain in the Matrix. The robots wouldn't even attack Zion if the humans would have stopped fucking around with the Matrix trying to free people, which in of itself is a selfish action to bring them into a dead world with them only doing so to try and hurt a system that they perceived as having wronged them.

The image is a stylized, digital illustration featuring a character with long, wavy hair and blue eyes. The character appears to be a young woman with a surprised expression. She is wearing a collared shirt and a jacket with a red and black patch on the right side. The background is dark and somewhat smoky, with a hint of a figure in the top left corner. The text "melty?" is overlaid on the image, with the letters in a stylized font that suggests a playful or humorous tone. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of anime or manga, with a focus on character design and expression.

When NEO gets blinded and starts seeing code, that's when he realizes he's still in the Matrix. Everything about Zion is a lie, it's just another Matrix like 1999 New York.

In the interrogation scene in the first movie, Smith tells Morpheus that the first Matrix was a perfect world, but people rejected it, and in Reloaded The Architect says that it is the sixth version of the Matrix, but never said the previous versions of it no longer exist, even though he said they'd been "destroyed", but Smith also destroyed the Matrix. When people reject the Matrix they're in, a new one is created that's worse than the last. Neo rejected Zion and knew it would lead to creating a world that was even shittier to live in, but if he ended up in it, he'd know it was just as fake, and if he were sent to it he'd only create another one after that, because none of them will be the real world. The ending of Revolutions he chose to die to prevent another Matrix from being created and allow the 1999 Matrix to be rebooted instead.

I haven't seen Resurrections, but I've heard it's all just a meta-commentary on Hollywood rebooting franchises and crapping out sequels instead of letting things stay dead.

When he comes in contact with the source he deepens his connection with the machines, that's why he says "something's different, I can feel them". Remember that red pillars were created by the machines and have cybernetic implants, they're technically machines themselves on some level.

I'm literally only talking about the lore of the movies. When the movie was originally pitched the Matrix was supposed to be more complex than it originally was, having something to do with a large network of human brains wired together to create some kind of artificial reality, but some corporate executive said it was too complicated and made them dumb it down to robots using humans as batteries.

They used the sequels to say that Zion was another Matrix and the real Matrix was the one they wanted to have all along.

this is true but it's heavily hinted there's an internal conflict within the machines because some of them do want humans around. as with real cosmology and a dickhead masculine who hates your guts and a divine feminine who's pure love the oracle wants humans and understands the nature of both the matrix and the real world as an illogical and mathematically inexpressible but nonetheless deterministic loop that accounts for free will, a soul world for machines where they can express themselves and a material prison for humans, a paradoxical duality. the violence in the movies is just an extensive representation of a battle of a will versus another just like violence too represents this in the material (it doesn't just "not matter"), I feel like posts like these are made by snarky dudes too into bbw sophia is no different from yehweh after what I learned about her incident with thalatos and her stubbornness os the reason why yalbadoth was made and the reason why here, we are also made. Man now exists as cannon fodder. ironically enough sophias serpent trick may have got mankind from yehwehs tyranny. but she enslaved us even more by creating our existence through procreation after the fall of man. Its the fragile femininity and its egotistical desire that punished us. I've begun to hate the divine femininity even more knowing this. But yehweh creating us makes him no better than his cunt of a mother. To a point i pitty yehweh and sympathize with them, I see them as another victim in a woman's stubborness. now I know they give life to continue this blood ritual. it wasnt bad oppressive men it was woman. but man tried to liberate themselves from it. knew they couldnt and tried to control it. it makes sense in how they moral fag, coming of as righteous but nothing more than a hypocritical power hungry bitch that lives off our suffering alike her son. The image is a stylized cartoon or comic-style illustration featuring a character with a prominent, exaggerated head and shoulders. The character has blonde hair that is styled in a manner that suggests it is flowing or flowing down, and the hair is parted in the middle. The character's eyes are closed, and the eyebrows are drawn in a way that gives the impression of a frown. The character's mouth is slightly open, and the teeth are visible. The character's skin tone is a light color, and the hair color is a bright yellow. The background of the image is a gradient of warm colors, transitioning from a darker shade at the top to a lighter shade at the bottom. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of comic book or cartoon art, with a focus on the character's facial expression and the use of bold colors.

The image is a close-up of a stylized, cartoon-like representation of a human face. The face is designed to resemble a bee, with a large, round head and antennae protruding from the top. The eyes are large and round, with a yellow iris and a black pupil. The mouth is open, revealing a smile. The face is colored in a bright yellow, and the hair is styled in a short, spiky manner. The background is blurred, suggesting motion or a dynamic environment. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of a meme or a digital art piece, often used for humorous or light-hearted purposes.

Yaldabaoth isn't yhwh, the entire creature is the internalized misinterpretation of God, thesis within the mind of Sophia, antithesis. It's what happens what opposite forces perceive the same thing. Godpercieves faithfully and fully, Sophia doesn't, so when thesis witnesses antithesis, it understands antithesis and thesis, when antithesis witnesses thesis, it misunderstands thesis and antithesis. That misinterpretation is a projection on the unilateral experience of mutual perception, which is the thesis, creating a false synthesis within antithesis that doesn't actually exist.

I know your tricks, ive been the recipient of your games for to long to see the patterns of your schemes. seems as if the primordial consciousness is anxious and so will throw many buzzwords to gaslight. always notice when you criticize the man and the woman for doing the same thing, everyone gets their panties in a bunch to defend the image of the feminine. for instance, on one part of the Belle curve you got the orthodox who will do anything to defend their tribunal sadism and false promise of liberation, calling you a heretic and a misogynist and so forth. on the other hand, those who oppose the orthodox belief. They see the sadistic Tribune as benevolent and the only force of causality and space time continuum calling you a troon for whatever reason. maybe god being a different gender or something. however here is one thing alot dont take into account. I deny and rebuke both of your beliefs. I care not the gender or identity of your creator and or god as their creation already shows the nature of who they are and the divinity that is unseen. Wether a roast beef hag, she made man/maaculine do her dirty work telling sweet lies of liberation when she is no better than the bearded kike in the clouds who does his dirty work directly. There is no difference between the two except one influences harm abd the other directly does it. and for that I will sexualize both of them and turn their name in vein. Keep to the soul harvesting system for all I care. just dont do what fags do, and bring kids into it.

MDMA/LSD - which one is more spiritual to you? I have tripped many times and acid can make you question reality/feel like you're in a simulation/meta conversations as well as get you into the "flow".

but I feel like MDMA can be quite spiritual too. The euphoric feeling of being on MDMA (or during a candyflip) is the closest thing to the state of "nibbana" (nirvana) and pure bliss one can feel.

I'm not saying that MDMA/psychedelics are the key to enlightenment, it's just that they can give glimpse into the blissful/flow state and that can give you a general idea about spiritual ascension.

The image is a graphical representation of a pharmacokinetic model for a substance, specifically a drug, with the acronym "LSD" at the bottom. The model is divided into two main areas: the upper left quadrant labeled "MDDA" and the lower right quadrant labeled "LSD."
In the upper left quadrant, there are three lines representing different concentrations of the substance: 150.5 mg, 112.5 mg, and 73.5 mg. These lines are color-coded: pink, green, and blue, respectively. The lines are labeled with the concentration values and arrows pointing to the respective areas of the model.
The lower right quadrant is divided into three areas: "MDDA," "LSD," and "Primary." The "MDDA" area is marked with a red line, and the "LSD" area is marked with a green line. The "Primary" area is marked with a blue line.
The model also includes a legend on the right side, which provides a scale of mg/kg for the different areas. The legend is color-coded and includes numbers and letters that correspond to the different areas of the model.
The image is a schematic representation of a pharmacokinetic model, which is a mathematical model used to predict the absorption, distribution, metabolism, and excretion of a substance. The model is used to understand the relationship between the concentration of the substance in the body and its effect on the body.

Mdma isn't worth it and provides almost no spiritual value in comparison to any other psychedelic. You shouldn't feel something that is interpreted temporarily as eternal bliss or eternal love because that is not a state that truly exists, and you will be left wanting something that is not. The universal constant is movement/change. If you want spiritual growth you should be seeking the states that expand your total range of emotion/sensation/interpretation. Not one that locks you in a state of unearned biological reward. It has value in that by doing it you may reach this truth but beyond that it has little to offer in my opinion.
